Local Opinion Differs Whether Team Would Help or Hurt The Fight

By EVELYN CUNNINGHAM

of The NY Courier

The possibility of an "act," starring a Congressman and a comedian, may be whipped into a full-fledged production and put on the road in a dramatization that could be called "Let's Rock The Boat of Civil Rights."

Following an enthusiastic reception in a sort of "try-out" performance on 125th St. and 7th Ave., Congressman Adam Clayton Powell and Dick Gregory have both expressed more than a passing interest in waging a nation-wide civil rights fight on the same stage at the same time.

Gregory acknowledged the possibility in New York last week, saying that he "would really like to barnstorm with Congressman Powell, and intimated that the two had discussed it. An aide of the Congressman agreed that Powell had said he would welcome a tour with Gregory.

Help or Hurt Cause?

While there was difference of opinion as to whether the team could help or hurt the civil rights cause, it was generally conceded that they would attract attention to the issues. Rugged individuals, both men are adroit in their use of shock appeal. Right or wrong, both say what they think. Neither wastes much time on subtleties.

Gregory had a great deal to say last week about the shortcomings of the northern Negro. He had a little time on his hands after being fired from the Galaxy Club in Long Island where he was to have appeared for a week. The management of the club claimed that the comedian was late for work. Gregory charged that the management resented his decision to send his week's wages to Mississippi.

Gregory launched his blasts at northern Negroes at a regular meeting of the New York branch of the NAACP at Mother AME Zion Church. As an opener, he said, "I have to fight myself to keep from hating you northern Negroes."

"If the northern Negro was really upset about what's going on down south, those boys in Washington would be in a lot of trouble. It's frightening how this has pacified you."

"The southern Negro is going to break clean. Then he's going to be in position. Meantime, you ought to be helping him."

Not Ashamed

"The southern Negro is not ashamed of are of him. He's not bad-mouthing you. He's that although you've been voting for a hundred years still haven't been able to elect a Negro in the dominate."

"The white man has made you ashamed of blade and he's got the missile. You in the Negro have more discussion and get more excited than you do about the south in our own country."

"Why, when Kennedy met those Cuban Florida and talked about democracy and freedom have directed those same remarks right here."

Gregory brushed off criticism of Congress with a shrug. "Adam Clayton Powell is a politician. A politician will talk about anything. He's Kennedy's mother."

As for the NAACP, Gregory admonished offering so little support to the organization. "There are more Playboy Club members than there are NAACP. Frankly, the NAACP doesn't have enough members for me."

Meeting Picketed

The meeting was picketed by a nationalist claimed they were not picketing Gregory, but the sign read, "Gregory is our man!" probably in reaction to a Gregory attack on the NAACP.

As Gregory left the church, he joined the picketers. He took one of the signs for a moment and joked. "All right," he shouted, "the boss is here. You know." Then he added, more seriously, "No kid would you guys do if you woke up tomorrow and white people were gone?"

Later in the week, Congressman Powell was his brand of individualism. On WNBC-TV's "60 Minutes" program, he was answering criticism of his overseas trips at federal expense. "As long as they let me go, I will continue to do what everyone else does. I do not intend to do any more or less than other men."

"If you want the law changed, then Congress has to change it. But it's written into the law that the Negroes are available upon a letter from a committee. They have a special responsibility of being the equal of the white man in the House and in the Senate."

Asked "equal in evil as well as in good?"

APPEARANCE OF COMEDIAN
DICK GREGORY, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
RACIAL MATTERS

The "Roosevelt Torch" (a Roosevelt University student publication) of April 29, 1963, page 4, carried an article captioned, "New Civil Rights Group to Hear Gregory, RU Alums." This article reflects that "A mass meeting to mobilize Chicago churches, civic-groups, and labor organizations into an effective force for the promotion of equal rights for Negroes in the South ...." was to be held May 1, 1963, at the Baptist Tabernacle Church, 4130 South Indiana, Chicago, under the sponsorship of the newly-formed Provisional Committee for Free Elections Immediately in the South.

"The Worker" of April 28, 1963, carried an article on page 10 announcing this affair as a "Brutality Protest Meeting" and this article reflected that Reverend Ralph Hopkins and Reverend G. W. Hester of the Baptist Ministers Conference were initiators of the meeting and had issued the statement in this connection that "We shall arouse the people of the North until victory for the right to vote all over the South is won...."

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

Chicago T-1, Chicago T-2 and Chicago T-3, all of whom have furnished reliable information in the past, attended the mass meeting held May 1, 1963, at the Baptist Tabernacle Church, Chicago, during which meeting comedian Dick Gregory was the featured speaker. (C) (U)

These sources advised on May 2, 1963, that they had the impression that various clergymen had worked together to organize this mass meeting, ad hoc in nature, to help raise funds and to stimulate Northern interest in the struggle of Negroes in the South to register and vote. Expressions of non-violence and the non-communist character of this movement were stressed and emphasis was placed on securing, as Americans, their constitutional rights. President Kennedy was criticized for failure to use some kind of force to assist the Southern Negro in this movement, and parallels were drawn with the display of force which was made by the Federal Government in the recent Cuban crisis. (U) (C)

Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, was the featured speaker. In his comments, Gregory was particularly critical of Northern complacency in what he described as a war in which the Negro had no weapons. President Kennedy was criticized by him for failing to employ his office and power to solve the problem by withholding or threatening to withhold Federal funds to Southern states which refuse to give Negroes their constitutional rights. The Northern Negroes were criticized for failure to contribute funds and moral support to this cause.

He stated that the Southern Negroes are willing to fight even to the extent of losing their lives for this cause while the Northern Negroes sit idly by,

These sources reported that over 400 persons were in attendance of which about 100 were white persons. Approximately $700.00 was collected at this affair, the specific disposition of which was not mentioned; however, it was indicated it was to be used in the struggle to secure the vote for the Southern Negro. (U) (C)

Sources advised that approximately twelve known Communist Party (CP) members attended the mass meeting as spectators but did not take an active part at this meeting. Sources furnished no evidence of communist inception, control or influence at this affair, nor has information been received indicating formation of a permanent or continuing organization. (U) (C)

No investigation has been conducted concerning the captioned individual. However, the files of this Bureau reveal the following information. In August, 1962, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) stated that Dick Gregory, a comedian, was a sympathizer of the NOI.

The November 13, 1962, issue of "Muhammad Speaks," a publication of the NOI, contained a news item reporting that comedian Dick Gregory had joined white and Negro leaders in protesting the conviction of journalist William Worthy, sentenced to jail for visiting Cuba without the consent of the United States State Department. The article indicated that Gregory was scheduled to walk a picket line in front of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel protesting the granting of an award to Attorney General Kennedy for "advancing human freedom." In the opinion of the picketers, Attorney General Kennedy "failed on many occasions to act promptly, strongly, and decisively to safeguard and extend human freedom," and listed among the alleged failures was the "current harassment of William Worthy, Boston-born newspaperman."

Attached is a characterization of the NOI.

On 2-21-64, the Attorney General's secretary, [redacted] advised the Attorney General desired to contact Dick Gregory at Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Gregory is a well known Negro entertainer and comedian who has been active in Civil Rights sit-ins and other demonstrations. Gregory was arrested and later released on bail on 2-21-64 as a result of his participation in an attempt to integrate a restaurant in Pine Bluff and had apparently telephoned the Attorney General's office earlier regarding this situation. [redacted] was furnished a telephone number at Pine Bluff where Gregory could be located which was obtained from our Little Rock Office.

After telephonically contacting Gregory, the Attorney General specifically requested that Gregory be interviewed at Pine Bluff by our Agents in order to clarify this situation. In his conversation with the Attorney General, Gregory commented that conditions at the local jail in Pine Bluff were deplorable and that he had observed a white prisoner who had been placed in solitary confinement for several days without water. The above information was furnished to the SAC, Little Rock with instructions to interview Gregory, however, he was cautioned to insure this interview is conducted by two mature and experienced Agents in view of Gregory's reputation as an agitator and trouble maker. He was also instructed to insure that these Agents conduct the interview in a calm and business like manner to preclude any subsequent allegations by Gregory.

(RACIAL)
 PINE BLUFF, ARK.--NEGRO COMEDIAN DICK GREGORY SAID TODAY HE IS LEAVING PINE BLUFF TO KEEP THE CURRENT RACIAL TENSION FROM BEING EXPLOITED BY POLITICIANS.
 GREGORY'S ANNOUNCEMENT CAME SHORTLY AFTER REV. BEN GRINAGE, CHAIRMAN OF THE PINE BLUFF MOVEMENT, DECLARED A 72-HOUR MORATORIUM ON CIVIL RIGHTS DEMONSTRATIONS.

"WE DON'T WANT ANYONE TO USE THIS SITUATION AS A POLITICAL VEHICLE," GREGORY SAID.

ASKED IF HE WAS TALKING ABOUT ARKANSAS GOV. ORVAL FAUBUS, WHO CALLED THE SITUATION "RIOTIOUS" AND "THREATENING," GREGORY REPLIED: "AN OUTSIDER SHOULD NOT COME IN AND PUT THE FINGER ON WHO IT IS, BUT YOU KNOW WHO IT IS."

THE REV. MR. GRINAGE SAID THE MORATORIUM WAS DESIGNED TO RELIEVE TENSION IN THE CITY AND "LET THE RESPONSIBLE PEOPLE TAKE OVER."

HOWEVER, BOTH GREGORY AND THE MINISTER SAID THE DEMONSTRATIONS WOULD RESUME SHOULD RAY'S TRUCKER'S INN, WHERE GREGORY WAS ARRESTED EARLY MONDAY, REOPEN DURING THE MORATORIUM.

THE TWENTY-EIGHT DEMONSTRATORS REMAINING IN JAIL WERE RELEASED ON $500 BOND EACH TODAY. WILLIAM HANSEN, A WHITE INTEGRATION LEADER, WAS ALSO RELEASED AND PLANNED TO SEE A DOCTOR ABOUT ILLNESS HE SAID HE CONTACTED IN THE JAIL.

GREGORY FOUND LITTLE TO LAUGH AT IN THE JAIL AND ASKED ATTY. GEN. ROBERT KENNEDY TO INVESTIGATE. HE SAID FBI AGENTS LOOKED IT OVER LAST NIGHT, BUT DID NOT REVEAL ANY CONCLUSIONS.

"BUT SOMETHING WILL BE DONE," GREGORY SAID. "IT HAS BEEN CALLED TO THEIR ATTENTION AND THEY WILL MAKE A REPORT TO WASHINGTON. MAYBE JUST FROM THE STANDPOINT OF INTERESTED CITIZENS, SOMETHING WILL BE DONE."

Re: Dick Gregory,
Appearance at Annual Meeting,
Urban League of Flint, Michigan,
5/18/64

According to an article appearing in the May 19, 1964 edition of the "Flint Journal" newspaper, which serves an area covering an approximate population of 500,000 people, which article was written by Alan R. Wilhelm of the "Flint Journal" staff, the following information in part was reported:

Negro comedian Dick Gregory declared Monday night, speaking to more than 2,000 persons at the annual meeting of the Urban League of Flint, Michigan, that America is courting disaster by not heeding the voices in the streets and the lessons of history. He characterized himself as a soldier, not a general, in "America's greatest social revolution." He said, "We can lose America this summer" and the "greatest thing about this revolution is that it is not black against white, or white against black but right against wrong."

Gregory had harsh words for Negroes who benefit from the civil rights movement without mixing in it themselves. Among other targets of his verbal blasts were segregated churches and United States Senators. He said the senators are conducting a "stall-in" of their own on civil rights legislation..

On charges of Communist participation in the civil rights movement, Gregory said that if the FBI knows who they are, it should reveal their names and, "We'll get rid of them ourselves." Otherwise, he continued,

Re: Dick Gregory

"Communists are getting more protection than we are. If they couldn't keep Communists from stealing the A-Bomb and H-Bomb, how . . . are we going to stop them from buying a $2.50 membership," he asked.

He also said, "The white man asks us about the Black Muslims but we never ask him about the Ku Klux Klan.

"Martin Luther King said we should die without lifting a hand, and they called him a nigger and a Communist. We never hear Malcolm X (former Black Muslim spokesman) called anything but Malcolm X."

He asked why newspapers ran pictures of debris left after last summer's "march for jobs and freedom" in Washington, D. C., when, "they don't show the trash left from a Rose Bowl game."

Captioned individual sent a telegram from Chicago to the Director stating that the Director "created several major distortions" by his recent announcement that there were communists connected with the civil rights movement in America. He challenged the Director to identify the communists. He feels the release of the Director's statement, made January 29, 1964, was deliberately held up so it could be put out during the heat of the civil rights debate. He states that the Director by failing to identify the communists has cast a shadow on the sincere efforts of everyone working in the civil rights movement. He demands that the Director identify the communists or retract his statement.

Gregory is the well-known Negro entertainer and comedian who has been active in civil rights sit-ins and other demonstrations. He has come to the Bureau's attention on numerous occasions but has not been investigated by the Bureau.

Summary memo being prepared - 5/5/64

OBSERVATION:

This communication is strictly a protest. Gregory does not furnish an address and obviously does not expect an answer. He has been active in the integration movement and in view of his strong opinions, no rational explanation would satisfy him.

RECOMMENDATION:

That correspondent's communication not be dignified with a reply.

SUBJECT: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
ALSO KNOWN AS DICK GREGORY

BACKGROUND:

In connection with a United Press International wire release of May 8th in which comedian Dick Gregory challenged the Director to name the communists in the civil rights movement, Mr. Tolson has asked, "What do our files show on Dick Gregory?"

INFORMATION IN BUREAU FILES:

Dick Gregory was born on October 12, 1932, at St. Louis, Missouri. According to "Current Biography 1962" it was also revealed he was educated in the grammar schools in that city, spent two years in the U. S. Army and then returned to Southern Illinois University where he had been a track star. He dropped out of this institution in 1956 because of low grades. He drifted to Chicago where he worked for the U.S. Post Office but was fired for impersonating his colleagues and purposely misdirecting mail. After a series of odd jobs, some of them in the entertainment field, he finally became a success as a comedian in January, 1961, while working at the Chicago's Playboy Club. He mostly plays the night club circuit and is allegedly known as the "Negro Mort Sahl."

A name check was conducted for the Atomic Energy Commission in April, 1963, on Dick Gregory. That agency was informed that Gregory had never been the subject of an FBI investigation.

In August, 1962, an official of the Nation of Islam allegedly stated that Dick Gregory was a sympathizer of the NOI. (25-330971-6121)

The November 15, 1962, issue of "Muhammed Speaks," a publication of the NOI, contained a news item reporting that comedian Dick Gregory had joined white and Negro leaders in protesting the conviction of journalist William Worthy, sentenced to jail for visiting Cuba without the consent of the United States State Department. The article indicated that Gregory was scheduled to walk a picket line in front of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel protesting the granting of an award to Attorney General Kennedy for "advancing human freedom." In the opinion of the picketers, Attorney General Kennedy "failed on many occasions to act promptly, strongly, and decisively to safeguard and extend human freedom," and listed among the alleged failures was the "current harassment of William Worthy, Boston-born newspaperman." M. A. Jones to DeLoach Memo
RE: Richard Claxton Gregory

On 2-21-64, Attorney General Robert Kennedy, through his secretary, requested the Bureau to interview Dick Gregory who had been incarcerated with others from February 17 to 21, 1964, at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, in connection with an attempt to integrate a restaurant at Pine Bluff. Gregory had called the Attorney General and complained to him about conditions in the Pine Bluff jail. Gregory was subsequently interviewed and a signed statement taken dated 2-21-64 wherein he complained of a white prisoner who had allegedly been beaten by prison authorities. Gregory also complained an alleged brutality against himself in that he had been placed in solitary confinement, had no water in the cell and had nothing to drink for two days. He stated he was fed one sandwich a day. He also complained he had been unable to contact his lawyer. It developed that Gregory wanted to be imprisoned as the sheriff who arrested him noted that Gregory had sufficient funds to be released on bond and was encouraged to do so by the sheriff so the sheriff would not have to place him in jail. Copies of our reports were made available to the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice, the last one being 3-17-64. (44-24630)

Gregory was arrested by the Birmingham Police Department on 5-6-63 in connection with a racial demonstration. He made public accusations when he was subsequently released on 5-9-63 to the effect he had been beaten while confined to the Birmingham City Jail. The Chief Warden of the jail stated that Gregory was considered a "model prisoner." Gregory made no complaint of the food or of his treatment to any jail official while a prisoner. Representatives of the press who attended Gregory's press conference immediately after his release stated that they observed no injuries on his person and that Gregory had been confused when questioned concerning which arm he claimed was beaten. Airport attendants at Birmingham who observed Gregory departing on 5-9-63 stated he appeared physically normal in all respects; no injuries were noted and he was in jovial spirits. The United States Attorney at Birmingham expressed views that the facts of the civil rights case were without prosecutive merit. (44-22002)

There are numerous other references to Dick Gregory in Bureau files. However, they deal principally with his involvement in racial demonstrations. Many times it appears he purposely submits himself to arrest and jail, many times arriving on the scene of the disturbance after police have taken away initial demonstrators. His statements frequently suggest violence on the part of the demonstrators. In April, 1964, in a speech to approximately 450 attending racial demonstrations in Gary, Indiana, Gregory urged that if churches would not cooperate in making space available for "freedom day classes" racial demonstrators should "kick down the doors of the churches."

DICK GREGORY
MISC. - INFORMATION CONCERNING

Local press reports indicate that DICK GREGORY, a Negro comedian who is presently in Honolulu and is noted for his vitriolic comments concerning the Government, has been contending that he furnished the FBI information which led to the discovery of the three bodies of the civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss. An Associated Press dispatch datelined at Jackson, Miss., and carried in the "Honolulu Star-Bulletin" of Thursday, 8/6/64, stated that GREGORY also said he had given the FBI a tape recording containing names of the killers.

An individual by the name of [ ] of KUMU Radio, Honolulu, called this office 8/6/64 and indicated that NBC was in possession of a tape provided by comedian DICK GREGORY, and [ ] was endeavoring to decide whether or not it would be permissible to broadcast it.

[redacted], KONA-TV (Channel 2), NBC affiliate in Honolulu, on a confidential basis made available a tape recording which he said had been received by [redacted] and which reportedly had been given to NBC earlier on that date. It is not known whether the tape in possession of [redacted] is a dub of the tape referred to in the Associated Press dispatch, and it was not considered advisable to make any further inquiry concerning it. I am, however, for the information of the Jackson Office sending a dub of the tape to that office AMSD as an enclosure with this communication for whatever value it may possess.

The tape recording appears in substance to have been prepared by a [redacted] of the Civil Rights Information Service at Knoxville, Tenn., and purports to be an interview of one [redacted] who states he recently departed from Philadelphia, Miss., because of threats to his life from Sheriff RAINEY (phonetic). [redacted] contended there were three "nigger lovers" dead in the swamp and he would be the fourth. [redacted] stated that on the morning of June 22 he learned through his cousin, [redacted] (phonetic) that three civil rights workers were in jail. He subsequently learned that the Klan was boasting that Sheriff RAINEY and Deputies [redacted] had killed the men.

The tape indicates that [redacted] said that [redacted] (phonetic), a [redacted] was sent to investigate the killing of the three civil rights workers by the Governor of Mississippi and he warned [redacted] that he was to be killed. The voice which purported to be [redacted] stated that [redacted] said that in addition to the sheriff and two deputies, [redacted] (a Baptist minister), [redacted] were responsible for the killings.

b6
b7C

As to location of the bodies, the voice in the recording contended that [redacted] had declared "snakes were eating the bodies in the swamp."

b6
b7C

The voice on the recording also indicated that Chief of Police RAYFIELD of Jackson had made a statement before a public meeting to the effect that he had hired a Negro to kill [redacted]

The names in some instances on the tape are phonetic. It is not known whether this is a duplicate of a tape already in possession of the Jackson Office, and for that reason it is being sent to Jackson for whatever value it may possess.

Since GREGORY, an irresponsible-type individual, has been making reckless statements to the press, some of which concern the FBI, it is considered advisable to furnish a copy of this communication to the other offices listed herein, which have had some contact with GREGORY. GREGORY has been appearing at the Forbidden City, which is essentially a "striptease joint" in Honolulu, where he has reportedly been paid $14,000 for a 12-day stand, according to newspaper accounts. He is scheduled to depart shortly for the mainland.

No further action in this matter is contemplated by Honolulu.

SUBJECT: PROPOSED STALL-INS
NEW YORK CITY AREA
JULY, 1964;
PROPOSED BOYCOTT OF CALIFORNIA PRODUCTS
RACIAL MATTERS.

According to a Cincinnati source, Negro comedian Dick Gregory in a speech delivered at Dayton, Ohio, 6/14/64, reported a proposed repeat of "stall-in" threats with respect to automobiles in the New York City area in early July, 1964, as well as a possible national boycott of some California products if the California Referendum Vote on the state's Fair Housing Bill has not been removed from the ballot by August.

Gregory's remarks to racial groups in the past have been provocative, as in the Gary, Indiana, Freedom Schools demonstration at which time he alleged Negroes should kick down the doors of the churches if churches do not provide classroom space for the Freedom School.

ACTION:

Although Gregory's statements in the past have included exaggerations and distortions, the New York City Office and our offices in California have been instructed to determine through sources whether Gregory's remarks in this instance have any basis in fact.

ASAC [ ] San Francisco, called and talked to Kemper in my office. He said that Dick Gregory had just held another press conference and he said that Congress should investigate the FBI because he furnished them with information indicating the location of the bodies and had given the FBI a letter which stated the bodies would be five to eight miles West of Philadelphia, Mississippi, and they were found six miles South of the town. b6 b7C

Gregory further stated that President Johnson and the Governor of Mississippi knew who the individuals were that committed the murders and said that this information had been supplied to him by [ ]

Gregory said he did not trust the FBI because they work in great secrecy. He said if you wanted to see a fraud, go to the post office and look at the Ten Most Wanted Fugitives posters, that the subjects are purse snatchers and good humor men.

[ ] said that he got the results of the interview with Gregory from a contact at Radio Station KSOFO in San Francisco.

The August, 1964, issue of "Playboy" magazine contains an interview with controversial comedian Dick Gregory, who has recently made irresponsible and ridiculous claims of credit for the solution of the MIBURN case.

Instant interview deals with Gregory's outspoken and vigorous efforts in current civil rights activities. It is replete with examples of his characteristic "pop off" behavior and strongly suggests that he is personally convinced that Dick Gregory has all the answers and speaks for 20 million U. S. Negroes. There is no mention of the Director or the FBI in this interview.

[redacted] FBI employee, night shift, Teletype Unit, Files and Communications Division, telephoned Extra Duty Supervisor William C. Maupai from his home at 12:15 A.M. 9-1-64 and furnished the following information. He said that the Negro comedian, Dick Gregory, was talking about his trip to the south recently and jokingly referred to the FBI tapping his phone. He said it was good to know somebody was taking his messages while he was away from home. Subsequently in his comments he spoke of the three "freedom fighters" who were murdered and his own experiences in the south.

The above reference to the FBI was made in a jocular manner, not to be taken seriously. [redacted] wanted to advise that the comment was made and when [redacted] called the comments were finished.

Bureau indices disclose Gregory is the subject of file 100-440428, which reveals that he is unreliable, an agitator and a trouble maker. He has made defamatory and untruthful remarks about the Director and the FBI in the past.

The following information was furnished by Confidential informant, DE T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past.

Dick Gregory, Comedian, sponsored by Core and NAACP in Battle Creek, arrived in Battle Creek by plane approximately 3:15 P.M., on September 16, 1964, and held a brief press conference at the Holiday Inn. He discussed his own work and made no political or racial comment at this time.
Thereafter, about 4:30 P.M., he attended a reception in his honor at the Pacific Club in Kalamazoo, returning to Battle Creek thereafter.

The performance at the W. K. Kellogg Auditorium, Battle Creek, Michigan, which seats 2,441, was attended by approximately 1,050 persons of whom about one half were white.
It started at 8:00 P.M. There were large vacant areas in the audience on the ground floor and the balcony was sparsely occupied. Gregory delayed his appearance at the auditorium until approximately 9:20 P.M., and folk singer, Len Chandler, assisted by a small local band carried on alone until the 15 minute intermission at 9:05 P.M.

The Gregory program appeared rambling and unorganized.
He spoke rapidly with a microphone and was at times impossible to understand because of his style of delivery. He lampooned Senator Goldwater (for whom he expressed personal disfavor) and President Johnson, impartially. He commented several times that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had not made effective use of the information (letter and tapes) which he had furnished to it in the Philadelphia, Mississippi murder cases. He commented also that the lack of arrests in that case was undoubtedly due to political consideration on the part of President Johnson. He implied that the latter did not want to arrest law enforcement officers in Mississippi (whom Gregory believed guilty) because this might cause disorder and necessitate the use of Federal troops in an election year.

Gregory spent some time advertising his forthcoming (October 25, sales date) "Nigger" and his album of recordings with which he hopes to recoup $25,000.00 "reward money", borrowed by him from the publishers of "Playboy" magazine.

In a question and answer period following his performance, Gregory characterized the Harlem and Philadelphia riots as "protests", rather than unlawful violence, and urged his listeners to defy and oppose police, "who try to enforce bad laws". The audience generally appeared less receptive to Gregory than to the earlier performance of Len Chandler. There was no disorder following the program which ended about 10:35 P.M., and there was none at the reception at the Holliday Inn, Battle Creek, following the performance.

Lieutenant [redacted] Officer in Charge of the Night Shift, Battle Creek Police Department, stated at 11:30 P.M., September 16, 1964, that there had been no racial incidents reported anywhere in Battle Creek that evening and extra duty police officers had been released.

Performance of Comedian Dick Gregory and Company at Battle Creek, Michigan, for Benefit of CORE and NAACP,
September 16, 1964

On September 9, 1964, the "Enquirer & News", a Battle Creek, Michigan, newspaper, carried an article announcing that the local chapters of Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) and National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) are sponsoring a benefit show to be known as "Salute to Freedom" at the W.K. Kellogg Auditorium, Battle Creek, Michigan, on the evening of September 16, 1964. The featured performers will be Dick Gregory, nationally known Negro comedian, and Len Chandler, Negro folk singer. Both performers are known for their active role in the Civil Rights struggle as spokesmen for the Negro. Tickets are being sold at $2.50 each. Benefits to go principally to the local chapters of CORE and the NAACP.

On September 10, 1964, Chief of Police Earle B. Roberts, Battle Creek, Michigan, Police Department, advised that he has been in conference numerous times with [redacted] head of the local chapter of CORE, and [redacted] head of the local NAACP, regarding the above performance. [redacted] has advised Chief Roberts that no demonstrations or picketing by his organization or the co-sponsor NAACP are planned. [redacted] confirms this. mich

Mr. Gregory and his co-star are expected to arrive by airplane at Kalamazoo Airport, Kalamazoo, Michigan, at 6:00 a.m. on September 16, 1964. A luncheon in his honor will be given in Kalamazoo. He and Chandler will appear at the W.K. Kellogg Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. as scheduled and put on the show after which a reception for them and Battle Creek community leaders and CORE and NAACP officials is being held by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation in Battle Creek.

Re: Performance of Comedian Dick Gregory
and Company at Battle Creek, Michigan,
for Benefit of CORE and NAACP,
September 16, 1964

[ ] has advised that Dick Gregory recently announced that he is contributing 30 days of entertainment time from September 14, 1964, to October 14, 1964, in behalf of CORE and the Negro cause on a national basis. Local chapters of CORE were invited to submit applications and the Battle Creek chapter did so without much hope of acceptance because of the small number of CORE members (160 estimated) and the relatively small size of the city; however, their application was one of those accepted. Tickets have been moving fairly well in spite of a late start in advertising.

Chief Roberts states that he is naturally apprehensive in a gathering of this sort in that "outsiders" from other Michigan cities might come to Battle Creek to stir up some type of trouble. He said that he has received no positive indication locally from informants and sources available to him that activity is planned or anticipated, and he has been assured by [ ] that CORE has not advertised the performance outside of Battle Creek and Calhoun County. He stated that a couple of rumors to the effect that a disturbance might result have been carefully run down and resolved by his staff and found to come from irresponsible sources. Nevertheless, Chief Roberts plans to have adequate and courteous police officers on hand to cope with any foreseeable emergency.

On September 10, 1964, Mr. Clark Valentine, Negro City Commissioner, Battle Creek, advised that he has heard nothing to indicate that trouble of any kind is being planned by any Negro group in Battle Creek for September 16, 1964.

On September 11, 1964, confidential informant DE T-1, who is known to be reliable, advised that the only information he has heard was the remark in a Negro barber shop within the past few days that "kids" have been holding "secret meetings". The identities of these "kids" were unknown to informant but are believed by him to be a group of from 10 to 20 youths ranging in age from 16 to 19 who are principally known as "hotrodders". They have been meeting in Battle Creek during the summer months after roller skating on Thursday nights at a rink between Marshall and Battle Creek, Michigan. Their activity is not known to be linked to the appearance of Dick Gregory in Battle Creek, however, and no special plans for September 16, 1964, on their part are indicated.

On September 11, 1964, DE T-2, a confidential informant widely acquainted in the Negro community of Battle Creek who is believed reliable, advised that while there does exist a dissident group of young Negro males whose principal activity is driving around the Negro sections of Battle Creek at late hours, usually on Thursday night, inviting police to stop them for traffic violations, there is no indication that these persons are linked in any way to CORE or NAACP or that they plan any demonstration in Battle Creek on Wednesday, September 16, 1964, in connection with the appearance in the city of Dick Gregory.

The 2/11/63 issue of the "Press Scimitar," daily newspaper of Memphis, Tenn., reported that Dick Gregory, Negro comedian of Chicago, arrived in Memphis aboard a chartered plane on the above date. TENN. He claimed that local authorities had cut off Federal surplus food to Negroes in Clarksdale and Greenwood, Miss., because the Negroes were pushing a voter registration drive there. Gregory told a reporter he was asked to spearhead a drive to collect food in the Chicago area to send to Negroes in Mississippi. He was escorting 14,000 pounds of food stuff on the plane and claimed to have paid the charter bill from his own funds.

Gregory was met in Memphis by a group of Negroes from Clarksdale headed by Aaron Henry, President of the Mississippi NAACP. Gregory said the food would be distributed by members of the SNCC.

The above paper added that Reporter Bill E. Burk said that administrators of the Federal Commodity Program in Leflore and Sunflower Counties had said there was no truth to Gregory's charges.

On 8/19/63, AAG Burke Marshall advised he had been contacted by Dick Gregory who was then in jail in Chicago. Gregory said he had the gun which was used to murder Chicago Alderman Benjamin F. Immediately following the contact with [ ] the Chicago Office began receiving press inquiries which indicated Gregory's public relations man had contacted the press and told them about the gun being turned over to the FBI. It was indicated that Gregory had taken this action because the Chicago Police were too busy arresting Negroes to handle a murder. Gregory was eight days late in opening at the Crescendo, finally appearing on 8/24/63 after spending twelve days in a Chicago jail. He had traveled to Chicago in connection with certain demonstrations in that city, and the news article showed that he was jailed in Chicago on 8/12/63 because of his participation in an alleged civil rights demonstration. The article said he was given an option to sign a recognizance bond, bail first set at $15.00 then totally waived, but refused as a matter of principle because, "I was not guilty." His trial for Motion of Dismissal was held 8/23/63 in Chicago and a decision was to be made 9/10/63 on it. Gregory's writer, Jim Sanders, also was jailed with the comic and both planned to travel to Washington, DC to participate in the demonstration on 8/28/63.

The above column reported that at least half of Gregory's act "comprised a lengthy, direct, and frequently barbed commentary on his stay at Durance Vile. The rest was his usual 'comedic' material. As he opened, he told the customers, 'sorry I'm late'."

The article continued that Gregory was paid $5,000 weekly and promised to negotiate his contract to improve the loss he caused the owners of the Crescendo.

The "Richmond Times Dispatch," Richmond, Va., reported that Rev. Martin Luther King announced the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) (157-632) National Convention was to be held in Richmond. According to the article, Dick Gregory was to be one of the principal speakers at the National Convention banquet program to be held on 9/24/63. Gregory was to be presented the SCLC's annual "merit award" for his participation in the civil rights movement.

NY-3580-S* advised of a discussion between Stanley Levison and his brother, Roy Bennett, on 9/30/63 (place not given). Levison told Bennett that Dick Gregory, Bayard (Rustin) and "someone else" held a six hour session to map out a program. He said he had a feeling that Gregory was "a little nuts" and both agreed that they couldn't see what kind of a program or movement there could be with a comedian, who had no education (Gregory) on its staff. They agreed that this appeared to be a "gimmicking" approach. Levison and Bennett indicated that Gregory apparently was in favor of the Christmas boycott which had been proposed by some civil rights leaders.

At a Negro rally on 10/4/63 at Selma, Ala., the main speakers were Dick Gregory and SNCC Leader, James Forman. They urged Negroes to try to become registered voters, beginning on 10/7/63. Gregory was particularly critical of white people generally, and white law enforcement officials (source not clear, possibly SA who attended rally).

On 10/5/63 it was observed that another Negro rally was held at the First Baptist Church in Selma with Gregory again being the featured speaker. [redacted] of the "Selma Times Journal Newspaper," advised that Gregory's speech was considerably toned down from the one he gave the previous night. [redacted] stated that Gregory left Selma, Ala. on 10/6/63.

[redacted] advised that the Washington Area Committee For The Abolition Of The HCUA (WACAHCUA) (100-434886) had scheduled a public meeting for 10/10/63 at the American University, Washington, DC. Informants stated it was estimated that the WACAHCUA would lose approximately two hundred dollars on the meeting. In order to make up the deficit, the WACAHCUA intended to contact Dick Gregory to participate in a fund-raising affair to be held soon after the meeting. According to informants, definite plans had not been made.

The following references on Dick Gregory appear in the file captioned "Racial Matters," 157-6, and set out information concerning Gregory's activities in the civil rights movement in several American cities. Gregory participated in many racial demonstrations by leading marchers, sit-ins, and speaking at many of the meetings and rallies. He was arrested several times during 1963 and the early part of 1964 for parading without a permit, disorderly conduct and disturbance. Each time he was convicted but always entered an appeal.

The following references on Dick Gregory appear in the file captioned "National Civil Rights Convention, Chester, Pa., 3/14/64, Racial Matters," 157-1526, and revealed the following: The above convention was sponsored by the Coordinating Council of Civil Rights Organizations and was held at the Eastern Light Masonic Lodge, 815 West 3rd St., Chester. The meeting began with a forty minute presentation by Dick Gregory, who sat in front of the room with the three chairmen and secretaries and was the only one in the room who rose and stood at attention when Malcolm X walked in. It appeared to the source that Gregory was friendly with Malcolm X. Gregory spoke in generalities and referred to his experiences in Atlanta and San Francisco.

It was announced at the above meeting that the Coordinating Council of Civil Rights Organizations would meet at Washington, DC, on 4/18/64 at Odd Fellows Hall, 1853 - 9th St., NW, to begin a week of boycotts and sit-ins in that city. Among the well known leaders in the integration movement expected to be present was Gregory.

Attracts 2500

The many-faceted Negro comedian, Dick Gregory, who kept a crowd of more than 2500 in thought and stitches during an appearance here last night, said in an interview before his program that he sometimes wonders if a talk he had with Attorney General Robert Kennedy had any influence on the death of Robert Stroud, the famed Birdman of Alcatraz, who died in the U. S. Medical Center here last November.

"I was very concerned about the Birdman," said Gregory, who appeared as part of the Southwest Missouri State College convocations program in the SMS fieldhouse.

"I asked Kennedy if he would review the case, and he said he would look into it.

"Next thing I knew, he was dead."

Gregory did not say how his talk with Kennedy could have influenced the Birdman's death, but was extremely interested in recent developments in the story.

Of particular interest to Gregory, he said, was the fact that federal authorities had seized a manuscript, written by the Birdman, allegedly about the federal penal institutions and will to a relative.

The well-known "social satirist" asked more questions than the interviewer. He wanted to know if there was a possibility that federal officials would eventually relinquish the manuscript to Stroud's relatives and that it would be published. He didn't wait for an answer.

"If we do get it now, what guarantee do we have that they haven't changed it."

The comedian said he first became personally acquainted with the attorney general when Negro James Meredith was attempting to integrate the University of Mississippi at Oxford, and federal intervention was required. Gregory said his talk with Kennedy occurred in Washington about two weeks before Stroud died here.

Also during the interview, Gregory hinted he thinks that Secret Service and Federal Bureau of Investigation agents were "involved in a plot" to assassinate the late President John F. Kennedy.

He agreed that Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin, was involved in the plot also, but said that Oswald did not fire the shots as the recently released Warren Report stated.

To support his charges, Gregory produced reference material which included a photographic sequence of the assassination printed in Life Magazine, plus photostatic copies of official reports related to the investigation.

Also last night, Gregory, a leader in the civil rights movement, revealed that his latest book, entitled "nigger," would be published the latter part of this week.

He explains the choice of a title in the foreword to the book: "Dear Mom, wherever you are, when you hear the word 'nigger' again, they're advertising my book."

He said that there would be only one copy of the book sent out free — to Lyndon B. Johnson.

"I'm determined to get a nigger in the White House," he quipped.

He has already authored one best-seller book entitled "From the Back of the Bus."

Asked about recent racist-inspired bombings in McComb, Miss., Gregory found opportunity once more to chastize the FBI —

"If the FBI can't catch a bunch of racial haters, what have the Communists been running away with here?"

Gregory, working during his "day off" from a 30-day CORE tour which will conclude during the next week, flew back to California immediately following last night's performance in the arena of the SMS fieldhouse.

He said that he made more appearances before college audiences as a lecturer than a performer.

Asked if he ever had objections to material used in his act that might be construed as derogatory to his race, he said that he was considered a social satirist, "and they have always had more leeway to treat their subjects as they please."

And during his performance on stage, as in the interview, Gregory pulled no punch-lines.

Noting as he began his monologue in the presence of Richard Nixon, stumping for the Republican national ticket in Springfield last night, Gregory opined that Nixon was really following through on a pro-GOP convention statement by the former vice president to "stop Goldwater."

"He figures the best way to beat Barry," said Gregory, "is to campaign for him."

The comedian also had choice observations on the presidential candidates —

"If I look tired to you, it's because I spent so long at the Phoenix, Ariz., airport waiting for Barry Goldwater to come in. How was I to know he would arrive by stage coach?"

"You say there'll never be a colored person in the White House. Well, maybe so, but at least we got one there now that sounds like us."

He recalled that friends asked him if he was angry with Goldwater for voting against the civil rights bill. He said it didn't make much difference to him, because if Barry got elected, "I'd look like some kind of nut worrying about public accommodations sitting in some fox hole."

Gregory also noted that "Russia done it again — they just put up one of the bungaloes."

Gregory's appearance was preceded by that of a musical group who call themselves the Mandrell Singers. The quartet — Charles Austin, Rodney Young, Dave Thomas and Fred Griffith — proved very popular with the audience, running the gamut of music presentations, from Beatle hits to folk songs to Negro spirituals.

It was the quartet's first appearance with Gregory, although it will join him for another program later this year. The Mandrells originate in Boston.

Popular Negro comedian Dick Gregory chats with Southwest Missouri State College sophomore Cheryl Harmon prior to an appearance in the SMS fieldhouse before a crowd of more than 2500 last night. Gregory began his performance with "correction" of a statement by Lyle Lelsenring, chairman of the SMS convocations program who included in his introduction of the entertainer the fact that Gregory had dropped out of Southern Illinois University. "I flunked," said Gregory. Regarded as a civil rights leader in this country, Gregory has written one best-seller, "From the Back of the Bus," and announced last night publication of another book, "nigger."

Captioned television program is presented nationwide over the American Broadcasting Company each weekday evening from 11:30 p. m. until 1 a. m.

Crane opened the program noting that the FBI had made arrests in the civil rights case in Mississippi. He asked a member of the audience what he thought of this and the individual replied that he thought this was good and it showed that the FBI "was really working."

Comedian Dick Gregory was interviewed by Crane between 12:30 - 12:45 a. m. He mentioned his new book, an autobiography entitled "~~Nigger~~" and devoted several minutes to the telling of jokes regarding the civil rights movement.

Crane mentioned the FBI arrests in Mississippi and Gregory said that they only bore out what he said three months ago when he claimed he had stated arrests would occur in this case shortly after the election. He said it was very sad that this had to be "a political thing." He did not explain this and Crane did not pursue the matter further.

THE BOOK:

The book is 224 pages, published by the firm of E. P. Dutton and Company, Inc., New York. The price is $4.95. The book can be broken down into the three phases of Gregory's life, the first section dealing with his early days in St. Louis, Missouri, and his family background, which consisted of a broken home and dire poverty. The second section of the book deals with Gregory's rise to athletic fame as a track star at Southern Illinois University, and the third section is devoted to his rise to fame as a Negro comedian. During this third period of his life, Gregory became interested in the civil rights struggle of the Negro and has made several appearances throughout the South on behalf of the civil rights program.

The book would have little interest to anyone except a fan of Dick Gregory. The man certainly has a drive within him, which has enabled him to raise himself up from a very poor beginning to become a track star and later to become a well-paid entertainer. The book, however, lapses into obscenities in certain places, and as an example of Gregory's character he proclaims in one portion of the book that his wife Lillian was four-months pregnant when she told him of her pregnancy and thereafter they were married. Gregory, in certain portions of the book, lapses into gutter language and no great thoughts or solutions to the race problem are enunciated, which makes it doubtful that the book will find any permanent place in American literature or advance the cause of the Negro.

RE: "NIGGER;" AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY
BY DICK GREGORY

THE AUTHORS:

Gregory is the subject of Bureau file 100-440423. This file consists mostly of letterhead memoranda dealing with Gregory's appearances throughout the country on behalf of the civil rights movement.

Gregory wrote an insolent telegram to the Director on May 8, 1964, in which he stated, "I challenge you to tell the public who these communists are and where they are" in relation to the Director's statement that there are communists affiliated with the civil rights movement in the United States. The Director indicated that the Bureau should "ignore this welp."

In addition, Gregory, in another instance injected himself into the case of the three missing civil rights workers who were murdered in Mississippi. Gregory made press releases that Congress should investigate the FBI because he furnished the FBI with information indicating the location of the bodies. Gregory did furnish information to the Bureau in this matter, which information, however, was of no value in the case. Gregory also made irresponsible and ridiculous claims for credit for the solution of the case.

There are no references in Bureau files to

There is attached hereto a full book report published by "The Nation" dated 11/23/64.

MENTION OF THE FBI:

The FBI is mentioned on page 191 of the book. Gregory made an appearance in Greenwood, Mississippi, in 1963 (the date is not given in the book) and made mention that the police were on their best behavior that day because there were FBI Agents in town with movie cameras. Bureau files (157-896) indicate that Dick Gregory appeared in Mississippi during 1963, and it should be noted that pursuant to Departmental request, Agents were observing and photographing activities relating to the desegregation of Mississippi business establishments and public facilities during this period.

RECOMMENDATION:

J None. The book  being sent to the Bureau Library. Q BM

There is another aspect of Lawrence which needs to be discussed and is usually dodged by everyone except the more tendentious Marxist critics. Like Yeats, Stephen George, T. S. Eliot, Valéry, Unamuno, Ezra Pound, von Hoffmannsthal, Lawrence was a dedicated spokesman for what Joseph Freeman thirty years ago called the fascist unconscious. Note the "f" is in lower case. Lawrence did not live to see the horrors of Nazism, but the Nibelungen geist that haunted Frieda's relatives aroused in him only amused contempt, as did the more trivial popinjay antics of Mussolini's minions. Nevertheless, Lawrence was anti-humane, anti-humanist and anti-humanitarian, like most of the leading poets of the international community of the first half of the 20th century. In Europe the exponents of humanism were proved frauds by the First World War. In America, where by a historical accident they were given the chance to act personally in committees, they were proved malevolent frauds by the Sacco-Vanzetti case. But this does not mean that humanism is a fraud. Nor does it excuse an anti-humane way of life. Lawrence once remarked that the beastliness of man to man increased in proportion to growth in membership in the S.P.C.A. and the perfection of painless dentistry. This is probably true, but it does not excuse Ernest Hemingway's attendance at bull fights.

This question is usually dismissed as one of the out-of-date concerns of the thirties. It is not, and some day it is going to be necessary to reevaluate book by book and almost sentence by sentence the moral meaning of the leading poets of the first half of the 20th century. Since Lawrence occupies so exposed a position in this context, he would make an excellent subject for the first chapter. The polemics of the thirties, far from settling the matter, confused it further, since both sides of the controversy were in fact militant anti-humanists, whatever they called themselves. In America one sect of them did in fact call themselves Humanists—as of course did Zhhdhanov in the last bloody hours of Stalin.

There's not much to say about the book of Lawrence's paintings, although Viking's edition is good to have if one is a Lawrentian. Like most famous people, Lawrence was indulged and self-indulged. Like Henry Miller, he was persuaded that he was a painter. Painting is hard work and the business of professionals. Lawrence was not as skilled an amateur as Winston Churchill or Dwight Eisenhower—much less Estlin Cummings. He painted for relaxation, not least the relaxation of sexual tensions. His paintings are rather silly as are the verses he wrote for such purposes. Some of them, with red naked males with Abyssinian faces, and mountainous women with Brünnhildean bottoms are diagnostic Krankenkunst, slightly crazy fantasies of himself and Frieda. The whole book is one of those embarrassing, historically important docuits so vital to the history of literature but so expendable by good taste. As for the Collected Poems, as a final editio princeps it leaves nothing to be desired. Juvenilia and variora and dismembra rejecta, all are here, edited, collated and printed with loving care. It is hard to see how this edition will ever be superseded.

Kenneth Rexroth's Selected Poems of D. H. Lawrence (New Directions, 1948) was the first edition of Lawrence's poetry to be published in this country since 1929.

Comedy's Cold Sustenance

NIGGER. By Dick Gregory with Robert Lipsyte. E. P. Dutton & Co. 224 pp. $4.95.

Peter de Lissovoy

Negroes have called one another "nigger" ever since the white man slurred the epithet into being, but it doesn't mean what it used to. Jokes and insults that once worked to restrict and reduce a people get turned around in a revolution, and expose the malicious and straitened mentality that created them. These days, "nigger" is seen to be a white man; when a black uses the word, he affirms, ironically, his own humanity, and—by the same twist—anticipates a time when that humanity will be generally acknowledged. Not that this is anything really new. The African, chained down and sailed away, was feeling it every time he shook his head in terror or in disbelief. And there were slaves who felt it, who challenged and recognized their fantastic fate, and started rebellions and started the blues. But recently, the irony has become quite public. A cold silver sustenance of the heart has climbed out of hiding and become familiar even to whites. The title of Dick Gregory's new book is shocking, as was intended—a matter of sales. But it is more than this. It is full and large in a way it could never have been a decade or two ago—a promise and a claim and, disappointingly, much larger than the book itself.

Nigger begins impressively with a comic, poignant account of Gregory's youth in the slums of St. Louis. The style is reminiscent, easy and rolling:

... Once a month the big gray relief truck would pull up in front of our house and Momma would flash that big smile and stretch out her hands. "Who else you know in this neighborhood gets this kind of service?" And we could all feel proud when the neighbors, folks who weren't on relief, folks who had Daddies in their houses, would come by the back porch for some of those hundred pounds of potatoes, for some sugar and flour and salty fish. We'd stand out there on the back porch and hand out the food like we were in charge of helping poor people. . . .

And we get the "boy" as well as the "black":

We went to the movies a lot. . . . Once we had a riot . . . when Tarzan jumped down from a tree and grabbed about a hundred Africans. We didn't mind when Tarzan beat up five or ten, but this was just too many, a whole tribe, and we took that movie house apart, ran up on the stage and kicked the screen and fought the guys who still dug Tarzan.

... We used to root for the Indians against the cavalry, because we didn't think it was fair in the history books that when the cavalry won it was a great victory, when the Indians won it was a massacre. We always cheered for the American soldiers and booed the Japanese and Germans. . . .

We had joys back there in St. Louis, joys that made us want to live just as surely as the pains taught us how to live. . . .

The temptation to quote is great—as it always is after a Gregory performance. (Robert Lipsyte probably put it all to paper, but the storyteller's style is Gregory's.) What really tips the scales for the first section of the book is the reconstruction of how Gregory began developing his fast-draw humor:

... I got picked on a lot around the neighborhood; skinniest kid on the block, the poorest, the one without a Daddy. I guess that's when I first began to learn about humor, the power of the joke. ...

"Hey Gregory, get your ass over here. Want you to tell me and Herman how many kids sleep in your bed."

"Googobs of kids in my bed, man, when I get up to pee in the middle of the night gotta leave a bookmark so I don't lose my place."

Before they could get going, I'd knock it out first, fast. ... Everything began to change then. Once you get a man to laugh with you, it's hard for him to laugh at you. ...

... Sometimes the big guys would come after me. A guy twice my size would grab me and push me against a wall and be all ready to knock my face in. I'd roll my eyes and look down at his feet.

"Baby, you better kill me quick. If you don't, I'm gonna steal those cool shoes you wearin'."

Now who could beat up a guy who said that?

Gregory made a weapon of humor in order to become a man on the block. The block is nearly always a little-America. Negroes have long used the joke to become and remain men in a society that would reduce them to something less. Gregory's mother taught him that "man has two ways out in life—laughing and crying. There's more hope in laughing." These first chapters say something about how a whole lot of black men have stayed sane and grown, and under Gregory's enriching comic gaze the boy that he was emerges large and real.

After the first hundred or so pages, the book begins to slow and weaken. Gregory leaves Southern Illinois University, where he has studied and run track on an athletic scholarship, and moves into the frenzied world of the small-time entertainer. Now he is not casting back into a period of his life for significant anecdotes and memories, but is trying to explain how he got from here to there to the Big-Time. The comic style that has worked so well grows thin, and he begins to rely heavily on the sudden reverse or punch line to provide the necessary movement. At only one point does the book rise again to the level of the first chapters. Like a gem turned up in common rock, half a dozen pages are devoted suddenly to what Gregory calls "one of the greatest lessons in show business"—the problem of talling race, or America, to predominantly white audiences:

... A white man will come to a Negro club, so hung up in this race problem, so nervous and afraid of the neighborhood and the people that anything the comic says to relieve his tension will absolutely knock him out. ... I've seen a white man in a Negro club jump up and say "Excuse me" to a Negro waitress who just spilled a drink in his lap. ... But ... in their neighborhood, some of them are going to feel sorry for me because I'm a Negro. and some of them are going to hate me because I'm a Negro. Those who feel sorry might laugh a little at first. But they can't respect someone they pity, and eventually they'll stop laughing. Those who hate me aren't going to laugh at all.

I've got to hit them fast, before they can think, just the way I hit those kids back in St. Louis who picked on me because I was raggedy and had no Daddy. ... I've got to make jokes about myself before I can make jokes about them and their society—that way they can't hate me. Comedy is friendly relations. ...

At his best, Gregory exploits an old discipline—the comic tradition that informs the blues. Humor, in the Negro community, is much more than a means to survival. As a way of living and seeing it is as valid for the white man as for the black. Gregory is an instructive, sometimes great, humorist because he finds ways of expressing his and his audience's humanity at a comic level really common to both. He neither makes fun of himself in the post-minstrel Rochester tradition (the Jack Benny days) nor succumbs to the temptation of attacking his audience with a funny hatchet, but laughs at us all and brings the audience up to his level.

Most of this middle portion of the book is straight, narrative autobiography—interesting only if you are curious about how Gregory met his wife, got started as a comic, and began having kids. The relatively even irony of the first pages breaks down, and a little vein of sentimentality, just apparent at first, begins to bleed, copiously. After all his bleak and perilous times, he gets his break. He appears at the Playboy Club—and then on the Jack Paar Show; and now he can buy a color television set that is so big that doors must be unhinged to get it into his apartment, and he can buy his wife, who can't drive, a Thunderbird. ("That's getting back at the system.")

... I was growing by the minute, meeting fascinating people, like Hefner and Paar and Bob Hope. I was flying first class to California and New York. One day one of the biggest record companies called. ...

Fascinating people. ... Now he even gets to put down his non-Daddy, who once deserted his mother, and the girl friend who was once too good for him shows up at a performance and he gets to crack on her. "That was a big year, 1961." He celebrates it at Christmas and gives his wife a long list of things. "It's get-even time, Santa."

It sounds like a bad Marxist caricature of a nouveau riche. Just about the time we are thinking, my God, he can't be leading us here, we discover that, in the back of his mind, Gregory has been thinking the same thing. He begins to do shows in prisons, and benefits for CORE and the NAACP. And this isn't enough. He goes South and marches with SNCC in Selma, Greenwood, Jackson. The Grand Reversal. Here is America the Beautiful—in the faces of "those" brave, beautiful kids ... who never sleep, and sacrifice so much, and so on. The rest—the denouement—is old-hat movement rhetoric.

This is really too bad. Because there is a grandeur in the Southern Negro Movement. The civil rights struggle is creating heroes in a society whose herolessness is celebrated in a hundred novels. Gregory himself has made large sacrifices—one of a small but important group of celebrities who have given of their time and stature. But, with the exception of a couple of good anecdotes, Gregory's account of his experiences in the South is sentimental, mechanical, undiscovering—another page in the tourist brochure that the publishing business is writing for the Movement.

And the failure is a bit deeper yet. There is the climax, the big reversal—money isn't everything, and so on. Unfortunately, it doesn't work. Gregory has elaborated too enthusiastically the meanings of his show-biz success. Of course, he has built it all up partly in order to knock it down with his conversion to Freedom. But the tone of his commercial success hangs on in our minds and, like an echo, up rises the question: In what will success for the Movement consist?

... we're ready to change a system, a system where a white man can destroy a black man with a single word. Nigger.

When we're through ... there won't be any niggers any more.

But when nigger — and whitey — have disappeared, who will replace them? Who will we be then? Fascinating people like Bob Hope? Gregory suggests nothing to the contrary. But if Gregory's thinking stops short of an important question, so does the thinking of many of us, involved or sympathetic, in the Movement. Nigger is a small book. Years from now, when the civil rights struggle has run out more of its course, it may be the book's limitations that seem most eloquent.

The Ice Age

I KNOW WHAT I'M DOING. By Hans Koningsberger. Simon & Schuster. 190 pp. $3.95.

Keith Waterhouse

If every writer had Hans Koningsberger's compactness of expression there would be no need of microfilm in the public libraries. He can start and finish a chapter within the space it took Henry James to reach the first semicolon. His entire output probably runs to about a quarter of the length of one of those fat epics about fornication in a small American town. In this space he has managed to say more about the human condition than many reputable authors could achieve if they wrote until the end of time.

Consider a fairly familiar theme in the modern novel, a single girl is involved with a married man, and during an unguarded moment he talks of marrying her. This is surely good for a new typewriter ribbon, half a dozen freshly sharpened pencils and a brisk walk around the block before starting into the big scene:

- (1) Man tells girl he would like to marry her.
- (2) Reaction from girl.
- (3) Decision by girl to play it cool.
- (4) Reply from girl showing that she is playing it cool.
- (5) Reaction from man.
- (6) Reaction from girl to reaction from man.
- (7) Decision by man to play it cagey.
- (8) Cagey reply from man.
- (9) Editorial summing up of the situation at half time.

And so on, through all the tense pauses, averted glances and all the rest of it to the coda with the girl as likely as not wandering through a rain-swept street and wondering whether to get herself picked up.

This is how Mr. Koningsberger deals with the situation in his new novel, I Know What I'm Doing:

Keith Waterhouse is the author of Billy Liar (Norton) and Jubb (Putnam).

He lowered his paper and stared at me. Then he went back to it and said without looking up, "We'll get married one day."

"We will?" I asked. "Are you proposing?"

"Would you accept?"

"Try me."

He shifted in his chair. "I'm not free," he finally muttered. "I will be one of these days," he said.

"Well, you just missed your chance," I said.

End of scene. In other words, unlike so many novelists, Mr. Koningsberger does not write in the apparent belief that his publisher is about to do a book-club deal with Mars and that everything which human beings think and say and do has therefore got to be explained as in that tedious parlor game where one has to describe a chair to someone who has never seen one.

As in Koningsberger's earlier novels (The Affair, A Walk With Love and Death, An American Romance) I Know What I'm Doing is written in a very modern way, using the film director's technique of cutting into the guts of a scene, describing it at its climax and getting out again without any flimflam. And he keeps the writer's notebook a healthy ten paces away from his typewriter. Part of the present novel is set in Hollywood—as good an excuse as you can find for the travelogue stuff—but his only observation on that over-observed town is that Sunset Boulevard is lined with beer bottles. Mr. Koningsberger gets on with the story.

The interesting thing is why he keeps it short. I once wrote of An American Romance, that he couldn't have written it with the economy he used had not millions of words about love already been written before it. Looking at his latest novel I realize that this isn't wholly true. It's what we have lived rather than what we have read that enables Mr. Koningsberger to jump in at the deep end.

The fact is that as the world has grown more complicated and hope-

THE CRISIS OF POLITICAL IMAGINATION

Glenn Tinder

This book is concerned with the problem of regaining our bearings in a post-Marxian society in which not one of the older major concepts—liberalism, democracy, socialism and conservatism—seems entirely relevant.

Dr. Tinder proposes a renewed awareness of the relationships of community, authority, and religious insight in a brilliantly argued view that transcends both conservatism and liberalism.

Crusade for Voters

Comedian Gregory Joins Celebration

By JIM SHEPPARD
Staff Writer

Negro comedian Dick Gregory arrived last night to help the Chatham County Crusade for Voters celebrate the fifth anniversary of racial sit-in demonstrations but only 31 other persons showed up for the banquet at the Manger Hotel. Dinner places had been set for 200 persons.

"I hope no one here is embarrassed over the crowd," said Gregory. "In the entertainment business, there are various attitudes an entertainer can take when playing to a small house ... I've always had the attitude that if one person shows up he goes to as much trouble to get there as a thousand people would if they had come."

Harris Slotin, who introduced Gregory, apologized for the small audience.

Later, however, Gregory was greeted by a crowd estimated at 1,000 at the Flamingo Club.

In a 30-minute talk at the dinner, he declared that "race problems, if not solved, will destroy America." He called the civil rights movement "the greatest social revolution in the history of the world." He described the nation's race problems as "a dangerous, explosive situation."

He said the civil rights movement "is not black against white but right against wrong and right always wins." He said he considered his race "the human race" but said he was proud to be a Negro.

His talk was both serious and humorous.

"My black face affords me less chance of blistering in the sun," he said. "My kinky hair prevents sunstroke. My big lips are very nice because when I reach for my woman and kiss her she certainly ain't going to miss it."

He stirred more laughter when he said that he is sometimes mistaken at airports for a red cap. When this happens, he said, "I just take the bag, lock it in one of those lockers, then take it home. I've got 42 bags this way, and when I get a hundred, I'm going to make up one big CARE package."

He said the civil rights laws passed by Congress last year will not solve the nation's race problems. He said more laws are needed covering voter registration.

He said it is "ironic to know that if this nation's social problems were in another country, we could solve it, but we can't solve our own problems here at home."

He called J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, "the most dangerous man in America today because he heads the secret police and no free society should have a secret police. The FBI would be good in Russia."

"No one in the government can get rid of Hoover for he has too much dirt on everyone, including President Johnson," he said.

"Hoover has claimed that there are Communists behind the civil rights movement," he said. "If he can prove that charge, he owes it to the American people to do so and name names."

Gregory also spoke against capital punishment, the nuclear bomb, and the shortage of food and medical supplies elsewhere in the world.

The comedian, who has helped lead racial demonstrations over the nation and traveled over the world leading a "ban the bomb" movement, was delayed about three hours in arriving because of plane trouble. Then when he finally arrived at the Savannah airport, he learned that his bags had been lost.

Part of the luncheon that the Crusade for Voters had scheduled for him had to be canceled so that he could arrive in time for the Manger Hotel banquet.

Gregory plans to depart this morning and fly to Chicago for a brief visit with his family, then fly to Honolulu where he plans to rest and do some writing. He recently wrote a best-seller called "Nigger," which is his autobiography.

Uninsured Act Change Proposed

From Our Atlanta Bureau

ATLANTA — Rep. Willis J. Richardson Monday proposed an amendment to the Uninsured Motorist Law to restrict an insured motorist in collecting from his insurer when he is involved in an accident with an uninsured motorist.

Richardson's measure introduced in the House today would prohibit the insured from recovering under his policy until the extent to which he had recovered from an uninsured driver had been established and all efforts to collect from the uninsured motorist had been exhausted.

The amendment would authorize certain exclusions in such policies to the extent of other collectible insurance.

The bill also would authorize the insurer to act in behalf of the insured motorist under certain conditions.

"In the event any insured shall bring an action against an uninsured motorist for this purpose or for the purpose of establishing the insured's right to a recovery, and the amount thereof, against any such uninsured motorist, the insurer shall be deemed to be the agent of the uninsured motorist for the purpose of defending said action if the uninsured motorist shall fail to give the required notice as hereinafter provided," The bill states.

"If within 10 days after written notice has been given to the uninsured motorist by the insurer that upon the failure of said uninsured motorist to notify the insurer in writing that he wishes to defend said action in his own right, the insurer shall be authorized to take any appropriate action in the defense of said action as if said insurer were the attorney in fact for the uninsured motorist," the amendment concludes.

City Attorney James Blackburn complained to the federal officials that within 30 days after the Dept. of Defense announced that Hunter would be closed, the HEW said that the public health hospital would be closed too.

He said there is "some community feeling that the HEW didn't know about the facilities at Hunter" and that "it seems that there is false economy by shutting the hospital without putting it out on the base."

Dr. Philip L. Spencer of the U.S. Public Health Service told Blackburn that federal health officials "knew full well that

Negro Comedian Speaks

Negro comedian Dick Gregory, in Savannah to help celebrate the Chatham County Crusade for Voters observance of the fifth anniversary of the racial sit-in demonstrations, last night addressed 31 persons at a banquet in the Manger Hotel scheduled for 200.

Harris Slotin, who introduced Gregory, apologized for the small audience.

Later, however, the comedian was greeted by a crowd estimated at 1,000 at the Flamingo Club.

His banquet address was both serious and humorous. He said that if race problems are not solved, America will be destroyed.

Gregory said the civil rights movement is not black against white but right against wrong
 "and right always wins."

He called Federal Bureau of Investigation director J. Edgar Hoover "the most dangerous man in America today because he heads the secret police and no free society should have a secret police. The FBI would be good in Russia."

"No one in the government can get rid of Hoover for he has too much dirt on everyone, including President Johnson," he said.

Gregory also spoke against capital punishment, the nuclear bomb and the shortage of food and medical supplies elsewhere in the world.

He planned to leave the city today to join his family in Chicago.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss . . . and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment that is not only stopping hair loss . . . but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this no-risk trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help.
 So, if you still have hair on top of your head and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair . . . now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you.
 Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation.

Atlanta by airtel 2-2-65 advised

[redacted] Anti-Defamation League (ADL), Atlanta, furnished information relating to the assassination on 2-1-65, which he received from an unidentified ADL employee in Miami, Florida. This employee obtained the data on 1-13-65 during a conversation with Dick Gregory, the rabble-rousing Negro comedian. [redacted] stated the charges made by Gregory were so ridiculous he was amazed the ADL employee even considered sending the material to him; however, he furnished it so the Bureau would be aware of Gregory's activities. [redacted] requested that no one outside the Bureau be advised he had furnished this information.

DETAILS

100-440423 -
NOT RECORDED

In the letter to [redacted] it was reported Gregory stated that the assassination of President Kennedy was master minded by J. Edgar Hoover and H. L. Hunt. Gregory allegedly tried to substantiate these charges by displaying photostatic copies of affidavits and fallacious and misleading press releases and public statements. The ADL employee noted Gregory did not display any concrete facts to support his charges according to employee.

Gregory claimed the Warren Commission had two reports on the assassination and knew of the Director's and Hunt's participation; however, did not release the true facts as "chaos" would result. Gregory alleged the Director was one of the plotters due to a falling out with the Kennedys and the former Attorney General had been appointed to "watch over him" and slowly "ease him out" of the FBI. Gregory claimed to have positive proof H. L. Hunt financed the Black Muslims but such proof was "confidential." Gregory also alleges the FBI has him under constant surveillance and will soon put an end to his life. Further, that prior to the assassination President Johnson was aware of the plot but was powerless to stop it because he could not admit the FBI and the "Intelligence hierarchy" controlled the country.

Other remarks allegedly made by Gregory include the statement that Mr. Hunt finances the "Minute Men" and most Agents who leave the FBI are engaged in radical right or extreme conservative movements.

Bureau files indicate Gregory has in the past supported the Black Muslims, injected himself into the racial movement and espoused causes and individuals closely associated with the communist movement (100-440423-16).

The three pages reportedly written by Gregory's [ ] appear to be part of a larger document as the pages are numbered 72, 73 and 74. These pages contain monstrous fabrications even more absurd than the trash put out by the infamous [ ] reported communist sympathizer, sex pervert and former New York assemblyman. The alleged facts of Oswald's participation and flight are so fantastic it does not seem possible that anyone even with a limited knowledge of the assassination could believe the story.

We have long suspected that Gregory is demented. Nevertheless, the comments he has made are utterly ridiculous and we should confront him and tell him in no uncertain terms that he better stop putting out such gutter talk.

At a meeting between Dick Gregory and myself on January 18th (2 AM) he related the following:

1. The John F. Kennedy assassination was master minded by J. Edgar Hoover and H. L. Hunt. He then opened a brief case containing alleged documents and photostatic copies of affidavits supporting these statements. He showed me the LIFE MAGAZINE cover which showed Oswald holding a rifle with a telescopic sight attached to the rifle and then an 8 x 10 glossy of allegedly the same picture of Oswald with the gun but without the telescopic sight. He claimed the telescopic sight was drawn in for the LIFE MAGAZINE cover. He showed me an allegedly photostatic copy of an affidavit by a witness who claimed she saw Oswald waiting at a bus stop shortly after 1 PM, and then a copy of the Warren Commission report which stated the President was shot at 1:06 PM. Gregory, however, did not show me any concrete evidence to support his allegations, only copies of statements that have been made public -- LIFE MAGAZINE, the Warren Commission report, newspaper clippings, magazine articles.

2. Gregory claimed that the Warren Commission has two reports, and has full knowledge of the FBI Director's and Hunt's participation in the assassination. However, the Commission felt that by releasing the true facts, "chaos" would result in this country.

3. He stated that Hoover was one of the plotters because he had a falling out with the Kennedys, and Bobby was appointed as the Attorney General to watch over him and slowly ease him out of his position as the Director of the FBI.

4. He claimed that he had proof positive of Hunt's financing the Black Muslims, but when questioned for documentation, said that such documentation is confidential and would cause harm to anyone who saw it.

5. He claimed that the FBI knows that he has all this evidence, has constantly under surveillance and will some day in the near future, put an end to his life. He is, however, unafraid, keeps his room door ajar at all times and his briefcase unlocked.

He spoke freely for 45 minutes and was not reluctant at any time to withhold any verbal information.

ENCLOSURE

When questioned further regarding Hunt's financing of the Muslims, he said that some of his friends had this information because they were working for Hunt. He was not definite regarding Wayne Foucher's knowledge of Hunt's activities but thought that Foucher also knew because he had heard that some people close to Hunt were aware of both Hunt's financing the Muslims and co-masterminding the plot to assassinate Kennedy.

He stated that prior to the assassination, President Johnson was also aware of the plot but was powerless to stop it because exposing it would be to admit that the FBI and Intelligence hierarchy really controlled the country and this would result in the downfall of the entire Democratic system. He told me of a document that was written regarding the facts of the assassination. He said that one man in Miami was killed for having this document in his possession. There were two copies of this "document" in his briefcase. I asked him for one for our files. He refused and said it was too dangerous. Some time later he gave me one of the copies (enclosed). The "document" is a story written in the year 2505 AD reflecting on the assassination of the president.

Enclosed is a photo of a part of the "document" regarding the events leading up to and including the assassination of the President.

When I questioned the predicted error regarding the election, he said that the last paragraph was now being revised and did not comment further. He said he was hoping Goldwater would win so that most Americans would be jolted out of their apathy, but now with Johnson as President everyone will go to sleep and not wake up until it's too late. Later, he reluctantly admitted this "document" was written by his [redacted] but was based on irrefutable proof.

Other statements made by Gregory include:

Hunt finances the "Minute Man" throughout the United States. Most agents who leave the FBI are now actively engaged in radical right or extreme conservative activities. If no other country but the United States would the Warren Commission's whitewashed report have been accepted.

He then left and he did his 3 AM show at the Bistro Club, 79th St. Corcoran, Ill. He left Miami for Chicago and may be back in a few weeks. His [redacted] are currently demonstrating in Gary, Indiana.

Oswald went quietly to work and learned the building's layout, found which floors were vacant and which rooms faced the parade route that Kennedy was sure to take on November 22.

During this period Oswald had a considerable sum of money. He had $150 in cash on the day of the assassination.

He often spoke now of "good times" just ahead. But Oswald failed to see the central fact so painfully apparent to everyone else, that he had neither the ability nor the brains to play any other role than that of the "patsy" in such a crucial undertaking.

Shortly before the assassination three men met at Ruby's club to clear up such matters as pinning the guilt on Oswald.

They were Ruby [redacted] one of the wealthy rightists who financed the plot, and Dallas Police Officer J.D. Tippit, an old friend of Ruby's.

Ruby made the plans [redacted] paid off Tippit. The policeman was to meet Oswald after the killing, arrest him and plant enough evidence to clearly implicate him.

Perhaps the strangest part of the entire story lay in the fact that the majority of the empire's citizens believed this fabrication that Oswald was Kennedy's lone and unaided assassin. The fantastic collection of absolute lies, misrepresentations and half truths which they accepted is the best indication to be found that this people had so lost its native shrewdness that it no longer deserved even the formality of the limited political mandate it exercised.

Such a credulous people, as this history will show, do not long retain their freedom.

After a century of research, historians arrived at an accurate version of how the assassination actually was accomplished and how Oswald was falsely accused, convicted in the press and publicly assassinated with the connivance of the police who had arrested him.

Here is the story in brief:

- Late in the afternoon of November 21, 1963 Oswald, under orders from Ruby and Ruby's patrician bosses, was able to get a hired gunman into the Book Depository without detection. The gunman spent the night on the sixth floor in a seldom-used room. He ate a meal of cold fried chicken and drank a bit of soda pop.

- A rifle which police claimed was used by Oswald to assassinate Kennedy - the rifle which was purchased by mail on March 20 - was planted by a member of the conspiracy in an easily-spotted location on the 6th floor. The weapon actually used by the gunman was an excellent one, an automatic repeating weapon, perfectly sighted and fired by experts. The shots proved it.

- Unknown to Oswald, a second expert gunman had arrived during the early hours of November 22 at a perfect sniper's post on a railroad bridge a few hundred yards down the parade route from the book depository. The Consul's car must pass beneath this overpass and the killers planned to catch him in a deadly crossfire from both front and back.

- Oswald's job, he was told, was simply to wedge open a second floor elevator door in the depository so that police would be delayed in reaching the sixth floor. Until he heard the shots he was to sit inconspicuously in an adjoining lunch room. He was then to leave quietly and outside meet one of Ruby's men who would take him to "safety." In actuality the plan called for Tippit to be waiting at the rendezvous point to arrest Oswald. The "patsy" would not suspect the double-cross since he had not before laid eyes on Tippit.

b6

- As planned, the killers waited until the Kennedy car was midway between the two sniper posts. The bridge gunman opened fire first, planting a fatal shot through the auto windshield and into Kennedy's throat. The second good shot came from the book depository and pierced the back of the second assassination target, a "liberal" Texas Governor who was nearly as unpopular with the rightists as Kennedy. The third effective shot, also a dead ringer, came again from the book depository and tore through the back of Kennedy's head. One miss was fired. A total of four bullets were found and four shots were heard.

- It was at this point that an accident occurred which nearly marred the perfect plot. As planned, Oswald's jammed elevator door delayed the first policeman to enter the depository long enough to let the gunman escape. However, the suspicious officer saw Oswald near the jammed elevator door and immediately drew his gun. Although he was quickly distracted from Oswald, it was this move which panicked the "patsy" and sent him off on a mad escape attempt that nearly upset everything. For the near arrest made Oswald realize for the first time just how bad his position would be if arrested. He ran, forgetting to meet Tippit at the rendezvous chosen earlier.

- But in his panic-stricken flight Oswald remembered the second part of his instructions. If he missed the first confederate he was to make another "meet" in a movie house only a few blocks from both his rented room and Ruby's apartment.

- This "Plan B" was designed to insure that Oswald would not escape arrest if by an unforeseen misfortune, Tippit did not find him.

- Oswald went by a circuitous route from the Book Depository to the theater. The fact he left $150 in cash in his dresser drawer attests to the panic which caught him unawares.

- Now we come to the strangest part of the story, the assassination of Tippit. A meeting had been arranged for Tippit and one of Ruby's men. The officer was to show up only if he did not succeed in finding and arresting Oswald. The gunman had orders to shoot Tippit if he DID show up, since it meant he had failed and he was considered too unreliable to let live. The meeting was to be held only a few blocks from Ruby's apartment which was the focal point of "Plan B" since it was only a few blocks from the rooming house where Oswald lived and another few blocks from the theater where Oswald had been instructed to go to get "new directions" if the first meet failed.

- Tippit, driving a police car on his day off in an area where he had not been assigned, met his contact man as ordered. The man, described by the only witness present as "short, stocky, with bushy black hair" (the exact opposite of Oswald), walked up to the side of the waiting police car and asked only one question, "Did you get him?" Tippit admitted his failure and got out of the car to walk over to his contact man. He never made it. Three bullets cut him down.

- A used car dealer who saw the killer only at the moment of his escape, talked too much and was shot months later. The girl friend of the gunman who did this job was one of Ruby's strippers. She also began too much and conveniently "hanged himself to death" in a Dallas jail cell.

- While Tippit was being killed, Oswald second into the theater to keep his "meet" with Ruby's man. Instead of an accomplice, Ruby sent the police. It was now time to "frame" Oswald as the "lone and unaided killer." Key members of the Dallas police were assigned to make sure the "frame" fit well.

- Contrary to published reports, Oswald was not "silent" during his interrogation. He immediately revealed that he was an FBI informer and said that agency would vouch for him. For this reason, the transcript of Oswald's interrogation was never made public. In the meantime, Oswald was tried and convicted in the press and on television. For the average American the matter was very quickly closed.

- Ruby, making sure that no further slip-ups would occur, undertook the assassination of Oswald himself. He managed to attend a public appearance Oswald made at Dallas on Nov. 22-23. He even made remarks during one news conference.

- By November 24 Oswald's newspaper "conviction" had been accomplished. Ruby and the Dallas police needed to wait no longer. The police set the stage so that Ruby could perform the first televised assassination in history. It was the best possible way to convince Americans that Oswald had not been killed by the police themselves.

- Ruby was tried and found guilty of the murder of Oswald. After a suitable "cooling off" period in which the slothful Americans went back to television escapism and forgot all about the assassination, Ruby was found "insane" in a special "sanity hearing." He was removed from the now notorious Dallas County Jail and taken to a mental hospital where he "escaped." He was never heard of again.

- A mock court of inquiry headed by a well-meaning liberal jurist gave credence to the "of Oswald" story although he knew that much of it was untrue. Earl Warren feared that the revelation of even the fact that Oswald was an FBI informer might destroy the public's confidence in the government of which he was a member.

The situation was particularly crucial since 1964, the year of the inquiry, was also an election year. Warren hoped to set matters straight after Kennedy's vice president had been elected to fill the term the Last Great Consul had needed so badly.

- Warren's calculated gamble failed. With Kennedy out of the way, the enemies of social reform again had the ear of the Empire.

In November, 1964, less than a year after the Kennedy assassination, a fanatical rightist senator from another Western police state much like Texas was elected president.

Shortly before the election Hoover was legally confirmed as the FBI's lifetime dictator.

The assassination gamble had paid off.

With control of the secret police, the administration and the military firmly in their hands, the rightist patricians set out to destroy the Republic.

Within a short time they succeeded.

Gregory Terms Racial Conflict Right vs. Wrong

By MARY REIFSCHEIDER
Star Staff Writer

America's race problem is not a case of black against white; it is a problem of right against wrong.

And "if we don't solve this problem, it will solve us," Negro comedian and civil rights worker Dick Gregory said in Lincoln Wednesday.

Gregory said the 1964 civil rights bill hasn't satisfied minority groups because it represents getting "64 cents change for a dollar—it's freedom on the installment plan. We didn't ask for a civil rights bill—we ask that the Constitution be carried out to the fullest."

Attacks Hoover

The comedian also lashed out at J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI.

"Any organization headed by a right winger is not going to be fair. Hoover says communists have infiltrated the civil rights movement. He should say which groups specifically instead of making a blanket statement."

He added, "I have a complete distrust of the FBI. Racial murders are one of the easiest crimes to solve yet it takes them nine months to come up with anything."

White America is less free than Negroes are today; black America has become the psychological master, he said.

Gregory also spoke out against capital punishment. He said churches could end capital punishment overnight. They teach "Thou shalt not kill," but permit the state to do it," he said.

Churches are also the most segregated part of American life today, Gregory said.

The slaying of Malcolm X is bigger than what people are led to believe, he said. It should be investigated, but not by the FBI, he said.

Praising white college civil rights workers, Gregory said, "Without them, we'd have been defeated 18 months ago in the South."

He predicted that Selma, Ala., will be the battleground for the civil rights movement for the next five or six months.

"The race problem is national. Mississippi is part of America—we're all guilty. Time won't solve the problem. It is neutral," he said.

"The Southern Negro has committed his life to solve the problem and he will. Then the Northern Negro will be freed and together we'll free all of America," Gregory said.

The author of two books, including the recently published "Nigger," quipped that his ambition is to put a "Nigger" in every home.

Gregory established a rapport with his audience by praising the University of Nebraska football team. He said "Football is a fair sport for a Negro. It's the only sport where a Negro can chase a white and have 40,000 cheer."

Gregory spoke at the University.

Can't Be Bought

Gregory, who spends about 90% of his time with the civil rights movement, said money and education won't solve the problem. Human dignity can't be bought, he said.

He cited the example of Charles Drew, the Negro who developed blood plasma. Drew bled to death in a southern hospital after a car accident because the hospital was segregated.

Gregory came to Lincoln from Selma, Ala., where his trial has been postponed until next week. He was arrested during a voter registration protest there.

He spoke to overflow crowds at the University of Nebraska Wednesday afternoon and at a National Association for the Advancement of Colored People meeting Wednesday night.

Gregory Here, Trial Is Delayed Comments On Killing

By LARRY TAYLOR

Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and civil rights leader, was in Lincoln Wednesday—direct from a command appearance at the Selma, Ala., jail.

He was jailed there during his participation in recent Negro voter registrations activities and later released.

He left Selma Tuesday following a hearing which, he said, was postponed. "You show up for a trial there one week—and they keep canceling it."

On Selma, he said: "They do the same thing to us there as you do to Indians here."

Gregory was here to address University of Nebraska students and a meeting of the NAACP at the Lincoln Hotel Wednesday evening.

He was met at Municipal Airport by NAACP officers Mrs. Hugh Bullock, past president of the organization, Mrs. Ernest Edington, 1st vice president and Dr. Pat Wells, 2nd vice president.

Gregory said he thought the slaying of Malcolm X involved much more than had been publicized.

"Anytime the FBI and Secret Service get involved this much in something, you can bet it isn't all colored people," he said.

He mentioned the recent plot involving several Negroes which allegedly involved blowing up the Liberty Bell and other national monuments with dynamite smuggled from Canada.

"I been colored too long to think we're going to blow up the Liberty Bell," he said. "It's already cracked."

Of the New York shooting of Malcolm X he noted: "This thing is much, much bigger than people think it is."

His own involvement in the Negro freedom movement was passed over quickly. "My commitment is to free myself before I free any foreigners," he said with reference to U.S. military activities in Vietnam.

"White people say the Negro doesn't have enough education to be free, but not one white man has said anything about the educational level in Vietnam."

Gregory rapped the FBI and their work in the segregation movement. "No free society should have a secret police department," he said.

He termed FBI head J. Edgar Hoover the "right wing head of the secret police. You can't walk into the Chicago airport without 20 FBI agents looking at you," he said.

He referred, he said, to the attempts to protect Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Black Muslim movement, who has been threatened.

"They protect Muhammad," he said, "but don't give King (Nobel prize winner Dr. Martin Luther King) any protection at all. I can't figure it out."

Gregory said he was flying to New York City Wednesday evening where he would speak several days before going to Miami, Fla. Later next week, he said, he would meet with Justice Dept. officials in Washington, D.C. to discuss loopholes in recent Civil Rights legislation.

A Mississippi Negro can vote now for President, Gregory said. "But he can't vote the gun out of the sheriff's hand who's going to shoot him in the back some night."

If Not In Selma Jail, Comedian Will Be Here

One of the nation's top comedians, Dick Gregory, is scheduled to make two appearances in Lincoln Wednesday — if he's not in jail in Selma, Ala., where he is scheduled to appear in court Tuesday.

Sponsors of the two Lincoln appearances report they have had no word from Gregory cancelling the appearances here, so they assume he will be present.

He was arrested in Selma, where mass arrests have marked Negro voter registration drives last Tuesday on a disorderly conduct charge. He was later released on bail.

Gregory, a Negro comedian whose shows are usually laced with humor based on race problems, is to speak at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday at the University of Nebraska Union under the sponsorship of that organization's Talks and Topics Committee.

An evening appearance at 8 p.m. at the Lincoln Hotel ballroom is under sponsorship of the Lincoln Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Lt. Col. Paul Adams, local NAACP president, said Gregory had informed him the evening appearance would be as a comedian, not a lecturer.

Gregory, known especially for night club and television performances, has also often been in the center of civil rights demonstrations and has been arrested a number of times.

Ticket chairman for the NAACP-sponsored appearance is Mrs. William Burns.

Mr. Herman Edelsberg of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) furnished you a copy of a memorandum from [REDACTED], a staff man in the ADL Miami Office, to Arnold Forster, prominent official of the ADL. The memorandum was dated 1-20-65 and concerned a meeting between Dick Gregory and [REDACTED] at 2 a.m. on 1-18-65. The interview is summarized as follows:

Gregory claims that the assassination of President Kennedy was masterminded by Director Hoover and H. L. Hunt (the Texas oil millionaire). Gregory had a brief case in which he claimed there were documents to support his statements; however, the material he showed [REDACTED] was a little more than copies of previously publicized information including a "Life" magazine cover which showed Lee Harvey Oswald holding a rifle with a telescopic sight. Gregory claims that the telescopic sight had been drawn in for the "Life" cover. Other data he had included a copy of the Warren Commission Report, but he showed nothing to [REDACTED] which would support his opinions.

According to Gregory the Warren Commission has two reports and full knowledge of the Director's and Hunt's participation in the assassination but the Commission felt that by releasing the true facts "chaos" would result in the country. The alleged reason that the Director was one of the plotters was because of a falling out with the Kennedys. Gregory claims that prior to the assassination President Johnson was also aware of the plot but powerless to stop it because exposing it would be to admit that the FBI and intelligence hierarchy really controlled the country. Gregory further claimed to have a document written regarding true facts of the assassination, apparently written as a story prepared in the year 2505 A.D. When pinned down, Gregory later reluctantly admitted the document was written by his [REDACTED] but was based on irrefutable proof. Trying to lend importance to the document, he claimed that a man in Miami was killed for having the document in his possession. Gregory further claimed that the FBI knows he has all this evidence, has put him under constant surveillance and in the near future will put an end to his life. Other statements were to the effect that most Agents who leave the FBI are now actively engaged in radical right or extreme conservative movements, that in no other country would the Warren Commission's whitewashed report have been accepted, H. L. Hunt finances the "Minute Men" throughout the United States and Hunt finances the Black Muslims. With regard to Hunt's activities, Gregory thought that one Wayne Poucher would know of Hunt's activities. Poucher is minister-commentator for a radio program called "Lifeline" which is sponsored by H. L. Hunt. It is primarily a political and religious movement and has been known to support programs critical of the Supreme Court and has also made extreme proposals concerning a number of controversial topics.

This is, of course, just another instance of Dick Gregory's unfounded, vicious attacks concerning the FBI and the Director. It is obvious from just reading the diatribe put out by Gregory that he is mentally unbalanced. It is pointed out in an attached note to Arnold Forster concerning the memo, a representative of the NAACP, after being told that Gregory was telling some rather startling stories, laughed and said that in the NAACP Gregory is regarded as a complete nut and they try not to work with him. Apparently Gregory has been a source of embarrassment to the NAACP and they feel that sometimes his activities are more harmful than helpful. It would obviously do no good to talk to Gregory about this interview and it is felt that it should be given no cognizance.

TO: Arnold Forster
FROM: [REDACTED]
DATE: January 26, 1965

You will recall receiving a fascinating and strange memorandum from [REDACTED] regarding his conversation with Dick Gregory in a Miami nightclub.

I called my friend, [REDACTED] of the NAACP, and merely indicated to him that we had information that Gregory is telling some rather startling stories.

[REDACTED] laughed and said that in the NAACP they regard Gregory as a complete nut and try not to work with him, except that he gets in their hair on a number of occasions. He also indicated to me that at times Gregory was a source of embarrassment and they fear that sometimes his activities are more harmful than helpful.

At a meeting between Dick Gregory and myself on January 18th (2 AM) he related the following:

1. The John F. Kennedy assassination was master minded by J. Edgar Hoover and H. L. Hunt. He then opened a brief case containing alleged documents and photostatic copies of affidavits supporting these statements. He showed me the LIFE MAGAZINE cover which showed Oswald holding a rifle with a telescopic sight attached to the rifle and then an 8 x 10 glossy of allegedly the same picture of Oswald with the gun but without the telescopic sight. He claimed the telescopic sight was drawn in for the LIFE MAGAZINE cover. H showed me an allegedly photostatic copy of an affidavit by a witness who claimed she saw Oswald waiting at a bus stop shortly after 1 PM, and then a copy of the Warren Commission report which stated the President was shot at 1:06 PM. Gregory, however, did not show me any concrete evidence to support his allegations, only copies of statements that have been made public -- LIFE MAGAZINE, the Warren Commission report, newspaper clippings, magazine articles.
2. Gregory claimed that the Warren Commission has two reports, and has full knowledge of the FBI Director's and Hunt's participation in the assassination. However, the Commission felt that by releasing the true facts, "chaos" would result in this country.
3. He stated that Hoover was one of the plotters because he had a falling out with the Kennedys, and Bobby was appointed as the Attorney General to watch over him and slowly ease him out of his position as the Director of the FBI.
4. He claimed that he had proof positive of Hunt's financing the Black Muslims, but when questioned for documentation, said that such documentation is confidential and would cause harm to anyone who saw it.
5. He claimed that the FBI knows that he has all this evidence, has him constantly under surveillance and will some day in the near future, put an end to his life. He is, however, unafraid, keeps his room door ajar at all times and his briefcase unlocked.

He spoke freely for 45 minutes and was not reluctant at any time to withhold any verbal information.

When questioned further regarding Hunt's financing of the Muslims, he said that some of his friends had this information because they were working for Hunt. He was not definite regarding Wayne Poucher's knowledge of Hunt's activities but thought that Poucher also knew because he had heard that some people close to Hunt were aware of both Hunt's financing the Muslims and co-masterminding the plot to assassinate Kennedy.

He stated that prior to the assassination, President Johnson was also aware of the plot but was powerless to stop it because exposing it would be to admit that the FBI and Intelligence hierarchy really controlled the country and this would result in the downfall of the entire Democratic system. He told me of a document that was written regarding true facts of the assassination. He said that one man in Miami was killed for having this document in his possession. There were two copies of this "document" in his briefcase. I asked him for one for our files. He refused and said it was too dangerous. Some time later he gave me one of the copies (enclosed). The "document" is a story written in the year 2505 AD reflecting on the assassination of the president.

Enclosed is a photo of a part of the "document" regarding the events leading up to and including the assassination of the President.

When I questioned the predicted error regarding the election, he said that the last paragraph was now being revised and did not comment further. He said he was hoping Goldwater would win so that most America would be jarred out of their apathy, but now with Johnson as President, everyone will go to sleep and not wake up until it's too late. Later, he reluctantly admitted this "document" was written by [redacted] but was based on irrefutable proof.

Other statements made by Gregory include:

Hunt finances the "Minute Men" throughout the United States. Most agents who leave the FBI are now actively engaged in radical right or extreme conservative movements. In no other country but the United States would the Warren Commission's whitewashed report have been accepted.

We then left and he did his 3 AM show at the Bistro Club, 79th St. Causeway, Miami. He left Miami for Chicago and may be back in a few weeks. His [redacted] are currently demonstrating in Gary, Indiana.

Incredulous as it appears, I give you the above report as background if you want to pursue it further.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

<sup>①</sup>
DICK GREGORY

I watched "The Regis Philbin Show" tonight, and they featured Mr. Dick Gregory.

Mr. Gregory used his usual diet of liberal humor, but the thing that bothered me was when he referred to the F.B.I. implicating there were communists in the civil rights movement, and then proceeded to say he has said to you impertinently, if this is so then name the organizations and who are the infiltrators - in his words "réme rémes".

I think you or someone else in the Justice Department should provide Mr. Gregory with the information of the workings of the F. B. I. instead of allowing this man to go on nationwide television and more or less continue to ridicule and undermine the F.B.I., and you personally.

I would appreciate your sending me any literature you think I may like to read to enable my further knowledge of the Communist movement in America. I would particularly like a copy of the Attorney-General's list of Subversive Organizations as the latest one I have is dated 1961.

I think it should be noted that the Young Socialist Alliance is working extensively recruiting on the Ohio State Campus. I got this information from a student at the college who has been approached many times. I do not know if this is of any interest to you or not.

My sincere thanks,

Dick Gregory
Appearance at Lincoln, Nebraska, February 24,

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 24, 1965, that Dick Gregory, comedian, flew to Lincoln, Nebraska, from Selma, Alabama, on Wednesday, February 24, 1965, where he was scheduled to speak before the Lincoln, Nebraska, Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at their February monthly meeting held at the ballroom of the Lincoln Hotel. Earlier in the afternoon he spoke on the University of Nebraska campus at the Student Union where his talk was sponsored by the "Talks and Topics Committee." Following his evening appearance on February 24, 1965, he was to fly to New York City.

Gregory appeared as scheduled and his reported comments were set out in articles in "The Lincoln Journal," Lincoln, Nebraska, evening newspaper, page one, issue of February 24, 1965, and "The Lincoln Star," Lincoln, Nebraska, morning newspaper, page one, issue of February 25, 1965, and in the "Omaha World-Herald," Omaha, Nebraska, daily newspaper, morning issue of February 25, 1965, on page thirty-one.

According to reporters, Gregory said the American race problem is not a case of "black against white," but "right against wrong" and the recent Civil Rights Act "hasn't satisfied minority groups because it represents getting 64¢ change for a dollar...it's freedom in the installment plan." He also reportedly "lashed out" at J. Edgar Hoover and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, stating "Any organization headed by a 'right winger' isn't going to be fair. He says communists have infiltrated the Civil Rights movement. He should say which groups specifically instead of making a blanket statement. I have a complete distrust of the FBI. Racial murders are one of the easiest crimes to solve, yet it takes them nine months to come up with anything," referring to the case in Mississippi. He also called for an investigation of the recent murder of Malcolm X (Little), head of the Organization of Afro-American Unity, but not by the FBI. He also noted no society should have a "secret police department" and termed FBI Head Hoover as the "right wing head of the secret police." "You can't walk into Chicago airport without 20 FBI Agents looking at you"

Re: Dick Gregory

Gregory also spoke out against capital punishment and noted the fact that churches are segregated as to race. He said that "the Negro in the South, through his voter registration drive, will free the northern Negro and then the Negro will free white America." He also stated that "football is the only fair sport" where the "Negro can chase a white and have 40,000 cheer."

He spoke of Selma, Alabama as the battleground for the Civil Rights movement for the next five or six months. He also protested that the FBI protected leaders of one Negro movement but did not give KING (MARTIN LUTHER KING, Nobel prize winner) any protection at all and stated, "I can't figure it out."

Following the meeting it was reported that he was going to New York for several days before going to Miami, Florida, and that later next week he was to go to Washington, D. C. to speak with Department of Justice officials on the "loopholes in the recent Civil Rights legislation."

Dear Mr. President:

re: Dick Gregory in Bogalusa, La.

On May 2, 1965 the so-called negro comedian came to our state and made some remarks about our FBI agents which are not in keeping with good government. In calling Mr. Hoover "the lousiest dog that ever lived" is resented by the writer as is by many other Louisiana citizens. Some check should be made on this type of character as he must be sick. If Mr. Hoover has no recourse in the courts, some should be provided.

Mayor JESSIE CUTRER of Bogalusa, Louisiana, telephoned through Secretary for the Director.

Per the Director's instructions, the Mayor was advised of his absence, and offered the services of an assistant, which he accepted. The call was referred to Mr. Wick in Mr. DeLoach's Office.

Mr. Wick advised that the Mayor mentioned the intemperate remarks by Dick Gregory concerning the Director. The Mayor said that the negro and white population of Bogalusa, both then and now, have brought about a wave of indignation against Mr. Gregory since his remarks concerning the Director.

Mr. Cutrer apologized for the actions of Mr. Gregory while he was in his town, and is going to write the Director a letter concerning this matter.

Gregory Critical of FBI Chief In Bogalusa Civil Rights Speech

By GIBBS ADAMS

BOGALUSA—Speaking before a civil rights rally of about 500 Negroes here Saturday night, Negro comedian Dick Gregory said FBI Director "J. Edgar Hoover is probably one of the lousiest dogs that ever existed."

Terming Hoover "one of the right wing", the Negro comedian said "it is a sin and a shame. You've got to put all of the FBI down for that dog. The only thing we've got going for us," Gregory continued, "he is 71 years old—thank God."

Later in his address he referred to FBI agents as "thugs", and he also took to task a Bogalusa Negro minister, Rev. W. J. Nelson, who last week criticized the use of children in street demonstrations, and said Negro ministers who are having no part in the street demonstrations here are Uncle Toms. Gregory said "lots of them preachers ain't saying nothing."

Refers to Mayor

The comedian also called Mayor Jesse H. Cutrer an "Uncle Tom," and defined a Tom as "a cat that uses finesse and trickery."

Gregory, who didn't arrive here until 8:45 as a result of his plane being late, said an Uncle Tom is like a 4-F. "He stays back and lets someone else do all the fighting and then he collects all the benefits from the GI bill."

Speaking of Rev. Nelson, Gregory said his comments drew newspaper publicity all the way to New York because he "said what the white man wanted to hear."

"If he had stood in front of you and told you about freedom, the Constitution, and America," Gregory said, "they never would have put it in the paper. But he can say this about you and it gets in the paper."

Gregory said the preacher's criticism of children in marches here is unwarranted, pointing out that children had a role in biblical time.

"Who did they send out to fight that giant?" Gregory asked. As the audience shouted the answer of "David" back to him, Gregory declared, "He was a child." And how old was Moses when his Maniny put him in that basket?"

Gregory said churches are the most segregated places in the world, pointing out that pool halls, swimming pools, night clubs, hotels and restaurants have integrated, but not churches.

The comedian also struck out at the elder Negroes in Bogalusa who are having nothing to do with the civil rights demonstrations here, and charged, "you ain't never done nothin' worth a damn, but sit around with your mouth full of snuff and with your Bible upside down. You lay up in bed with your rheumatism, high blood pressure, you'd get better medical care in jail."

He urged the elderly to "do something for society, and said at present. 'You ain't doing nothin' but getting in the way. When you die—Lord knows, I hope it's soon—then this civil rights movement can go forward."

Defines Problem

Gregory said the civil rights problem is not one of black against white, but of right against wrong.

And, he added, the white man is the slave of the Negro but doesn't know it. A free man, he added, is a man without fears, but the white man fears Negroes residing in his neighborhood, going with his daughter, eating in his restaurant. Hence, Gregory reasoned, the white man is the slave of the Negro.

He did call for respect of the law—when it's right, but urged his hearers to "destroy the law when it's wrong," and said this is in keeping with American tradition, recalling the Boston tea party and the disobedience of American pioneers of British law.

He called the Civil Rights Act an illegitimate bill because "America is not saying we are sorry, we want to see justice done. We got a civil rights bill because we shattered business and disrupted the peace all last summer."

'Installment Plan Freedom'

He said the bill provided "freedom on the installment plan while the American Negro is being asked to go to Viet Nam and provide instant freedom for cats in a foreign land."

He called states rights "the biggest trick in the world" and "sophisticated Hitlerism," then added:

"As Hitler fell, baby, this is gonna fall, too."

He said that Negroes have a life expectancy seven years less than whites and their insurance companies "give you the pleasure of paying a higher rate."

He also termed the civil rights movement "pure and good" and rapped at criticism that Communists have a role in it.

"I wouldn't say there might not be a few Communists in the movement, Gregory said, but he declared that he'd always heard that Russians didn't believe in freedom.

Dear Governor:

The press on May fifth reports that during a Bogalusa rally, negro comedian Dick Gregory called J. Edgar Hoover, "one of the louisiest dogs that ever lived."

Such talk is not only an affront to Mr. Hoover but is an insult to every decent Louisiana citizen. This is not a Bogalusa matter or a Caddo Parish matter, it is a State matter and should be handled as such.

It is high time that we stopped making Louisiana a privileged sanctuary for such outside agitators as Dick Gregory, James Farmer and Martin Luther King. Just as fast as this scum invades Louisiana hunting trouble, let us give them free board and lodging at State expense, until the name Louisiana becomes anathema to them. Legally these persons are vagrants with no visible means of support, and having but one objective, to disturb the peace. Let them be charged only with simple offenses, carrying a penalty of $7.50 fine and five days in jail, with bond denied.

When Hubo McKellar was mayor of Shreveport, he made Milam Avenue the first paved street in the city. He needed labor and how. The Mayor also was judge of the City Court. Every Monday morning, to each character arrested over the week end the Mayor had one pronouncement $7.50 and five days at labor.

Let us give all the Dick Greagories $7.50 and five days in jail until they spread the word, "Louisiana is poison". This expression would rival the famous words of General Potain at Verdun, when he said, "They shall not pass".

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The enclosed article appeared in today's Cleveland Press. I don't know how it could be worked, but I believe it would be good for our country if you had a public relations department in the F.B.I. composed of about five men who are good speakers, and experts on the menace of communism and pseudo-liberalism who would speak on college and university campuses to defend the F.B.I., and to attack the conspiratorial views of communists and fellow travelers by exposing the students to the truth. We need some experts to counteract the communists and the fellow travelers who are lodged in churches, schools, communications media etc. Although members of the "political underworld" fight among themselves as to how to force socialism down our throats, the communists, socialists, and pseudo-liberals stand together and help each other when under attack by those who believe in the free enterprise system, and constitutional government.

Someone must expose their false philosophy who is an expert and who can defend the F.B.I. at the same time.

We are tired of the constant attacks upon the F.B.I., and would like someone to speak to students to attack the leftists, and defend the F.B.I.

Ohio U. to Allow Nazi to Speak on Campus

By BUD WEIDENTHAL

The president of Ohio University has reaffirmed the right of student groups to invite controversial speakers to the campus on the eve of the appearance of George Lincoln Rockwell, head of the American Nazi Party.

Tomorrow's speech by Rockwell and the scheduled appearance of Ohio Communist leader Anton Krchmarek on Apr. 28 have caused a controversy in the Athens area.

ROCKWELL KRCHMAREK

But a spokesman for the university said ticket sale for the Nazi's speech was brisk and a full house was expected in the 2800-seat Memorial Hall on the campus. Tickets are 25 cents.

content of speeches made by those speakers.

Invitations to the Nazi and the Communist were sent by students of Bush Hall dormitory. Both meetings were approved by the dormitory faculty adviser and the Campus Affairs Committee.

"To do so would be to put the university in the position of endorsing the beliefs or opinions of those speakers whose appearances are approved.

A SPOKESMAN released this statement from President Vernon R. Alden, defining administration policy:

"One of the basic philosophies of the American university is the free interchange of ideas."

"While the university requires that student groups follow specified regulations in inviting speakers to campus, it does not impose any limitation on the philosophical, ideological or political

David Keller, director of public relations at Ohio U., said there was no indication of organized opposition to the speeches on campus. But he said there has been some letters of protest to the student newspaper, the Ohio University Post.

Dear Mr. Hoover: ~~J. EDGAR HOOVER BLASTED BY~~

~~COMEDIAN DICK GREGORY~~

You are to be congratulated for your stand against communism.

Enclosed, herewith, is an United Press International dispatch sent out over it's wire services and was carried by the Charleston, S. C. News and Courier, the most outspoken newspaper in the USA today on communism and every day happenings.

Like many in America today, I am very much concerned about the future of our beloved country.

Have read all of the books written by you pertaining to the FBI and those exposing the dangers of communism and they have convinced me you are an authority on this subject.

Please keep up the good work and we hope to have you for a long time to come.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover Blasted By Comedian Dick Gregory

BOGALUSA, La. (UPI)—Negro comedian Dick Gregory, who has appeared at a number of the nation's racial trouble spots, deviated from his comic routine during the weekend for some serious charges against the FBI, its director J. Edgar Hoover and the civil rights bill.

Gregory, in a special appearance at a Negro rally Saturday night, said the FBI was "the biggest trick going." Its agents were "thugs" and its director was "one of the loudest dogs that ever existed."

About 500 persons, mostly teen-agers and young adults, turned out to hear Gregory speak.

Bogalusa, designated a top target of the civil rights movement by Congress of Racial Equality (C.O.R.E.) Director James Farmer, has been quiet since a special three-man mediation team began work last week to set up negotiations between Negroes and whites.

Gregory, who left after the rally to return to Philadelphia, said the only thing Negroes can be thankful for about the FBI director is that Hoover is 71 years old.

Gregory also lashed out at a Bogalusa Negro minister who criticized CORE for using teen-agers in street demonstrations and at older Bogalusa Negroes who have taken no part in recent racial demonstrations.

Rev. W. A. Nelson, pastor of the Mount Moriah Baptist Church, last week struck out at CORE for using "children" in the civil rights movement in Bogalusa.

Gregory said Nelson and other Negro ministers who have boycotted demonstrations were "Uncle Toms", which he defined as "Cats who use finesse and trickery."

Attacking older Bogalusa Negroes, Gregory said "you ain't never done nothing worth a damn but sit around with your mouth full of snuff and with your Bible upside down.

"You lay up in bed with your rheumatism, high blood pressure—you'd get better medical care in jail. You ain't doing nothing but getting in the way. When you die—Lord knows, I hope its soon—then the civil rights movement can go forward," he said.

Gregory, who told the audience to "turn the town upside down if necessary" to get freedom, said the civil rights bill was merely a written law and did not guarantee anything. "You can't vote the gun out of the sheriff's hand."

He said the bill provided "freedom on the installment plan while the American Negro is being asked to go to Viet Nam and provide instant freedom for cats in a foreign land."

"America is not saying we are sorry, we want to see justice done. We got a civil rights bill because we shattered business and disrupted the peace all last summer," he said.

The rally was held in an empty lot on the north side of town. Negro leader Orbert Hicks said the city refused permission to use a city-owned baseball park for the rally.

The city's decision followed a similar position taken by the local school board, which banned controversial or political meetings on school property.

A segregationist rally set for next week will be held on a shopping center parking lot because school officials denied the group the use of a high school football stadium.

A three-man mediation team—made up of a state senator, a prominent attorney and a state labor leader—met with attorneys for the city and the Bogalusa (Negro) civic and voters league last week to set the groundwork for sessions aimed at solving the town's racial problems.

It was not announced when the first negotiation meeting would be held.

UPI A12ON DA
 NIGHT LEAD MCKEITHEN

NEW ORLEANS, MAY 4 (UPI)--GOV. JOHN MCKEITHEN OF LOUISIANA SAID TODAY THAT NEGRO COMEDIAN DICK GREGORY, WHO ALSO PROMOTES CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENTS, IS "NOTHING BUT TROUBLE, SCUM AND TRASH."

GREGORY, IN A TALK LAST WEEKEND IN RACIALLY UPSET BOGALUSA, LA., ATTACKED THE FBI AND SAID FBI DIRECTOR J. EDGAR HOOVER IS "ONE OF THE LOUSIEST DOGS THAT EVER LIVED."

MCKEITHEN, IN AN IMPROMPTU NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY IN NEW ORLEANS, URGED GREGORY, JAMES FARMER, NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF THE CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE), AND OTHER OUTSIDE CIVIL RIGHTS WORKERS TO STAY OUT OF LOUISIANA.

HE SAID GREGORY ESPECIALLY "SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO RUN LOOSE; SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH HIM." HE SAID GREGORY IS "NOTHING BUT TROUBLE."

"I COULD THINK OF 100 OTHER NEGROES IN THE STATE WHO WOULD BE MORE QUALIFIED TO LEAD THEM (BOGALUSA NEGROES)," MCKEITHEN SAID.

"THEY (OUTSIDE CIVIL RIGHTS WORKERS) WANT TO HAVE VIOLENCE CREATED AND WHEN IT DOESN'T HAPPEN OUTSIDERS BECOME FRUSTRATED AND THAT'S WHY THEY MAKE SUCH COMMENTS AS THEY DO."

MCKEITHEN URGED WHITE CONSERVATIVES OF WASHINGTON PARISH (COUNTY) TO POSTPONE A PLANNED RALLY AND MARCH OR PROTEST SOME PLACE BESIDES BOGALUSA. THE WHITE CONSERVATIVES ARE SEGREGATIONISTS.

THE GROUP IS SCHEDULED TO HOLD A RALLY FRIDAY WITH DALLAS COUNTY, ALA., SHERIFF JIM CLARK AND SEGREGATIONIST LEADER LEANDER PEREZ SR. OF LOUISIANA AS MAIN SPEAKERS.

"THE WHITE PEOPLE HAVE THE RIGHT TO MARCH AND YOU CAN'T BLAME THEM," MCKEITHEN SAID. "HOWEVER, ANY MEETINGS HELD TO INCITE EMOTIONS SHOULD NOT BE HELD."

BUT PEREZ "CAN IN NO WAY BE COMPARED TO TRASH LIKE FARMER AND GREGORY," MCKEITHEN SAID. HE SAID PEREZ IS A LOUISIANA AND HAS A RIGHT TO GO TO BOGALUSA.

FARMER LED A SERIES OF MARCHES IN BOGALUSA, A SOUTHEAST LOUISIANA PAPER MILL TOWN, AND SAID IT IS THE PRIME TARGET FOR RACIAL DEMONSTRATIONS.

MCKEITHEN HAS BEEN A GUIDING FORCE IN EFFORTS TO SETTLE RACIAL DISPUTES IN LOUISIANA. HE MADE AN UNPRECEDENTED TRIP TO JONESBORO, LA., WHICH ALSO HAS A TOUCHY RACIAL SITUATION, LAST MONTH TO TALK TO RACIAL LEADERS.

HE ALSO WAS INSTRUMENTAL IN GETTING A THREE-MAN MEDIATION TEAM TO WORK TOWARD SETTING UP NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN NEGROES AND WHITES IN BOGALUSA.

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover:

I'm sending a clipping of an attack made on you in the Morning Advocate, on May 2, 1965 in Bogalusa by nigger Dick Gregory for the purpose of stirring up trouble between whites and niggers.

I have the utmost respect for you and your agents. I would hate to think what it would be like without your wonderful department. It is revolting indeed to say the least that a nigger of his caliber can say such things about an official of our country.

Gregory Critical of FBI Chief In Bogalusa Civil Rights Speech

By GIBBS ADAMS

BOGALUSA—Speaking before a civil rights rally of about 500 Negroes here Saturday night, Negro comedian Dick Gregory said FBI Director "J. Edgar Hoover is probably one of the lousiest dogs that ever existed."

Terming Hoover "one of the right wing", the Negro comedian said "It is a sin and a shame. You've got to put all of the FBI down for that dog. The only thing we've got going for us," Gregory continued, "he is 71 years old—thank God."

Later in his address he referred to FBI agents as "thugs", and he also took to task a Bogalusa Negro minister, Rev. W. J. Nelson, who last week criticized the use of children in street demonstrations, and said Negro ministers who are having no part in the street demonstrations here are Uncle Toms. Gregory said "lots of them preachers ain't saying nothing."

Refers to Mayor

The comedian also called Mayor Jesse H. Cutrer an "Uncle Tom," and defined a Tom as "a cat that uses finesse and trickery."

Gregory, who didn't arrive here until 8:45 as a result of his plane being late, said an Uncle Tom is like a 4-F. "He stays back and lets someone else do all the fighting and then he collects all the benefits from the GI bill."

Speaking of Rev. Nelson, Gregory said his comments drew newspaper publicity all the way to New York because he "said what the white man wanted to hear."

"If he had stood in front of you and told you about freedom, the Constitution, and America," Gregory said, "they never would have put it in the paper. But he can say this about you and it gets in the paper."

Gregory said the preacher's criticism of children in marches here is unwarranted, pointing out that children had a role in biblical time.

"Who did they send out to fight that giant?" Gregory asked. As the audience shouted the answer of "David" back to him, Gregory declared, "He was a child." And how old was Moses when his Manu put him in that basket?"

Gregory said churches are the most segregated places in the world, pointing out that pool halls, swimming pools, night clubs, hotels and restaurants have integrated, but not churches.

The comedian also struck out at the elder Negroes in Bogalusa who are having nothing to do with the civil rights demonstrations here, and charged, "you ain't never done nothin' worth a damn, but sit around with your mouth full of snuff and with your Bible upside down. You lay up in bed with your rheumatism, high blood pressure; you'd get better medical care in jail."

He urged the elderly to "do something for society, and said at present "You ain't doing nothin' but getting in the way. When you die—Lord knows, I hope it's soon—then this civil rights movement can go forward."

Defines Problem

Gregory said the civil rights problem is not one of black against white, but of right against wrong.

And, he added, the white man is the slave of the Negro but doesn't know it. A free man, he added, is a man without fears, but the white man fears Negroes residing in his neighborhood, going with his daughter, eating in his restaurant. Hence, Gregory reasoned, the white man is the slave of the Negro.

He did call for respect of the law—when it's right; but urged his hearers to "destroy the law when it's wrong," and said this is in keeping with American tradition, recalling the Boston tea party and the disobedience of American pioneers of British law.

He called the Civil Rights Act an illegitimate bill because "America is not saying we are sorry, we want to see justice done. We got a civil rights bill because we shattered business, and disrupted the peace all last summer."

'Installment Plan Freedom'

He said the bill provided "freedom on the installment plan while the American Negro is being asked to go to Viet Nam and provide instant freedom for cats in a foreign land."

He called states rights "the biggest trick in the world" and "sophisticated Hitlerism," then added:

"As Hitler fell, baby, this is gonna fall, too."

He said that Negroes have a life expectancy seven years less than whites and their insurance companies "give you the pleasure of paying a higher rate."

He also termed the civil rights movement "pure and good" and rapped at criticism that Communists have a role in it.

"I wouldn't say there might not be a few Communists in the movement, Gregory said, but he declared that he'd always heard that Russians didn't believe in freedom.

Informant

Senator Russell B. Long
Congress of the United States
House of Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Long:

Enclosed is a clipping from the Morning Advocate of a speech that one of the great Civil Rights workers made recently in Bogalusa. That is the reason for this letter. Is it not possible for our elected officials in Washington to do something to stop this kind of agitation in the South?

Laws are being made and changed every week in order to bring about these changes so it seems, and we are told to obey the laws of our Senators and Congressmen; therefore, why is an unfunny comedian allowed to come into our State and hold meetings and make speeches that would arouse any red blooded American whether he be from the North or from the South?

The Honorable J. Edgar Hoover, one of the most respected men in America for as long as most of us can remember is being called the lowest form of animal life and, the white men in general, looked upon as something that has to go. Yet, we are still expected to sit back and wait for the Great Society to help us. Just how long do you people in Washington want us to put up with threats from negro and white Civil Rights workers? They now have a law giving them everything they want and still they march, stage sit-ins, lay-ins, and make speeches that should put them behind bars?

When the woman from Massachusetts was killed in Selma, they charged three white men with murder. Three weeks ago, a white youth of 15 was killed on his way home on a motor bike by a gang of rock and brick throwing negro teenagers of both sex and they were charged with manslaughter. This happened about 10 blocks from my home here in Baton Rouge, and the brick and rock throwing has been going on for quite some time in this same area that the youth was killed.

JESSE H. CUTRER, JR.
MAYOR

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I talked, May 5, with Mr. Wick of your office and requested him to give you a message concerning the feelings of the people of Bogalusa about you and your fine department.

A Negro comedian by the name of Dick Gregory spoke in this City last Saturday night and made some uncomplimentary statements concerning you and your men of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The citizens of this City, both white and Negro, resent very much what this man said. They have expressed themselves in great numbers and in deep resentment against the statement and are upholding you and your department to the fullest extent.

The Governor of our State, the Honorable John J. McKeithen, spoke on local television and was quoted in the Associated Press and United Press International as resenting Gregory's vicious attack and paying you and the department the highest compliments and approbations.

Since I was a very small boy, I have always admired and respected the F.B.I. It is indeed a sincere pleasure for me to express to you my personal admiration and respect for you and your men. The members of the department, in my opinion, have done an excellent job here for their country and the department.

May God bless and keep you always.

Sincerely yours,

SYNOPSIS

mz Gregory has not been investigated by the FBI. However, there are voluminous references in Bureau files concerning his activities in connection with the civil rights movement. He is a 32-year-old Negro, born in St. Louis, Missouri, who, after Army service, was a track star at Southern Illinois University. He left school due to low grades and was subsequently fired from Post Office employment for impersonating other employees and purposely misdirecting mail. He tried the entertainment field and in 1961 achieved success as a comedian at Chicago's Playboy Club. He has been described as the "Negro Mort Sahl." An autobiography by Gregory was recently published entitled "Nigger."

He has been described as a sympathizer of the Muslim movement, appeared with the late Malcolm X Little and attended the latter's funeral after Little's assassination. Gregory was one of the founders of the militant civil rights organization known as "Act" and has been identified along with Adam Clayton Powell and the late Malcolm X Little as a consultant to that group. In December, 1964, Gregory received publicity by distributing turkeys and toys for "Christmas in Mississippi" project sponsored by Act. He stated the project was being carried out with the assistance of Drew Pearson and Sammy Davis, Jr. He has been invited to attend Act Rally in Washington, D. C., 5/27/65. Gregory has also been very active in the Congress of Racial Equality and reportedly contributed thirty days of entertainment time for the benefit of that group in 1964. He has been most active in many civil rights protest movements and related he has been in 24 to 27 jails in connection therewith. It appears he purposely submits himself to arrest and jail.

During the past year he has viciously attacked the Director and the Bureau alleging the Director has made distorted statements concerning communists in the civil rights movement; has claimed he furnished the FBI information leading to solution of the case involving three murdered civil rights workers in Mississippi, when actually his information was of no value.

reportedly made fantastic claims that the Director and Texas oil man, H. L. Hunt, masterminded former President Kennedy's assassination; and has frequently called the FBI a secret police and the Director a "right-winger." The Bureau has not dignified his charges with replies and the Director has noted that Gregory is obviously insane.

The Bureau has conducted several investigations of alleged civil rights violations in which Gregory was the victim claiming police brutality and discrimination. Reports of all our inquiries have been furnished the Civil Rights Division of the Department.

Indicative of Gregory's character, are statements made in April, 1964, to racial demonstrators in Gary, Indiana, to the effect that if churches did not cooperate in making space available for freedom day classes, racial demonstrators should "kick down the doors of the churches."

Re: Richard Claxton Gregory

DETAILS

Gregory has not been investigated by the FBI; however, Bureau files contain voluminous references concerning his activities in connection with the civil rights movement. Set forth below is a summary of information contained in these references.

BACKGROUND

Gregory was born 10/12/32 at St. Louis, Missouri. According to "Current Biography, 1962" he was educated in the grammar schools in that city, spent two years in the U. S. Army and then returned to Southern Illinois University where he was a track star. He reportedly dropped out of this institution in 1956 due to low grades. He then went to Chicago where he worked for the U. S. Post Office but was fired for impersonating his colleagues and purposely misdirecting mail. After a series of odd jobs, some of them in the entertainment field, he finally became a success as a comedian in January, 1961, while working at the Chicago's Playboy Club. He mostly plays the night club circuit and is allegedly known as the "Negro Mort Sahl." (100-440423-8)

In an autobiography recently released, Gregory gives somewhat of an insight into his character by proclaiming that his wife, Lillian, was four-months pregnant when she told him of her pregnancy and thereafter they were married. Also in certain portions of the book, Gregory lapses into gutter language and a review of the publication revealed no great thoughts or solutions to the race problem. The title of the publication, published by E. P. Dutton and Company, Incorporated, New York, is "Nigger." (100-440423-23)

ASSOCIATIONS WITH MUSLIM ORGANIZATIONS

In August, 1962, an official of the Nation of Islam allegedly stated that Dick Gregory was a sympathizer of that group. (25-330971-6121)

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
Re: Richard Claxton Gregory

The 11/15/62 issue of "Muhammed Speaks," a publication of the Nation of Islam, contained a news item reporting that Gregory had joined white and Negro leaders in protesting the conviction of journalist William Worthy who was sentenced to jail for visiting Cuba without the consent of the U. S. State Department. The article indicated that Gregory would walk a picket line in front of a New York hotel protesting the granting of an award to the then Attorney General, Kennedy, for "advancing human freedom." In the opinion of the picketeers, Attorney General Kennedy "failed on many occasions to act promptly, strongly, and decisively to safeguard and extend human freedom," and listed among the alleged failures was the "current harassment of William Worthy, Boston-born newspaperman." (105-20110-A).

The Organization of Afro-American Unity, a militant civil rights action group of which the late Muslim leader, Malcolm X. Little, was chairman, on 12/13/64 sponsored a public meeting in New York City. After a talk by Malcolm X criticizing the United States position with respect to the Congo and likening the struggle for independence by the Africans with the struggle for freedom by Afro-Americans in the United States, Dick Gregory spoke at length chiefly concerning law enforcement and the racial situation in the South. It is noted that at this meeting, Malcolm X also read a communication allegedly a greeting sent him by Cuban Minister of Industry Ernesto "Che" Guevara who apparently had been invited to attend. (100-399321-215).

Dick Gregory was among those attending funeral services for Malcolm X Little after the leader's assassination on 2/21/65. (100-399321-302)

ACT

In a television interview 3/24/64, Malcolm X Little advised he had attended a conference of various civil rights leaders in Chester, Pennsylvania, on 3/14/64, which conference was also attended by Dick Gregory. At this conference a new militant civil rights organization named "Act" was formed for the purpose of acting anytime, anywhere, and in any manner to bring about results in the civil rights field. Subsequent news articles identified Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, Dick Gregory and Malcolm X as consultants for Act. (100-442529-286)

Re: Richard Claxton Gregory

Subsequent to the formation of Act, Gregory has appeared at many of its functions as a speaker. It is noted that information was received 2/25/65 that Washington Act will sponsor a rally in Washington, D. C., on 5/27/65, to which rally Dick Gregory has been invited. (100-441968; 157-6-53-559)

In December, 1964, the Chicago branch of Act was directly involved in the Christmas for Mississippi project wherein a large number of turkeys and toys were sent to needy Negro families in Mississippi. Gregory was most active in the project and he and his family accompanied the shipment to Mississippi and participated in the distribution of the food and toys. Gregory reportedly stated upon arrival in Jackson, Mississippi, on 12/23/64 that the turkey project was being carried out by himself, columnist Drew Pearson and actor Sammy Davis, Jr., to "call attention to poverty period." (157-2337)

CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

Gregory, since entering the civil rights movement, has spoken on numerous occasions at Congress of Racial Equality rallies and participated in the activities of that organization. In 1964 Gregory announced that he was contributing thirty days of entertainment time from 9/14/64 to 10/14/64 in behalf of the Congress of Racial Equality and the Negro cause on a national basis. (100-440423-15)

MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITIES

Gregory at various times has been involved in the promotion of rent strikes, economic boycotts, sit-ins, picket lines and other forms of protest. He has also demonstrated recently against capital punishment in connection with other civil rights groups. He accompanied the freedom marchers in the recent march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama, and according to a Drew Pearson column, 3/27/65, stated after being released from the Selma jail that he, Gregory, had been in 24 or 27 jails; he could not remember which. FBI Identification Record 796519E concerning Dick Gregory reveals, however, only three arrests; one each in Birmingham, Alabama, San Francisco, California, and Selma, Alabama. It is assumed that Gregory was not fingerprinted during the majority of his arrests. (140-440423; 157-6-28-885; 94-8-350-A)

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
Re: Richard Claxton Gregory

ATTACKS UPON THE DIRECTOR AND THE FBI

In May, 1964, Gregory sent a telegram to the Director stating the Director "created several major distortions by announcing that there were communists connected with the civil rights movement in America." He challenged the Director to identify these communists and demanded that this be done or else the statement be retracted. This demand was not dignified with a reply and the Director noted that Gregory should be ignored. (100-420423-6,7)

In news conferences in August, 1964, Gregory again attacked the Bureau in connection with the three murdered civil rights workers in Mississippi. Gregory claimed to have furnished us with information eventually leading to the finding of the bodies and information identifying the killers. In this instance, he demanded that Congress investigate the FBI. Gregory did furnish information to the Bureau in connection with this case, however, the information furnished was of no value.

In January, 1965, Gregory allegedly made statements to the effect that the assassination of President Kennedy was masterminded by the Director and H. L. Hunt (the Texas oil millionaire). Gregory further claimed the Warren Commission had prepared two reports of its findings and had full knowledge of the foregoing but did not release the "true" facts. Gregory made other fantastic statements along this same vein and the Director commented that Gregory is obviously insane.

Various news accounts have repeatedly reported other critical remarks by Gregory calling the FBI a secret police department and calling the Director a "right-winger." (100-440423)

CIVIL RIGHTS CASES IN WHICH GREGORY LISTED AS VICTIM

On 2/21/64 Attorney General Robert Kennedy, through his secretary, requested the Bureau to interview Dick Gregory who had been incarcerated with others from 2/17 to 2/21/64 at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, in connection with an attempt to integrate a restaurant at Pine Bluff. Gregory had called the Attorney General and complained to him about conditions in the Pine Bluff jail. Gregory was subsequently interviewed and a signed statement taken dated 2/21/64 wherein he complained of a white prisoner who had allegedly been beaten by prison authorities. Gregory also complained an alleged brutality against himself in that he had been placed in solitary confinement, had no water in the cell and had nothing to drink for two days. He stated he was fed one sandwich a day. He also complained he had been unable to contact his lawyer. It developed that Gregory wanted to be imprisoned as the sheriff who arrested him noted that Gregory had sufficient funds to be released on bond and was encouraged to do so by the sheriff so the sheriff would not have to place him in jail. Copies of our reports were made available to the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice, the last one being 3/17/64. (44-24630)

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont

Gregory was arrested by the Birmingham Police Department on 5/6/63 in connection with a racial demonstration. He made public accusations when he was subsequently released on 5/9/63 to the effect he had been beaten while confined to the Birmingham City Jail. The chief warden of the jail stated that Gregory was considered a "model prisoner." Gregory made no complaint of the food or of his treatment to any jail official while a prisoner. Representatives of the press who attended Gregory's press conference immediately after his release stated that they observed no injuries on his person and that Gregory had been confused when questioned concerning which arm he claimed was beaten. Airport attendants at Birmingham who observed Gregory departing on 5/9/63 stated he appeared physically normal in all respects; no injuries were noted and he was in jovial spirits. The United States Attorney at Birmingham expressed views that the facts of the civil rights cases were without prosecutive merit. (44-22002)

On 2/11/65 the Department requested a preliminary investigation concerning the refusal on the part of the Burger Boy Drive-In restaurant located in Savannah, Georgia, to serve Negroes. On 2/9/65 Dick Gregory with 15 Negroes staged a sit-in at the aforementioned restaurant. Our report has been furnished to the Civil Rights Division of the Department in this matter. (173-694)

Gregory on 2/15/65 was allegedly refused reservations at the Holiday Inn located in Selma, Alabama. In a subsequent discussion with the proprietors of that establishment, Gregory was arrested for disorderly conduct by the Selma Police Department. He allegedly was struck a "blow in the back" by the fist of a Selma officer on 2/16/65. A report of our preliminary investigation in the matter has been furnished the Civil Rights Division of the Department and no further investigation has been requested. (173-694)

There are numerous references to Dick Gregory in Bureau files. However, they deal principally with his involvement in racial demonstrations. Many times it appears he purposely submits himself to arrest and jail, many times arriving at the scene of the disturbance after police have taken away the initial demonstrators. In April, 1964, in a speech to approximately 450 persons attending racial demonstrations in Gary, Indiana, Gregory urged that if churches did not cooperate in making space available for freedom day classes, racial demonstrators should "kick down the doors of the churches." ### Three Prisoners Drown in Miss.

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Three Hinds County prison farm inmates drowned here Saturday when they were being ferried across a lake on a cleanup detail.

They were Lee V. Andrews, Willie E. Henry and Augustus Lee.

Officers said the trio and two other inmates in a boat being taken to an island in Lake Hico when one stood up and the boat capsized.

They were only four feet from shore, but the water is eight feet deep at the point. The other two men made it to safety.

Gregory Critical of FBI Chief In Bogalusa Civil Rights Speech

By GIBBS ADAMS

BOGALUSA—Speaking before a civil rights rally of about 300 Negroes here Saturday night, Negro comedian Dick Gregory said FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover is probably one of the loneliest dogs that ever existed.

Turning Hoover "one of the right wing," the Negro comedian said "he is a sadist and a thug." You've got to put all of the FBI down for that dog. The only thing we've got going for us," Gregory continued, "he is 71 years old—thank God."

Later in his address he referred to FBI agents as "thugs" and also took a task a Bogalusa Negro minister, Rev. W. J. Nelson, who last week criticized the use of children in street demonstrations, and said Negro ministers who are having no part in the street demonstrations here are Uncle Toms. Gregory said, "lots of them preachers ain't saying nothing."

Refers to Mayor: "The comedian also called Mayor Jesse H. Carter an 'Uncle Tom' and defined a Tom as 'a cat that uses finesse and trickery.'"

Gregory, who didn't arrive here until 8:45 as a result of the plane being late, said an Uncle Tom is like a 4-F. "He stays back and lets someone else do all the fighting and then he collects all the benefits from the GI bill."

Speaking of Rev. Nelson, Gregory said his comments drew newspaper publicity all the way to New York because he "said what the white man wanted to hear."

"If he had stood in front of you and told you about freedom, the Constitution, and America," Gregory said, "they never would have put it in the paper. But he can say this about you and it gets in the paper."

Gregory said the preacher's criticism of children in marches here is unwarranted, pointing out that children had a role in biblical times.

"Who did they send out to fight that giant?" Gregory asked. As the audience shouted the answer of "David" back to him, Gregory declared, "He was a child. And how old was Moses when his 'Manu' put him in that basket?"

Gregory said churches are the most segregated places in the world, pointing out that pool halls, swimming pools, night clubs, hotels and restaurants have integrated, but not churches.

The comedian also struck out at the elder Negroes in Bogalusa who are having nothing to do with the civil rights demonstrations here, and charged, "you ain't never done nothin' worth a damn, but sit around with your mouth full of snuff and with your Bible upside down. You lay up in bed with your rheumatism, high blood pressure, you'd get better medical care in jail."

He urged the elderly to "do something for society, and said at present 'You ain't doing nothin', but getting in the way. When you die—Lord knows, I hope it's soon—then this civil rights movement can go forward."

Deflating Problem: Gregory said the civil rights problem is not one of black against white, but of right against wrong.

And, he added, the white man is the slave of the Negro but doesn't know it. A free man, he added, is a man without fear, but the white man fears Negroes residing in his neighborhood, going with his daughter, eating in his restaurant. Hence, Gregory reasoned, the white man is the slave of the Negro.

He did call for respect of the law when it's right, but urged his hearers to "destroy the law when it's wrong" and said this is in keeping with American tradition, recalling the Boston tea party and the disobedience of American pioneers of British law.

He called the Civil Rights Act an "illegitimate bill" because "America is not saying we are sorry, we want to see justice done. We got a civil rights bill because we shattered business and disrupted the peace all last summer."

"Installation Plan: Freedom" He said the bill provided "freedom on the installation plan while the American Negro is being asked to go to Viet Nam and provide instant freedom for cats in a foreign land."

He called states rights "the biggest trick in the world" and "sophisticated Hitlerism," then added:

"As Hitler fell, baby, this is gonna fall, too."

He said that Negroes have a life expectancy seven years less than whites and their insurance companies "give you the pleasure of paying a higher rate."

He also termed the civil rights movement "pure and good" and rapped at criticism that Communists have a role in it.

"I wouldn't say there might not be a few Communists in the movement," Gregory said, but he declared that he'd always heard that Russians don't believe in freedom.

Ellender Says Gun Legislation Is Unnecessary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., said Saturday night he doesn't believe that nationwide gun control legislation is necessary or justified.

Enactment of such legislation, Ellender said, "would be harmful to the great multitude of law-abiding sportsmen we have, not only in Louisiana but in all states which still have within their boundaries large areas of open fields, hills and great quantities of wildlife."

Ellender in a talk for broadcast in Louisiana, said he has received a great deal of mail opposing enactment of gun control legislation by Congress.

"I am inclined to share the view that strict nationwide gun control regulations are unneeded at this time," he said, adding that too many legitimate sportsmen would be affected by legislation seeking to correct "a few isolated abuses."

He said federal government now has control over illegal interstate shipments of arms and ammunition and that the existing laws should be utilized to control "the few unscrupulous gun dealers who do most of their business through the mails."

Plenty Loud, But Not Very Funny

In the days of vaudeville a comic who was not doing too well was likely to hear from the back row this cry: "Louder and funnier!" On the basis of comedian Dick Gregory's performance in Bogalusa, we would say that he is plenty loud but not very funny or very much of anything else good. His speech was one of the most demagogic, intolerant and unfair that we have ever heard of in connection with the civil rights movement. It was a blatant display of ignorance and smart Aleckism and plainly intended to interrupt peaceful settlement of racial problems in Bogalusa. Gregory is one of those who feel they have a stake in continued turmoil. That is his hobby horse and he is riding it for all he's worth.

In his talk he referred to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover as a "lousy dog" and to FBI agents as "thugs." Mayor J. H. Cutrer of Bogalusa, he added, is an "Uncle Tom." The Rev. W. J. Nelson, Negro minister who last week denounced the use of children in street demonstrations, is "a clown." The adult leaders of the Negro community in Bogalusa are "Uncle Toms" and Gregory, in his own words, hopes that they will all "die soon," so the civil rights movement "can go forward."

Interspersed in all this was a lot of "hip" talk in which individuals and populations were mentioned as "cats." The "Uncle Toms," he added, are like a 4-F "who stays back and lets someone else do all the fighting and then he collects all the benefits from the G-I bill." For the record, this is the first we have heard that anyone classified 4-F in the draft was eligible for anything under the G-I bill.

What's bothering Gregory, of course, is the same thing that has been bothering James Farmer, another volunteer Moses. The older Negroes in Bogalusa are having little or nothing to do with the demonstrations. A very large percentage of the marchers and pickets have been youths and children. A recent news photo showed one of them marching down the street carrying a large sign which read "We Want Jobs Now." He was a 12-year-old kid.

Editor, Morning Advocate:

I was shocked by the reported utterances of Mr. Dick Gregory about Mr. J. Edgar Hoover and the Rev. W. J. Nelson. Such name-calling, McCarthyism, character assassination and mud-slinging cannot help but reflect upon the whole Civil Rights movement. Have we not had enough of this already?

What would it profit us if we gain our civil rights and yet lose our rights to dissent? Would we allow such totalitarian methods to be used to acquire democratic goals?

Editor, Morning Advocate:

After reading the article which recently appeared in the Morning Advocate regarding the extremely high percentage of young men in Louisiana who could not qualify under our present draft laws, for the armed service, I was very shocked, as I am sure were many folks who read the article.

Of particular interest, however, was a reference in the article to the substantial percentage of candidates for the armed services who were considered not mentally qualified to serve their country, in short illiterate. Wouldn't it be ironic if the same people were considered eligible to vote on matters involving their country's welfare, but disqualified, or putting it bluntly, not required to serve and defend their country?

Something to think about, isn't it?

Gregory Critical of FBI Chief In Bogalusa Civil Rights Speech

BY GIBBS ADAMS

BOGALUSA, Speaking before a civil rights rally of about 500 Negroes here Saturday night, Negro comedian Dick Gregory said FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover is probably one of the loudest dogs that ever existed.

Terming Hoover "one of the right wing", the Negro comedian said "It is a sin and a shame. You've got to put all of the FBI down for that dog. The only thing we've got going for us," Gregory continued, "he is 71 years old—thank God."

Later in his address he referred to FBI agents as "thugs", and he also took to task a Bogalusa Negro minister, Rev. W. J. Nelson, who last week criticized the use of children in street demonstrations, and said Negro ministers who are having no part in the street demonstrations here are Uncle Toms. Gregory said "lots of them preachers ain't saying nothing."

Refers to Mayor

The comedian also called Mayor Jesse H. Cutrer an "Uncle Tom," and defined a Tom as "a cat that uses finesse and trickery."

Gregory, who didn't arrive here until 8:45 as a result of his plane being late, said an Uncle Tom is like a 4-F. "He stays back and lets someone else do all the fighting and then he collects all the benefits from the GI bill."

Speaking of Rev. Nelson, Gregory said his comments drew newspaper publicity all the way to New York because he "said what the white man wanted to hear."

"If he had stood in front of you and told you about freedom, the Constitution, and America," Gregory said, "they never would have put it in the paper. But he can say this about you and it gets in the paper."

Gregory said the preacher's criticism of children in marches here is unwarranted, pointing out that children had a role in biblical time.

"Who did they send out to fight that giant?" Gregory asked. As the audience shouted the answer of "David" back to him, Gregory declared, "He was a child." And how old was Moses, when his Manim put him in that basket?"

Gregory said churches are the most segregated places in the world, pointing out that pool halls, swimming pools, night clubs, hotels and restaurants have integrated, but not churches.

The comedian also struck out at the elder Negroes in Bogalusa who are having nothing to do with the civil rights demonstrations here, and charged, "you ain't never done nothin' worth a damn, but sit around with your mouth full of snuff and with your Bible upside down. You lay up in bed with your rheumatism, high blood pressure, you'd get better medical care in jail."

He urged the elderly to "do something for society, and said at present "You ain't doing nothin' but getting in the way. When you die—Lord knows, I hope it's soon—then this civil rights movement can go forward."

Defines Problem

Gregory said the civil rights problem is not one of black against white, but of right against wrong.

And, he added, the white man is the slave of the Negro but doesn't know it. A free man, he added, is a man without fears, but the white man fears Negroes residing in his neighborhood, going with his daughter, eating in his restaurant. Hence, Gregory reasoned, the white man is the slave of the Negro.

He did call for respect of the law—when it's right, but urged his hearers to "destroy the law when it's wrong," and said this is in keeping with American tradition, recalling the Boston tea party and the disobedience of American pioneers of British law.

He called the Civil Rights Act an illegitimate bill because "America is not saying we are sorry, we want to see justice."

and disrupted the peace last summer."

Installment Plan Freedom

He said the bill provided "freedom on the installment plan while the American Negro is being asked to go to Viet Nam and provide instant freedom for cats in a foreign land."

He called states rights "the biggest trick in the world" and "sophisticated Hitlerism," then added:

"As Hitler fell, baby, this is gonna fall, too."

He said that Negroes have a life expectancy seven years less than whites and their insurance companies "give you the pleasure of paying a higher rate."

He also termed the civil rights movement "pure and good" and rapped at criticism that Communists have a role in it.

"I wouldn't say there might not be a few Communists in the movement," Gregory said, but he declared that he'd always heard that Russians didn't believe in freedom.

Segregationist Group— Bogalusa Is Braced For Rally on Friday

BOGALUSA, UPD—This paper mill city on the Mississippi border survived a Negro rally featuring Negro comedian Dick Gregory without incident last weekend and then braced itself for Friday's white segregationist rally.

The city, which began to suffer with its racial troubles nearly a month ago with Negro demonstrations, marches and pickets, continued to enjoy a quiet, restful attitude as the result of a three-man mediation team's attempts to bring Negro and white to the bargaining table. The day may come this week.

SATURDAY NIGHT, Gregory addressed a rally of some 500 Negroes, mostly teenagers and young adults, at an empty lot. He sharply criticized the FBI, a Bogalusa Negro minister, and the town's older Negroes. The FBI, he said, was "the biggest trick going" and its agents were "thugs." FBI head J. Edgar Hoover was called "one of the louisiest dogs that ever existed."

Gregory said the only thing Negroes could be thankful for was that Hoover is 71 years old.

THE COMEDIAN, who has addressed Negro rallies at some of the South's hottest racial spots, lashed out against Rev. W. A. Nelson, pastor of the Mount Moriah Baptist Church here, who last week criticized the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) for using children in civil rights demonstrations.

Gregory said "the worst enemy of the white man is the so-called Uncle. He tricks white man and colored man. He is a four 'F' soldier. He stays in the back after soldier fights and he gets all the GI bills."

FOR OLDER Negroes, Gregory also had sharp words. "You ain't never done nothing worth a damn," he said, "but sit around with your mouth full of snuff and with your Bible upside down."

"You lay up in bed with your rheumatism, high blood pressure. You'd get better medical care in jail. You ain't doing nothing but getting in the way. When you die — Lord knows, I hope it's soon — then this civil rights movement can go forward," he said.

THE RALLY was held in a lot on the north side of town after Negroes were refused use of a city-owned baseball park.

The city's decision followed a similar position taken by the local school board, which banned controversial or political meetings from school property.

The board refused the whites use of a high school football stadium for their rally Friday night. It will, instead, be held in a shopping center parking lot.

Addressing this rally will be Dallas County (Selma, Ala.) Sheriff Jim Clark and Plaquemines Parish political boss and arch-segregationist Leander H. Perez Sr.

FROM : D. C. Morrell

SUBJECT: STATE SENATOR HAROLD MONTGOMERY, LOUISIANA

By letter dated 5/16/65, captioned individual enclosed a copy of a newspaper article describing Dick Gregory's irresponsible attack on the Director and the FBI. Montgomery notes this is a terrible thing that Negroes are being allowed to do anything they wish.

BUFILES:

Bufiles indicate that in 1956 Montgomery was listed as a member of the White Citizens Council at Doyline, Louisiana. In 1961 he wrote asking the Director to condemn UNICEF and in 1963 he was listed as a speaker at a meeting of the Ku Klux Klan at Olla, Louisiana. In 1962 correspondent introduced a resolution he called the "Patrick Henry Declaration of 1962" which called for the State Legislature to censure the FBI in regard to its investigation into a bombing incident at Shreveport, Louisiana. The resolution stated among other criticisms: "--outraged by prostitution of the once great FBI and its misuse as a political police force not dissimilar in method and result to the Gestapo or NKVD." An in-absence reply was directed to him in October, 1963 in view of his background.

OBSERVATION:

REC 12 100-440423-46

It would appear that Montgomery is attempting to say "I told you so" in accordance with his apparent Ku Klux Klan sympathies and is not expecting an answer.

RECOMMENDATION:

2 MAY 27 1965

That his communication not be acknowledged; however, that a copy of his letter be sent to New Orleans for their information by the attached routing slip.

Yale Prof Slated

The son of two veteran Communist-fronters is among the scheduled speakers at the University of California's Viet Nam "teach-in" May 21.

Yale history Professor Staughton Lynd, son of Robert S. Lynd and Helen Merrell Lynd, will carry on the family's ideological tradition by appearing in opposition to the U.S. anti-Communist foreign policy. Young Lynd's statements are widely quoted in current left-wing publications, including the No. 3 issue of "Free Student," published by the pro-Viet Cong May 2nd Movement. This organization has been described by a former member as dominated by the pro-Peking Progressive Labor Movement, recently rechristened the Progressive Labor Party.

Staughton Lynd was listed as one of four guests invited to keynote the anniversary celebration of the Communist National Guardian Nov. 24. He was formerly a professor at Spelman College, Atlanta, and coordinated the "Freedom School" agitation in Mississippi last summer. Earlier he took part in the "Oswald was framed" drive launched by the National Guardian.

Robert S. Lynd, his father, is a professor of sociology at Columbia University. He has been affiliated with Communist fronts since at least 1938.

THE THEME WAS 'HATE AMERICA'

'Viet Nam Day'—Few Surprises

They called it a "teach-in," but it sounded at times more like a compulsive exercise in self-denigration, at others like the shrieks of a sick evangelist sleep-walking into politics.

The University of California's 36-hour "get out of Viet Nam" demonstration chugged to a halt May 22 with these unmemorable pronouncements typifying the views voiced at the meeting:

Comedian-civil rights demonstrator Dick Gregory called J. Edgar Hoover "to me . . . probably the most vicious, dangerous man in this country. The only good thing about this man is that he's 71 years old—thank God." He referred to Political Science Professors Robert Scalapino and Eugene Burdick of UC, who withdrew from the meeting in protest of its one-sidedness, as "two teachers who copped out."

I. F. Stone, publisher of the ultra-left-wing I. F. Stone's Weekly, termed the war in Viet Nam an "exercise in self-delusion."

ARONSON'S CLAIM

James Aronson, editor of the New York-based Communist National Guardian, accused the U.S. press of practicing self-censorship and "withholding the truth about Viet Nam." Aronson is a recent visitor to Communist-held Cuba whose paper launched leftist attorney Mark Lane's "Oswald was framed" drive.

Novelist Norman Mailer came up with his own original analysis of why the U.S. is involved in Southeast Asia. "We are a property-loving nation, obsessed with the desire to destroy other people's property," he claimed.

Vincent Lynch, former staff member of Carlton Goodlett's San Francisco Sun-Journal and a recent visitor to Cuba, told the audience that "knowing white America I can't accept the fact that the Viet Cong are wrong." Lynch is a member of the black nationalist Freedom Now party.

Mercifully to some, the voice of Bertrand Russell, the aging philosopher given to overseas sponsorship of American pro-Communist causes, was heard on a recording so scratchy as to be unintelligible.

Among the monotonous voices of hate raised against the U.S. for striving to halt Communist aggression in Viet Nam, none was more relentless than that of young Staughton Lynd, Yale professor who spoke at the University of California's "Viet Nam Day" protest May 22.

Lynd openly advocated obstructing U.S. troops in the performance of their mission.

In what sounded like an updated version of incitement to overthrow the government, he called for the "non-violent" replacement of U.S. leaders.

As evidence of the ruthlessness of the opposition he advocates, Lynd proposed that U.S. Marines be kept at home because "they're going to be needed."

SHEDDING BLOOD

Opponents of U.S. anti-Communist policies should be ready to shed blood, he proclaimed.

Lynd was listed as one of four guests invited to speak at the anniversary celebration of the Communist National Guardian last Nov. 24. Formerly a professor at Spelman College, Atlanta, he coordinated the "Freedom School" agitation in Mississippi last summer. He was also a speaker at an "Oswald was framed" drive meeting conducted by the National Guardian, Feb.

The professor's views are frequently quoted by pro-Communist papers, including the No. 3 issue of "Free Student," organ of the militantly pro-Viet Cong May 2nd Movement.

Lynd is the son of two veteran backers of Communist fronts. His father, Columbia Professor Robert S. Lynd, has been affiliated over the past three decades with a number of organizations listed in the House Committee on Un-American Activities' "Guide to Subversive Organizations."

COMMUNIST FRONTS

These include the American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, American Committee for Yugoslav Relief, American Friends of Spanish Democracy, American Russian Institute, Committee for Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact and Council for Pan-American Democracy.

Also, League of American Writers, National Committee to Repeal the McCarran (Internal Security) Act, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, National Emergency Conference for Democratic Rights, New York Conference for Inalienable Rights, Spanish Refugee Appeal and Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade.

Robert Lynd also signed an open letter protesting the ban on Communists in the American Civil Liberties Union, a petition for the defense of Communist schools, a statement of protest against the Attorney General's listing Communist Party schools as subversive and a petition for pardon of identified Communist perjurer Carl Marzani.

Staughton Lynd's mother, Helen M. Lynd, of Sarah Lawrence College, has also been affiliated with the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, the American Committee to Save Refugees and other cited Communist fronts.

Dear Mr Hoover:-

I am attaching herewith a clipping which was sent to me showing the "snide" remarks this loudmouthed black Dick Gregory made about you recently in Bogalusa Louisiana.

It amazes me when people involved in the so called Civil Rights movement (I believe it is a Communist Movement) can call one of our leading citizens and without question one of our greatest public servants like you names such as this and still find themselves in the good graces of such as Katzanbach and his retinue.

Hoping this finds you in the best of health, I remain

Civil Rights Leader Says He Wants Old

DICK GREGORY CALLS
J. EDGAR HOOVER "ONE OF THE LOUSIEST DOGS"

BOGALUSA-- Negro adults boycotted an inflammatory appearance here by Dick Gregory, a colored "comic" who fumed at them.

Addressing the older negroes--most of whom stayed away--Gregory said "You aint never done nothin worth a d---, but sit around with your mouth full of snuff. When you die--Lord knows, I hope it's soon-- then this Civil Rights movement can go forward."

Following his talk, segregationist leaders sent word to older negroes that they hope the two races can continue to live together in harmony and good will as they have done in the past. "We wish each of you a long and prosperous life, and want you to know that America affords opportunity for people of ambition, energy and education-- white and colored. Your greatest hope for prosperity and happiness is among people of your own kind, not in following the footsteps of hate-filled men like Dick Gregory. We congratulate you on your wisdom."

At the sparsely attended race mix rally, Gregory denounced J. Edgar Hoover as "one of the louisiest dogs that ever existed." He said that the only thing to be thankful for was that Hoover was 71 years old and would soon be dead. (Race-mixers hate Hoover because he isn't as energetic in running errands for them as his immediate superior, Nicholas Katzenbach, and some of the younger employees of the reau.)

VOL. 3 NO. 8

Less than 300 attended the Gregory meeting in spite of widespread publicity. Most of them were teenagers and young CORE members from New Orleans.

His appearance was in sharp contrast to throngs of Conservative whites who marched through Bogalusa three days later singing, "Onward, Christian Soldiers". Marching seven abreast, their file was so long that it took nearly 45 minutes to pass one point. They exposed the Bogalusa "crisis" as a leftwing political gimmick, and not as a fight between the whites and colored people of Bogalusa.

Dear Mr. President:

re: Dick Gregory in Bogalusa, La.

On May 2, 1965 the so-called negro comedian came to our state and made some remarks about our FBI agents which are not in keeping with good government. In calling Mr. Hoover "the lousiest dog that ever lived" is resented by the writer as is by many other Louisiana citizens. Some check should be made on this type of character as he must be sick. If Mr. Hoover has no recourse in the courts, some should be provided.

Hoover 'Lousy Dog,' According To Negro Comic

BOGALUSA, La. (UPI) Negro comedian Dick Gregory, who has appeared at a number of the nation's racial trouble spots, deviated from his comic routine during the weekend for some serious charges against the FBI, its director J. Edgar Hoover and the civil rights bill.

Hoover Gregory

Gregory, in a special appearance at a Negro rally Saturday night, said the FBI was "The biggest trick going," its agents were "thugs" and its director was "One of the lousiest dogs that ever existed."

ABOUT 500 persons, mostly teenagers and young adults, turned out to hear Gregory speak.

Bogalusa, designated a top target of the civil rights movement by Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) Director James Farmer, has been quiet since a special three-man mediation team began work last week to set up negotiations between Negroes and whites.

Gregory, who left after the rally to return to Philadelphia, said the only thing Negroes can be thankful for about the FBI director is that Hoover is 71 years old.

GREGORY ALSO lashed out at a Bogalusa Negro minister who criticized CORE for using teenagers in street demonstrations and at older Bogalusa Negroes who have taken no part in recent racial demonstrations.

Rev. W. A. Nelson, pastor of the Mount Moriah Baptist Church, last week struck out at CORE for using "children" in the civil rights movement in Bogalusa.

Gregory said Nelson and other Negro ministers who have boycotted demonstrations were "Uncle Toms", which he defined as "Cats who use finesse and trickery."

ATTACKING OLDER Bogalusa Negroes, Gregory said "you ain't never done nothing worth a damn but sit around with your mouth full of snuff and with your Bible upside down."

"You lay up in bed with your rheumatism, high blood pressure you'd get better medical care in jail. You ain't doing nothing but getting in the way. When you die — Lord knows, I hope its soon — then the civil rights movement can go forward," he said.

Gregory, who told the audience to "turn the town upside down if necessary" to get freedom, said the civil-rights bill was merely a written law and did not guarantee anything. "You can't vote the gun out of the sheriff's hand."

HE SAID the bill provided "freedom on the installment plan while the American Negro is being asked to go to Viet Nam and provide instant freedom for cats in a foreign land."

"America is not saying we are sorry, we want to see justice done. We got a civil rights bill because we shattered business and disrupted the peace all last summer," he said.

The rally was held in an empty lot on the north side of town. Negro leader Orbert Hicks said the city refused permission to use a city-owned baseball park for the rally.

The city's decision followed a similar position taken by the local school board, which banned controversial or political meetings on school property.

Businessman To Try For Governorship

DOTHAN, Ala. (UPI) Charles Woods, Dothan businessman and former member of the State Prison Board, announced his candidacy for governor Saturday.

Woods said his candidacy is subject to the May, 1966 Democratic Primary.

A segregationist rally set for next week will be held on a shopping center parking lot because school officials denied the group the use of a high school football stadium.

A three-man mediation team — made up of a state senator, a prominent attorney and a state labor leader — met with attorneys for the city and the Bogalusa (Negro) civic and voters league last week to set the groundwork for sessions aimed at solving the town's racial problems.

It was not announced when the first negotiation meeting would be held.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Inclosed is an article from our local daily paper reporting on Dick Gregory's appearance in Racine Sunday evening, July 25. L

While I certainly recognize his right to appear here or anywhere else he chooses, I do not understand how he could make some of the threats he made without being arrested. It is my understanding that if a person is over-heard making a threat against the life of the president of the United States, he is immediately taken into custody - and rightly so. It is also my understanding that a person who boards a plane and says - even in a joking manner - that he has a bomb in his luggage, he is immediately taken into custody.

On the speakers platform at Memorial Hall Sunday night were, from left, comedian Dick Gregory; attorney Theodore Harris, moderator of the program; and Julian Thomas, president of the Racine branch of the NAACP. Asked what his five children do while he is touring the country, Gregory replied, "Picket."

Makes Implied Threat:

Gregory Gives U.S. 5 Years to Solve Negro Plight, or Else

By John M. Pavlik
Journal Times Staff

The American Negro is "hung up" on getting full citizenship under the Constitution, and unless he gets it the country will be lost, comedian Dick Gregory said in Racine Sunday night.

Gregory set a time limit of five years for the Negro to achieve equality. "If the problems aren't solved by that time, they'll solve them themselves," he told his audience.

Stronger Threat

Earlier, in an interview, Gregory had put it stronger. "Either we get it within the next five years," he said, "or this country will no longer exist." He would not clarify the statement.

The 33-year-old comedian, civil rights leader, spoke in Memorial Hall for two hours Sunday night to about 400 persons who remained quiet and attentive despite the heat in the auditorium. The another joke. "Now that they've put the lid on it you have to throw your garbage in your own backyard and it's really starting to stink."

Not Making Progress

"We're not worried about southern white folks. We know where they stand. Ask them when we're going to get equality and they'll tell you in a minute, 'Nevah, Boy!' But the northerner keeps saying, 'Take it easy. You're making progress.'"

"In America today the Negro dies seven years younger than white folks. You gonna tell me that's making progress?"

"The Negro ain't making progress; the white folks are making progress by giving it to us on the installment plan. If you think the Negro is going to keep on going to keep on going to Viet Nam to guarantee some foreigner instant freedom while our black kids are getting it on the installment plan, you're wrong. Negroes don't think that on wearing it and the shoe will wear out."

"The American Negro has got a callous around his soul and the shoe better back up."

Asked, before his talk, about Communist infiltration of the civil rights movement, Gregory replied, "Why complain if we have Communists in the movement if we don't have laws to keep them out of the country? If the FBI can't arrest them, then how can the NAACP get them out?"

He ridiculed the idea that he would work for the Communists. "I might overthrow the country one day, but I don't give it to another white man. I know what nigger sounds like in America, but I don't know what it sounds like in Russia."

Gregory's talk was sponsored by the Racine Branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Stronger Threat

Earlier, in an interview, Gregory had put it stronger. "Either we get it within the next five years," he said, "or this country will no longer exist." He would not clarify the statement.

The 33-year-old comedian-civil rights leader spoke in Memorial Hall for two hours Sunday night to about 400 persons who remained quiet and attentive despite the heat in the closed auditorium. The racial mixture was about evenly white and Negro.

Outside, Gregory was picketed by the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, the White Dove Society and the National States Rights Party. Pickets carried signs reading "Dick Gregory! Guinea-Pig Tool of Communist!" and "Please Gregory don't eat our white people of Wisconsin."

Hits School Segregation

Ridiculing criticism of Negro demonstrations, Gregory said of the pickets, "I had to warn them that a demonstration out here would only hurt their cause."

Julian Thomas, president of the Racine Branch of the NAACP, preceded Gregory with the comment that Racine has the same problems as the rest of the country, in education, in housing and in employment.

"We have the same trouble here with de-facto segregation as in Chicago," he said, "only in Chicago the man's name is Willis and in Racine the man's name is Prash."

Not Going to be Easy

Gregory did not discuss Racine's problems specifically during his talk, saying only about the city: "You've got a good town here because it's a small town and you could clean it up real quick — if you wanted to."

"But it isn't going to be easy for you. And you'll be surprised at what's going to happen to you."

Gregory opened his talk with a rapid-fire, far-ranging comedy monologue ("I like LBJ myself, if for no other reason than he talks like us." "With 688 million Chinese, if they ever start singing 'We Shall Overcome,' they're gonna do it."), and dropped suddenly into the serious portion of his talk.

"You've been using Mississippi as the garbage can of gro dies seven years younger than white folks. You gonna tell me that's making progress"

"The Negro ain't making progress; the white folks are making progress by giving it to us on the installment plan. If you think the Negro is going to keep on going to keep on going to Viet Nam to guarantee some foreigner instant freedom while our black kids are getting it on the installment plan, you're wrong. Negroes don't think that way."

Issues Warning

Gregory loosened his tie, opened his shirt collar and mopped his forehead. "Being Negro in America is like one long, black toothache," he said.

The tone of Gregory's talk was one of warning of increased racial disturbance and violence.

"America has gangrene," he said, "and it's trying to solve the problem without operating on the foot. Man, you're going to lose the whole body."

"What the power structure doesn't realize is that the longer they resist you the more you want. They give the Negro a little bit and that's just enough to get him mad. The Negro is going to start killing you and you don't know this."

Gregory himself advocates non-violence, but "I'm just telling you what's gonna happen, baby. I'm not worried about the cat in the movement, but the cat that's not in it—he's the one gonna throw the brick."

Stop Lying to Yourself

Gregory softened his voice to a warning plea. "Better ask yourself where you're going. Better stop lying to yourself. Better wake up."

"You put a tight shoe on your foot your going to get a corn. Wear it long enough and it's a callous. Keep munists. "I might overthrow the country one day, but I don't give it to another white man. I know what nigger sounds like in America, but I don't know what it sounds like in Russia."

Gregory's talk was sponsored by the Racine Branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

FROM : SAC, CHICAGO (100-6989)

SUBJECT: ELIJAH MUHAMMAD IS - NOI

Re Chicago airtel dated 10/7/65 captioned as above.

Enclosed for the Bureau are 12 copies of a letterhead memorandum concerning the appearance of ELIJAH MUHAMMAD in an interview with IRVING KUPCINET on October 10, 1965, over television. One copy is enclosed for Atlanta, office of origin for MARTIN LUTHER KING.

Information in enclosed letterhead memorandum was monitored by SA [REDACTED]

The Bureau's attention is invited to the fact that subsequent to ELIJAH MUHAMMAD's appearance on "Kup's Show" DICK GREGORY was asked by KUPCINET about the civil rights riots in Watts, California. He replied only that "in Los Angeles they were the Watts riots, in San Francisco they were known as the Los Angeles riots, in America they were the California riots and throughout the world they were known as the American riots which gives America a bad name."

ELIJAH MUHAMMAD

The October 10, 1965, production of "Kup's Show" pertaining to Elijah Muhammad began at midnight, October 9, 1965, and was monitored by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Pertinent statements made by Elijah Muhammad are set forth hereinafter.

Elijah Muhammad did not participate in the television panel discussion but was interviewed separately by Irv Kupcinec at Muhammad's residence, 4847 South Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. He was interviewed from 12:00 midnight until 1:10 AM in a question - answer type of interview.

Muhammad thanked God whom he also referred to as Allah who came to him in the person of one W. D. Farad 34 years ago and gave Muhammad a message for the black man which is why Muhammad calls himself the Messenger of Allah.

Muhammad stated the black man has lived in America under the white slave master for 400 years and now wants something for himself, to be himself, and to be on his own. He added that for a black man to oppose this would result in his ultimate death as a social and economic force.

He stated regarding civil rights that Martin Luther King and other Negro civil rights leaders lack knowledge of the black race and fail to realize now is the time the black man should work to be independent and be on his own. He said civil rights leaders seek to be like the white man and want to be his equal in a white country. Muhammad pointed out that as the black man was of a different color than the white man and of a different race he should be on his own and not integrate. He said the black man has served his term of slavery and should not have to beg the white man for a job or to be his servant, adding the black man should seek a more prominent status on his own. Muhammad stated that was achieved in America by and for the white man, not the black man. He said by the government seemingly giving more things to the black man such as its poverty programs and similar health programs it only meant that the white slave master, as he gets wealthier, can afford to dole out a little more proportionately for the black man but that such programs do not in any way elevate the black man. He said the government had an obligation to give the black man a state of its own and money for 25 years in which to operate in order that the black man can become completely self sufficient.

Muhammad said he had no power himself to bring about such change, but that Allah had such means. He added that Allah also knows when separation will take place. He said the time has come for Allah to intervene to separate the black man from his white slave master.

Muhammad stated that in America there was only a small proportion of black men as compared to the white man. He refused to name what state he would like if offered to him. He said the white man in America would lose his self respect if he yielded to the unreasonable demands of the civil rights leaders, as America cannot possibly agree with all of their demands.

Muhammad said in America intermarriages are not good, jobs for the black man were not available and in America the black man is not as good as the white man. The NOI desires, according to Muhammad, a state for themselves and equipment with which to operate it on a businesslike basis.

He stated that such prominent black men as Dr. Ralph Bunche, Jackie Robinson and the like only serve the white man and do nothing to better their black brothers.

Muhammad stated that like Moses and Jesus stated in the Bible, the black man was deaf, dumb and blind adding that if that sounded like Governor Wallace of Alabama it still was true.

ELIJAH MUHAMMAD

Muhammad stated that the education the black man has received will help him to go for himself, but doesn't mean that he should be satisfied and perform his services for the white man. He said such educated Negroes should separate from the white man and utilize their education for the black man when he gets his own state. He added that the black man would need modern tools, machinery, buildings and land in this connection.

He said the black man has lost his birthright and there is no record of his ancestry in America. He added that all the NOI wanted was freedom, justice and equality for the black man.

Regarding hate, Muhammad stated that according to Moses and Jesus a human being has to hate evil people, adding that such was in the Bible. He said in the Bible even brothers hated each other. He said some brothers couldn't live together and this included black and white and even Red China. Muhammad said you couldn't expect the Negro to follow the Bible if white Christians do not do so, adding that Christianity is anti-Negro.

Muhammad stated that Allah has stated all white men are devils, but that there are various degrees of devilry and that some whites are better than others. He said Jesus stated the human race were followers of the devil and He was crucified for it.

Muhammad stated Martin Luther King was wrong in his approach to civil rights and said he was misguided as white men and black men could not get along together. He said the black man must trust in God, not Martin Luther King, adding that the Nobel prize was no honor to King as he had done nothing for his people.

Muhammad said he never advocated boycotting white businesses, but only that whenever possible the black man should buy from black people. Muhammad added it would be very silly for him if he needed a suit to go without one if he could buy one from the white man.

ELIJAH MUHAMMAD

Regarding the bearing of arms for America, Muhammad stated after a Muslim receives the teachings of their religion it is then up to them individually to determine if they desire to serve in the Armed Forces.

Muhammad thanked Kupcinet for the opportunity to present his views to the public.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam,
Aka. Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 7, 1965, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 3, 1965, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

[redacted] Chicago Police Department (protect identity) advised that on 5/13/63, Richard Criley (100-26567) was one of 1800 participants in a parade held in Chicago. The purpose of the parade was to protest the denial of civil rights to the Negro people of Birmingham, Alabama, and other Southern states. Dick Gregory, was among the speakers at a rally at the conclusion of the parade. He bitterly criticized President Kennedy's action in sending troops to the Birmingham area, stating that Kennedy only acted when the whites started getting hurt. Q11.

On 11/18/64 Walter E. Alessandrone, Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Justice, Harrisburg, Pa., furnished a report prepared by a Commission appointed by Governor Scranton to investigate the charges of excessive use of force by police in Chester, Pa.

The appointment of this commission followed the serious charges of excessive use of force by State and local police during the civil rights demonstrations on March 28, April 22, and April 24, 1964 in Chester, Pa. During the demonstrations between 3/28/64 and 4/22/64, Dick Gregory, appeared at one time or another at a rally and in the march that followed.

NK 2458-S* and NK 2459-S* furnished the following information:

Martin Luther King Jr. (100-106670) arrived in Atlantic City, NJ on 8/22/64. He appeared before the Platform Committee of the Democratic National Convention, although he did not wish it to appear that he was attending the Convention.

The Credentials Committee reached a compromise of permitting the Freedom Democratic Party (FDP), two delegates at large and other members of the FDP to be admitted as observers to the Convention. Senator Hubert Humphrey and Walter Reuther, President of the United Auto Workers of America, told King and others of the offer.

On 8/26/64, Dick Gregory expressed great regret that "the FDP delegation had not resulted in a floor fight at the Democratic Convention." Gregory claimed that FDP members would have gone home before the convention if they had been given a guarantee of Federal referees for registration and election. Gregory favored a plan for stalling traffic en route to Convention Hall on August 26 and 27, 1964. The leaders of this were to be Jesse Gray of New York and [redacted] of Philadelphia. King opposed such action feeling that it would help elect Barry Goldwater whom King detested. King felt that demonstrations should be held to a minimum until after the election.

b7c

It was noted that Dick Gregory in talking to King stated that in his opinion only a very "thin line keeps J. Edgar Hoover off the Negro's back." He could not forgive Mr. Hoover for stating that there were communists in the civil rights movement without naming them. He felt that if there were any communists, they were white, but Mr. Hoover wanted people to think they were Negroes. Gregory threatened to write King's name in for President and felt that Senator Humphrey would not be Johnson's selection for Vice-president, but rather Muskie of Maine who was a Catholic and who could get the votes in the white ghettos.

An article from the "Washington Post and Times Herald" page A-17, dated 1/21/65 entitled "School Boycott Leader Arrested in New York," revealed that Dick Gregory and a group of Negroes testing the 1964 Civil Rights Act in Tuscaloosa, Alabama were turned away from four establishments on 1/19/65, including Garner's Restaurant where the imperial wizard Robert M. Shelton of the Ku Klux Klan was eating. The Negroes were refused admittance and were told that they needed reservations. Dick Gregory stated they would make reservations for the following night. A white youth who tried to enter the restaurant at the same time was arrested when he bumped into a Negro.

Earlier in the day Gregory led other Negroes in successful tests at eight restaurants.

An article from the "Washington Post" and "Times Herald," page B7 dated 3/27/65, entitled "Success Story in Corninth, Miss.," by Drew Pearson (94-8-350), set out information pertaining to the race relations in Corninth, Miss. The article also stated that Dick Gregory entertained the freedom marchers to Montgomery during their first night in a cow pasture. Earlier he had spent two nights in the Selma jail. Gregory stated that he had been in 24 or 27 jails, he couldn't remember which, and he had enjoyed them. Pearson stated that Gregory had kept his sense of humor even in jail. According to Pearson, Gregory after leaving the Selma jail, stopped off in Washington, told friends that down in the Selma jail, "A cop hit me. I called the FBI." "Where's the marks?" they said. "Never mind the marks. You just take a picture of my whole back," I said. "We'll fix up the points later." "

The "New York Times" edition of 4/12/65, p.28, contained an article which revealed that the "Committee of Concerned Mothers" was sponsoring a variety benefit program on 4/23/65 to be held at the Appollo Theater, 253 W. 125th St., NYC for Malcolm X's family. The article stated that one of the entertainers scheduled to perform was Dick Gregory.

This serial indicated that the "Committee of Concerned Mothers" was a group of prominent Negro women formed for the sole purpose of raising funds to meet the need for food, clothing and shelter of the widow and children of Malcolm X.

According to this serial the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) (100-442235) was not sponsoring the above benefit but would support it and plans were made to sell souvenirs of Malcolm X at the benefit in order to make money for the OAAU.

DICK GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS

The following information is being furnished for the Chicago Division. No further action is being taken by the Seattle Division.

On October 18, 1965, [redacted] Colfax, Washington, advised SA [redacted] that over the weekend of October 15 through October 17, 1965, he attended a convention for the Association to Advance Ethical Hypnosis at Chicago, Illinois. He advised that on the night of October 16, 1965, he went to the "Blue Angel" where DICK GREGORY, the comedian, was putting on a show. He advised that he was accompanied by [redacted] and [redacted] a New Jersey entertainer who could be located through the American Association for Advanced Ethical Hypnosis, 10 Washington Avenue, Irvington, New Jersey.

[redacted] advised that after the show at the Blue Angel was over, [redacted] asked if they would like to go to GREGORY's dressing room and meet him. [redacted] and his wife said yes, and so they accompanied [redacted] to the dressing room.

[redacted] advised that while they were in the dressing room, he had the opportunity of briefly glancing at an article which GREGORY said he had written to be published in the "Cavalier". [redacted] advised that he did not read the whole article, but that [redacted] did. [redacted] advised that in the article GREGORY indicated that all Negroes arm themselves and urged them to kill policemen, judges, mayors, etc. He advised that the article was written with the Constitution or Declaration of Independence as a basis.

[ ] advised that GREGORY personally told him that MARTIN LUTHER KING, according to present plans, would be killed in the spring. GREGORY also advised that he (GREGORY) goes to Canada once a month to meet with a group of Chinese men, referring somewhat to the overthrow of the present form of government. GREGORY also told [ ] that the Cuban refugees coming into the country at the present time have been inoculated with a deadly disease for which there is no cure.

[ ] advised that he had no further information, but that he was quite concerned about the article and general attitude and conversation of GREGORY.

For the information of the Chicago Division, [ ] is presently awaiting a hearing in the State of Washington concerning his ethical and medical practices. He has the reputation of writing prescriptions for other than medical purposes. The validity of the information furnished and the accuracy thereof cannot be ascertained by the Seattle Division, and is therefore being furnished the Chicago Division for any action deemed necessary by that office.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also known as
Dick Gregory
RACIAL MATTERS

Enclosed herewith are two copies of a letterhead memorandum from Chicago, Illinois, dated November 5, 1965, captioned as above. Bureau files indicate that Richard Claxton Gregory, also known as Dick Gregory, is a Negro comedian who has appeared at numerous fund-raising events for such civil rights organizations as the Congress of Racial Equality, Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and Associated Community Teams. He reportedly was one of the founders of Associated Community Teams and has been identified as a consultant to this organization.

Bureau files also indicate that Gregory at various times has been involved in the promotion of rent strikes, economic boycotts, sit-in demonstrations, picket lines, marches, and other forms of protest. He has openly boasted that he has been frequently jailed as a result of his civil rights activities. Most recently Gregory has been one of the leaders in demonstration in Chicago, Illinois, protesting alleged de facto segregation in the Chicago schools. He has been arrested for civil disobedience in connection with these demonstrations.

You should make the information in this letter and letterhead memorandum available to [redacted]

The Bureau should be advised of any pertinent details concerning Gregory's appearance in London.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, ALSO KNOWN AS DICK GREGORY

The "Chicago Sun Times", a Chicago daily newspaper, issue of October 31, 1965, contains an article concerning an interview with Dick Gregory, as he is commonly known, concerning his involvement in the civil rights movement in the United States. The article, prepared by a representative of the "Chicago Sun Times", described Gregory as a nationally known comedian and civil rights leader.

This interview was conducted during October, 1965, while Gregory was performing at a local Chicago nightclub. During the interview with the representative of the "Chicago Sun Times", Gregory advised that he recently received a contract to go to London, England, to do a dramatic special there on television. He advised that he is wanted there also "to do three specials in London, on the racial crisis there, in February." Gregory stated that he feels he received this offer only because of his well known involvement in the civil rights movement in the United States.

Gregory is a male Negro, born October 12, 1932, in St. Louis, Missouri. He resides at 1451 East 55th Street, Chicago, Illinois. He has been arrested on numerous occasions in the past several years in various parts of the United States, Chicago, and elsewhere, during the course of numerous civil rights demonstrations, rallies, sit-ins and the like, in which he has been a participant.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 11/18/65

Dick Gregory, Negro comedian is a known agitator and trouble maker; in the past he has been critical of the Director, FBI Agents and law enforcement in general. We received information from a source, whose reliability is unknown, that Gregory goes to Canada twice a month to meet a group of Chinese. To date, we have not been able to verify such travel. We have previously received such newspaper accounts that Gregory was contemplating running for Mayor of Chicago. We also previously received information that Gregory planned a trip to London. Legat London has been advised and instructed to alert pertinent sources. The Civil Rights Division, military authorities and the State Department have been apprised of the London trip.

NY 157-1093

The source advised that in the past various newspapers have indicated that GREGORY was half serious about running for Mayor of Chicago; further, that the press conference of 11/23/65, is supposed to be the formal announcement of GREGORY's intentions.

The source advised that [REDACTED]

b7D

Extreme caution must be exercised to protect the identity of the above informant, a highly valuable source, who could be readily identified in the event the above data is not also acquired from other sources.

The following information concerning [redacted]
 [redacted] Colfax, Washington, is contained in Seattle files:

On 4/7/48, [redacted] Colfax, Washington, advised this office that [redacted] South [redacted] Colfax, Washington, "a Methodist Minister", is a pacifist to the point where his sermons direct criticism against universal military training, and he discourages any talk concerning the international situation re Russia and the possibilities of war. [redacted] stated also that the young people under his guidance are being influenced by his thinking to the point where they will become conscientious objectors in the event of universal military training or Selective Service.

In 1955, and 1966, this and other offices conducted investigation in the case entitled "UNSUB, Theft of Green Piper Tripacer Plane, #N845A, ITSMV; Miscellaneous, Civil Aeronautics Act (BUfile 26-190080)." The serials in Seattle file reflect that inconclusive investigation was conducted concerning the alleged theft of above plane owned by [redacted] and it apparently was not determined whether, in fact, it was stolen or whether there was a conspiracy of some type between [redacted]

On 10/28/58, DONALD C. MC MANNIS, Whitman County, Washington, Prosecutor, advised this office that [ ] was, in MC MANNIS' opinion, a somewhat "shady character" who practices hypnotic medicine and has, for many years, allowed prostitutes and pimps to come to his office in Colfax. He advised also that a dope addict, [ ] had access to [ ] office and that he thought that [ ] could possibly be involved in transporting prostitutes to Idaho from Washington in a private plane that [ ] owns; however, he said he had no proof of this.

On 2/4/64, PHIL FARIS, Prosecuting Attorney of Whitman County, Colfax, Washington, advised that he had learned that [ ] a former Colfax resident and a frequent Colfax visitor, had recently been arrested in King County, Washington, on a possession of narcotics charge. He said it was his understanding that he had claimed that the large quantity of narcotics in his possession were obtained by prescription from [ ], a Colfax physician. He stated he also understood that when [ ] had been contacted, [ ] had vouched for the fact that he had prescribed for the narcotics in [ ] possession. FARIS said [ ] has been a suspect in narcotic traffic in Colfax for years and was generally of an unsavory reputation. He said [ ] has long associated with pimps, prostitutes, addicts and persons of questionable reputation for years.

It is noted also that in Seattle letter to Chicago, 10/29/65, it was mentioned that [ ] is presently awaiting a hearing in the State of Washington concerning his ethical and medical practices.

No inquiry has at this time been made concerning [ ] however, SA [ ] advised that during investigations in the Colfax area in the past, he has observed that individuals generally regard [ ] as "sort of a Robinhood", who has "loads of money" and will treat patients who are without funds for considerable periods of time. SA [ ] advised also that persons knowing [ ] have generally indicated that he has some unsavory friends, and appears to be unable to stay away from pimps, prostitutes and narcotic addicts.

No recontact of [ ] is contemplated by this office UACB.

ReCG1hm dated October 27, 1965, and CGairtel dated June 18, 1965.

The Chicago Division, during November, 1965, has been in daily contact with representatives of the Human Relations Section, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, for information relating to demonstrations by captioned group.
Based on information received from these officers, as well as periodic spot checks by agents in the Chicago Division, it has been determined that the group ceased its demonstrations during the last days of October, 1965. No demonstrations were observed by the Chicago Division during November or December, 1965, and no information has been received from the Chicago Police Department which would indicate that there had been any such demonstrations during that period. In view of the foregoing, the Chicago Division is placing this case in a closed status.

It should be noted that CGairtel dated June 18, 1965, contained a lead for the Chicago Division to follow the disposition of the arrests of comedian DICK GREGORY which occurred on June 8 and 11, 1965, in connection with captioned demonstrations.

[redacted], Corporations Counsel Office,
City of Chicago, on December 2, 1965, advised SA [redacted] that GREGORY's trial date relating to his arrest on June 11, 1965, has tentatively been set for December 20, 1965, and the trial date for the June 8, 1965, arrest has tentatively been

DICK GREGORY
INFORMATION CONCERNING

The "Chicago Daily News", a daily publication in Chicago, Illinois, dated December 21, 1965, carried an article captioned "200 to Aid Gregory's Campaign".

This article in summary states that Dick Gregory, the Negro entertainer who plans to run against Mayor Richard J. Daley in 1967, said that 200 civil rights workers will invade Chicago from June 15 through August 15, 1966, to help in his election campaign.

The workers, according to the article, were to be furnished by the National Headquarters of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). These individuals will register voters as well as plug Gregory's candidacy. In return for their services Gregory has agreed to pay CORE $40,000, enough to pay each worker $25 a week for 8 weeks.

James Farmer, National Director of CORE, said in New York that the Chicago bound task force will be an unprecedented effort to register voters in city Negro ghettos. Farmer added that the short range goal was to help elect Mr. Gregory but that this voter registration has long range implications which extend far beyond this campaign. Farmer stated he regarded the political education of city Negroes, starting with voter registration, as a must if the civil rights movement is to succeed in the north. Farmer added that the CORE representatives assisting in the Gregory campaign would live with families in the Chicago area without charge.

The article in conclusion states that Gregory, who plans to run as an independent stated that his biggest problem is to get his name on the ballot. In order to do this he indicated he would need more than 60,000 names of registered, independent voters on his nominating petitions.

100-440423-62

Officer [redacted] Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department, on December 22, 1965, advised that his department had no further information relating to this matter and that the only knowledge of this proposed voters registration known to his department was that which appeared in the local newspapers.

RACIAL MATTERS

[redacted] Corporations Counsel, City of Chicago, on January 12, 1966, advised that the trial of comedian Dick Gregory relating to his arrest on June 8, 1965, as a result of a sit-in at the Chicago Board of Education in Chicago, Illinois, began on January 10, 1966, and as of January 12, 1966, was still in session. [redacted] stated that Gregory's trial relating to his June 11, 1965 arrest for assault and battery in connection with anti-School Superintendent Willis demonstrations was still pending and no trial date had been set. [redacted] added that Gregory's trial relating to his June 28, 1965 arrest in Chicago also as a result of the anti-Willis demonstrations, is also pending and the trial date is being continued on a day-to-day basis.

b6

The "Chicago American", a Chicago daily newspaper, 3 Star Final, for January 14, 1966, carries an article relating to the trial of Dick Gregory for his June 8, 1965 arrest. This article in summary states that a criminal court jury in Chicago, after four hours of deliberation, was unable to reach a decision in this case. The article indicated Gregory was acquitted on the disorderly conduct charge but that the jury failed to agree on a verdict relating to the loitering charges against Gregory. The article stated that Gregory and others were arrested last summer in front of the Board of Education Building, 165 West Wacker Drive, in Chicago, Illinois, while protesting the re-hiring of Chicago Superintendent of Schools Benjamin C. Willis. Gregory at the trial, testified he was kneeling in prayer when police seized him and led them to their squadrol. The city prosecutor stated Gregory resisted

HE DOESN'T EAT WITH HIS EARS

Equality No Joke for Gregory

DICK GREGORY

... Jailed 50 times

By DAYE ABLETT

Stand-up comedian Dick Gregory reached across a slice of ham and picked up a devilled egg.

"Just because I've got thick lips and nappy hair doesn't mean I eat steak by stuffing it in my ear," he said.

The line, the kind expected of the Negro comedian, would have drawn laughs in a nightclub.

Only nobody laughed because Gregory was deadly serious.

He was not seeking laughs as he talked to reporters Wednesday afternoon about the Negro revolution in America and his part in it. He would seek the laughs later on stage at the Cave.

Gregory would not have eaten the steak if he had it.

... he is a vegetarian and is as committed to it as he is to non-violence, Negro equality and America. That is why he passed up the ham and went for the egg.

Being a Negro doesn't stop a man from being drafted or dying in Viet Nam, he said, but nor does it force a man to kill.

"If I were drafted and sent to the front line, I'd go on only one condition ... that I didn't have to carry a gun," said Gregory.

"America is worth dying for but it's not worth killing for."

Gregory has been to jail 50 times by his own count for taking part in demonstrations in cities ranging Watts County; Los Angeles last summer.

He estimates he has thrown $2 million of his own money into the civil rights movement in the last four years.

And he plans to run as an independent for the Chicago mayoralty in 1967 because he figures the racial lid is about to blow off there.

Gregory is serious about running and serious about winning because he believes he can get 90 per cent of the Negro vote — he doesn't count on the other 10 per cent "because there are some Negroes in Chicago who voted for Goldwater last year" — and 30 per cent of the white vote, and that should be enough.

Gregory's message is basic.

"The richest white man is the same as the dumbest, most ignorant Negro," he said. "They both eat the same way.

"They breathe the same way. In fact, if I was a white man I'd be mad because Negroes have wider noses. They can get more air."

But in present-day America the Negro is not accepted as equal, he said.

"I want to be judged as a man under the Constitution of the United States," he said. "Not under the Civil Rights Bill of 1965.

"But we will solve the problem in five years or it will solve us," he said.

America as it is now will cease to exist, he added.

The answer as Gregory sees it is simple.

The checking of Gregory's itinerary may be discontinued. Therefore, Los Angeles and Miami may disregard leads set forth in retel. You should, of course, be alert to any information indicating that Gregory is going to participate in any civil rights activity and advise the Bureau by appropriate communication.

NOTE:

The New Orleans Office received information on 1-14-66 that Gregory was considering going to Bogalusa, Louisiana, in the near future to participate in civil rights demonstrations. The Chicago Office was requested to ascertain Gregory's itinerary. Chicago determined that Gregory left Chicago, Illinois, for Seattle, Washington, on 1-19-66 and requested Seattle ascertain Gregory's purpose there and his subsequent itinerary. Inasmuch as Seattle advised that Gregory was fulfilling an entertainment commitment in Seattle there is no purpose in continuing to ascertain his future itinerary.

ReCGtel to Bureau, NO and SE, 1/18/66.

A copy of retel is being furnished San Francisco for its future use in the event GREGORY appears at the "hungary i", as indicated.

Subject has been playing at "The Cave" nightclub, Vancouver, B.C., past week, to finish January 29. He is reportedly booked at Edgewater Inn, Seattle, January 31 through 2/5/66, and is expected to leave Vancouver, January 30. He is believed to be booked into "hungary i" in San Francisco after Seattle engagement.

Subject registered in Georgia Hotel, Vancouver, in Room 606 as DICK GREGORY with [redacted] Chicago. Registered in Room 605 at same time is [redacted] Chicago. Registered in Room 608 on January 26 with bills charged to GREGORY is a [redacted] Chicago. Informants believe he is white and all others are Negro.

Numerous long-distance phone calls made, some charged to hotel bill and others on Gregory's Telephone Credit Card No. #3240934098. These calls listed on separate page.

[ ] has advised that subject and male and female Negro associate together at the Cave, but the other two are not part of the show. He believes woman's name is [ ] and man's name [ ]. She is light-skinned with freckles and spots on her face, in her late 30's. [ ] is short with unusual shaped head and dark skinned.

b6
b7C
b7D

Subject has been interviewed on television and the press and the customers of the Cave during his show are staying away in droves.

This informant advised he understands subject made derogatory remarks regarding the FBI and HOOVER, details set out hereafter from a different source. [ ] did not actually hear these particular remarks, but did hear other references in one or two shows regarding subject's being pursued by police and FBI for narcotics.

One skit claims two policemen knocked on his door with search warrant for drugs. He pushed the little box of dope under the door and told them their search warrant was now no good and then called the FBI and told them two policemen were at the door trying to sell him dope. Another skit pertained to FBI hiding in the bushes trying to catch him with the little box of marijuana.

Confidential source [ ] employed at the Cave, advised subject has a hatred of whites in general and also of the FBI and Mr. HOOVER. He has referred to the FBI on occasion in his skits, but not in each show. However, in one show he stated how he did not like HOOVER, and that "HOOVER is a goddamn bastard and nothing but a homosexual and a close friend of WALTER JENKINS." This source has also heard other references to Agents hiding in the bushes to catch him with his little box, but he is too cozy to be caught.

b6
b7D

[ ] advised he has made references to "LBJ" and Vietnam in a derogatory manner, without specifics, except he did state, "LBJ has guts enough to stand on the White House lawn to show his operation--its a good thing he was not operated on for hernia."

b6
b7C
b7D

[ ] advised he is drawing extremely poor crowds.

SE 157-511

He furnished similar data regarding the two people with him and advised that two white men arrived later this week.

He believes the woman and Negro male with GREGORY could be on narcotics because of their actions, but has no knowledge of any reason they are with him in Vancouver. None of the crowd go to the usual after-hours spots, but all go to their hotel after the shows.

Discreet investigation will continue at the Edgewater Inn, Seattle. Record of calls listed on attached sheet are being left to discretion of Chicago as to further investigation desired.

Re Seattle airtel, 1/28/66.

Inasmuch as referenced airtel contained derogatory statements made by comedian DICK GREGORY in Vancouver, B.C., [redacted] of SA CASTELLOW of this office, together with her sister and brother-in-law, [redacted] attended the 9:00 PM performance of GREGORY's show at the Edgewater Inn, Seattle, Washington on February 2, 1966 to determine whether or not GREGORY would make similar remarks in this country. They advised that GREGORY made no comments concerning the FBI or Director HOOVER, although he did make numerous belittling remarks concerning the President.

A copy of typewritten notes furnished by [redacted] is being enclosed to the Office of Origin for whatever purpose it may serve. It is noted that GREGORY indicated he had written a book entitled "Nigger" and that he would like to see this book in every home in America. It is also noted that GREGORY appears to be in the habit of bringing a drink of whiskey on stage with him and that he sips it during his act. The last paragraph of these notes is opinion:

"GREGORY is bitter, vindictive, malicious, but above all there's this feeling of triumph because white people come and pay to see him....and be insulted. He's intelligent and clever, but his egotism is stronger than his mind."

[redacted] Secretary to the [redacted] Edgewater Inn, Pier 67, Seattle, Washington, on February 4, 1966, made available to this office a copy of the contract between the Edgewater Inn and the Associated Booking Corp., 9477 Brighton Way, Beverly Hills, California, which agreement was made on September 28, 1965. It is noted that this contract, a copy of which is also being furnished to the Office of Origin, indicates that GREGORY received $5,000.00 plus a gratis suite of rooms, for his performance there for six nights.

b7C

[redacted] stated that GREGORY caused no disturbances of any kind while at the Edgewater Inn, but she did note that there was much discussion pro and con concerning GREGORY's appearance there and that numerous persons had complained about the type of material he was presenting. She said they had also received several letters criticizing the Inn for having booked GREGORY.

[redacted] (Protect) on February 7, 1966 furnished this office pages 5 and 6 of the February 2, 1966 issue of "the peak", a campus publication of the Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, B.C., Canada, which contained an article captioned "no massa, I don't wanna sit in the back of the bus", purporting to reflect the results of an interview of GREGORY by Dr. BOTTOMORE, of the P.S.A. Department. The original of this page is being furnished the office of origin and a copy is being furnished the Bureau (S) (U)

No information has come to the attention of this office concerning GREGORY's subsequent itinerary, however, it is noted that he departed Seattle on February 8, 1966, as set out in Seattle teletype February 7, 1966. Prior to departure, he was quoted by various news media as stating that he would again return to the State of Washington with [redacted] to participate in "fish-ins" with Indians on the Nisqually River, near Olympia, Washington. GREGORY's attending a "fish-in" has been characterized as a publicity stunt in news articles which are being furnished the Bureau and Office of Origin.

In conjunction with a Student executive Council sponsored luncheon and tour of the University, the "PEAK" arranged an interview with Dick Gregory and Dr. Bottomore. Dr. Bottomore, head of the P.S.A. dept., who is just having a book on classes published in the States, had a number of pertinent questions to put to Gregory.

Gregory, one of the most controversial comedians on the American night club scene, has participated in boycotts, sit-ins, stall-ins, marches and Freedom Rides throughout the United States. He is credited in "Playboy" as becoming the first negro comedian to break into the big leagues of show business and the only entertainer of any color to commit his fame and fortune - even his physical well-being - to the cause of racial equality.

Dr. Bottomore: I'm interested in Marxism and Classism. I don't know the United States well, but the Negro revolt seems to me to be one of the most hopeful things happening in America. What do you think will be the outcome of it?

Gregory: I can't see anything but mass destruction. Demonstrations wake up people, but they don't solve the problem. What's happening in America it seems to me is that we give an examination and find out that there's cancer, but the doctor keeps telling us it's a headache, which is what you want to hear, but you are gonna die.

the same pattern as tornadoes and earthquakes. You never know how much they're going to destroy. America would be better off with 20 people in 20 different cities. Then they would have somebody to blame it on. The white man in the South is honest, but in the North he lies. In the South the Negro has learned to live with it. The northern Negro is bothered by the South. He sees his southern brother standing there being lynched.

"Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, was jailed here today on two counts of illegal net fishing on the Nisqually River.

"A warrant was issued for the arrest of his wife, Lillian, on two other counts of illegal fishing with gill nets.

"Gregory was taken into custody at the County-City Building in Tacoma.

"Gov. Dan Evans said the state had delayed taking action against Gregory, hoping that Gregory and the Indians would see 'that this was not the right way to proceed.'

"Evans said Gregory's action 'is obviously a violation of law that has nothing to do with Indian fishing rights or anything else.'

"He said Gregory had not only violated the state's fishery - conservation laws but had gone fishing without a state license.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"A warrant for GREGORY's arrest was issued after he went fishing with three Indians on the Nisqually River yesterday. He netted one steelhead."

The "Seattle Post-Intelligencer" (PI), a daily newspaper published in Seattle, Washington, on February 16, 1966, contained an article entitled, "GREGORY Denies Guilt in Net-Fishing Case", which states:

"Comedian DICK GREGORY and his wife both pleaded not guilty to charges of illegally fishing with a set net in their arraignment at Thurston County Superior Court Tuesday.

"Judge HEWITT HENRY set a trial date for the pair for the week of May 23.

"Bail was also reduced to $500 each by Judge HENRY. Original bail had been $2,000 for each.

"Despite the reduction, GREGORY and his wife decided to remain in jail, at least overnight.

Clark "The reduction was made after GREGORY's attorney, JAMES McIVER, argued that the comedian's record of court trials showed he had always returned to stand trial in court cases concerning civil rights in which the comedian was involved.

"Thurston County Assistant Prosecution Attorney JEROME L. BUZZARD said there was no guarantee that GREGORY and his wife would return to stand trial.

"Who knows what his interests will be six months from now--he might be in Selma, Ala., with more serious trouble," BUZZARD said.

"After the arraignment, GREGORY told newsmen he did not know how long he would stay in jail. 'I plan to sleep on that' decision, he said."

The "Seattle P-I" on February 17, 1966, contained an article entitled, "Indians: 'GREGORY Hurts Cause'", which states in part:

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"The chairman of the Nisqually Tribal Council said Wednesday the Nisqually Indians did not ask Negro comedian DICK GREGORY to help them and do not like what he has done in embracing their cause.

"He is trying to turn this into a civil rights issue," said ELMER KALAMA of Yelm. "We are not fighting for civil rights. We have our civil rights. We can vote and do anything any other citizen can do.

"We are fighting for our fishing rights and he is hurting our cause."

"KALAMA said he would be just as happy if GREGORY would go back to Chicago and resume his campaign for mayor of the Windy City."

"The Seattle Daily Times" on February 17, 1966, contained an article entitled, "DICK GREGORY Leaves Jail; Wife Stays", which states in part that ELMER KALAMA, Yelm, Washington, the Chairman of the Nisqually Tribal Council, said yesterday that most "of the Indians who fished with the GREGORYs aren't members of the Nisqually Tribe. He said he has asked his people to fish on their reservation until the dispute is settled in court.

"While GREGORY and his wife sat in jail, the comedian received support from BERTRAND RUSSELL, philosopher, in London and the Rev. Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr., in Atlanta.

"RUSSELL telegraphed: 'Fully support stand on fishing rights. Have called JOHNSON for your release.'

"Dr. KING telegraphed: 'You are to be congratulated on your forthright stand which you have taken on behalf of another oppressed minority, the Nisqually Indians.'

"KALAMA objected to that. He said he doesn't consider his people an oppressed minority."

The "Seattle P-I" on February 18, 1966, contained an article entitled, "DICK GREGORY Talks--Fish Nets Confiscated", which states in part:

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"While Indians were listening to Negro comedian DICK GREGORY discuss their fishing rights Thursday, state game protectors confiscated Indian fish nets from the Nisqually River.

"WALTER NEUBRECH, chief enforcement officer for the State Game Department, told United Press International his men had seized two nets.

"Meanwhile, GREGORY was telling a student crowd at St. Martin's College he plans to sue the State of Washington for false arrest...."

"He denied he had joined Indian fish-ins for personal publicity and contended the trouble over Indian fishing rights was instigated by the sports-fishing lobby.

"GREGORY, who cracked a few jokes for an appreciative audience, was mild in his denunciation of the state in comparison with BOB SATIACUM, self-styled chief of the Puyallups.

Wash.

"SATIACUM, who was decked out in a Plains Indian costume, though the Puyallups aren't Plains Indians, said:

"'Almost every word the state puts out is a lie.'

"He charged that state conservation measures are merely a subterfuge to deprive the Indian of his fishing rights.

Wash.

"JANET McCLOUD, a Tulalip Indian who lives near Yelm and has been a frequent vocal foe of the state, said that 'destruction of the salmon begins in the spawning beds.

"'But the state doesn't arrest the polluters,' she said.

"SATIACUM traced the history of his and other Indians' battles with the state.

"'If the state would send some fish and game men to Viet Nam and they would use the same tactics there that they use on us, the war probably would be over sooner,' he said.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"J. E. LASATER, assistant director of the State Department of Fisheries, told the audience that unrestricted fishing with nets in rivers would deplete seed stocks of salmon and ruin the fish runs.

"He said that the state isn't trying to break the 1854 Treaty of Medicine Creek, which gives the Indians the right to fish 'in their usual and accustomed ground' forever 'in common with other citizens.' But he said the state does insist, until a federal court rules otherwise, that it has the right to regulate all fishing off reservations..."

"All speakers at St. Martin's got enthusiastic applause--but SATTIACUM drew some booing when he made his charge that the state lies."

"The Seattle Daily Times" on February 18, 1966, contained an article entitled, "GREGORY Seeks Aid for Indians", which states in part:

"DICK GREGORY, Negro comedian, released from jail here yesterday after posting $500 bond, flew to Chicago last night to gather support for a group of Indians in their dispute with the state over fishing rights.

"He said he would meet with civil-rights leaders in the East to plan nation-wide demonstrations for the Indians, then return here next week..."

"Gregory's lawyer bailed him out but Mrs. GREGORY planned to stay in jail. 'It's up to her when she wants to come out,' GREGORY said..."

"Yesterday afternoon five Indians paddled a leaky dugout canoe down the Nisqually River east of here and staged another fish-in while GREGORY watched from the river bank.

"As the Indians hauled in four steelhead from a net laid near a highway bridge over the river GREGORY hollered, 'Bring the fish over here, I don't want to get mud on my shoes.'"

"Before going to the river, GREGORY, several Puyallup and Tulalip Indians and J. E. LASATER, assistant director of the State Department of Fisheries, participated in a panel discussion at St. Martin's College here.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"None of the Nisqually Tribal Council attended. Student leaders who arranged the discussion said none had been invited..."

"The Seattle Sunday Times" on February 20, 1966, contained an article entitled, "Indians March in Olympia; 6 To Camp on White House Lawn," which states in part:

"A group of 35 Indians marched briefly today in a protest demonstration over fishing rights on the Nisqually River east of here (Olympia).

"They gathered near the totem pole on the Capitol grounds, marched about a block to the Thurston County Courthouse where Mrs. DICK GREGORY is held in jail, sent in a bouquet of flowers which Mrs. GREGORY acknowledged by waving from a barred fourth-floor window, and then proceeded to the grounds of the executive mansion.

"A small detachment of state patrolmen refused to let the group approach the official residence of Gov. and Mrs. DAN EVANS.

Wash.
"Mrs. JANET McCLOUD, ~~spokesman for the Survival of American Indians Association~~, announced that six Indians will go to Washington, D.C. to organize an Indian encampment.

"She said they will camp on the White House lawn and remain there until President JOHNSON acts 'to protect Indian treaties.'..."

"Mrs. McCLOUD said no date has yet been set for the trip to Washington.

"While in the nation's capital, she said inquiries will be made to see whether the United States is living up to its obligations under all Indian treaties.

"Mrs. McCLOUD paid tribute to Mrs. GREGORY, saying few persons had helped their cause as much as the GREGORIES.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"'How many of our own people would go to jail and risk a $1,000 fine when it was not even their own cause?' she asked the group of Indians.

"Indians to Seek Ban Against Gregory"

Wash.
"The Puyallup and Nisqually Tribal Councils will seek an enjoinder to ban the Negro comedian, DICK GREGORY, from fishing in their waters, FRANK WRIGHT, chairman of the Puyallup Tribal Council, said today."

"WRIGHT said the two councils feel that the civil-rights issue and the Indian-fishing issue are separate problems.

"GREGORY was in the East today where he said he intended to consult civil-rights leaders and seek their support for the Indians. He said he planned to return to Olympia next week....."

A source advised on February 14, 1966, that the National Committee Plenum of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was held February 11 - 13, 1966, at SWP headquarters, 873 Broadway, New York City.

Source advised that among those attending was Dick Fraser, a National Committee member from Seattle, Washington. According to the source, Fraser did not plan to attend this plenum inasmuch as he and the Seattle Branch have split from the SWP, which action is not known as yet by the Party.

According to Fraser, he was urged by the National Secretariate of the SWP to attend this plenum and accepted after the Party offered to pay his expenses to and from the plenum.

Source stated that according to Fraser, the main point brought up at the plenum was an attack by the Party leadership on himself and the Seattle Branch. It was voted at the plenum to censure Fraser and colonize this branch. The attack, led by Farrell Dobbs, National Secretary of the SWP, accused Fraser of having a split. prospective and of carrying on anti-Party activity. This activity included the distribution of factional material to other branches including the Vancouver, Canada, Branch which had sent copies of literature from Fraser to Party headquarters in New York City.

During his stay in New York City, Fraser continued to negotiate the possibility of collaboration, if not unification, between himself and his dissident SWP followers with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) or the Workers World Party (WWP). Fraser also has certain contacts in the civil rights movement in the South and he is reportedly hoping to unify this group of individuals.

During the evening of February 12, 1966, Fraser held a conference with Dick Gregory, the comedian and civil rights activist, at the Village Gate in New York City. Fraser described Gregory as a friend of his and added that he had many civil rights contacts in the South, particularly in the Freedom Democratic Party.

Fraser further related that he would probably announce the split of the Seattle Branch of the SWP from the Party in approximately three weeks.

A characterization of the PLP, WWP and the SWP - Seattle Branch is contained herein.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)
PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT (PLM)

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the PLP, formerly known as the PLM, held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

"The New York Times," City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The PLP publishes the Marxist-Leninist Quarterly", a theoretical magazine; "Progressive Labor," a monthly magazine; "Challenge," a New York City newspaper; and "Spark", a west coast newspaper.

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge", page 6, states that, "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY - SEATTLE BRANCH

In May, 1941, a source advised that during the month of May, 1941, the Seattle Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was reorganized and received official recognition as a branch of the Party from the national office of the SWP in New York, New York.

On May 24, 1965, another source advised that the Seattle Branch, SWP, with headquarters at 3815 5th Avenue Northeast, Seattle, is a present affiliate of the National SWP, following the aims and principles of the National SWP. According to the source, membership in the Seattle Branch included RICHARD FRASER, who is a member of the SWP National Committee, and his wife, CLARA FRASER, who is an alternate member of the SWP National Committee.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY

On April 17, 1959, a confidential source advised that on February 12, 1959, a Socialist Workers Party (SWP) minority group under the leadership of National Committee member, SAM BALLAN, split from the SWP.

The source stated that this minority group, referred to as the Marcyites, after many years of program and policy differences on varied issues concerning tactics and interpretation of political events, split from the SWP on the grounds that the Party was liquidating itself by departing from the Marxist precepts of LEON TROTSKY and retreating from the fight for the world socialist revolution. The final issue which ultimately forced the split was the minority's opposition to the SWP regroupment policy which involved co-operation with the Communist Party (CP) periphery-individuals characterized by the minority as petty-bourgeois.

The minority program, according to source, advocated unconditional defense of the Soviet Union and has as its goal the building of a revolutionary party with a complete proletarian orientation for the purpose of overthrowing capitalism in the United States and throughout the world.

On May 12, 1960, source advised that this minority group had chosen the name Workers World Party.

On May 3, 1965, second source advised that the Workers World Party, which maintains headquarters at 46 West 21st Street, New York, New York, supports the People's Republic of China in its ideological dispute with the Soviet Union.

The SWP and the CP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

By memorandum dated February 21, 1966, this office furnished information concerning comedian DICK GREGORY, who was arrested on two counts of illegal net fishing on the Nisqually River, near Olympia, Washington.

"The Seattle Daily Times", a newspaper published in Seattle, Washington, on March 2, 1966, contained an article entitled, "GREGORY RE-ARRESTED IN FISH PROTEST", which states:

"DICK GREGORY, Negro comedian, was released from the Thurston County jail this morning after posting $1,000 bail on a charge of illegal net fishing in the Nisqually River.

"GREGORY took part in a demonstration by Indians against the state's fish-conservation regulations.

"At the time of his arrest, GREGORY was free on $500 bond on an earlier fishing violation.

"The trial on both charges was set for May 23.

"Warrants for two Indians who participated in the same demonstration were issued yesterday. The Indians are ALVIN BRIDGES and HERMAN JOHNS. Bench warrants also were issued in Pierce County for BRIDGES and JOHNS and two other Indians, LEWIS SQUALLY and LEONARD SQUALLY, brothers, charging them with failure to appear in court on charges resulting from an earlier net-fishing incident.

"GREGORY DID NOT resist arrest. However, JANET McCLOUD and her sister-in-law, EDITH McCLOUD, both Indians, protested so violently they were arrested.

"Mrs. ~~GREGORY~~, who was arrested two weeks ago with her husband and was released on $500, was present but did not take part in the demonstration.

"Four Muckleshoot Indians, SHERMAN DOMINICK, LARRY MAURICE, and CECIL and ROBERT MOSES were to be cited in King County Superior Court for violating an order barring Indians from fishing in the Green River off their reservation."

Various news media, subsequently on March 2, 1966, carried news items indicating that DICK GREGORY had been freed from the Thurston County Jail on $1,000.00 bond and had returned to Chicago with his wife, LILLIAN. They further indicated that GREGORY had apparently caught a bad case of the flu, was feeling "miserable" and said he wanted to see his doctor at home (Chicago, Illinois).

Dick has the tools, uses them skilfully

28 X One of the best acts to hit Vancouver in years was (Dick Gregory), possibly the best stand-up comedian in the U.S.A. His audience at the Cave (where he appeared from January 19 to 29) roared at this one: "I like the way you treat your Negroes in Vancouver—all six of them."

It's a pity he didn't appear at the Queen Elizabeth Theatre instead of a cabaret, because this cat has a message for everybody. Gregory is very active in the Negro struggle for civil rights and has been jailed more than fifty times.

As a Negro, he has known poverty and discrimination. He is an artist with a social message. Where other people make speeches for civil rights and peace, which is necessary, Gregory uses the caustic wit, ridicule and bitter-sweet irony of a first-rate comedian.

Gregory has been on civil rights picket lines in many U.S. cities and suffered a gunshot wound in the Los Angeles riots last year, riots provoked by police violence against Negroes.

He is currently considering offering himself as a candidate for the mayor's office in Chicago, on a civil rights platform. No one can say that fame and wealth have corrupted this fine artist. He has given $2 million to the civil rights movement.

Referring to his popular book, called "Nigger," he brought the house down when he said "My ambition is to put a nigger in every American home."

Like most good comedians, his dialogue is topical, including L.B.J.'s foreign policy (which he ridicules), the Ecumenical Council, the need to recognize China, Birmingham, birth control, space exploration and local issues.

Referring to the heavy snow we had in Vancouver, he said that friends had phoned his hotel to apologize. "There's no need to apologize. Snow is the only white thing I can walk over!"

There's a picture book on sale at the Co-op Bookstore, 341 West Pender, Vancouver, called "Dick Gregory, What's Happening?" It contains a collection of Gregory's best jokes, illustrated by some very amusing photographs.

Gregory, himself, posed in costume for most of the photos. It's well worth $2.35. For example: "Sheriff, why do you want to waste tear gas on us? We got enough to cry about already!"

How do you tell a group of people that a guy burns a draft card and in five days you're gonna have a dandy draft card burning, but you can lynch my grandma, and the government can't get involved. I'm telling you - you think more of a piece of cardboard than my grandma, and you're gonna be in trouble. A hundred years we've been trying to get an anti-lynching deal, but we can't. Actually, what it amounts to is a bunch of white college kids having some fun. The best thing for them to do, would be not to burn a lot of draft cards 'cause they'd get in a lot of trouble. They can bomb a Negro church and the government can't get involved.

BOTTOMORE: Yes, but do you think burning draft cards is a good thing?

GREGORY: Well, the fact is, it's a legitimate protest. All they are trying to say is, it's a new day now. These kids have watched war, they're not hungry any more. The ones that make the best army are the hungry ones, and Americans are not hungry.

BOTTOMORE: There are so many things happening in the States now, the Negro revolt, the students' activities. Can these things change society, make it better altogether?

GREGORY: Rome didn't change, Rome fell.

BOTTOMORE: Rome fell, but other countries didn't. There was the French revolution.

GREGORY: When a country gets too strong for you to run your own government, you burn it down, but in America you're not about to outdo the Army, the Navy, the Airforce, all the missiles, the State Police, the Local Police, the FBI, the CIA.

You see, in America, if we could have a revolution, we'd ask the guy, and we'd say, look this is what we're going to do. But we aren't about to go downtown and take anything away from that man, so you can't get groups of people together.

When you have something spontaneous, then it takes on, honestly instead of trying to fight it with emotion. Any problem man has created, man can solve, but there is the basic problem of will he? It's gone beyond the point of no return.

BOTTOMORE: Do you think it has gone that far?

GREGORY: I would definitely say so.

BOTTOMORE: Sometimes people get more honest when they are under pressure.

GREGORY: Well, like I say, it's headed that way. It's just one lie after another. You take what happened in Panama. A Panamanian came out and tore up the American flag, and they have yet to call him a hoodlum. People do everything around the world in the name of freedom, and the black man do the same thing in America, and get called a hoodlum.

BOTTOMORE: Yes, but if it did turn into something different, would it be more like socialism? I mean for everybody, not just the Negro.

GREGORY: Nobody knows. If we can make the constitution work right, it will have worldwide implications. If we can't make it work right there will be tremendous trouble. We're not trying to pass laws in America to make people like each other. We're just trying to pass laws to adjust social behaviour. This is all. You don't have to love me. We have to pass a law, so that you can't lynch me if you don't like me. You ask me what turn it's going to take, I'll tell you, as I see it now, it's very bad.

BOTTOMORE: Do you think the ideas of the rest of the world have much influence.

GREGORY: Yes. We didn't get civil rights legislation out of the goodness of America's heart, but you get out in the street and disrupt the peace and the whole world knows about it.

The African countries had more than that. They made a tremendous difference. It's something to have them take $10,000,000 a day while you're lynching negroes in Mississippi.

It's the same situation in Canada. All Canada would have to do to become a world power is to straighten up the Indian problem, the French problem and the Jewish problem.

Ghandi made India a world power by being a nice guy. In the case of Canada, being this close to America, if she could only solve her social problems, she would set an example.

Canada makes the same mistake with her problems as we've made in the Northern States. We keep dumping it on Mississippi. And the same thing will happen in Canada as happened in the States. As the South starts correcting her problem, what can the North put the blame on? So everybody forgets about the problems in the North, and they are far more frightening than in the South.

It was a psychological victory for the negro, and the fact that 20 negroes were killed was a psychological victory for the white bigot. Everybody held their own. It was a good game.

What happens when they train negroes to kill? Then you get 25,000 soldiers involved in 20 cities. We haven't got soldiers enough for that. Then you bring the marines back from Viet Nam, which might not be a bad idea.

BOTTOMORE: I think that's true. When I was in Chicago at the end of August there was a demonstration next door.

GREGORY: We all came out because you all was there.

BOTTOMORE: I was interviewed by the press. They were frightened to death about the negro problem and they said conditions were the same in Chicago as in Los Angeles.

GREGORY: Worse. Much more bitter. They'll fight harder in Chicago. Watts is justified by the American Declaration of Independence. Watts is a good American tradition, but basically it is a materialistic thing.

The guy who can't afford ten loaves of bread is a patriot. He's got to be 'cause he's got no money to hoard. The white man relaxes because we're only ten percent of the population, and he can never realize that ten percent can destroy a society.

no massa,

I don't wanna sit in the back of the bus

In conjunction with a Student executive Council sponsored luncheon and tour of the University, the "PEAK" arranged an interview with Dick Gregory and Dr. Bottomore. Dr. Bottomore, head of the P.S.A. dept., who is just having a book on classes published in the States, had a number of pertinent questions to put to Gregory.

Gregory, one of the most controversial comedians on the American night club scene, has participated in boycotts, sit-ins, stall-ins, marches and Freedom Rides throughout the United States. He is credited in "Playboy" as becoming the first negro comedian to break into the big leagues of show business and the only entertainer of any color to commit his fame and fortune - even his physical well-being - to the cause of racial equality.

Dr. Bottomore: I'm interested in Marxism and Classism. I don't know the United States well, but the Negro revolt seems to me to be one of the most hopeful things happening in America. What do you think will be the outcome of it?

Gregory: I can't see anything but mass destruction. Demonstrations wake up people, but they don't solve the problem. What's happening in America it seems to me is that we give an examination and find out that there's cancer, but the doctor keeps telling us it's a headache, which is what you want to hear, but you are gonna die.

the same pattern as tornadoes and earthquakes. You never know how much they're going to destroy. America would be better off with 20 people in 20 different cities. Then they would have somebody to blame it on.

Try to blame it on the communists like Billy Graham. There aren't enough communists in the world to stand on every corner in the Negro ghetto and wait for a chance to start a riot. It's like mass destruction, it's like fighting a forest

The white man in the South is honest, but in the North he lies. In the South the Negro has learned to live with it. The northern Negro is bothered by the South. He sees his southern brother standing there being lynched and he learns to resent him too.

All I can say about the North. If they don't make drastic changes there'll be 20 Watts this summer. Watts itself wasn't bad. It's what it means to 300,000 negroes living in Watts and only 5,000 white people. What happens

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS

"The Chicago Tribune," a Chicago daily newspaper, for April 21, 1966, carried an article captioned "Gregory Asks To Be Tried In U. S. Court."

This article in summary states that Dick Gregory, Comedian and civil rights agitator asserted that Negroes are being excluded from the jury in his trial in criminal court and because of this he could not get a fair trial. These allegations were made in a petition filed with the clerk of the Federal District Court asking the Federal court to take jurisdiction in this case. Gregory in this petition asserted his constitutional and civil rights were being denied him.

The article in conclusion points out that Gregory is scheduled to go on trial in Municipal Court on charges of resisting arrest and battery. These charges stem from his arrest on June 11, 1965, while leading a demonstration in Chicago, Illinois. Gregory's petition for a change of venue to the Federal Court was assigned to Judge Bernard M. Decker for a hearing.

"The Chicago Daily News," a Chicago daily newspaper, for April 23, 1966, contained an article captioned "Gregory's Lawyer Planning Appeal."

This article in summary states that Mrs. Jean Williams, Lawyer for Dick Gregory, was preparing an appeal from his conviction on charges of battery and resisting arrest. The article indicates that a jury in circuit court on April 22, 1966, found Gregory guilty of the charges stemming from his arrest on June 11, 1965, during a march protesting the administration of school superintendent Benjamin C. Willis.

Attorney Williams declined to enlarge on her appeal but indicated she was calling out of town experts on Jury selection and constitutional law to aid her. She contended that Gregory's trial in circuit court violated his civil rights.

The article indicates that at Gregory's trial policemen and other witnesses testified Gregory kicked police officers as they carried him into a squadrol.

Magistrate Maurice W. Lee, who presided at Gregory's trial, set May 2 as the date for sentencing Gregory.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS

"The Denisonian," the weekly publication of Denison University, Granville, Ohio, for March 11, 1966, carried an article entitled "Gregory: Vivid Image of Protest." This article, in summary, states that Negro comedian, Dick Gregory, spoke before a crowd of 1,200 people in Livingston Gymnasium at Denison University on March 6, 1966. Gregory's speech was sponsored by the Celebrity Lecture Series.

Gregory, during his speech, stated that the "laws of nature" dictated Negro uprisings and that "criminal conditions, not criminal people" were responsible for race organizations rioting and looting in the Watt's section of Los Angeles. Gradual education, according to Gregory, is not the answer to the present racial crises. Gregory stated that man is born with all the education he needs to realize he has the right to live in dignity.

Gregory in his speech predicted a racial uprising in Chicago stating, "Chicago's gonna bust this summer. When it does, it's gonna make Watts look like a picnic for the Pope." Gregory implied that conditions in the Windy City were largely due to inequities felt under the regime of present Mayor, Richard J. Daley, whom Gregory will oppose on an independent ticket in the November elections.

Gregory in his speech drew a parallel between the grip of the Ku Klux Klan in the South and the close association of many northern city political machines and underworld syndicates.

Gregory at the conclusion of his speech outlined his campaign plans for the Chicago Mayoral race. He indicated he expected to pool 90% of the Negro votes and 30% of the white votes in Chicago. He indicated that by doing this he will be able to break the Daley machine in Chicago.

RACIAL MATTER

The "Chicago Daily News," a daily publication in Chicago, Illinois, April 7, 1966, edition, carried an article titled "Use Ballots Not Bricks -- Gregory." This article reflects as follows:

"Comedian Dick Gregory told 500 persons, most of them Negroes, at a South Side rally that their problems will be solved by ballots, not bricks.

"Gregory, in beginning what he said will be a series of rallies to make Negroes aware of their political power and to stave off what could be a 'long hot summer' of rioting over civil rights, asserted:

"'This rally is to save lives. Violence is not the way. We will solve our problems one day and it won't be by the gun.'

"He said the rally, held Wednesday night at the United Packinghouse Workers Hall, 4859 S. Wabash, was political, "But we're not going to tell you how to vote. We're going to teach each other about politics. We're going to talk about political education.'

"The rally had entertainment - a combo and a girl singer - which Gregory said was 'the trick we used to get you all here. Now we're going to ask you to work hard through the summer,' he said, indicating it meant campaign work. Gregory is an announced candidate for mayor in 1967.

(U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"He said the rallies - he left the Packinghouse Hall to attend a second one Wednesday night and another is planned for Thursday night - would cost about $20,000, which he expected to get through 'collections.'

"Others speaking during the three-hour meeting were Ald. Charles Chew (17th), who plans to run for the state Senate; Fred D. Hubbard, 1st District candidate for the U.S. House, and Lawrence Landry, head of ACT, a civil rights action group. (ACT is not a set of initials, but the name itself).

"Chew said 'instead of Negroes getting mad' about civil rights 'they should get smart. We're having problems because we've been voting for the wrong people. Education and legislation will get us what we want.'

"Hubbard said through politics the Negro can 'pursue the dream of life without prejudice.' He said only through the proper use of the ballot can 'the kind of system' be set up to sustain that dream."

A first confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on April 7, 1966, as follows concerning a peace rally held on April 6, 1966, on Chicago's south side at the Packinghouse Workers Hall, 4849 South Wabash. Comedian Dick Gregory, head of the sponsoring unnamed group told the packed audience of approximately 500 not to be violent, however, there was no need to be pushed around. (U)

Gregory announced plans to have mobiles on the streets of Chicago this summer so that his workers could obtain refreshments. Also, he planned to furnish transportation to the museum, zoo, and other points of interest in the Greater Chicago area. He announced his aims are to make working for him pleasant. He further announced that he would not tell those in the audience how to vote or to vote for him, however, they should consider the candidates and vote for the best man.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

(U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It is noted that Gregory is an announced independent candidate for mayor of Chicago in 1967.

Supposedly the rally, first in a series, was designed to prevent violence in Chicago this summer.

Other speakers during the meeting, which ended at approximately 10:45 p.m. were Jean Williams, Lawyer, who following an introduction by Gregory pointed out the lawful rights of demonstrators and what position and course law officials would take concerning dramatizing various issues. Williams placed herself as the greatest lawyer the movement ever had and how fortunate the movement was to have her services. Alderman Charles Chew, Jr., of Chicago's 17th Ward was introduced by Gregory and made very brief remarks which were purely political in nature.

It is noted Chew has announced plans to run for the Illinois State Senate.

Gregory introduced, with high praise, Fred Hubbard who advocated strongly, non-violence. Hubbard in addition campaigned for himself and continually stressed his aspiration to unseat incumbent Congressman William L. Dawson.

Lawrence Landry, Chicago chairman of the organization ACT, spoke of violence and non-violence. He told the audience this non-violence thing could be "beautiful", but too much non-violence can also be disastrous. He invited the audience to come and actively participate in the current Chicago civil rights movement. The source pointed out that Landry did not show any enthusiasm while other speakers were speaking and he, in fact, appeared bored. The source concluded that generally the meeting was more political in nature than directed to the group's announced goal of preventing violence in Chicago.

On April 8, 1966, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the Chicago Office of the FBI as follows concerning a rally sponsored by Dick Gregory which was held on April 7, 1966, on Chicago's west side at the Alex Theater, 3826 West Madison: ~~(U)~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

A one cent cost of admission was charged to enter the theater, however, the cent was supplied by a male who stood out front. Entering, the source said, he encountered west side Chicago Negro youth gangs well represented. The theater was very noisy as gang members stood and shouted their various gang affiliations. The source recognized several members of the Vice Lords, a west side Chicago Negro youth gang.

Dick Gregory appeared on stage at approximately 9:15 p.m. to quiet the audience of approximately 600, inclusive of children, 8, 9, and up. Entertainment was supplied by an organ and saxophone combo playing jazz.

Gregory developed instant influence and rapport with the audience by speaking on the grass-roots level of his audience. He told many double meaning jokes and proceeded into a talk designed to prepare the audience for political activity and for later assumption of control of their community. Gregory announced there would be no rioting now or this summer. He instructed the audience to "cool it" and to be prepared to control their community in the not too distant future. The source surmised that Gregory spoke out of both sides of his mouth. The audience was thoroughly confused as to what position Gregory actually took on violence as opposed to non-violence.

Another speaker, Fred Hubbard, spoke mainly with direction toward prompting the audience to involve themselves politically, considering the power they possessed through the ballot.

The "Chicago Daily Defender," a Negro owned and operated daily publication in Chicago, Illinois, April 6, 1966, edition, carried an article entitled "Peace Rallies Set For Today And Thursday." This article reflects as follows:

"The first three Chicago peace rallies will be held today and Thursday, comic Dick Gregory and grocer Leo Rudendorf announced.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

"Rugendorf has agreed to underwrite six of the rallies at an estimated cost of $25,000.

"Tonight's rally will be held at the Packinghouse Hall, 49th St. and S. Wabash Ave. at 7:30 p.m. An hour later, the rally will move to Englewood's Regent Ballroom, 6836 S. Halsted St.

"Entertainers 'Guitar Red,' Paul Bascomb and Parnella Williams will headline the entertainment while 17th Ward Ald. Charles Chew, Fred Hubbard, Lawrence Landry, Rev. Archie Hargraves, Attorney Jean Williams and Dick Gregory will deliver speeches. Thursday, the westside rally will go into the Alex Theatre, 3826 W. Madison St. at 8p.m. Due to insurance regulations which protect theatre-goers, a one-cent admission will be charged. However, Rugendorf will be on hand with a bushel of pennies to pay the admission fee.

"Rugendorf gave financial support to the successful 'Christmas for Mississippi' project which supplied more than 50,000 turkeys to both Negro and white people. He was also instrumental in bringing Sammy Davis, Jr. to McCormick Place for the climax of the Christmas fund-raising drive.

"Gregory noted that Chicago and Los Angeles turned down the federal government project offered to 21 cities for the purpose of studying and quelling racial violence. After the Watts incident, he feels that citizens in Chicago should take the reins and responsibility and do whatever is necessary to help avoid any possible racial outbreak here.

"Rugendorf agreed with the comedian-civil rights leader: 'We must do whatever it takes to try to avoid blood-letting and property destruction in Chicago. That is why I'm willing to spend my money in attempting to stave off trouble.'

"Dates and locations of future rallies will be announced later, they said."

The "Chicago Daily News," a Chicago daily newspaper, for 5/3/66, carried an article which in summary reflects that comedian DICK GREGORY was sentenced to five months in County Jail and was fined $1,400 on charges of battery and resisting arrest. These charges related to GREGORY's arrest during a civil rights protest march 6/11/65. The sentence was imposed by Jury Court Magistrate MAURICE W. LEE. GREGORY advised a "Daily News" reporter that, "This is another one of Mayor DALEY's stunts," apparently referring to GREGORY's candidacy for mayor of Chicago in 1967.

GREGORY's attorney, [redacted] indicated this sentence will be appealed and posted $5,000 bond for GREGORY.

FRANKLIN AND MARSHALL COLLEGE,
LANCASTER, PA., APRIL 30, 1966

In accordance with prior arrangements, DICK GREGORY appeared on the campus of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., on the afternoon of April 30, 1966, in connection with a program to raise funds for PREP, a pre-college enrichment program for disadvantaged youths to be held at Franklin and Marshall College this coming summer.

The weather was raw and damp with intermittent heavy rain, so that the planned outdoor campus rally at which GREGORY was to appear was moved indoors on the campus.

A source who attended the rally advised the hall was not overcrowded and said GREGORY's hour-long talk covered a range of subjects, including the Vietnam war, but he did not dwell on particular racial injustices to any extent or try to incite the students on any particular racial crusade. The source said the audience did not create any disturbance and at the conclusion of the program left the area without lingering.

A second source on the Franklin and Marshall Campus advised that during the latter part of the week before GREGORY's appearance on Saturday, April 30, 1966, he noticed student campus leaders were quietly being called in for discussion with college administrative officials and said he believed college officials were taking this method to forestall any possible campus demonstration at the time of GREGORY's visit.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated April 25, 1966.

The "Chicago Daily News," a Chicago daily publication, for May 4, 1966, carried an article which in part reflected that comedian Dick Gregory, on May 3, 1966, had been sentenced to five months in prison and fined $1400.00. It was stated that Gregory, on April 22, 1966, had been found guilty of battery and resisting arrest during the course of a protest march against Chicago School Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis, on June 11, 1965. Gregory was fined $500.00 each on two charges of resisting arrest, and $200.00 on each of two charges of battery of a police officer. Magistrate Maurice Lee in addition, imposed concurrent five month jail sentences on the four charges.

Five Chicago police officers testified at the trial that Gregory kicked and bit arresting officers, and that he had to be carried to the police squadrol. A jury of six men and six women heard Gregory's case. Gregory's attorney, Jean Williams, refused to cross-examine the witnesses and offered no witnesses in Gregory's defense. Attorney Williams stated she would immediately appeal Gregory's sentence, and in addition post a $5,000 appeal bond, after which Gregory was released, having spent one hour and forty minutes in the lockup. Attorney Williams further charged that she believed "It is expedient" to have him (Gregory) out of the way for the forthcoming election. It should be noted that Dick Gregory is campaigning as independent candidate for Mayor of Chicago in the 1967 election.

[redacted] City of Chicago Corporations Counsel, [redacted] on May 23, 1966, advised that on May 13, 1966, comedian Dick Gregory was found guilty on city charges of obstructing justice and disorderly conduct, growing out of the June 11, 1965 protest marches. The date for sentencing Gregory on these charges was set for June 8, 1966.

UNNAMED GROUP HEADED BY
RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
SPONSORING PEACE RALLIES,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
RACIAL MATTER

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on May 17, 1966, a petition reflecting demands that the vacancy of the position of deputy superintendent in the Chicago Police Department, be filled by a Negro.

The source understands the petition was distributed at one of the peace rallies sponsored by comedian Dick Gregory on April 6, 1966, on Chicago's south side.

The source further understands that the petition has received small "circulation" and little effort has been exerted in securing signatures. The source opined this endeavor, by Gregory, has achieved very little success.

On May 17, 1966, Lieutenant [redacted] Commanding Officer, Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department, was advised by the Chicago Office of the FBI of the existence and distribution of the above mentioned petition. Lieutenant [redacted] stated he and other police department heads have been furnished a copy of this petition. He understands the petition was distributed at a Dick Gregory sponsored peace rally on Chicago's south side in April.

Lieutenant [redacted] pointed out he had no idea where the inaccurate statistical figures quoted on this petition were obtained. The deputy superintendent's position referred to in the petition was described by Lieutenant [redacted] as a position of legal and personal advisor to Police Superintendent O. W. Wilson. Lieutenant [redacted] added he personally did not know of any Negro officer within the department who could thru formal education and experience, qualify for the position which he opined would require a law degree.

Lieutenant [ ] further stated there has been no great concern within the police department concerning the petition, and frankly they have not heard any more concerning the petition since it was brought to their attention. Supposedly, the Chicago Urban League initially displayed limited interest, however, seemingly they have assumed a hands off attitude.

A copy of the petition mentioned hereinbefore is enclosed with the memorandum.

Mr. Hoover,

I have some important information
I think you ought to know.

The word has come down that Dick Gregory is suppose to be killed in the next two months, and even though
I don't agree with everything he does
I still think to let something like this happen to a good man like this would be a tragedy to us in Chicago.

I'm gonna send Gregory a letter like this because I don't think he knows how dangerous this business is.

Myself, I can't afford to get involved in this personally cause I'd be dead to, but since you're the FBI you can get to this and stop it.

THREAT TO KILL DICK GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS

ReButel, 6/2/66.

Appropriate local authorities, local military intelligence agencies, and Secret Service were immediately informed of the alleged threat to GREGORY.

JULIUS W. HOBSON, Chairman, Washington, D. C. Chapter of ACT, on 6/7/66, advised that DICK GREGORY supposedly returned to Chicago, Illinois, immediately after participating in an open-air rally in Washington, D. C., on the night of 6/1/66. It was HOBSON's understanding that GREGORY is currently in Chicago but plans to go to Mississippi to finish the march through Mississippi which JAMES MEREDITH was doing at the time MEREDITH was shot on 6/6/66.

The Memphis Office has advised of the receipt of a telephone call this date from Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and civil rights leader. Gregory advised our Memphis Office that he was staying in room 315 of the Motel Lorraine at 406 Mulberry Street in Memphis.

Gregory plans to drive from the motel to the spot near Hernando, Mississippi, where James Meredith was shot and then walk back toward Memphis for six hours. He will be accompanied by [redacted] and four others. The others were identified as [redacted] of Chester, Pennsylvania, [redacted] of Chicago, Illinois, [redacted] of Chicago, Illinois, and [redacted] of Oakland, California.

After six hours, Gregory will get on a plane and depart for Chicago. Gregory does not believe any march will continue in Mississippi until James Meredith is out of the hospital. Gregory asked if the FBI would be along his route or would the FBI meet him? Gregory was advised that the FBI could not afford him protection and was asked if he had notified local authorities. Gregory stated that he had not, but that he would call the Justice Department.

ACTION:

The Memphis Office was instructed to immediately advise the Jackson Office so that Jackson could notify local authorities in DeSoto County as well as the Mississippi Highway Patrol of the proposed march by Gregory. Memphis is also notifying the Memphis Police Department and the Shelby County, Tennessee, sheriff's office of Gregory's plans.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTER

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated
May 23, 1966.

The "Chicago Tribune", a Chicago daily newspaper, for Friday, June 10, 1966, carried an article captioned "Gregory Fined $300 For Sit-In." This article in summary states that Dick Gregory, the Negro comedian, was fined $300 in jury court yesterday by Magistrate James Sullivan on charges of disorderly conduct and obstructing traffic. Gregory was convicted on May 13 on these charges which related to his arrest on June 11, 1965, while participating in a civil rights demonstration.

Gregory's attorney, Mrs. Jean Williams, stated she would appeal the sentence and Magistrate Sullivan set the appeal bond for $800. Gregory, however, refused to post bond and was taken to jail. Attorney Williams indicated Gregory may spend the weekend in jail and thereafter post the bond. Magistrate Sullivan in sentencing Gregory states "Gregory has shown a propensity for involving himself in arrest situations." Attorney Williams argued that Gregory should not be fined because he was protesting "violations of human dignity." The magistrate answered that he found no fault with an individual protesting for his rights but that a different problem arose when there was an intentional violation of the law.

The "Chicago Sun-Times", a Chicago daily newspaper, for Friday, June 10, 1966, carried a similar article to that summarized above. In addition it was stated that Gregory was ordered to the House of Correction to work off his $300 fine at the rate of $5 a day. Gregory, after being processed at the House of Correction, was later transferred to the City Correction Farm located near Willow Springs, Illinois.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTER

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated June 10, 1966.

[redacted] Clerk, Criminal Courts Division, City of Chicago, Chicago Civic Center, on July 20, 1966, advised an employee of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in Chicago, Illinois, that court records reflect that on June 1, 1966, Jean Williams, Attorney for comedian Dick Gregory, filed a notice of appeal relating to the sentences imposed on Gregory in Chicago growing out of the charges of disorderly conduct and obstructing traffic and also an appeal relating to Gregory's sentencing on charges of battery and resisting arrest.

[redacted] Supervisor of Appeals and Transcripts, Civic Center, Chicago, Illinois, on July 20, 1966, advised an employee of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Chicago that on June 18, 1966, Attorney Jean Williams had appeared at that office and had filed an appeal relating to the charges against Dick Gregory asking that his case be retried in the Illinois Supreme Court. On July 20, 1966, Attorney Williams again contacted the Office of Appeals and Transcripts indicating that at that time her client would pay the fine imposed on him on May 13, 1966, relating to the disorderly conduct and obstructing traffic charges; however, Williams applied for and was granted an extension to file an appeal in the Appellate Court of Illinois relating to the April 22, 1966, conviction of Gregory on the two charges of resisting arrest and battery.

No chuckles as Gregory talks race

By BILL PRAGER

Comedian Dick Gregory sounded far from funny when he talked here Tuesday about the United States race problem.

He said unless the U.S. resolves the problem in five years, which will require more drastic action than now, the nation will destroy itself.

In the near future he also feels there will be more violent racial explosions.

A short time after he was interviewed, racial violence erupted in Detroit.

If violence keeps up in Chicago that city will have a bloodbath within three weeks, he says.

Mr. Gregory is an active civil rights worker and professional funnyman whose wry humor veils his grim thoughts about the future of U.S. Negro-white relations.

He is appearing this week at the Top Hat Supper Club in downtown Windsor.

The major reason, he says, Detroit has remained relatively cool is the Negro employment in a prosperous auto industry.

Other factors, for instance better leadership, may also be playing a part in Detroit, he says.

Unemployment through strikes, however, or an industry slump could build up the pressures for an explosion, he says.

Riots in the other U.S. cities could lead to such conditions in the auto centre, Mr. Gregory says, explaining businesses in Negro areas are cutting back their orders to keep their stock at a minimum, for fear of damage.

DICK GREGORY

He says this means a loss of $1,000,000,000 to American business from now until Oct. 1, the end of the warm season.

Mr. Gregory, who visited the Los Angeles Watts area after the 1965 riots, says earnings of the Negroes there were 45 per cent below the average for whites.

The Negroes were crowded, 27.5 persons an acre, compared to 7.5 persons an acre for the white population of Los Angeles.

"There would have been an explosion there just from people bumping into each other," he explains.

The Negro faces more danger from violence in the North than in the South, Mr. Gregory says. Northern whites have a fear of the Negroes, caused by lack of contact with them.

In the South, whites at least had Negro servants; and even Ku Klux Klan members were acquainted with Negro doctors and teachers.

The North "could not afford the luxury of hiring my grandmother at 25 cents a day."

In the North the trouble has come from white mobs. In the South, he continues, the opposition came from white police, in which case the violence at least was controlled.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTER

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated July 20, 1966, captioned as above.

On September 23, 1966, [redacted] Supervisor of Appeals and Transcripts, Civic Center, Chicago, Illinois, advised that Dick Gregory's attorney filed a "short record" September 1, 1966, with the Appellate Court of Illinois, and obtained a sixty day extension to November 2, 1966, on his pending case. [redacted] explained that a "short record" consists of the substance of the lower court record and is filed with the Appellate Court when for some reason the complete lower court record is unavailable.

[redacted] stated that the defendant Gregory's Appellate brief should be filed sometime prior to the extension date of November 2, 1966, on his conviction of resisting arrest and battery.

[redacted] advised that there was no further information available at this time.

ANNOUNCED PLANS BY RICHARD
CLAXTON GREGORY TO TRAVEL TO
NORTH VIET NAM DURING THE
1966 CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS
INFORMATION CONCERNING

On November 14, 1966, the Four Star Final edition of the Chicago Sun-Times, a daily newspaper published at Chicago, Illinois, page 12, column 1, contained an article datelined London disclosing that Dick Gregory of Chicago had announced his intention to visit United States war prisoners in North Viet Nam this Christmas. The announcement was made by Gregory in a British television appearance November 13, 1966. Gregory declared he would ask North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh for permission to entertain the prisoners during the Christmas holidays.

In response to a question by British newspaper men as to how he would circumvent the United States ban on travel to North Viet Nam, Gregory said, "I don't intend to go with my government's approval. I'll take my chances when I get back."

On November 16 and 17, 1966, CG T-1 and CG T-2, agencies which collect intelligence type data in the Chicago area and who have had some knowledge of Gregory's activities, were contacted relative to Gregory's announced plans to travel to North Viet Nam. Each source declared that he had no information relative to Gregory's plans at this time.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR BLACK POWER (CCBP) IS-MISCELLANEOUS

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum, dated November 7, 1966, under the above caption.

On November 7, 1966, at 4:00 p.m., United States Attorney Edward V. Hanrahan, Chicago, Illinois, advised the Chicago Office telephonically as follows:

The Office of the United States Attorney, Chicago, on November 7, 1966, had received "two or three" anonymous telephone calls alleging that [redacted] and [redacted] planned to "raise hell on the west side, tomorrow (November 8, 1966), to keep people from voting." The means to be utilized to accomplish this were not explained; however, was interpreted possibly to include the use of violence. Mr. Hanrahan was unable to provide any further clarifying information.

Note that referenced memorandum of November 7, 1966, reflects that groups representative of the CCBP, including the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE, and ACT, are urging a Negro boycott of the polls on election day, November 8, 1966, alleging that no candidates are involved in these elections who adequately represent the interest of the Negroes. Concerning [redacted] a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in November, 1966 that [redacted] is considered [redacted] West Side Chapter, of ACT, described as a militant civil rights organization in Chicago and [redacted] is known as a member of the West Side Chapter of ACT.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

This source advised, however, that it is known that individuals affiliated with the CCBP are planning leaflet distributions on Chicago's West Side during the evening of November 7, 1966 and during the day of November 8, 1966, urging a boycott of the polls by Negroes.

At 9:20 p.m., November 7, 1966, Officer [redacted] Office of the Deputy Superintendent, Chicago Police Department, advised that his office was in receipt of a telephone call recently from a male who identified himself as [redacted] and as "The father of [redacted]". This caller had stated that he had learned that representatives of CORE and SNCC would boycott polling places in the 24th, 25th, 28th and 29th Wards, in connection with the general elections to be held November 8, 1966. The caller had furnished no additional information to the Office of the Deputy Superintendent.

b7C

Information was set forth in referenced memorandum of November 7, 1966, to the effect that certain individuals affiliated with ACT, Oakland Committee for Community Improvement (OCCI), and Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and civil rights figure, were planning an all-night vigil and demonstration before the Cook County Jail in Chicago. This activity was to be in protest of the incarceration here of the head of the OCCI.

The above confidential source has advised in October and November, 1966, in connection with the OCCI, that representatives of this group have been present at general meetings of the CCBP.

In connection with this demonstration and vigil, [redacted]
[redacted] 10th District, Chicago Police Department, which District covers the area surrounding the Cook County Jail, 26th and California Avenue, Chicago, advised that a few scattered participants in this all-night vigil had gathered at the jail shortly after midnight. During the course of the vigil the size of the group grew to a maximum of approximately 30, this number inclusive of Gregory, as well as [redacted] [redacted] ACT [redacted] Chicago.

b7C

[redacted] advised that the group dwindled away until only six remained at 7:30 a.m., November 8, 1966, at which time the vigil and demonstration was terminated. There were no incidents, arrests or disturbances during its course.

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated December 1, 1966, captioned as above.

The "Chicago Tribune", a daily newspaper published at Chicago, Illinois, December 2, 1966 edition, reported on Page 10, Column 3, that inquiry by such newspaper at the London office of Bertrand Russell, British philosopher - pacifist, revealed that a North Vietnamese visa is awaiting Gregory in Paris. Russell's office indicated that the issuance of such visa is tantamount to North Vietnamese permission for Gregory's proposed visit to such country in order to entertain American prisoners confined there during the 1966 Christmas Holidays.

On December 2, 1966, CG T-1, an agency which collects security type information in the Chicago area which has provided reliable information in the past, advised that Gregory held a press conference in Chicago on December 1, 1966, relative to his proposed Vietnamese trip. At such time, Gregory stated he would seek no information about the condition of the American prisoners, their numbers, or their location while in North Vietnam. Gregory stated that he did not want to know anything about the war.

This same source advised that Gregory is scheduled to leave Chicago on December 2, 1966, for a nightclub engagement at the Village Gate in New York City. He will subsequently leave New York on Monday, December 5, on the first leg of his Vietnamese trip.

ANNOUNCED PLANS BY RICHARD CLAXTON
GREGORY TO TRAVEL TO NORTH VIET NAM
DURING THE 1966 CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS
INFORMATION CONCERNING

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated November 21, 1966, captioned as above.

On December 1, 1966, the Chicago Tribune, a daily newspaper published at Chicago, Illinois, Page 6, Column 3, contained an article relating to Gregory's previously announced intentions of travelling to North Viet Nam during the 1966 Christmas holidays. The article quoted Gregory as saying, November 30, 1966, that he had been invited to travel to North Viet Nam by North Vietnamese authorities in order to entertain American war prisoners there. Such invitation had been secured through the Paris Office of British Philosopher - Pacifist Betrand Russell.

Gregory, who is scheduled to perform at the Village Gate Night Club in New York City this coming week end, said he would depart by plane from New York December 5, 1966, enroute to London, England. Subsequently he will fly to Paris, France, to complete final arrangements and then departing Paris enroute Hanoi, North Viet Nam. The Tribune article stated Gregory had a valid passport and quoted him as saying he will make the trip regardless of whether the United States State Department granted permission for the trip.

ENCLOSURE

ANNOUNCED PLANS OF RICHARD CLAXTON .
GREGORY TO TRAVEL TO NORTH VIET NAM
DURING THE 1966 CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Gregory and his wife are presently standing trial in Olympia, Washington on a charge of illegal fishing arising from demonstrations there with the Nisqually Indians in February of 1966. Gregory said that if he and his wife were convicted of the illegal fishing charge in Olympia they will appeal, post bond, and then proceed to Viet Nam.

Chicago T-1, an agency which collects intelligence data in the Chicago area, advised on December 1, 1966, that Dick Gregory held a press conference at 11:00 AM, at 79 West Morrison, Chicago, Illinois, relative to his intended North Viet Nam travel. Gregory confirmed his previous statements as disclosed in the December 1, 1966 issue of the Chicago Tribune (as described above) and declared that he would contact the United States State Department on December 1, 1966, concerning such trip.

The above information was furnished to United States Army, Region I, 113th MI Group, [redacted]; United States Secret Service, Special Agent [redacted]

Gregory referred to an article in the 6/24/65 issue of the "Chicago American" which stated that there were "Reds" who were observed marching in the demonstrations protesting the rehiring of school superintendent Benjamin C. Willis. Gregory stated that some time ago he had visited the office of Robert Kennedy in Washington, DC. He stated that Kennedy left the office for a short period of time, and he, Gregory, observed papers on Kennedy's desk. Gregory advised these papers indicated to him that the FBI had a great number of informants in the CP. He advised the demonstrators that he wondered whether the "reds" mentioned in the newspaper article were "real reds" or FBI informants, and he intimated that possibly the FBI was using informants in the anti-Willis marches. Gregory further stated he had noticed in the past that one person who had participated in an anti-Willis march, did not know the words to the "Freedom Song", and he commented that this person was possibly an FBI informant.

Special Agents on 6/26/65 observed that Dick Gregory spoke to the demonstrators assembled at Buckingham Fountain in Chicago. During this speech Gregory criticized the FBI, the Chicago PD and law enforcement agencies in general. He ridiculed Director Hoover and stated that Hoover made a statement that there were communists in the civil rights movement. Gregory stated "J. Edgar Hoover is the most dangerous, vicious man in America." He further stated that if the FBI, the number one police agency in the world, could not keep the communists from stealing the secrets of the atom bomb, how could we, civil rights workers, keep a communist from paying the $2 to join the civil rights movement. Gregory then stated the reason that there were so few Negroes in the FBI was because there were very few right wing Negroes.

The demonstrators, who were protesting the rehiring of school superintendent Benjamin C. Willis, were led by Gregory and Robert Lucas, Chicago head of CORE, to City Hall. They paraded around City Hall and then gathered to hear Gregory and Lucas speak.

The "Chicago Tribune" Two Star Extra, Chicago, of 11/16/65, reported under the caption "Gregory Fined $400.00 as Picket" that Dick Gregory was fined the maximum of $400.00 on 11/15/65, on two charges of disorderly conduct arising from a demonstration on 8/2/65, near Mayor Daley's home in Chicago. Gregory elected to spend three days in the Bridewell (House of Correction) on what he promised would be a hunger strike rather than post a $500.00 bond pending appeal to the Illinois Appellate Court. Gregory said he would post the bond after the strike.

The "Chicago Sun Times," Chicago, of 11/17/65, and the "Daily Defender," (no date given) Chicago, covered an account of the hunger strike at the House of Correction, Chicago.

Superintendent Stanley L. Denski of the House of Correction refused to give a press conference to Gregory indicating that he was not encouraging any publicity regarding the demonstration within the institution. Gregory was reportedly saying that he was seeking to "point up" injustices in the state Jury Courts and the treatment of Negroes in Chicago generally, by his hunger strike (details set out).

According to an article in the Chicago "Sun Times," Chicago, 11/18/65 entitled "Promise to Study Complaints of Jail Hunger Strikers," Gregory was permitted a news conference on the evening of 11/17/65. He stated in part that he had ended his proposed three-day hunger strike after one day because other prisoners mistakenly believed that he was protesting conditions at the jail. This article further revealed that House of Correction Superintendent Stanley L. Demski and a prisoner spokesman contended that Gregory's presence played no part in the prisoners' hunger strike. Demski stated that Gregory's presence might have "served as an impetus to go on a hunger strike and make these requests" for better jail conditions.

Mrs. Widener furnished advance copies of two syndicated columns written by her concerning the activities of the CIPA conference.

Column captioned "Leftists' New 'Peoples's Politics'" stated that Dick Gregory, who plans to run this year as an "independent" candidate for mayor of Chicago, was a co-chairman of the conference. In his speech Gregory stated "There are spies in this room. FBI spies and police spies and there's another spy I won't identify now, but we'll see about him later." He did not explain the logic of why local and federal police authorities in Chicago would want to plant spies in an open meeting conducted for aboveboard political purposes. To those in the press near the dais, it seemed that either Gregory knew of behind-the-scenes CIPA activities warranting investigation by police authorities, or else he was making flagrantly demagogic and deliberately inflammatory anti-police propaganda.

Column captioned "New 'Peoples's Politics' Working Sessions" stated that one of the speakers, Philip Kron, was introduced falsely as a "speech writer" for candidate John Lindsay in the NYC mayoralty campaign. Kron stated Gregory couldn't possibly win, a statement resented by Negro militant civil leaders present.

b7C

Patrolman [redacted] Human Relations Unit, Chicago PD, advised that at the 4/1/66 press conference Gregory announced the formation of a committee designed to avoid the outbreak of violence in Negro neighborhoods in Chicago during the coming months. Gregory explained the program of this committee and also answered questions concerning the committee.

Similar information to the above was furnished by [redacted], Chicago Commission on Human Relations.

b7C

On 4/1/66 the "Chicago Daily News" contained an article reporting the above press conference and stated that evening rallies were expected to be held by Gregory on 4/5,6/66, place not yet named.

Subject, who is better known in the entertainment world as Dick Gregory, previously informed Agents that he is planning to go to North Vietnam to entertain American prisoners of war. He has declared that he will go with or without State Department approval.

Gregory told the Agents that there is no intelligence mission involved in the trip and that he wants to be blindfolded when the North Vietnamese takes him from prison camp to prison camp. He said that if the North Vietnamese do not believe him, they can [REDACTED]

Enclosed for the Bureau are eighteen (18) copies of a letterhead memorandum concerning the above group, its activities and those related to it over the period 11/4-7/66.

Copies of this letterhead memorandum are designated as indicated to interested offices for information. The caption of the letterhead memorandum itself is being carried as Racial Matter rather than as Internal Security - Miscellaneous as this is deemed more appropriate to the nature of the activities as set forth.

Chicago is conducting no investigation concerning the threatening phone calls made to DICK GREGORY, from an extortion aspect, as the telephone calls to him and his associates were local in nature. A separate letterhead memorandum is being provided the Bureau under an appropriate caption pertaining to the threat against GREGORY and his associates under the caption Election Laws - Extortion.

COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR
BLACK POWER (CCBP)
RACIAL MATTER

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum of November 4, 1966, under the above caption setting forth in part plans of those groups and individuals composing the CCBP umbrella-type organization to conduct demonstrations in Chicago, Illinois, on November 4, 1966, and November 5, 1966. Those militantly oriented civil rights groups which compose the CCBP include in part ACT, Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), Deacons for Defense and Justice, Inc. (DDJ), Oakland Committee for Community Improvement (OCCI), the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), as well as members of several Negro youth gangs in Chicago; these latter inclusive of such as the Blackstone Rangers and the Vicelords.

Referenced memorandum reflected that representatives of the CCBP had planned a picket demonstration at approximately 1:00 PM on November 4, 1966, at Congress Plaza, Chicago, this demonstration to coincide here with a visit to Chicago of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

In connection with this planned demonstration, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 4, 1966, that this particular demonstration was not to be held in view of the cancellation by President Johnson of his plans to visit Chicago. In its place the representatives of the CCBP have scheduled demonstrations for November 4, 1966, commencing at approximately 4:00 PM in the vicinity of Lake Street and Hamlin Avenue on Chicago's near northwest side. This demonstration is generally to be in protest of a lack of suitable candidates in the November 8, 1966, elections who are qualified or interested in suitably representing the Negro. These demonstrators are to proceed from their meeting point at Lake and Hamlin on a route taking them through this near northwest side neighborhood, predominantly white. The group has solicited the support of the DDJ to accompany them and to provide any protection necessary from any community attacks against the demonstrators. According to this source, the demonstrators themselves have no plans as such to initiate violence during the demonstration. If this demonstration is successful the group plans to conduct similar demonstrations in other all white or predominantly white Chicago neighborhoods over the forthcoming weekend. These demonstrations are to be held with the hope of encouraging the so-called "white backlash" to further embarrass the Democratic city administration and further contribute to the defeat of local Democratic candidates for public office in the November 8, 1966, elections.

RE: COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR

Lieutenant [ ] Communications Section, Chicago Police Department, advised that as of 4:30 PM on November 4, 1966, there were no demonstrators then in the vicinity of Lake and Hamlin Avenues, however, additional police forces have been detailed to this area to insure that no problems arise in the event the demonstrators do appear.

Lieutenant [ ] subsequently advised that the scheduled demonstration and march, above, did not begin until 7:15 PM on November 4, 1966. Only 17 demonstrators, all Negro, subsequently marched from the intersection of Lake and Hamlin through this and nearby neighborhoods, terminating their march at approximately 10:00 PM. These demonstrators were accompanied by approximately 50 Chicago police officers and there were no incidents, arrests or disorders at any time during the course of the affair.

Patrolman [ ], Deputy Superintendent's Office, Chicago Police Department, advised at approximately noon, November 5, 1966, that information had been received by the

RE: COORDINATING COUNCIL FOR
BLACK POWER (CCBP)

Chicago Police Department that the West Side Chapter of ACT has laid plans for a march on this date to commence at approximately 4:00 PM. Those involved will originate their demonstration from ACT Headquarters, 413 East Oakwood Boulevard, Chicago, to the headquarters of the 13th Ward, Regular Democratic Party Organization, 6509 South Kedzie, Chicago. The stated reason for this march is to encourage a Negro boycott at the polls on the occasion of the elections to be held November 8, 1966. ACT is to be joined in this march by individuals representative of those other groups which comprise the CCBP, notably SNCC and CORE.

It will be recalled that referenced memorandum of November 4, 1966, also contained information to the effect that a march was to be held by CCBP forces on November 5, 1966, through the First Congressional District on Chicago's south side.

In connection with this demonstration, Commander [redacted], 3rd District, Chicago Police Department, covering the First Congressional District, advised that some 22 demonstrators led by Robert Lucas, Chicago CORE Chairman, marched for a short while early Saturday afternoon, November 5, 1966, from the area of 63rd and South Park Avenues, to the vicinity of 47th and South Park where the demonstration ended at approximately 3:00 PM. [redacted] advised that the marchers carried signs calling for the defeat of incumbent Congressman William L. Dawson, Chicago's First Congressional District, in protest of his past record in the civil rights area. [redacted] advised that the marchers did not reach Congressman Dawson's office as had been planned, apparently because of their fatigue. There were no incidents, arrests or disorders in connection with this march.

Lieutenant [redacted], Watch Commander, 8th District, Chicago Police Department, advised at 5:00 PM on November 5, 1966, that the demonstration planned for this afternoon at 4:00 PM by the West Side Chapter of ACT had been canceled. [redacted] advised that [redacted] ACT [redacted] had advised that the demonstration instead would be held at 4:00 PM on November 6, 1966, with a march to begin from 413

BLACK POWER (CCBP)

East Oakwood Boulevard, Chicago, ACT Headquarters, to the 13th Ward Democratic Headquarters at 6509 South Kedzie Avenue. The marchers additionally will proceed to the vicinity of 3900 West 63rd Street in this general area, this address the headquarters of the 13th Ward Republican Organization.

[ ] stated that to the best of his information, this demonstration on November 5, 1966, had been canceled because most of the participants were to have been those who had taken part in a earlier march on this date on Chicago's south side and these individuals had apparently not physically been able to engage in another march on this date.

Lieutenant [ ] above, advised on November 6, 1966, that the planned demonstration by ACT and associates of this organization before both the Democratic and Republican Party headquarters on Chicago's west side had not materialized. [ ] had no information concerning the reason for the cancellation of this march other than the fact that insufficient support had been mobilized by those organizations who were interested in it to render it other than embarrassing.

[ ] advised, however, that the Chicago Branch of the American Nazi Party had apparently learned of the contemplated demonstrations to be held in this area on Chicago's south side and had scheduled a counter demonstration to take place in Marquette Park. The area where the ACT demonstrations were to have taken place is generally in the Gage Park and Chicago Lawn areas on Chicago's southwest side, the scene of serious disorders during the summer of 1966 on the occasion of civil rights marches through these all white residential neighborhoods.

Concerning the ANP activity in Marquette Park on this date, [ ] advised that at approximately 4:30 PM, five individuals, all Caucasian, had been arrested in Marquette Park for distributing Nazi Party literature. These individuals were identified as follows:

[redacted]
Highland Park, Illinois

[redacted]
Chicago Branch ANP

[redacted]
[redacted], Chicago

[redacted]
[redacted] Chicago

[redacted]
[redacted] Chicago

Concerning these individuals, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] are all known in the past to have been active in the Chicago Branch, ANP.

Records of the Chicago Office reflect no information identifiable with either [redacted]

At 6:00 PM, November 6, 1966, Lieutenant [redacted] advised that he had learned that Dick Gregory, Negro entertainer and civil rights activist, now in Chicago, was present at ACT Headquarters with some eight other persons attempting to organize a march to or demonstration in the Cage Park area later that evening. As of 6:45 PM, November 6, 1966, Officer [redacted] Office of the Deputy Superintendent, Chicago Police Department, advised that Gregory and this group were still at ACT Headquarters continuing to attempt to organize such a demonstration, however, there was no indication at that time when such activity would take place.

[redacted] Commander, 2nd District, Chicago Police Department, advised the Chicago Office that Gregory and Lawrence Landry together with some 14 other individuals departed the ACT Headquarters at approximately 7:20 PM, en-route to 13th Ward Republican Headquarters, 3900 West 63rd Street. Upon arrival here this group demonstrated peacefully for approximately an hour, then proceeded to 13th Ward Democratic Headquarters, 6509 South Kedzie. Here the demonstrators became disorderly, noisy and rowdy, repeatedly shouting

BLACK POWER (CCBP)

"Black Power", and the Chicago Police Department forces present on the scene arrested ten male and three female demonstrators on disorderly conduct charges. Among those arrested was [redacted] of the West Side Chapter of ACT. Gregory and Landry were not arrested as a result of this activity.

Officer [redacted] above, advised that information subsequently received by the Chicago Police Department reflected that Gregory, subsequent to the demonstration on Chicago's southwest side, had stated that he might engage in an all-night vigil at Cook County Jail, Chicago, to protest the incarceration there of [redacted] of the OCCI. [redacted] a close associate of Gregory, is currently in jail for defiance of a local circuit court injunction restricting civil rights marches in Chicago, this injunction obtained in August, 1966, by Chicago city authorities. As of 10:00 PM, November 6, 1966, Captain [redacted] 10th District, Chicago Police Department, covering the area surrounding the Cook County Jail, advised that there were no demonstrators in the vicinity of the jail at the present time. He advised that his information was now to the effect that the OCCI would conduct an all-night vigil at Cook County Jail, 26th and California, Chicago, to protest the incarceration of [redacted] beginning at midnight, Monday, November 7, 1966, and concluding at 6:00 AM, November 8, 1966. [redacted] stated that according to the [redacted] of the OCCI, [redacted] the size of the group participating in this all-night vigil will be within the limits of the law pertaining to such activity.

At 3:25 AM, November 7, 1966, Officer [redacted] [redacted], Office of the Deputy Superintendent, advised that a telephone call had been received at the Deputy Superintendent's Office at 2:35 AM from [redacted] above, affiliated with the OCCI. At that time [redacted] reported a threatening telephone call received by him at 2:10 AM, November 7, 1966. The telephone call was from an unidentified male who stated to [redacted] "If you demonstrate before election day I'll kill you." [redacted] further advised that the Deputy Superintendent's Office was notified at 3:10 AM by Chicago Police officers calling from the residence of Dick Gregory, 1451 East 55th Street, Chicago, that Gregory had previously reported to the district police precinct that he had also received a threatening telephone call, this call received at 2:00 AM, November 7, 1966. Gregory's caller had reportedly stated, "Stay in your house until after the election."

At 2:55 AM, November 7, 1966, the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation received a telephone call from Dick Gregory who at that point stated that he and some of his associates were receiving threatening telephone calls as a result of his proposed demonstrations. At this point Gregory stated that representatives of the Chicago Police Department had just arrived at his residence and he would recontact the Chicago Office with further details as soon as possible.

Gregory subsequently recontacted the Chicago Office at 5:18 AM, November 7, 1966, and advised that although the matter of the threatening telephone calls received by him and his associates had been referred to the Chicago Police Department and the Cook County Sheriff's Office, his attorneys had advised him that he should again contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation to furnish full information concerning these calls. Gregory stated that to the best of his recollection, his caller had stated, "Don't go to the jail and demonstrate tomorrow or you'll be hurt. Stay in your house until after election. This goes for [redacted]"

b7C

Gregory stated that he then cursed at the caller, was cursed in return at which point Gregory hung up. Gregory advised he was not concerned about this call until he learned shortly thereafter that [redacted]

b6

[redacted] (all referred to above) had received similar telephone calls this AM. Gregory stated that the call to [redacted] in effect was "If you come out in the street you will be dusted off." Gregory advised that it was his belief that these threatening calls resulted from his announcing a planned rally and demonstration at the Cook County Jail commencing midnight, November 7, 1966. Both Gregory and Chicago Police Department sources familiar with these calls advised that they consider them local in nature.

UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third stage, to wit, "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda." The source added that ROCKWELL had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

A source advised on November 14, 1960, that on that date a meeting was held in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of organizing a Chicago Unit of the American Nazi Party (ANP) which maintains headquarters in Arlington, Virginia. GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL, National Commander, ANP, took charge of this meeting.

On May 22, 1962, [ ] self-identified as lieutenant, ANP, Chicago, advised that the ANP in Chicago is to a degree autonomous although it remains subject to the final authority of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL and ANP National Headquarters.

b6
b7C

A second source advised on August 17, 1966, that the Chicago branch of the ANP is currently located at 1314 West Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and civil rights agitator has publicly announced that with [redacted] he plans to travel to North Vietnam to entertain American prisoners of war. State Department has asked for a name check on Gregory.

Gregory is the unscrupulous publicity hound who has made disparaging and contemptuous remarks concerning the Director and the Bureau. His sanity can be questioned as he told our Seattle Office that the North Vietnamese could [redacted] if they suspected any duplicity on his part.

Our files show he reportedly is a friend of a Seattle Socialist Workers Party leader and met with him last February in New York City. His activities pertain to racial and civil rights agitation and demonstrations.

Gregory has a valid passport until June, 1967, and may travel to any country not restricted on his passport. Among the countries restricted on Gregory's and [redacted] passports is that portion of Vietnam under communist control. Gregory told an informant of ours that [redacted]

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On November 28, 1966, comedian DICK GREGORY, of Chicago, Illinois, appeared at the Thurston County Court House, Olympia, Washington, incidental to his being charged with illegal fishing on an Indian Reservation. The trial had not yet begun, though it is scheduled for November 28, 1966. Mr. GREGORY had occasion to volunteer the following to an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

He had just returned from Europe and for the purpose of appearing at the aforementioned trial. In Europe he approached BERTRAND RUSSELL, well known English philosopher, with his idea to appear as an entertainer in North Vietnam prison camps for the purpose of a non-political Christmas holiday entertainment in their behalf. This would be contingent upon a Christmas truce.

Two North Vietnamese officials flew from Hanoi to London and GREGORY met them there, asking to meet and talk with HO Chi-minh. The North Vietnamese appeared quite receptive to GREGORY's plan, but said they could not speak for the North Vietnamese people until the people's wishes were established, since four million pounds of bombs are dropped daily on North Vietnam by American pilots and the idea now of entertaining these pilots would possibly be repugnant to the people.

GREGORY said the North Vietnamese advised him they would pursue the matter and he would be contacted and advised of the feasibility of hearing out his plan.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

GREGORY said he would have to learn the "ground rules" of HO Chi-minh and in turn, his own ground rules would have to be explained. He then said he would not agree to entertaining American prisoners in North Vietnam if there was segregation involved in any form, including the elimination of pilots from any audience, as he felt this would be tantamount to being a party to condemnation of the pilots' actions. He also said he would want to be blindfolded when traveling between prisoner camps, as he did not want to learn anything that could be construed to be military or intelligence information.

GREGORY said he intended to receive the North Vietnamese reply and then if favorable, he would go to the United States State Department for their approval, asking that his luggage be completely searched before his departure and asking further that he be permitted to take [redacted] with him as a gesture to support the non-political purpose of his visit. Further, if the North Vietnamese suspected any duplicity on his part, they would be welcome to, as he put it, [redacted]

b7c

GREGORY said he believes the American prisoners of the North Vietnamese are entitled to be entertained as much as anyone else and he also hoped to ask the North Vietnamese to release any wounded who obviously would never be able to return to combat. He said this entire effort was part of his conviction that people to people efforts can succeed in overcoming man's inhumanity to man through warfare and he will have no part in any propaganda effort that might attach itself to his proposed program. He then commented on the "cocktail sipping Government officials in Washington, D.C." who make decisions affecting the lives of men on the front lines and he believed the men on the front lines should make their own decisions. He added that if he were an American soldier, he would be the best and would die twice for his country; but if captured, he felt that as a prisoner, he should give more than his name, rank and serial number and should tell all he knew. He did not expound upon this further due to an interruption.

'A FAIR TRIAL ALL THE WAY ...

Gregorys To Appeal Fish-In Convictions

By BOB McDANIEL

Daily Olympian Staff Writer

The Courthouse show is over—at least for the time being.

Dick Gregory and his wife, Lillian, Wednesday evening were convicted on a total of five charges of illegal fishing. But the Negro comedian and his wife have another Thurston County Superior Court date next January 12, when they are scheduled to appear once more before Judge Hewitt A. Henry.

To be argued then will be a motion for a new trial, and if that is not successful, sentencing for the couple. Maximum penalty for Gregory could be three years in jail and a $3,000 fine, and for his wife, two years and $2,000.

The motion for a new trial was filed by Jack Tanner, Tacoma attorney for the Gregorys.

The whole thing started last Winter with Gregory and his wife fishing in the Nisqually River in support of Indian claims they're usual and accustomed fishing spots—guaranteed by the century-old Medicine Creek Treaty—were being violated.

Neither of the defendants was on hand for the verdict, which required three and a half hours of deliberation by a jury of seven women and five men. The Gregorys left Wednesday afternoon for Chicago and preparation for a trip, the announced candidate for mayor of Chicago will make to Manoi next week. Gregory said Wednesday that he will try to make arrangements for a Christmas show for American prisoners of war held in North Viet Nam.

Gregory, who said he has not approached the State Department with his plans for a trip abroad, drew a comment from Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who said if Gregory went without permission it would "pose some problems for us and for him."

Back in Thurston County, it was a nearly empty Courtroom by the time the verdict was announced. The Gregorys were absent, as were such visiting Indian notables as Mad Bear, a longshoreman from New York; Semu, a Chumash medicine man from San Diego, and Messenger Boy, who said he would rather be called Craig Carpenter.

Before his followers departed, Gregory treated them and a handful of Courthouse on-lookers to a half-hour of his specialty—an impromptu comedy routine. The third floor hallway outside of Judge Henry's courtroom served as a stage.

He joked about civil rights mostly, taking verbal pot shots at law enforcement, Dixie style. Then, in a more serious vein, Gregory showered praise on the eight state game protectors who testified at his trial. But the comic urge got the best of him, and in the end the comedian reverted to form and quipped:

"They told the truth, and man I'm not used to honest cops. It's been a fair trial all the way and I'm not complaining."

The man who says he "NEVER" takes the easy way out and forfeits bail when he gets into a legal hassle assured everyone that he and his wife will be on hand for the court action set for next month.

Gregory Announces He'll Hop To Hanoi

Negro comedian Dick Gregory said Wednesday morning that he will leave next Monday for Hanoi and a conference with the North Vietnamese government officials concerning a series of Christmas shows he wants to stage for captured American troops held there.

* * *

Confirmation of his bid for the trip came early Wednesday morning from British Philosopher Bertrand Russell's Paris office, Gregory said during a press conference prior to the third day of his trial in Thurston County Superior Court on illegal fishing charges.

In making the announcement, Gregory reiterated comments made earlier in the week that he "is going as a human being, not as an American or a patriot."

He again said that the U.S. State Department has not entered the picture, "because they couldn't get me into Hanoi if they wanted to."

* * *

If the initial conference in Hanoi is successful, Gregory said, he will try to take a trio of musicians, his wife, and two of his five daughters for the holiday junket next month.

"I'll leave my wife and kids there as a gesture of good faith," he said. "I don't know if the North Vietnamese will go for the idea of hostages, but if they want me to, I'll leave my wife, Lillian, and daughters, Michele, 7, and Lynn, 5, in Hanoi for a month."

The comedian said that he will not entertain in nightclubs for a maximum of two years if he makes the trip to North Vietnam. This is, he said, "because I wouldn't want to make money" due to the trip. He said he will continue with his writing and lecture appearances regardless of the trip.

Gregory said he planned to pay for the trip himself by financing it with a series of appearances in Chicago before he leaves next month.

Information Concerning

Special Agent personnel Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Richard Claxton Gregory depart from John F. Kennedy International Airport, Queens, New York, on December 5, 1966, at 10:00 a.m. aboard Trans World Airlines Flight 702 bound for London, England. At a press conference given by Dick Gregory prior to his departure he made the following statements:

He was bound for London, Paris and Hanoi, North Vietnam. He could not predict the date of his arrival in Hanoi since flights to North Vietnam were infrequent. The purpose of his trip was to negotiate for Christmas entertainment of American prisoners of war in North Vietnam. He was going at the invitation of the Hanoi Government and Bertrand Russell, British philosopher and pacifist was instrumental in arranging the trip.

Dick Gregory declined to discuss his attitude toward the Vietnam War. He was not against war, but he was against killings. He was making the trip as a "human being." He would not give shows to combat soldiers but would give shows to captured soldiers.

Dick Gregory was asked if he had heard from the State Department relative to this trip. He replied that he had received a telegram from the State Department which referred him to two points of law. Dick Gregory did not enunciate the two points of law involved but he turned the telegram over to his attorney.

Gregory stated that the telegram from the Department of State has not changed his plans.

ENCLOSURE

Announced Plans by Richard
Claxton Gregory to Travel to
North Vietnam during the 1966
Christmas Holidays

The "New York Times" December 4, 1966, page 9, contained an article entitled "Dick Gregory Going to Hanoi to Arrange Shows for G.I. Captives." This article related that at a previous press interview Dick Gregory stated that the above trip to Hanoi commencing December 5, 1966, "would be made only to work out details for the second visit" at Christmas time. If he was successful in arranging for the Christmas trip he would concentrate then on entertaining the prisoners.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 10, 1966, that at a press conference held at the Village Gate, an entertainment spot in Greenwich Village, New York City, at 11:00 a.m., December 10, 1966, Dick Gregory made the following statement:

Dick Gregory was notified by Bertrand Russell, English philosopher and pacifist, that his (Gregory's) projected trip to Hanoi, North Vietnam, to entertain United States prisoners of war had been turned down by the North Vietnamese. The reason given was the extensive bombing of North Vietnam by United States forces. Dick Gregory stated he sent a telegram to the Hanoi Government advising that he was not interested in political affairs, but was primarily concerned with entertaining United States prisoners of war in North Vietnam. Dick Gregory stated he sent a telegram to the President of the United States protesting travel restrictions on his United States passport. He also indicated he planned legal action against the United States Government to enjoin the Government from restricting his travelling privileges. Dick Gregory stated he is not a Communist and would never become one. (S) (U)

The "New York Times" issue of December 11, 1966, on Page 8, carried an article entitled "Gregory Says Trip Awaits New Hanoi Authorization." According to the article, Dick Gregory said he would cancel his proposed Christmas trip to Hanoi unless renewed approval was received from Hanoi within a week. The article said that Gregory returned to New York Friday, December 9, 1966, from London and that his proposed trip to Hanoi had been postponed by the North Vietnamese since American bombings in the Hanoi area posed a threat to his safety.

The Chicago "Tribune" January 13, 1967, edition carried an article on page three, column four, datelined Olympia, Washington, revealing that Dick Gregory, the Chicago comedian and nationally known civil rights demonstrator had been sentenced to six months in jail with three months suspended sentence by the Washington State Courts. Such sentencing resulted from an indictment filed against Gregory charging him with violation of the State Fish Conservation laws when he participated in "fishing" demonstrations last year staged by Washington State Indians in support of their tribal fishing rights. 1 C L

Gregory was convicted with his wife, [REDACTED] GREGORY last month after a three-day jury trial in the Thurston County Superior Court. Gregory, who is currently free on $1,000 bond, declared that he will appeal his conviction to the State Superior Court.

On January 13, 1967, Chicago T-1, a source who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory is scheduled to be the main speaker at a political rally supporting independent Negro candidates for aldermen January 18, 1967, at the Senate Theater, 3158 West Madison, Chicago, Illinois. It is also noted that Gregory has previously announced his intention to oppose incumbent Mayor Richard J. Daley in the upcoming Chicago mayoralty elections in April, 1967. (C) (U)

Dick Gregory — Gets 6 Months

Wife Lillian Draws 30 Days, All Suspended

Negro entertainer Dick Gregory and his wife, Lillian, were sentenced Thursday morning in Thurston County Superior Court to jail terms for their participation in illegal fish-ins on the Nisqually River last February. Judge Hewitt Henry prescribed six months in jail for Gregory, and 30-days for Mrs. Gregory. He assessed court costs of $19.20.

Judge Henry suspended all of Mrs. Gregory's jail term, and suspended 90 days of Gregory's term.

No sooner had Judge Henry read the sentence than Jack Tanner, the Gregorys' lawyer, announced that he would appeal the case to the State Supreme Court. The Gregorys will remain free on bond.

The Gregorys had been free on a total of $5,000 bond since their Superior Court conviction last November 30 on charges of illegal gillnet fishing. Following the conviction, Gregory drew national attention when he announced his intention of going to North Vietnam to entertain American prisoners held there. The trip later was cancelled.

Currently, Gregory is heading his own campaign for mayor of Chicago. He said Thursday forenoon he would fly back directly to Chicago and, by Saturday, expects to be in New York to tape a television show under the direction of another entertainer, Harry Belafonte.

Source advised on March 10, 1967, that at a meeting of the Political Action Committee of the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois which was held in Chicago, Illinois, on March 8, 1967, a discussion was held concerning Martin Luther King, Jr. Source stated that during this discussion it was indicated that at the present time there was a move underway to set up a National Peace Ticket for the 1968 Presidential election on which Martin Luther King would run for President of the United States. Source added that it was further indicated at the aforementioned meeting that to formulate plans for this National Peace Ticket, top leaders in the Negro movement from various areas of the United States are reportedly gathering in one of the southern states to discuss King's possible candidacy on the National Peace Ticket. However, according to source no additional details were mentioned with respect to the aforementioned matter. ku

Source further advised that it was further indicated at this CP of Illinois Political Action Committee meeting that elements of the right wing of the civil rights movement, not further described, are endeavoring at the present time to force Martin Luther King out of Chicago, Illinois, this summer. It was stated that it was believed that the Daley machine (Mayor Richard Daley) is behind this move inasmuch as Mayor Daley, supposedly, has been approached by several leaders of the Democratic National Convention Committee to locate a site for the 1968 Democratic National Convention and that these people, in effect, have given Mayor Daley some kind of message that if Chicago is to be another Watts (Los Angeles, California, 1965 Watts riot) they would not consider holding the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago. Therefore, according to source, pressure is being exerted on Mayor Daley to see that this will not be the case. Xu

According to source, it was also indicated at this meeting that it was believed that President Lyndon Johnson is making his influence felt in pressuring Martin Luther King to stay out of Chicago because of King's connection with the National Peace Ticket. Source added that it was opined by several of those present at this meeting that exponents of the move to expel King from Chicago are offering King a five state "bread-basket campaign" as an enticement to leave Chicago. However, according to source, it was stated that King is not expected to accept this offer. Xu

Source also stated that it was commented at this Political Action Committee meeting that the civil rights movement, particularly the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCCO) and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) are becoming convinced that the only way to effectively influence the political climate of Chicago is to organize along ward lines. It was added that King has been heard to state that he will tend to seek support in the future from the left element rather than, as in the past, be guided or influenced in policy making decisions from the right element. Xu

Source stated that in addition to the discussion surrounding Martin Luther King, a discussion was also held at this Political Action Committee meeting concerning the forthcoming Mayoral election in Chicago. In this respect a discussion was held concerning the CP, giving full support to Dick Gregory's independent write-in campaign for the office of Mayor in Chicago. According to source there was some question as to how the Party could effect this support, however, it was agreed by those present that the Party should issue a statement in support of Gregory's campaign. Source added that a subcommittee was set up consisting of four members to draw up a statement which would reflect CP support for Gregory's Mayoral campaign. XU

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The source added that it was also considered at this meeting that the Party should try to inform Gregory to come up with some real issues in this campaign and that he, Gregory, should propose a definite program which would be attractive to the voters of Chicago. XU

The source has furnished reliable information in the past.

Qualifications - Dick Gregory

Some people have raised the question of DICK GREGORY'S QUALIFICATIONS for Mayor of Chicago. To answer these questions, the Citizens Committee for the Election of Dick Gregory for Mayor have compiled the following list of accomplishments and qualifications of Mr. Gregory.

(U) ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1. Mr. Gregory has assembled a world-wide team of researchers. You may recall that Dick Gregory was the person who gave the F.B.I. the information as to where they could locate the bodies of the three Civil Rights workers who were killed in Mississippi in the summer of 1964.
2. Both President Johnson and the late President John Kennedy thought so much of Mr. Gregory's knowledge of social problems that they invited him to the White House.
3. Mr. Gregory's paper on Police Community Relations has been rated by the University of California at Kerkeley Department of Criminology as one of the most profound ever written in the history of criminology. As of 6 months ago over sixteen cities were using the paper as the basis for their police-community workshop.
4. Dick Gregory has been listed in Who's Who in the Midwest every year since 1960.
5. Dick Gregory has recently sold a book for $20,000 to the religious department of Doubleday. Doubleday is the largest publisher of books in this country.
6. Bretrand Russell, the greatest living philosopher, has acclaimed Dick Gregory as one of the top philosophers of our time.
7. In Two weeks time, Dick Gregory raised $150,000 for Christmas for Mississippi in 1964. Mr. Gregory gave over 20,000 turkeys to the poor people in Mississippi that Christmas.
8. Without any organization of his own - or anyone sending him money -- or without having a public relations firm of his own:

Dick Gregory has received honorable mention. ( In The Top Twenty. ) in the Gallup Poll's Ten Most Admired Men.

The question asked by the Gallup Poll is "Who alive on the face of the earth do you admire the most?"

If Dick Gregory was not a resident of Chicago and the State of Illinois, no person from Chicago, or the State of Illinois would have been on the list.
9. Many authorities and scholars have considered Gregory's mind as one of the finest in the world, when it comes to awareness and solutions to the social problems of our time.

A political rally was held by Dick Gregory at his campaign headquarters, 1251 West 63rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, on the evening of March 15, 1967. Note that Gregory is a well-known Negro entertainer and civil rights activist who is a write-in candidate as an independent for the position of Mayor in Chicago in the April, 1967, mayoral elections. There were approximately 200 persons present at this meeting and most prominent among those present, aside from Gregory, was Hosea Williams, the Director of Voter Registrations and Political Education for the SCLC. Additionally, among those present were elements of the "black power" grouping in Chicago, commonly referred to as the CCBP. This grouping includes members of local militant civil rights type organizations such as Act, the Congress of Racial Equality, the Deacons of Defense and Justice, and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. One of those present, acting in the capacity of a bodyguard for Gregory, represented himself as a member of the Deacons. (u)

The main portion of the meeting was devoted to urging those present to support Gregory in his write-in campaign for Mayor, explaining the mechanics of this procedure and urging those present to attempt to solicit the support of all of their friends and acquaintances for Gregory's campaign. (u)

During remarks made by Gregory, he advised he was going to join Congressman Adam Clayton Powell on March 16, 1967. Over the weekend of March 18 and 19, 1967, he would accompany Powell to New York City and Gregory stated in this connection that if New York City authorities arrest Powell while in New York, he Gregory, would lead demonstrations there and "turn the town out" to secure Powell's release from confinement. He further stated that Congressman Powell is to accompany him to Chicago, Illinois, to participate in a series of political street-corner type rallies over the following weekend, March 25-26, 1967. (u)

Subsequent to Gregory's remarks, the evening's featured speaker was Hosea Williams, referred to previously. Williams stated that he had just arrived in Chicago from Louisville, Kentucky, where he has been participating in regular street demonstrations there. Williams stated that during one of the most recent demonstrations, some of the demonstrators, including himself, had been attacked and their clothing literally ripped off. (u)

Williams used this illustration to indicate how people in the movement must stop "sitting around" and must do whatever they can to get their freedom. He stated that it was all right for his mother to be a housemaid for a white woman, but he did not think the same was true for his daughter. Only when white women are serving as housemaids for Negroes in the future will it be all right for Negroes to do the same. He added that the thing that must be done in order to improve the lot of the Negro in this country is to topple the power structure. He proceeded in an emotional and fiery manner to remark that with the group present on this occasion he could go out and "tear up Chicago." (u)

Williams continued that during the course of Gregory's efforts to unseat Chicago's Mayor, Richard J. Daley, he could be killed at any time for so fighting the power structure. He advised that there was nothing the Negro could do as a practical matter to prevent this and it must be realized that the power structure, as presently constituted, is not simply going to give up and step aside. He urged that all Negroes should get insurance policies to provide for their families because if someone like Gregory gets killed, they had better be ready to start fighting so that everyone would know the Negro would not take such action lying down. (u)

He concluded his remarks by noting that he was flying back to Louisville on March 16, 1967, and would again participate in the demonstrations in progress there. He stated that he recognized he also could be killed at any time in connection with his civil rights activities, however, he knows that if this happens, someone else will step in and take his place in the movement. During the course of the meeting, a representative of the "black power" group present advised the others in attendance that earlier on March 15, 1967, a delegation from Chicago, representing some fifteen different civil rights organizations, had gone to Springfield, Illinois, for the purpose of protesting to the Governor and the Legislature over the consideration currently being given there to the passage of a "stop and frisk bill." This individual stated that the delegation had not been successful in seeing the Governor, but had arranged a meeting with him on March 24, 1967, at the Governor's offices in Chicago at the Illinois State Building, 160 North La Salle. At this time the representative of the CCBP, as well as other allied civil rights groups locally, would present their protests concerning the dangers inherent in the stop and frisk law. It was also stated that petitions against the stop and frisk bill were being prepared by this group and would be available for public distribution by March 17, 1967. Gregory agreed to assist in getting signatures on these petitions. ~~(u)~~

Pertinent portions of the above information, as provided by the first confidential source, were substantiated on March 16, 1967, by a second confidential source, who has also furnished reliable information in the past. ~~(u)~~

Additionally, on March 17, 1967, this second confidential source advised that he had learned that it is hoped that when Congressman Adam Clayton Powell comes to Chicago over the weekend of March 25-26, 1967, he can be persuaded to remain for a political rally which is to be held by Gregory on the evening of March 27, 1967, at the Senate Theatre, 3128 West Madison Street, Chicago. This source advised that in addition to Powell, it is planned that Stokely Carmichael of SNCC will be present and will speak on behalf of Gregory's candidacy for Mayor at that time. ~~(u)~~

Referenced memorandum of March 10, 1967, reflected information to the effect that an organizational type meeting was to be held March 14, 1967, at 3101 West Warren Avenue, Chicago, local headquarters of the SCLC. At this meeting Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., was to be present and the course of future civil rights activities in Chicago was to have been discussed. ~~(u)~~

In this connection, a third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 15, 1967, that the meeting of March 14, 1967, did not take place as planned, and Dr. King was not known to have been in Chicago on that date. It is anticipated that such a meeting will be forthcoming shortly, possibly on the next occasion when Dr. King is in Chicago, at which time also the future organization and composition of the local SCLC staff will be made known. It is known that Dr. King is to be in Chicago over the following weekend, March 25-26, 1967, in connection with an anti-Vietnam rally, and march which is to be held here on March 25, 1967. (u)

Powell Cancels Chicago Trip

Dick Gregory said Tuesday that Adam Clayton Powell has decided not to come to Chicago Sunday.

The former Harlem congressman had announced earlier this month that he would make an Easter visit here to campaign in support of Gregory's write-in candidacy for mayor.

Gregory, who returned from a flying trip to Powell's hideaway at Bimini in the Bahamas Monday night, said the controversial New York Democrat had changed his plans for political and legal reasons.

A Chicago visit at this time might not be good for Powell politically, Gregory declared, because Powell had canceled morning and afternoon campaign tours of Harlem last Sunday.

"Many Negroes were upset that he didn't come to New York and a trip here would look like he was turning his back on them," Gregory told a press conference, held at 1251 W. 63d.

Gregory said Powell's attorneys have advised him that he should stay out of the country until they solved his legal problems. Powell is under citation in the New York courts for criminal contempt arising out of a 1963 slander suit for calling a Negro woman, Mrs. Esther James, a "bagwoman" — collector of graft—for the New York Police Department.

Gregory played for reporters a tape-recorded message which Powell made in Bimini, restating his endorsement of the Negro entertainer's candidacy.

Gregory said Powell will address a political rally here Sunday by long-distance telephone hookup. He said details of the rally were being ironed out.

Earlier in the day, Gregory visited the City Hall offices of Sidney T. Holzman, chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners, to submit 11 requests centering around his write-in campaign.

He said he hoped to clear up any doubts about what rights a write-in candidate has in a municipal election.

Holzman said any that were already covered by existing statutes would be granted.

Gregory later addressed some 150 persons at a rally held in Bethel Lutheran Church, 130 N. Keeler. He urged that swimming pools and skating rinks be constructed next to police stations to improve police community relations.

POWELL WON'T CAMPAIGN FOR DICK GREGORY

Comedian Dick Gregory, a write-in candidate for mayor, said yesterday that ousted Congressman Adam Clayton Powell has changed his mind about coming to Chicago to campaign for him.

Gregory said Powell decided that since he had canceled a campaign trip to New York where he is a candidate for his old seat in the house of representatives, he should not campaign in Chicago because it may hurt his political support in New York.

Earlier in the day, Gregory met with Sidney T. Holzman, chairman of the board of election commissioners, and submitted 11 requests to "help facilitate" his campaign. The board granted nine of them because they are already covered by statute, but it denied the other two because Gregory is not entitled to them as a write-in candidate. The two denied were for a list of judges of elections in 19 wards and for poll watcher credentials for his workers.

who has throughout his stage career, which dates from the late 1950's, been an agitator against the administration locally and nationally concerning Negro matters. More recently, GREGORY has been campaigning as a write-in candidate for Mayor of Chicago.

GREGORY started his show business career as an entertainer at the Playboy Club, Chicago, in the late 1950's.

It is supposedly common knowledge in show business circles that GREGORY's salary and tab at the Playboy Club were picked up by [redacted] and [redacted] of the United American Insurance Company, described as a hedonist whose idea for success would be to have his name mentioned in a local celebrity column.

These funds were supposedly routed to [redacted] from the Republican Party through a public relations firm in New York City by the "Rockefeller interests".

At the present time, [redacted] has a source in the campaign office of GREGORY in Chicago.

GREGORY is known to make frequent trips to New York City, and on 3/24/67, a check was received by GREGORY in the amount of $5,500.00, drawn on the Chase-Manhattan Bank in New York, maker unknown.

GREGORY was reportedly questioned by a friend relative to his destroying his stage career through involvement in civil rights and political activity and was overheard to comment that his future is taken care of in that he is eventually to handle political patronage in Chicago once the Republicans come into power.

GREGORY's campaign literature, such as signs, buttons and leaflets, is known to come to GREGORY from New York.

[ ] also advised that PERCY's Washington Office is in periodic contact with GREGORY's campaign headquarters in Chicago.

[ ] suggests that the "poor boy" campaign being run by GREGORY in Chicago is just a cover for the money interests promoting him, noting that GREGORY recently received wide press coverage when the Illinois Bell Telephone Company disconnected one of his personal phones for non-payment of his bill amounting to some $3,000.00.

[ ] notes that five states have been the key to recent national elections; namely, New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Illinois and California. The key votes in these area have been from cities such as Chicago, where the Republican Party has no effective organization and must look forward to the destruction of the Democratic Party organization before they can become effective.

In furnishing the above information, [ ] noted that the Democratic Administration obviously has a great personal interest in maintaining its position; however, there appear to be increasing indications that militant Negro agitators are being used by the high ranks of the Republican Party to, at the very least, sow the seeds of discontent which grow into out-and-out violence in the Negro Ghetto. Further, that there is a strong suggestion that GREGORY has been used as a pawn in a long range program toward this end from the inception of his career.

In this same vein, [ ] notes that MARTIN LUTHER KING has again stated he has as his intentions leading marches into racially tense white communities, such as Cicero, Illinois, so that feelings which have been controlled or suppressed in these communities can be surfaced and dealt with no matter what the consequences.

[ ] suggests that if agitators can create a violent situation within the Negro Ghetto and KING can create a violent situation within the neighboring white communities, utter chaos can result.

Re Chicago teletype to Director captioned as above 6/6/67.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are two copies of the official Chicago Police Department report relating to the arrest of RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY on June 6, 1967, for violation of the Chicago Park District park curfew.

GREGORY, as previously reported in the referenced teletype, was arrested on June 6, 1967, at 2:57 AM in the company of [redacted] when he refused to leave Washington Park after being twice warned by police that his presence was a violation of the park curfew.

In addition to the charge relating to violation of the curfew, GREGORY was also charged with using lewd language during an argument with police at the time of his arrest.

The enclosures hereinto attached are marked "obscene" and appropriately sealed since the police report contains a verbatim recital of the language used by GREGORY at the time of his arrest which resulted in the charge of lewd language.

[redacted], Chicago Police Department, Human Relations Section, advised on June 16, 1967, that comedian DICK GREGORY was fined $100 on June 16, 1967, after pleading guilty to violating an 11:00 PM curfew in Washington Park and using abusive language to a policeman. Judge JOHN OUSKA directed the fine after GREGORY's attorney, [redacted] said GREGORY went to the park deliberately to violate the curfew feeling that it was unfair because no signs informed area residents about such restrictions.

The charges against [redacted] who was also arrested in Washington Park in the company of GREGORY, were dismissed by Judge JOHN OUSKA who said she was in the park acting

Subject Arrest of one: Dick Gregory and [REDACTED]

1. The reporting officers on stated date while on patrol found an unoccupied 1967 Plymouth parked in Washington Park in the parking lot off Payne Drive. Reporting officers found the occupants of the vehicle, after a search of the Park grounds sitting in the baseball bleachers in that area. The reporting officers notified the individuals that the Park was closed and asked these people to leave the Park. The male, now known as Dick Gregory stated "is that so." The Reporting officers again stated the fact and the couple arose, at approximately 0245 hrs.

2. The reporting officers continued ~~in~~ patrol returned to the same location to find that Mr. Gregory and [REDACTED] had walked further into the Park area contrary to our statements. We again approached the couple and restated our previous words whereupon Mr. Gregory stated that he wouldn't leave the Park and told us that we were a "couple of silly Son of a Bitch's." We then informed the couple that because of auto thefts in the area and auto strippings that if they refused to leave we would have to tow the auto. Mr. Gregory responded, "You stupid Basturds can do anything you like." We returned to the auto as did the defend~~en~~ts whereupon Mr. Gregory continued to call us "Silly Cocksuckers" and thereupon was placed under arrest for 192-7 Lowd Language and 17-27 Violation of Park Curfew. [REDACTED] was arrested later.

3. The arrest was overseen by Cpt.  Arrest reports and complaints were given and the defendants were processed and housed at the 2nd District Station.

~~RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY~~

Captioned individual, who is also known as Dick Gregory, is the well-known comedian and civil rights leader. He was born on October 12, 1932, at St. Louis, Missouri. It is understood he dropped out of college in 1956 because of low grades. He subsequently worked for the United States Post Office in Chicago, Illinois, but was fired for impersonating colleagues and purposely misdirecting mail.

According to FBI files, Gregory has been described as a sympathizer of the black nationalist organization, Nation of Islam, and appeared with the late Malcolm X and attended the latter's funeral after his assassination. Gregory reportedly was one of the founders of the militant civil rights organization known as "ACT." He has been most active in many civil rights protest movements and claims to have been in jail 20 to 30 times in connection with those activities.

During the past several years Gregory has viciously attacked the Federal Bureau of Investigation and has made distorted statements concerning communists and the civil rights movement. He has claimed he furnished the FBI information leading to the solution of the case involving three murdered civil rights workers in Mississippi when actually his information was of no value. He also reportedly has made fantastic claims that the FBI Director and Texas oil man H. L. Hunt masterminded the assassination of former President Kennedy."

The FBI has conducted several investigations of alleged civil rights violations in which Gregory was the victim, claiming police brutality and discrimination. Reports of all our inquiries have been furnished the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice.

NOTE: Per request of Mrs. Mildred Stegall, White House Staff.

Richard Claxton Gregory

Several individuals, including prominent Negroes in the civil rights movement, have made statements questioning the mental stability of Gregory. In April, 1966, in connection with racial demonstrations in Gary, Indiana, he is reported to have stated that if churches did not cooperate in making space available for Freedom Day classes, racial demonstrators should "kick down the doors of the church." (100-440423-41)

In December, 1966, it is understood that Gregory unsuccessfully attempted to travel to North Vietnam with [redacted] [redacted] to allegedly entertain American prisoners of war. He is reported to have stated that the North Vietnamese could [redacted] if they suspected duplicity on his part in connection with his intended travel.

The 6/10/66 issue of "Herald Examiner," Los Angeles, in Section A-8, described the National Conference For New Politics, as an organization whose plan appeared to be to raise campaign funds for "New Left" candidates and would involve enlisting the support of splintered and over-lapping movements against the war in Viet Nam and "civil rights in practical politics." The group would support the radical politicians running for office in the November, 1966, elections. The article further stated that Dick Gregory was a sponsor of the above organization.

The following references in the file captioned "Racial Matters", set out information regarding the activities of Dick Gregory in connection with demonstrations near Hernando, Miss., on 6/6/66, protesting the shooting of James Meredith, a law student as of June, 1966 at Columbia University, NYC. Meredith was marching from Memphis, Tenn., to Jackson, Miss., for the purpose of encouraging Negroes residing in Mississippi to exercise their right to register to vote. On 6/7/66, Gregory, Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., leader of Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and others visited Meredith in the hospital at Memphis. After meeting with Meredith, Gregory, accompanied by seven Negroes (not further identified), proceeded to the scene where Meredith was shot. From that point they marched to Hernando. On 6/24/66, Meredith, Gregory and others left Memphis in a three car convoy headed for Canton, Miss., to continue the original "Meredith March." On 6/25/66, the marchers were entertained by Gregory and others, on the campus of Tougaloo College, Tougaloo, Mississippi.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also
known as Dick Gregory;
RACIAL MATTERS

Following local Kansas City, Missouri, news publicity that Gregory would speak to students of the University of Missouri at Columbia, Missouri, on October 2, 1967, Detective [redacted] of the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department, personally covered Gregory's appearance in Columbia, Missouri, on October 2, 1967, and reported that coverage on October 4, 1967. Summary of [redacted] report follows:

b6
b7C

Gregory arrived 11:30 a.m., October 2, 1967, at the Columbia, Missouri, City Airport from St. Louis, Missouri. Gregory was met at the airport by about 35 persons composed of representatives of the local Columbia C.O.R.E., some members of the Students for a Democratic Society of the University of Missouri and a few Peace Torch Marathon marchers. The Peace Torch Marathon marchers handed a torch of peace to Gregory which Gregory carried to a university vehicle awaiting Gregory to transport Gregory to the university campus. Gregory told the Peace Torch marchers that he was against U. S. participation in the Vietnam war. Gregory said he endorsed the peace march and wished them well on their journey as Gregory got into the waiting vehicle. Gregory then traveled to the University Student Union where he lunched with several members of the Students for a Democratic Society. Following the luncheon, Gregory was escorted to Jesse Hall Auditorium on the university campus where he spoke to approximately 2000 students and faculty members. He was joined at the auditorium by [redacted] local C.O.R.E. [redacted] Columbia, Missouri. Gregory's opening remarks were humorous. He said all persons in the U. S. are racists, both black and white, and the U. S. was described by him as "the most racist country in the world". He said he was against the Vietnam war on moral grounds and did not believe in America's use of armed forces to dictate the way of life in a foreign country when Negroes must be protected and were not free in the U. S. He said he did not believe in either black or white men fighting an American war in Vietnam.

b7C

ENCLOSURE

100-440423-137

Gregory said his pet peeve is civil rights legislation, open housing and things of that nature and that special legislation should not be necessary as the nation's constitution guarantees freedom for all persons. He upheld Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown as they are doing no more than the average young Negro feels like doing, except they are out in front expressing their feelings "loud and clear" about social injustice. He said non-violence is a privilege, not an obligation, and it is up to an individual, if struck or abused, to decide whether to use the privilege of retaliating or not retaliating. He said riots are a necessary evil so that people can hear the cries of an oppressed people against a despotic government. He said both black and white people in the U. S. are "sick", and the U. S. must do something to cure this sickness or the nation would be knocked to its knees. He said American youth can overcome social ills if they work at it, learning how to live, rather than being too busy with school learning to make a living. At the end of Gregory's remarks, he was greeted with a standing ovation.

An article in the Columbia Missourian, daily newspaper, Columbia, Missouri, in addition to the comments about Gregory's speech made by Detective [redacted] noted that Gregory defined Black Power as the opposite of White Power and an ability to change with force.

An article in the Kansas City Times, daily Kansas City, Missouri, newspaper, dated October 3, 1967, quoted from Gregory's speech at the University of Missouri, the "liberals got to understand that in today's civil rights movement, they are as worthless as the Pony Express", though "that's not saying we didn't need the Pony Express"; that the civil rights movement of today should tell the liberals to get out of the way as the movement is grown up. Gregory said anti-riot legislation is racist and open housing laws are ridiculous. Gregory said that if he had voted in the 1964 presidential election, he would have voted for Barry Goldwater since the only thing wrong with Goldwater was that he was honest.

Attached is a copy of an editorial in the Kansas City Times, October 4, 1967, concerning Gregory's speech at Columbia, Missouri.

Also attached is a copy of an article from the Kansas City Times, October 4, 1967, covering Gregory's appearance before about 2,500 students in Hoch Auditorium, University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas, on the night of October 3, 1967.

An article in The University Daily Kansan, University of Kansas newspaper, Lawrence, Kansas, dated October 4, 1967, reflects that following Gregory's appearance at the Hoch Auditorium he returned to Kansas City to enplane on an air flight to some other state, apparently for an appearance in connection with civil rights, possibly in Wisconsin or Minnesota.

INSIDE, DICK GREGORY KNOWS BETTER

LITTLE good is served, we suspect, by attempting to engage in a battle of words with every racial extremist—Negro or white—who takes it upon himself to spew bile at a time when understanding, above all, is needed. When Rap Brown threatens shrilly to "get myself the bomb," it is a threat, however incendiary, that is recognizable as utter nonsense.

But the comment made on the University of Missouri campus this week by Dick Gregory, comedian and civil rights figure, needs challenging. "America," he told a crowd of more than 2,000 students and faculty members, "is the No. 1 racist country in the world." The charge is plainly, simply untrue. Gregory is an intelligent man and he knows it is not true.

Some of the other things he said, while not especially new or original, do have a measure of validity: That there is irony in Negro soldiers fighting in Asia to protect freedoms that they cannot fully enjoy at home; that the fabric of national life will be seriously damaged if racial intolerance is permitted to survive; that, to a degree, the civil rights movement has outgrown the help and control of white liberals who figured importantly in its beginning.

In each of these observations there is a seed—or more—of truth. But when Gregory declares the United States the most racist country on earth, he forfeits credibility. We almost hesitate to summon up the example of the Republic of South Africa, because in specifics the two situations are only remotely parallel. But the fact remains that in South Africa, the governing minority of whites is committed through official policy to ensuring the perpetual subjugation of an overwhelming majority of black people.

In the United States, a nation predominantly white in population is committed through official policy to securing and guaranteeing the rights of minorities, and specifically the rights of Negro Americans. That the national conscience was late in awakening, that the push for equality has laid open ugly veins of resistance, that progress has come falteringly and, to the victims of bigotry, with cruel slowness—all this can be fairly charged. And we doubt that, among the thousands who crowded Jesse Hall auditorium Monday to hear Gregory, more than a handful would have disagreed.

But when Gregory says that the U. S. is the No. 1 racist country he is off-base. It is the kind of rhetoric that closes ears and turns off minds, thus depriving his other comments of the fair hearing they need and deserve. And for this reason it cannot be dismissed as a bit of harmless exaggeration.

GREGORY CALLS FOR RACE KEY

Comedian Says U. S. Will Die if Problem Is Not Solved

BULLETIN

Lawrence, Kas.—Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, announced last night at a press conference at the University of Kansas that he will be a candidate for President of the United States on an independent ticket. His platform will be centered around civil rights.

(By The Star's Own Service)

Lawrence, Kas.—If the United States does not solve the racial crisis within the next three years, the country will cease to exist, Dick Gregory, Negro comedian warned K. U. students last night.

"Moral pollution is now greater than air pollution in the U. S. and most definitely will mean her death," he said.

Gregory admits that he offers only criticism and no solutions to racism.

"Most of you do not realize the passionate dislike much of the world has for this country," Gregory charged. He noted that Jim Ryun, K. U. world champion, was among the best American diplomats he has seen.

He said that Negroes have been so busy telling Americans what they want to hear that Negroes have not told them what they need to hear.

"We inherited our racist views but the sick, sick thing is that in 1967 we won't admit that a racial problem exists. If the problem were in any other country we would have no trouble solving it."

Negroes object to the Northern white liberal who participates in Southern demonstrations in an effort to help Southern Negroes when they "wouldn't take a nigger home with them in Kansas City, New York, Chicago or St. Louis," he said.

He said activities of well-meaning demonstrators actually encouraged violence from Negroes because the liberals were too slow in giving Negroes their rights.

"Nonviolence is not an obligation. It is a favor. Whenever a man is irritated it is his discretion to take that favor back."

Re Chicago airtel to the Bureau dated 10/3/67.

Enclosed herewith for AQ, who has not received the communication, is a xerox copy of the referenced communication.

The referenced communication on page 4 notes that the captioned subject is to arrive at El Paso, Texas, from Denver, Colorado, by Continental Airlines Flight #125, on 10/13/67, at 1 PM.

It is the recollection of the El Paso Office that the captioned subject, also known as DICK GREGORY, is to be the featured speaker at a lyceum to be held on the campus of New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, New Mexico. There is no information indicating that he is scheduled to make any addresses in the El Paso Division.

It is to be noted that El Paso International Airport is located 34 miles from Las Cruces, N.M., and is the logical airport for GREGORY to utilize in his travels.

Comedian lectures on Negro violence

"Negroes have been the most violent people in this country for a long time. But now we're just aiming our violence at the System."

Comedian Dick Gregory delivered a lecture Thursday night at the Student Union concerning what he called "moral pollution."

PRESENTED BY the Speakers' Committee of the Student Senate, Gregory began by lampooning subjects from cigarette smoking to Lyndon Johnson, before reaching the heart of his speech on the Civil Rights movement.

Gregory referred to himself as "a vegetarian, a pacifist, and completely a follower of the non-violent doctrine."

"In my own stupid wisdom," he said, "I believe an animal is as important to Nature as me or you . . . I would never hit you. I would never kill you. Because you're Nature. That's my commitment to non-violence."

HOWEVER, the speech centered mostly on violence in the Civil Rights movement and the reasons for that violence.

Gregory, who has announced his intention to run for president on a peace and civil rights ticket, told his integrated, highly receptive audience, that the key to the racial problem is honesty.

He feels that such leaders as President Johnson and Martin Luther King, Jr., have been dishonest and unrealistic in their approach to the problem.

"AMERICA IS the number one most racist country on the face of the earth. Negroes are racist, too," Gregory said. "Any time a Negro tells you he's not a racist, that's a racist statement. If he was born and raised in a country that has always been racist, a Negro can't NOT be a part of it."

Gregory described Stokeley Carmichael and Rap Brown as they were five years ago, committed to non-violence. He said that they were forced into violent action by "a country that permits these filthy things to go on and gives you the luxury of not knowing about it."

As an example of how non-violent demonstrators are forced to change, Gregory described an incident in a recent demonstration in which his cell-mate, drenched in blood from a head wound, began writing "Black Power" on the wall of a jail cell in his own blood.

ing on," Gregory said. "We're going to solve this problem or there ain't gonna be nothin' left to solve. And that's not a threat. That's a promise."

Gregory passionately opposes the war in Vietnam. "If a democracy is as beautiful as these nuts tell us it is," he said, "why are we running all over the world trying to force it on everyone?"

Gregory's advice to his listeners was to read the Declaration of Independence. "You are the most morally committed group of youngsters in the world," he said. "The day you make this republic work the way the Founding Fathers meant it to work, we can put down our guns."

The lecture ended with Gregory's statement that "It is a tremendous challenge and a simple task — to undo what man has done. Be honest with yourself. Understand better than we did."

Gregory diagnoses nation's maladies

by Richard Nathan

A human being who is seriously ill finds no stalemate in his predicament. Either he will recover or he will die. A nation that has become seriously ill faces the same dilemma. And as with the man, the cure may prove far more painful than the disease. But without the cure, the nation, too, will most certainly perish. A man dedicated to curing a nation arrived in Denver, Thursday, and found that his problem lies not in the cure, but in convincing the nation that it is ill.

Dick Gregory received none of the pomp normally accorded a Presidential aspirant when he arrived here on a late afternoon flight from Chicago. I noticed that the contingent of the interested at Stapleton consisted of five reporters, two photographers, two of his local black disciples, the official United Air Lines welcoming team, and an unofficial official threesome from DU. An extremely dignified and slightly graying representative of United boarded the plane and escorted Gregory out to his public. The first person to reach him was a young black man who moved quickly to Gregory's side, whispered briefly in his ear, and then vanished never to be seen again by this eye. I stepped forward, shared a quick handshake, and we started down the concourse to a press conference.

ALTHOUGH BOTHERED by reporters the entire distance to the site of the conference, he managed to get a quick topical aside, "Hey, how did the Cards look today? All I heard was the score on the plane." To our mutual disappointment, I was not given the opportunity to answer.

He took part in a press conference in a room that his inquisitors managed to fill with an air of scorn and disapproval. But he handled the situation quite well and was particularly vocal on a few key issues.

He feels that the nomination of Stokes for mayor in Cleveland was essential to the Democratic party. "They had to have one black man in office in a major city to look good in '68. But it's good for America anyway."

He admitted to definite Communist infiltration and leadership in the civil rights movement and said, "Sure they're there. We don't want them, but it's whitey's problem to get them out."

Gregory deplored the mention of special civil rights legislation. "They wrote a Constitution in this country and if it's good enough for whitey then it's good enough for a nigger. We don't want anything special, just what whitey's got. And if we can't have it we'll see to it that he can't either."

Injecting a bit of comic relief, he replied to a standard interracial marriage question by commenting, "Now take that guy who got Rusk's daughter, why that's just mellow!"

It was mutual good-bye and good riddance for Gregory and the local press corps.

We drove over to his hotel and, in the time available before dinner, were able to spend a few minutes alone in his room. Ironically, we watched and listened to David Brinkley's The conversation drifted to notation of Dick Gregory's absence in the Milwaukee march Wednesday night. I watched him thought of the decision to hold closely as he stared intently at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago next summer? He said, "You know that Father Groppi taking the lead. Mayor Daley kind of thinks he owns Chicago. Anything he says goes. He's telling everyone that there was no trouble there this summer. I can prove that at least 16 cops were killed on the South and West sides. And as for next summer, well what do you think is going to happen? It's just going to be one hell of a mess. But they asked for it."

I expressed a fear that the Father's days were numbered, but Gregory said, "If whitey gets Groppi, there will be fifty more to take his place." The statement sounded almost like a prayer, and I can't help but feel that it was a prayer.

Gregory attempts to negate the value of any particular individual in the civil rights struggle.

He turned to look out of the window and said, "You see that black brother come up to me at the airport? He said to me, 'Man we're sure sorry that we couldn't do anything for you here last summer. But we'll take care of it next year.' They better wake up around here because the brothers are going to make Deaver another Watts."

Being a half hour late for his dinner engagement, we had to cut the conversation short but Gregory made two significant comments before we reached the car. First, he discussed his CIA watchdogs that are present every time he appears in public. He then mentioned the fact that the Government had prohibited the major wire services from carrying any dispatches regarding his activities and speeches.

Dick Gregory gives this Nation a maximum of three years existence in its present form. He hopes to abolish color lines and make this an issue of right versus wrong. If Dick Gregory left behind nothing else in Denver, he left the truth. Whether one chooses to believe him or not is up to the individual. "Man if they hear it and know it's true and still don't want it, why they just don't have to. But I hope they remember what I told them here."

Dick Gregory Tells DU Audience U.S. Is 'Sick'

By RICHARD TUCKER
Rocky Mountain News Writer

Dick Gregory blended biting sarcasm with anger and pathos Thursday night to carry the message of black power to a University of Denver audience.

The Negro comedian pleaded with the young people "to address yourselves to the moral pollution" the present generation has left them, but warned that they may not get a chance.

Gregory called America "a sick, immoral, mad, insane" nation and said it is the "No. 1 most racist country on the face of this Earth."

"If we are going to solve the problems that will bring this country to its knees in three years, we first have to be honest," he said.

"Racism extends to Negroes as well as whites, Gregory said.

It Was Here

"Any time a Negro tells you he's not a racist, that's a racist statement," Gregory said. "None of us should feel guilty about this because it was here when we got here."

A veteran of Mississippi and Alabama freedom marches, Gregory said Stokeley Carmichael and H. Rap Brown were spawned in those days of non-violent civil rights demonstrations.

He said Carmichael and Brown were preaching non-violence to civil rights workers in those days and had to stand by while young Negro school children were man-handled.

Using his entertainment background to the fullest, Gregory built a high degree of emotionalism as he described the frustrations of people like Brown and Carmichael.

"Now you've got a monster on your hands because you live in a country where this vicious stuff goes on and permits you to know nothing about it," he declared.

A pacifist, Gregory laid much of the blame for riots of today on the war in Vietnam.

"Hell, I don't think white boys ought to go to Vietnam," said Gregory as he answered if he thinks Negroes should fight in the Southeast Asian war.

Force It

"A nation this sick will never survive," he said. "If our system is so damn good, why are we trying to force it down Vietnamese throats with guns?"

He pleaded with his young audience "to make democracy work the way it should work" and said all the Negroes want are the guarantees of the U.S. Constitution.

Declaring the government should fully enforce the guarantees by sending violators to jail, Gregory said "I'd rather have full jails than burned-out towns, but it's going to be one or the other."

Gregory, who has said he would be a candidate for President next year, blasted President Johnson as "the evil of evils" and had more unkind words for Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York.

"The only thing wrong with Barry Goldwater was that he dared to be more honest than LBJ," said Gregory, who said he couldn't vote for either man in 1964.

DICK GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS EX 104

Reurairtel dated 10/27/67.

Dick Gregory is a Negro comedian from Chicago, Illinois. He has been very active in civil rights demonstrations around the country having been involved in such demonstrations as the promotion of rent strikes, economic boycotts, "sit-in" demonstrations, picket lines, marches, and other forms of protests. He has openly boasted that he has been frequently jailed as a result of his civil rights activities. He has appeared at numerous fund-raising events for such civil rights organizations as the Congress of Racial Equality, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and the Associated Community Teams of which he reportedly was one of the founders. Most recently Gregory has been active in the open-housing demonstrations in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Last December Gregory announced his intention to visit United States war prisoners in North Vietnam during the Christmas holidays; however, these plans were later canceled. He has been an outspoken critic of this country's participation in the Vietnam war. He recently participated in the mass demonstrations held in Washington, D. C., which were sponsored by the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam.

Gregory Sees Downfall Of U.S. Unless Race Issue Is Settled

Civil rights leader Dick Gregory repeated his warning Wednesday night in Hays that the United States will be destroyed by Negro revolution unless the race issue is settled within the next three years.

The 35-year-old comedian-turned-crusader made it clear at the outset of his two-hour speech in Sheridan Coliseum that he would offer no solutions, only observations.

A declared write-in candidate for President in 1968, he also made it clear he wasn't going to mince words. "After I leave here tonight I don't give a damn what you think of me."

"I just don't want to say we don't hate white folks, as a rule. We aren't even angry with white people. We're angry with the system—and, if the system don't change, we're going to bring it down," Gregory declared to an audience of about 800.

"If we don't solve these problems within the next three years, this country is going to be destroyed from within," he said.

At a press conference before the All-Student Council sponsored program, Gregory said, "We're not putting up with any more insults, period."

"You insult me and you keep on insulting me, and we're going to burn your house down to the ground."

In his speech, Gregory cast himself in the seemingly ambiguous role of pacifist-militant. Race riots and city burnings to him are justifiable means for accomplishing the goal of racial equality, but he doesn't want anyone hurt or killed in the process.

"You come up and spit on me, I won't hit you, but I'll take your clothes off and burn them," he said. "I have no respects for man-made objects at all."

Discussing welfare payments to Negroes, Gregory said, "You talk to me about relief! The minute you start feeling ashamed about foreign aid, that's the minute we start feeling ashamed about welfare."

"That damn white farmer is the biggest welfare recipient in this country," according to Gregory. He said the farmer "sits on his white butt" while the government pays him not to plant crops.

Concerning Vietnam, Gregory advocates an immediate withdrawal of American forces.

"People ask me if I think black kids should go to Vietnam; hell, I don't think white people should go."

"It don't make any difference if you're hawk or dove, someday we're going to have to wake up and get out of there," he said.

He said Negroes are being forced to give their lives in an attempt to guarantee freedom of choice to the Vietnamese people when the Negroes do not have this freedom in their own country.

Gregory announced that he will fast from Thanksgiving to Christmas to express his opposition to the war. He said that during that period he would eat no food and drink only water.

He spent considerable time defending the actions of civil rights workers Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown.

Brown and Carmichael, according to Gregory, were soured on the nonviolent approach and led to militancy while working with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in the south for six years.

"You question their attitude—you go through what they went through those six years and you'd have the same attitude they have," Gregory said.

He told of lynchings and beatings of SNCC workers in the south.

Gregory wondered at the white American's fear of Carmichael and Brown. "A 23-year-old kid, Rap Brown, has got this country scared to death and he don't even have one bomb, one airplane or one vessel."

He said he doesn't know where Carmichael is presently, but understands he is to return to the United States shortly.

He also marveled at the whites' fear of two words—"black power." This fear, he said, was based on the white knowledge of "white power."

"This is the only country in the world that drops a bomb on millions of people (the A-bomb on Japan), and all at once we're afraid of a few town burnings."

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies and for Chicago two copies of a letterhead memorandum outlining activities of subject in Rochester, Elmira and Jamestown area of Western New York. It is noted his itinerary as outlined in referenced Chicago airtel was interrupted due to his publicized arrest during open housing demonstrations in Milwaukee, Wisconsin in the early part of October, 1967. It is noted that due to this interruption, subject made no appearances at Elmira, N.Y., but information reported in Elmira newspapers concerned his appearance at Mansfield
State College, Mansfield, Pennsylvania. u

It is further noted that subject's activities and itinerary were followed closely by the Buffalo Office during the time he was in Buffalo Division territory and his departure for Philadelphia on 10/11/67 was telephonically communicated to Philadelphia, which was his next destination after his Rochester, N.Y. appearance. u

Subject's appearance at Jamestown, N.Y. Community

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also known as
Dick Gregory

Set forth below is a resume of remarks captioned individual made before the assemblages indicated, as reported through the news media shown. u

The "Campus Times," the University of Rochester student newspaper at Rochester, New York, reported in its October 13, 1967 edition under the headline "Gregory Speaks About Problems in Nation, Explains Violence in Civil Rights Movement," that the subject made an appearance before about 400 students in the University of Rochester Palestra on Tuesday, October 10, 1967. Among the things the subject reportedly said were: u

"America is a sick country." "It is probably the most racist country on earth" due to both the white folk and the black. "We've watched you for 400 years and we've learned it (racism) from you." u

In explaining RAP BROWN's activities, subject stated RAP BROWN could be understood as one had watched as the FBI stood by while "five year old kids" who were being lead to an integrated school "were hit in the mouth by a brick" by "the mob" and "the police." u

Subject cited the Declaration of Independence as the basis for riots in Cincinnati, Chicago and Watts, saying activities in those areas were legal in the light of the Declaration. He asserted violence did not hurt the Negro cause because "This country's so immoral and corrupt itself." Subject stated non-violence is a favor, claiming this is a violent nation and that "we're asking one segment to be this way (non-violent) while another isn't." He also attacked the financial support of the non-violent movement as being largely furnished by Jews who would continue this support only if the movement remains non-violent "but when the Israeli war broke they sent over their rent money." Subject argued violence is legal on the part of Negroes in the same sense that the American Revolution was legal, but said he himself was committed to non-violence. He stated Negroes wanted nothing special - just equal status and implementation of the Constitution - the same things white people got. Subject said the riots were caused by "spontaneous combustion," the sudden release of suppressed anger by a catalytic incident. U

Subject disapproved of United States Action in Viet Nam, attacking a situation in which Negroes could kill Viet Cong, but could not kill members of the Ku Klux Klan. U

Subject stated that the United States had about three years to make basic changes or social changes would take place that would change America. He also said "I feel we've got to break this two party system." U

Subject told students that if they spent four years learning how to make a living they were in trouble because they were not guaranteed a living outside of the State but if they spent four years learning how to live they could walk all over the face of the earth and a living would come to them naturally. U

An article on Page 23 of the October 11, 1967 issue of the "Star-Gazette," an Elmira, New York daily newspaper, reported the appearance of the subject before a student audience at Mansfield State College, Mansfield, Pennsylvania on the afternoon of October 10, 1967. Comments by subject included one to the effect that he got out of jail after being arrested in Milwaukee and "Now I have two Milwaukee cops suing me for biting and kicking them. It don't make no difference that they were trying to push me in front of a train." He also stated "Don't ever let a blackman tell you he isn't a racist. He has to be if he lives in this country." U Subject said RAP BROWN and STOKELY CARMICHAEL originally taught non-violence. "But the STOKELY's and the RAP's had to stand by and watch little 3 and 6 year old children get stomped on ... and see the police and FBI stand by and watch." U

"... you never read about the pregnant women marchers, white and colored alike, kicked in the stomach by red-necks. You don't read about the 500 'SNCC' workers killed in the past year." GREGORY claimed the workers had been murdered by Southern white racists but that their deaths had been officially listed as drunken driving accidents. "Now all at once" GREGORY shouted, "no one understands STOKELY and RAP. Non-violence is no longer an obligation, it is a favor. We're non-violent now just like Matt Dillon." U

Subject said the "SNCC" movement was no longer interested in the help of white liberals and they should stay home and "bug their own race." U

Subject further stated "no one has to pass special laws in America for us because the Constitution is not just for the whiteman." U

He also said, "No special law was passed to get SVETLANA STALIN - daughter of a Communist leader, into this country and into a decent home. No special law is needed to get us decent homes." U

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also known as

An article on Page 1 of the October 19, 1967 edition of the Jamestown, New York Post-Journal, Jamestown daily newspaper, reported subject's appearance before a large but un-numbered gathering of students at the Jamestown Community College, Collegiate Center. The article indicated subject spoke for two hours and remained more than one-half hour longer for a give and take exchange of questions and answers. Information in this article indicated subject gave substantially the same type of speech as indicated by quotations and information set out above. In addition, he was quoted as saying: U

"We've 600,000 men fighting to bring democracy to people half way around the world while we make little pretense of protecting the democratic rights of a large section of our own people." U

"Why should the Negroes be expected to serve and die bringing instant democracy to Viet-nam and complacently accept the achievement of their own democratic rights on the installment plan?" U

"If our democracy is so wonderful, we wouldn't have to fight for its acceptance in other countries, they would be stealing it from us." U

He was also quoted as saying, "When I demonstrate for Civil Rights, I hope it bugs America as much as the civil wrongs which my people have had to endure have bugged me." U

Subject again made reference to the Declaration of Independence, saying that the human rights enumerated therein were not restricted for "white only." He recalled that the patriots who won our country's freedom were fighting a tax on tea and he said, "Do you mean to tell me that the Negro won't fight for his life?" Subject cited an example of the acceptance of the idea that "If its white, its alright," noting that the nation had been reduced to near hysteria by black violence during the past summer, but had shown comparatively little concern over white violence such as had taken place during the current steel hauler's strike. He concluded his talk by urging students to concentrate on learning to live rather than earn a living. u

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also known as
Dick Gregory

An article appearing on Page 63 in the October 19, 1967 City Final Edition of the "Buffalo Evening News," local Buffalo daily newspaper under the headline of "Dick Gregory Plans Fast," reported that on October 18, 1967, after he had made an address to 600 people in Jamestown Community College at Jamestown, New York, subject revealed he would fast for 30 days in protest against the Viet Nam war. He reportedly said he would start the fast in San Francisco on Thanksgiving Eve and would fast until Christmas. He said he would drink water but that he would eat nothing. He was quoted as saying, "I can't burn a draft card because I don't have one." u

DICK GREGORY

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Dick Gregory gave a speech at 2:00 p.m., October 25, 1967, on the East Campus of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska. He stated that his speech was sponsored by the East Union Special Events Committee. The source advised that about 800 to 1,000 people, mostly students at the University, were present for this speech, and no incidents arose in connection with this speech.

Articles concerning this speech of Gregory on October 25, 1967, appeared in "The Lincoln Star", October 26, 1967, page 33; "The Lincoln Evening Journal", October 26, 1967, page 12, both Lincoln newspapers; and in the "Daily Nebraskan", the University of Nebraska student newspaper.

According to these articles, Gregory stated, in part, that, "I am not here to impress you, but to inform you and I don't care what you think of me when you leave." He described himself as a "nonviolent vegetarian pacifist" and said that he would discuss "our number one problem, which is moral pollution, not air pollution." As he continued, Gregory said that "America is the number one most racist country in the world, bar none" and "Martin Luther King didn't teach this country nonviolence, it was kids like Rap Brown and Stokley Carmichael." "You are going to get a lot of Rap Browns and Stokley Carmichaels, so you had better be ready for them, baby." Other excerpts from Gregory's speech contained in these articles included the following: "We are after the U. S. Constitution and unless we get a part, you won't have yours," and "You are not looking at 'niggers' any more, but soldiers." He described the United States as being "sick", "stupid", and "insane" for involvement in the Vietnam war. "This is a non-violent country, your friends are over in Vietnam out-Nazi-ing the Nazis." He said anytime you send troops to protect Vietnamese freedom, but not Negroes in America, "Then maybe burning down that country would be a virtue." He mentioned that the recent peace march in Washington on the Pentagon was "great" and described President Lyndon B. Johnson, of the United States, as having "barbeque on his face, driving drunk and throwing beer cans out the window." In regard to the flag of the United States, he said, "You can't pass a law saying you can't burn the flag. The American flag is just a rag. I first want laws and respect for people, not objects. We must address ourselves to people, not flags."

According to the above confidential source, Gregory made only this one appearance at the University of Nebraska while in Lincoln.

On November 22, 1967, Dick Gregory held a news conference at the Knickerbocker Hotel, 163 East Walton, Chicago, Illinois. During this conference Gregory stated that he is planning a month long fast from Thanksgiving to Christmas in order to protest the United States involvement in the Viet Nam war. Concerning this fast Gregory issued the following statement: u

"I am determined to set an example as an individual American, lawfully protesting against my government's policy in Vietnam," Gregory asserted. u

"From Thanksgiving until Christmas I will fast in sympathy with the millions of Americans who are also opposed to the war in Vietnam. I will not eat, drink juice or take prepared vitamins or other food supplements," he said. "I will only drink water." u

"I ask all those who, like myself, are opposed to war to demonstrate their determination by not buying a turkey for Christmas dinner. I suggest that true Christians and humanitarians celebrate Christmas this year in simplicity and sacrifice, and, in sympathy with the suffering on both sides of the war, avoid traditional decorations, Christmas trees, lights, ornaments, toys, and the exchange of gifts and presents until peace on earth and good will to men becomes a reality." u

RACIAL MATTERS

On December 4, 1967, Johnny Burleson, Chief of Police, Sherman, Texas, advised that Mayor George R. Stephens, and City Manager L. H. Krumm, Sherman, were going to contact college officials, Austin College, Sherman, Texas, on December 5, 1967, in regard to the scheduled speech of Dick Gregory at the college on the evening of December 8, 1967, and point out to them that a white female was raped and stabbed at her residence just south of the city limits of Sherman, Texas, on December 4, 1967, by a person she was able to describe only as a Negro male just prior to her death, and that public opinion had been aroused by the crime. u

On December 6, 1967, Chief Burleson advised that the Mayor and City Manager had met and discussed Gregory's scheduled speech with officials at Austin College. Burleson further stated college officials had confirmed that Gregory's speech would be held at the Student Union Building, Austin College, Sherman, Texas, between the hours of 8:30 PM and 9:30 PM, December 8, 1967. Burleson was notified by college officials that Gregory was due to arrive at the Love Field Airport, Dallas, Texas, at 4:45 PM, December 8, 1967. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Burleson was told that Gregory was coming to Sherman by himself, and that he was apparently going to stay in Sherman overnight since Gregory had requested college officials to reserve him a room at the Holiday Inn, Sherman, for the night of December 8, 1967, and that he would leave Sherman on the morning of December 9, 1967, and return to Dallas where he would catch a plane en route to the West Coast. He was reserved Room 248 by college officials, as a result of this request. Burleson advised that it was believed Gregory was arriving at Love Field, Dallas, on a flight originating out of Denver, Colorado, but this was not definitely known. u

Re: DICK GREGORY

Gregory, according to Burleson, had sent a press release to college officials but they were not releasing same. In this release, Gregory claimed he was on a fast commencing Thanksgiving Day and lasting through Christmas, existing during that time only on distilled water. Although college officials were originally of the belief Gregory was going to perform only a comedy routine at the college, it appeared that Gregory would spend some of his time on a comedy and would then speak on his views in regard to U. S. involvement in the Vietnam war and that he believed U. S. troops should be withdrawn. It is for this reason that Gregory was fasting and that he was going to ask the audience not to purchase cars, Christmas decorations or Christmas presents, in order to support the view that U. S. troops should be withdrawn from Vietnam. Burleson advised he had been informed approximately 750 tickets had been sold to students and faculty of Austin College for this speech. u

Burleson related that he had notified Sheriff G. W. Blanton, Grayson County, Sherman, Texas, and Paul Borum, Chief of Police, Denison, Texas, of the above plans of Gregory and that he was this date notifying the Dallas, Texas, Police Department and Sheriff's Office of these plans, including the intention of transporting Gregory from Dallas to Sherman via State Highway 289, rather than U. S. 75, due to traffic congestion on U. S. 75 at that hour. He was also requesting Sergeant [redacted] [redacted] Texas Highway Patrol, Sherman, Texas, to furnish this same information to Major Guy Smith, Texas Highway Patrol, Dallas, Texas. u

On December 6, 1967, the following were notified of the confirmed plans of Gregory's arrival at Sherman, Texas: u

On December 7, 1967, Burleson related Gregory would apparently depart Sherman, Texas, approximately 9:00 AM, December 9, 1967, since he had been notified Gregory was going to catch a flight from Love Field, Dallas, Texas, to the West Coast at 11:00 AM, December 9, 1967. u

On December 8, 1967, Burleson related Gregory was met by college officials at Love Field, Dallas, Texas, and brought to Sherman, Texas, as scheduled. He stated, however, Gregory was accompanied by an unknown Negro female, who Gregory referred to as [redacted]. He further related there had been a last minute change of plans by Gregory and that he was returning to Dallas the same evening to catch a plane for the West Coast, rather than remaining overnight in Sherman, as originally scheduled. u

b7C

Burleson also advised that Detective [redacted] Sherman Police Department, was present at the Student Union Building during the hour Gregory spoke and reported that the entire act was a comedy routine only. Burleson related there were no incidents, whatsoever, arising as a result of Gregory's speech and that Gregory and the unknown female left Sherman, Texas, at 10:10 PM., December 8, 1967, accompanied by [redacted] supra, en route back to Love Field, Dallas, to catch an unknown flight for the West Coast. u

The December 10, 1967, issue of the "Sherman Democrat", Sherman, Texas, carried an item captioned "GREGORY SKIPS CONTROVERSY, OFFERS HUMOR", which is as follows: u

Gregory Skips Controversy, Offers Humor

By GEORGE CHAFFEE

Dick Gregory, a Negro comedian turned civil rights activist, parked his controversial views on segregation and the Vietnam War at the Austin College Student Union door here Friday night and gave students and faculty one hour of pure humor.

Approximately 750 students — some sitting in straight-back chairs, some sitting cross-legged on the floor and some lying on the floor with their feet propped up on the small stage — roared their approval as Gregory went through his unrehearsed routine, most of which centered around his Thanksgiving-to-Christmas fast to protect involvement in Vietnam.

"Every time I put on my socks they fall back down," the bearded comic said. "Man, I've lost so much weight non-violence is no longer a tactic for me but a necessity."

Gregory said he weighed 158 pounds when he began his fasting on Thanksgiving Day and was down to 124 when he weighed three days ago.

"I'm scared to get on the scales now," he admitted.

Gregory showed the effects of 16 days without food and got a lot of laughs about his condition.

"I'm so weak I couldn't whip Ronald Reagan's former staff members," he quipped.

Gregory said the fasting also had its effects on what he termed his "hate fan mail."

"I used to get these letters saying, 'nigger, nigger, nigger' " he pulled a letter from a pocket of his green coveralls. "Now I get 'em like this. 'Dear Mr. Gregory, last night for supper I had . . .'"

Taking a slap at his wife's cooking, Gregory said with a wink of his eye, "Her cooking is so bad I gained 30 pounds after I went on my fast."

Hitting briefly on the devaluation of the British pound, Gregory said he wasn't worried about U.S. currency until he saw Indians on the roadside selling dollar bills for old beads.

Then he added, "Don't worry about my health during the fast. It's the British that are losing the pounds."

Cigarette smoking drew fire from the frail comedian when he said honest television commercials would come when the sponsors switched from coupons on the backs of cigarette packs to insurance credit cards.

Commenting that people are now paying 40 cents to get bad news in the form of "Caution: Cigarette Smoking May Be Hazardous to Your Health," Gregory told a conversation with a friend who thought the message was actually a coupon.

Friend: "You mean if I save enough of them, I'll get something?"

Gregory: "That's right, brother."

Friend, "Well, when do I turn them in?"

Gregory: "You don't. They'll turn you in."

Turning around, Gregory noticed three black drapes set up as a back-drop for the impromptu stage. He walked over to a drape, folded it into the shape of a KKK hood and put it on his head. "All right," he said, "there will be a meeting at 8 p.m. tonight."

Later, Gregory said the biggest breakthrough in the civil rights movement was the naming of the hurricane Beulah.

Recalling his childhood, Gregory said he and his friends would use segregation to their advantage.

"We'd walk into an expensive department store and get all the store detectives to follow us," he said. "While they were keeping an eye on us, the white kids we had hired earlier would do the stealing."

Gregory claimed racial prejudices didn't do much to strengthen his beliefs in Santa Claus. "Ain't no white man comin' in our neighborhood at night."

Speaking of Black Power, Gregory said Negroes would get it when one of them caught the "primitive" nuclear bomb Red China is going to deliver.

"Talk about Black Power," he said as he held the imaginary bomb, "I'd walk up to Wallace's (George) house si . . . 'We have overcome.' "

Everytime the comedian mentioned Lyndon Johnson, he made reference to barbecue sauce on his face, operation scar or whatever.

"He's the only President I know that everytime he leaves the country, so do I. I think he knows something."

Gregory also poked some fun at the space program saying we've spent $55 million for a picture of the moon that looks like a close-up shot of cold oatmeal.

In sharp contrast to his jokes, Gregory left the students with a bit of advice which they listened to in silence: "Don't get so busy in learning how to make a living that you forget how to live."

Gregory was the second entertainer to appear in Austin College's Student Entertainment Series, all of which are open only to students and faculty. David Barton, student in charge of the series, said Gregory was paid $1,500 for his appearance in Sherman. Entertainers are paid from revenue received through ticket sales at the college.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Dick Gregory gave a speech at 8:00 p.m., December 6, 1967, at the Student Union, University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa, before a gathering of students and faculty estimated at 2,100 persons. This speech was sponsored by the University as part of a regular guest lecture series. Gregory was reportedly paid $1,200.00 for this appearance. No incident arose in connection with Gregory's appearance above.

On December 5, 1967, Gregory appeared at Mount Mercy College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he spoke to about 600 persons, also as part of the lecture series of that institution.

An article concerning Gregory's speech at University of Iowa appeared on December 7, 1967, Page 1, of the "Daily Iowan", the University of Iowa student newspaper. An article reporting Gregory's speech at Mount Mercy College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, appeared in "The Cedar Rapids Gazette", Page 10A, December 6, 1967, a local daily newspaper.

According to the article appearing in the "Daily Iowan", Gregory said in part that violence is helping the Negro cause because America is "so foul and dirty". He said America was the "number one most racist country in the world", and that Negroes learned their racism and violence from the whites.

Gregory praised the University's anti-war demonstrations and said that they were receiving so much reaction because the students were trying to change the system. He said H. Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael, Negro leaders who advocate violence and black power, were non-violent civil rights workers in the South for six years, and described their struggle against the southern mobs, sheriffs and police in which, he said, "20 civil rights workers were killed each day". He said he would "bug this country as much as civil wrongs have bugged me". He said it was an insane country that could ask a Negro to kill to give Vietnamese instant freedom and then promise that man's children freedom on the installment plan.

In this speech, Gregory quoted the Declaration of Independence to show that Americans believed that people have the duty to overthrow a government that denies them their rights for a long period of time, and that the white should blame the founding fathers for not putting a "white only" stamp on the declaration.

In his speech at Mount Mercy College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Gregory told the audience he plans to write every country urging a boycott of the 1968 Olympic games in Mexico as a protest to the Vietnam war.

At Cedar Rapids, Gregory also told his audience that "if things don't begin improving fast, we're going to burn this country right to the ground and you better believe it."

He said, "you better wake up on this violence thing, non-violence is a favor and you better not aggravate the Negro much longer." He said further, "Patrick Henry said give me liberty or give me death. That is non-violence? The British were overthrown for taxing tea and you think we won't bring this country down to save our lives?" He went on to comment, "that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and that after such a long period of abuses, it is the right, the duty, for a people to throw off such a government. And we will."

Gregory said further, "Moral pollution is the No. 1 problem in this country. All the tricks are used up. We're never going through the back door again. Sure you got the right to call me nigger. You got freedom of speech. But don't spit on me when you call me nigger. The German who killed my dad in World War II can live where I cannot."

Gregory told the audience he was not angry at white people. "I just hate your system. We're tired of it and we're going to bring it down."

According to the above source, Gregory's activity in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and the University of Iowa was limited to his appearance at the two schools identified above.

Lean Dick Gregory Vows To Continue 'Black Fast'

By DAVE POTTER
(Daily Defender Staff Writer)

A gaunt, 120-pound Dick Gregory yesterday reaffirmed his vow to complete his celebrated "black fast" until Christmas.

At a news conference held in the Knickerbocker Hotel, Gregory, dressed in a forest green coverall, told reporters that he was not experiencing any serious side effects from his last which the comedian initiated the day before Thanksgiving as a protest to his country's involvement in the Vietnam war.

When Gregory launched his fast, he weighed 153 pounds. Yesterday marked the 20th day in which he consumed nothing more than about 6½ pints of distilled water each day.

Though he looks as if he is dying, Gregory told reporters, "I'm not going to die. I am in good shape, I'm healthy and I'm strong."

"In response to the thousands of letters, telegrams and phone calls I have received from all over the world expressing concern over my health, I've called this press conference to assure my friends that I am in good condition and in spite of the difficult schedule which I have kept -- lecturing in colleges in 26 cities -- I am as determined as ever to maintain my fast until Christmas," he said.

He did say, however, that he was not under a doctor's care.

Gregory flew into Chicago yesterday after addressing the graduating senior class at Yale University in Hartford, Conn. He was to leave later for another speaking engagement in Miami and a nightclub appearance in New York's Greenwich Village.

On Nov. 22, Gregory said he would fast in sympathy with the millions of Americans who are opposed to the war in Vietnam.

He also asked then that those, who like himself, were opposed to the war demonstrate their beliefs by not buying turkeys for Christmas, or to give Yule gifts or decorate homes with lights in the traditional Yuletide manner, "until peace on earth and goodwill toward men becomes a reality." He also asked that his followers not buy a 1968 auto as another form of anti-Vietnam war protest.

"Now I'm not one of these guys who are pulling for the Viet Cong against the United States. I am opposed to all wars and I feel sorry for every young man who is killed."

Gregory also pointed out that since he had started his fast he had also stopped smoking cigarettes -- which had become one of his trademarks in night clubs.

Throughout the press conference, Gregory's drawn face was almost always in a gentle smile. His voice was slightly hoarse and decidedly softer than in recent pre-fast months.

He refused to liken himself to India's Mahatma Gandhi mainly because there was no religious connection with the comic's fast -- just a moral one. "There was also a difference in our complexions," he quipped.

A reporter calculated Gregory's weight loss rate at about two pounds a day, and said that by Christmas he would weigh in the vicinity of 95 pounds -- or less.

"Then," Gregory retorted, "I'd be the NAACP's answer to Twiggy."

Purpose of his fast he said was to demonstrate that there "a whole lot of decent people in the U.S."

"Hell, I'm 35 and too old to get drafted; and if I went to volunteer, with my political views, the government itself would burn my draft card."

While he gestured with his hands, it was even more apparent that the comedian had lost a great deal of weight. His plain, gold wedding band literally flopped up and down between joints on his ring finger.

When asked whether the fast had affected his sense of humor, Gregory replied:

It's given me 30 more minutes in my act and now my hate mail reads differently. It used to be letters were addressed to me 'dear nigger, this and dear nigger that. Now some letters begin 'My Dear Mr. Gregory, last night for dinner I had...'

In addition, Gregory announced that he has cabled Bertrand Russell to obtain his full support in a mission to persuade nations not to participate in next summer's Olympic games if the United States continues to conduct the war in Vietnam. He stated that he was writing letters to the heads of state of all the Olympic member nations to help in this effort.

Gregory said he will travel to as many countries as he can humanly visit between now and the games in Mexico City next August.

Full view of comic shows spare frame in detail. He said that during his fast, he would neither smoke, get a haircut nor take a shave. (Daily Defender Photos by John Gunn) Drawn looking comedian Dick Gregory, down to 120 pounds, tells reporters that he will complete his 32-day "black fast" — his way of protesting U.S. involvement in the war in Vietnam. Gregory's weight loss was apparent when his wedding band flopped loosely on his ring finger.

POSSIBLE RACIAL INCIDENTS DURING DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION, INTERNATIONAL AMPHITHEATER,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, AUGUST, 1968
RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to memorandum captioned "Richard Claxton Gregory, aka, Dick Gregory," dated November 29, 1967, at Chicago. U

The following information was taken from the December 17, 1967 edition of the "Chicago Tribune" in a column by Herb Lyon captioned "Tower Ticker": U

"Dick Gregory, down to 118 pounds, via his pre-yule protest fast, shocked listeners in on Wes South's WVON Hot Line Radio show the other night. Said Gregory: "The Democrats will hold their 1968 national convention in Chicago next August over my dead body, unless they meet my terms. Like lifting the injunction on open housing marches and Police Supt. Conlisk appointing a Negro to his top staff." The comic then threatened to bring in thousands of stormy protestors, including disruptive Hippies and Negro athletes who'll swarm all over the Amphitheater. " U

Dick Gregory is a Negro entertainer-comedian and Civil Rights activist who has been arrested on numerous occasions. More recently, Gregory is known for his public statements concerning his anti-Viet Nam stand. U

The above information is being furnished to the following agencies: U

The United States Attorney, Chicago, U.S. Secret Service, Chicago, and Region I, 113th MI Group, Evanston, Illinois. U

December 18, 1967. U

On December 26, 1967, a [redacted] source advised that a freedom and peace rally commemorating the 33rd day of Negro comedian/entertainer Dick Gregory's
"Black Fast" was to be held in the Carter Temple, C.M.E.
Church, 7841 South Wabash Street, Chicago, Illinois. This [redacted] source stated that at a press conference held earlier in the same day, Gregory announced that Father James E. Groppi, the militant open housing advocate from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Ralph Schoenman, secretary to Lord Bertram Russell of England and the individual who conducted the mock war crimes trial in Copenhagen with the United States as the defendant because of their involvement in the Vietnamese War, would participate in this rally. U

POSSIBLE RACIAL INCIDENTS

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS,
AUGUST, 1968

On December 27, 1967, this same [redacted] source advised that the above rally took place as scheduled at the Carter Temple, C.M.E. Church. This rally began at 8:00 p.m. on December 26, 1967, and terminated at approximately 11:30 p.m. Approximately 150 persons attended this rally, each paying a $5.00 entrance fee. U

b7D

During the course of the rally, Dick Gregory issued a series of demands that the City of Chicago would have to meet if the City expected to have the Democratic Convention in Chicago in August, 1968. These demands are as follows: U

1. Complete open housing for Negroes in Chicago and in the State of Illinois as well as the right for the Negro to be able to go anywhere in the city without being attacked. U
2. The lifting of an injunction limiting demonstrations by the Reverend Martin Luther King and others. This injunction has been in effect since the September, 1966, racial disturbances on Chicago's west side. U
3. A Negro policeman and a top echelon of the Chicago Police Department. U
4. One month before the National Democratic Convention in Chicago all firemen and policemen in Chicago should be paid the highest salary in the nation. U

Gregory was seen and heard over nationwide television stating that if his demands were not met, the Democratic Convention would be held over his dead body. U

Father James E. Groppi also spoke at this rally explaining the purpose of the open housing marches in Milwaukee and the organization of his "commandos". Groppi stated that the marches in Milwaukee would continue for five years "if we feel it is necessary to win freedom for the Negro". U

Ralph Schoenman spoke of the "liberation armies" around the world, particularly in Vietnam, Bolivia, and Africa, and how the system in the United States will have to be destroyed. He said that he believes in revolutionary tactics of violence and that whenever a black man is assassinated a list of "white cops" should be drawn up and they should receive the same treatment. U

Schoenman further stated that the United States is trying to protect its economic position in Southeast Asia. Schoenman referred to President Johnson as "scarbelly" with barbecue sauce on his face. Among those who attended this rally were the following: U

Mr. DeLoach:

I do not want to be out of place but on seeing the attached picture I thought of your possible responsibility at the 1968 Democratic National Convention. I am confident the Bureau has fine coverage on the various organizations who might try to disrupt the convention. Individual dissidents like Gregory; however, might present embarrassing problems. Chicago may have someone close to Gregory. If not, it might not be too early to begin developing such coverage.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On January 12, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory appeared at Northeastern University, 360 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, on the evening of January 11, 1968, as an invited guest of the Distinguished Speaker Series sponsored by the Student Activities Council of Northeastern University. The affair was held in the Carl S. Ell Student Center.

About 20 female Negroes and 15 male Negroes, many of whom were recognized as residents of the Roxbury section of Boston, lined the Auditorium walls near the stage area giving the impression that they were protecting the stage so no one would be able to approach the front of the stage.

During his talk, Gregory stated that if the demands of the Negroes were not met, the Negroes would burn the country down. This brought a fair response from the white audience and a highly favorable reaction from the Negroes.

During his talk, Gregory made the following points:

Gregory stated that he would not give any solutions to the problems regarding Moral Decay in the Nation but he would only talk about "The Symptons."

Gregory stated that Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown are very honest in everything that they say, and we should not criticize them because you do not hear any Negro talking about four white boys who left their ship in Japan and went to Moscow.

ENCLOSURE

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Gregory stated that SNCC (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee) were non violent in the beginning but nobody in the country would listen to them while they were being abused by the police and some Atlanta Crackers. He stated that the FBI have movies of what took place in the south when there were attempts to integrate schools, etc., but the FBI would not show them and they will never be shown, but if the Negroes were involved, they (the films) would be shown.

Gregory stated that his father was killed by some German in 1942 and that same German could come to this country and enjoy all the benefits, but that he, Gregory, living without a father for 25 years could not enjoy all the Freedoms offered in this country.

Gregory stated that H. "Rap" Brown said, "Nigger get yourself a gun," and everyone got upset. Gregory then said, "Why don't people get upset when they know that the Minutemen have guns and nothing is done about it," Gregory stated that if the Minutemen were so concerned, why don't you see them riding into Harlem in a Tank. Gregory stated that we all have a right to bear arms under the Constitution.

Gregory stated that he did not believe that we should be in Vietnam. He stated that we are spending billions of dollars in Vietnam for instant freedom and if one of those Vietnamese came to the United States, he could not live beside someone in this country because he would be killed.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Gregory stated that the colored fold should not listen to people who say that riots will only delay our cause. He, Gregory, stated that there were 6,000 Negroes hired in Detroit without any exam. The reason given for hiring the Negroes is that the fire was getting too close to the Mustangs.

Gregory stated that a flag is only a rag, and if he went out to buy a flag, he has the right to burn the flag because it is his own.

Gregory stated many things in reference to the Negro Heritage in this country, that they were toiling for 400 years and if they did not get what is coming to them they would burn the country down.

Gregory mostly talked about the moral decay in the country, and how the Negro was getting the short end of the stick. He stated that we should not worry about 10% of the population because we have a large Army, etc. but history shows that the oppressed will rule the oppressor. Gregory stated that the Negro is tired of waiting and wants what is coming to him now.

Gregory made reference to Rev. Martin Luther King with his non-violent demonstrations to warn the people what is coming. He made reference to the large demonstration King will hold in the Spring.

Gregory stated that we have not seen anything yet and that the country should wake up. Gregory stated that it is a sorry thing to see Congress make a compromise on a "Clean Meat Bill" after four months of debate and they do nothing about the Poverty Program.

Referenced Bureau letter of January 10, 1968, stated that the Bureau desires that coverage of GREGORY be such that the Bureau is advised of his activities on a current basis. u

GREGORY is currently carried in the Rabble Rouser Index of the Chicago Office. u

For information of recipient offices, GREGORY's scheduled appearances are handled by the American Program Bureau, Boston, Mass., and they are, in turn, cleared through the Marvin Josephson Associates in New York City. u

As noted in referenced airtel and LHM, GREGORY has threatened to disrupt forthcoming Democratic Convention to be held at the Chicago Amphitheater in August, 1968. u

GREGORY is not known to have any specific organizational affiliations as far as civil rights activities are concerned, but he lends his support to various organizations active in the civil rights field. Review of his file indicates he makes frequent visits to New York City and has been active as a supporter and participant in NAACP Youth Council open housing marches in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, led by Father JAMES GROPP. u

Referenced Bureau letter of January 10, 1968, also requested Chicago to advise of coverage through informants and sources Chicago is able to provide for GREGORY. The following sources are acquainted with GREGORY and furnish information concerning his activities: [redacted]

RE: DICK GREGORY
RACIAL MATTER

On 1/11/68, [redacted] an established source [redacted] San Antonio, Texas, advised that DICK GREGORY is scheduled to appear on the St. Mary's campus on 2/6 or 7/68 to speak to the students. u

San Antonio files are negative concerning GREGORY with the exception of information appearing in report of SA [redacted] dated 2/16/66 at Chicago captioned COMINFIL-SDS, IS-C. Page 42 of that report quotes a magazine or newspaper article in which GREGORY is quoted as saying in a speech; "If Watts (Watts riot, Los Angeles, California) was wrong, we'd better go and burn all the American history books." u

San Antonio Police Department is aware of GREGORY's scheduled visit and has expressed interest in this visit. u

REQUEST OF THE BUREAU:

The Bureau is requested to furnish San Antonio a characterization of GREGORY and any other pertinent information. u

GREGORY TELLS OF WARNING TO LBJ ON RIGHTS

Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, announced yesterday he has sent a letter to President Johnson in which he threatened to disrupt the Democratic convention here next August unless five conditions are met.

The five conditions, disclosed by Gregory during a press conference, are:

1. Enactment of an open-housing bill for Chicago by the Chicago city council and protection to walk in any neighborhood in Chicago "without being jumped."

Hits March Injunction

2. Lifting of the injunction against Dr. Martin Luther King and others on marching demonstrations in the suburbs.

3. Appointment of a Negro to the top echelon of the police department.

4. A guarantee for the health and safety of the Rev. Jesse Jackson, originator of Operation Breadbasket, which Gregory said seeks to enforce fair employment practices in the black ghetto. Gregory said Jackson has received many threats on his life.

5. Highest pay in the nation for Chicago's police and firemen.

Gregory said that if the demands are not met, he will begin leading what he described as nonviolent demonstrations in May and that they will continue thru August.

Daley Is Quizzed

Mayer Daley was asked during a press conference in City hall if he had any plans to meet with Gregory.

"Who is he? I never heard of him," the mayor said.

Later in the day, Gregory appeared at the mayor's office to submit the list of demands and spent one hour in a closed door discussion with Erwin France, a Negro administrative assistant to the mayor. Gregory emerged from the conference, saying the two had discussed his demands without hostility.

Gregory also said yesterday that he is drinking small amounts of soup after ending a 40-day fast New Year's day in protest against the war in Viet Nam.

Gregory Sends Ultimatum To Johnson

By David Murray

Negro comedian Dick Gregory presented President Johnson and Mayor Daley with a five-point ultimatum and said that if the demands are not met, he will lead 24-hour-a-day demonstrations before and during the Democratic National Convention next summer.

In a letter to Mr. Johnson, with a copy to the mayor, Gregory said Chicago's record on civil rights is "among the worst in the country."

He called the selection of Chicago as a convention site "a cruel insult to the millions of deprived citizens, black and white, who have always supported progressive Democratic political platforms, which promised federal improvement of unspeakable economic, housing, educational and health conditions.

Demands Listed

Gregory's demands called for a "strong" open-occupancy ordinance to be passed by the City Council; lifting of the injunction imposed on Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and other leaders which limit demonstrations in the streets; police protection for the Rev. Jesse Jackson, leader of Operation Breadbasket, who, according to Gregory, has received threats on his life, and placing of Negroes in top positions in the police and fire departments as part of a program which also would involve raising police and firemen's salaries.

Gregory told a press conference at the Knickerbocker Hotel that if "these first steps toward an all-out effort to solve Chicago scandalous, racial problems are not taken, then I personally will take to the streets to lead nonviolent demonstrations which will make it possible for the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago only over my dead body."

Hits At Daley

Gregory said that the choice of Chicago by the Democrats "is as if it were an endorsement for the repressive administration of the local Democratic machine of Mayor Daley."

Gregory later went to Daley's office in City Hall to present the mayor with a copy of the letter. He was told the mayor was not in. He met with Erwin France, the mayor's housing aide.

Before the meeting, Daley was asked at his press conference about Gregory's threats to disrupt next summer's convention.

"Dick Gregory?" Daley said. "I don't know anything about him. Who's he? I never heard of him."

CITY BEAT

Gregory Issues LBJ Ultimatum

By John Adam Moreau

Comedian Dick Gregory elaborated for President Johnson's benefit Tuesday a New Year's resolution to disrupt the Democratic National Convention here in August. He would disrupt the convention by round-the-clock demonstrations if certain demands on civil rights issues are not satisfied.

Gregory, who ended a 40-day fast Sunday night, wrote the President a five-point ultimatum declaring that Chicago's record on civil rights "is among the worst in the country." Selection of Chicago, he contended, is "a cruel insult to the millions of deprived citizens, black and white, who have always supported progressive Democratic political platforms which promised federal improvement of unspeakable economic, housing, educational and health conditions."

Gregory's demands were for a "strong fair-housing law enacted by City Council; lifting the injunction which limits civil rights marches; police protection for the Rev. Jesse Jackson, head of Operation Breadbasket, who Gregory said has been threatened; appointing Negroes to high positions in the fire and police departments and raising pay in those departments."

Gregory's letter, a copy of which went to Mayor Daley, said the selection of Chicago "is as if it were an endorsement for the repressive administration of the local Democratic machine of . . . Daley."

Gregory once picketed the mayor's house and when asked Tuesday about the comedian's letter Daley gave about the same answer as on a dozen or so times before when asked about Gregory: "Who's he? I don't know anything about him."

and that the white man society is the ruination of the black man and that it was white man's fault for any riots that have occurred. GREGORY stated that he is nonviolent but that he refuses to tell the black man in the U. S. to put down his "stick." GREGORY went on to cite examples of police brutality in Mississippi which occurred six years ago when the police beat blacks into the gutter and the FBI stood by and took pictures that were never published.

GREGORY continued by mocking American history emphasizing that in the Declaration of Independence it stated that if the system established breaks down it should be abolished and destroyed. GREGORY implied that the study of American history was useless because it is lies. He scorned the white persons in the audience and the country who came from the North to march in demonstrations in the South, calling them hypocrites because they did not take a Negro into their home if the opportunity arose.

GREGORY commented that RAP BROWN and STOKLEY CARMICHAEL, in his opinion, are being honest in what they say and that the "whities" do not like them because they go to a foreign country and spread the truth. GREGORY commented that "RAP" and STOKLEY were once nonviolent demonstrators but got fed up with white violence.

At this point GREGORY alluded to the recently discussed law with regard to destruction of the American flag and he commented that the American flag was merely a piece of cloth and that if he wanted to burn it no one was going to stop him. He further stated that the "blacks" are coming on strong and their day is coming." GREGORY stated further he was against the Government's confiscation of guns and ammunition from the blacks and not the same action against such groups as the Minutemen.

GREGORY also criticized the system in the U. S. where a Russian exchange student can come over to this country and live in a white neighborhood where a black man, American, would not be welcome. GREGORY also stated an example of discrimination is in the U. S. Army and stated that a black man in the Army is asked to give up his life for a country that will forever refer to him insultingly as "boy."

SPEECH BY RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

GREGORY closed his comments by stating that the day is coming when the white man must pay for the wrongs they have inflicted on the black man and that the day is coming soon.

[ ] commented that prior to and following the talk by GREGORY there were no incidents of any type. He also stated that it was his opinion that the many white persons in the audience were somewhat "taken back" by the continual criticism of the white man by GREGORY and the hypocritical actions of certain white groups.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Foudning Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the CSWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

On March 10, 1967, a source advised that the YSA was formed during 1957, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The source further advised that the YSA has recently become more open about admitting that it is the youth group of the SWP and that an SWP representative has publicly stated that the YSA is the SWP's youth group.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Rooms 532-536, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Uphold Gregory Conviction In March On Daley Home

By Burnelle Heinecke

Sun-Times Bureau

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — The Illinois Supreme Court Friday upheld the 1965 conviction of Negro comedian Dick Gregory and 39 other civil rights demonstrators for refusing to obey police orders to leave the area of Chicago Mayor Daley's home during a near riot.

Justice Byron O. House wrote the unanimous opinion for the court, which did not pass on the question of whether an official's residence may be picketed but dwelt instead on the police right to act to prevent imminent violence.

Justice Daniel P. Ward, who was Cook County state's attorney at the time of the demonstrations, abstained from participation in the case.

Fined $200 Each

Gregory and his followers were fined $200 each for violating the Chicago disorderly conduct ordinance. In the appeal to the high court, Gregory's counsel argued the ordinance is unconstitutionally vague as applied to free expression and free assembly.

The court, reviewing the events of the march from Buckingham Fountain to Mayor Daley's home at 3536 S.

Lowe, declared "under the circumstances of this case, defendants were not denied any right of free speech, free assembly or freedom of petition for redress of grievance."

The protest march was staged to persuade Daley to act to remove Benjamin C. Willis as Chicago public school superintendent.

As a mob of more than 1,000 persons gathered in the Bridgeport neighborhood at the end of the march, rocks and eggs were thrown.

The police commander at the scene requested Gregory about six times to lead the marchers away because the situation was becoming dangerous, the court was told. The court noted that any marchers leaving were promised police protection against the hostile crowd. Those who remained, including Gregory, were arrested for refusal to obey the request.

"The record is clear," Justice House wrote, "that there was some violence and an imminent threat of extreme public disorder."

"Where the police have made all reasonable efforts to protect the demonstrators and have requested that the demonstration stop after explaining the request, and the request is refused, an arrest is proper."

"The rights of free speech were not violated. Under the ordinance the defendants are guilty of disorderly conduct in refusing to obey the police request."

Synopsis:

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, born 10/12/32, at St. Louis, Missouri, resides at 1451 E. 55th Street, apartment 929, Chicago, Illinois. GREGORY is employed as night club comedian-entertainer. In 6/64, GREGORY was in Moscow, U.S.S.R. Records of Passport Office, US Department of State reflect GREGORY's departure date as 6/14/64, for 7-day visit to France, Germany, E. Germany, and Russia for the purpose of attending "World Peace Mission." In 12/66, GREGORY attempted to secure entrance into Hanoi, North Vietnam, to entertain U.S. war prisoners. This trip was turned down by the North Vietnamese. In 3/67, the CP of Illinois gave support to GREGORY in his mayoral campaign in Chicago. GREGORY's contact with civil rights organizations set forth. Source has indicated GREGORY is not member of civil rights organizations, but supports many such organizations. On 8/5-6/67, GREGORY addressed a crowd during a Hiroshima Rally in Atlanta, Georgia. During this address he urged crowd to "paralyze the economy" of this country in order to stop the war in Vietnam. He further called for a boycott of the automobile industry in order to "reach the capitalists who run this country and benefit from the Vietnam war." GREGORY has threatened to disrupt the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago in 8/68. In this respect he has presented the City of Chicago with five demands. On 9/1/67, while addressing a Black Power convention rally in Chicago, GREGORY stated that racism and capitalism are synonymous and must go out together, by revolutionary means if necessary. He further stated "Damn the American flag. Instead of saluting the flag you people should salute your black brothers."

~~SECRET~~ (U)

This investigation was predicated upon the receipt of the following information from sources who have provided reliable information in the past.

On August 5, 1967, DICK GREGORY addressed a Hiroshima Rally in Atlanta, Georgia. During this address GREGORY urged the crowd to "paralyze the economy" of the nation in order to stop the Viet Nam War. He called for a boycott of the automobile industry in order to reach the "Capitalists who run this country and benefit from the Viet Nam War." He further called for the disruption of the telephone service in an effort to "inconvenience" organizations having a hand in national defense.

On September 1, 1967, while addressing a black power convention rally in Chicago, GREGORY stated that racism and capitalism are synonymous and must go out together by revolutionary means if necessary. During this same address GREGORY stated "damn the American flag. Instead of saluting the flag you people should salute your black brothers."

In December, 1967, GREGORY threatened to disrupt the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago in August, 1968. Gregory issued a series of five demands to the city of Chicago, saying that if these demands were not met by city officials the Convention would be held in Chicago "over my dead body."

The following organizations mentioned in this report which have not been cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450 are characterized in the appendix section of this report:

Socialist Workers Party, Chicago Branch

On December 10, 1966, DICK GREGORY held a press conference at the Village Gate, an entertainment spot in Greenwich Village, New York City. GREGORY advised that he was notified by BERTRAND RUSSELL that his planned trip to Hanoi, North Viet Nam, to entertain United States prisoners-of-war had been turned down by the North Vietnamese. The reason given was the extensive bombing of North Viet Nam by United States Forces. DICK GREGORY stated that he sent a telegram to the Hanoi Government advising that he was not interested in political affairs, but was primarily concerned with the entertaining of United States prisoners-of-war in North Viet Nam. DICK GREGORY further stated that he is not a Communist and would never be one.

On March 8, 1967, a meeting of the Political Action Committee of the Communist Party of Illinois was held in Chicago, Illinois. Discussion at this meeting was centered around the forthcoming mayoral election in Chicago. In this respect discussion was held concerning the CP giving full support to DICK GREGORY's independent write-in campaign for the office of Mayor of Chicago. There was some question as to how the Party could effect this support, however, it was agreed by those present that the Party should issue a statement in support of GREGORY's campaign. A sub-committee was formed consisting of four members who were to draw-up a statement which would reflect CP support for GREGORY's mayoral campaign. It was also discussed at this meeting that the Party should try to come up with some real issues in this campaign, in that he, GREGORY, should propose a definite program which would be attractive to the voters of Chicago. ~~(U)~~ forum and acted as moderator. GREGORY stated that when he was drafted into the Army during World War II, he was not aware enough to protest. Now he felt that the Army should serve only as a social function to help underprivileged and to be used to clean up areas after national disasters such as hurricanes. He stated that America is worth dying for; America is not worth killing for. (u)

[CG T-10, 9/19/66] (u)

On July 30, 1967, ECLC held a meeting at 54 Bungalow Walk, Ocean Beach, Fire Island, New York. About 70 persons attended this meeting. DICK GREGORY spoke at this meeting. He stated that according to the "New York Times" the troops in Viet Nam at night have their ammunition taken away from them because of the race riots among United States troops. He stated that this is the reason that the Viet Cong attacks have been so successful at night. He also attacked the American people on racism and anti-semitism. He attacked Jewish people for their racism and weakness to fight anti-semitism. GREGORY stated that the Negro can win over capitalism by putting five million stickers reading "out of order" on every phone booth. The Negro could thereby reduce the world's largest corporation to their knees. Negroes then might force the Government to give Negroes their rights. Concerning the various acts of Congress civil rights legislation, GREGORY said "we'll give the white man all these laws, just give the Negro his constitutional rights". (u)

Concerning the riots, GREGORY stated that the Negro justifies the burning of whiteman's properties in order to attack the large insurance companies. (u)

[CG T-10, 7/31/67] (u)

The ECLC is an organization with headquarters in New York whose purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The House Committee on Un-American Activities found that a number of individuals connected with the ECLC were identified as Communists.

February 7, 1966
Seattle, Washington

To the Plenum of the National Committee

Dear Comrades,

I believe that a very important mass political development of the present period in the North will be the election campaign of Dick Gregory for mayor of Chicago.

By virtue of our associations in the Negro community in Seattle, I was able to organize two important functions involving him as the central figure during his current professional engagement here, and I have had an opportunity to have some political discussions with him.

Since Watts, Gregory has become increasingly radical and uncompromising. His campaign, which will begin publically in a few months, will be a clearly independent political campaign designed to secure 95% of the Negro vote in Chicago. He plans a direct assault on the Establishment, and hopes to develop a permanent political organization expressing this program which will enter into politics on a national scale, for the purpose of destroying the Democratic political machine in the ghetto. u

He is thus embarking upon an unambiguously independent and implicitly revolutionary course with an apparatus which he has already been able to build. His campaign will be a factor to be reckoned with in national politics; it will essentially constitute Black political action, for his primary objective is to unite the Negro community around a program of struggle. The campaign could provide a likely foundation for the realization of Trotsky's prediction that the militant Negroes will become a vanguard of the working class.

I urge you to prepare to mobilize the entire SWP for all-out support of this development.

Comradely,

S/ R. Kirk

On October 21, 1967, an anti-Viet Nam demonstration was held in Washington, D.C. This demonstration was sponsored by the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Viet Nam. DICK GREGORY was among the speakers at this demonstration. He spoke to the crowds saying he does not care if people burn the United States flag or any flag. He said that flags were only symbols and meaningless.

VI. INFORMATION REGARDING STATEMENTS MADE BY GREGORY RELATIVE TO FORTHCOMING
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, AUGUST, 1968

On December 26, 1967, a Freedom and Peace Rally commemorating the 33rd day of GREGORY's "black fast" was held in Carter Temple, C.M.E. Church, 7841 South Wabash, Chicago. Approximately 150 persons attended this rally each paying a $5 entrance fee. During the course of the rally, DICK GREGORY issued a series of demands that the City of Chicago would have to meet if the City expected to have the Democratic National Convention in Chicago in August, 1968. GREGORY's demands are: (1) enactment of an open housing bill for Chicago by the Chicago City Council as well as protection provided for Negroes, so that they will be able to walk anywhere in the City without fear of being attacked; (2) the lifting of an injunction limiting demonstrations by the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING. — This injunction has been in effect since the September, 1966, racial disturbances on Chicago's West Side; (3) the appointment of a Negro to the top echelon of the Chicago Police Department; (4) a guarantee for the health and safety of the Reverend JESSE JACKSON; (5) the highest pay in the nation for Chicago's police and firemen.

ILL.

GREGORY stated that if these demands were not met by Mayor DALEY's administration, the Democratic Convention in Chicago would be here only over his dead body.

VII. ACTIVITIES

A. Activities of GREGORY in Chicago

On March 7, 1967, CG T-1 advised that DICK GREGORY held a press conference at 1251 West 63rd Street, Chicago. During this press conference GREGORY announced his candidacy for Mayor of Chicago in the forthcoming Mayoral election to be held on April 5, 1967, in Chicago. GREGORY advised that he is running as an independent without Party label. (u)

(CG T-1, 3/7/67) (u)

The April 5, 1967, edition of the "Chicago Tribune", a daily newspaper, published in Chicago, reported in the Three-Star Final edition on page 6, column 1, that DICK GREGORY was defeated in his bid for Mayor of Chicago by the incumbent Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY. DICK GREGORY received 25,775 write-in votes.

The April 5, 1967, edition of the "Chicago Daily News", carried the following article on page 3, column 1, Red Dart Edition, captioned, "Gregory's Goal: the White House":

"Now Dick Gregory says he's going to run for President.

"Gregory, the Negro comedian, announced his presidential aspirations Tuesday night to a cheering throng of about 500 persons jammed into his mayoral campaign headquarters at 1251 West 63rd St.

"He said he would run for President as a write-in peace candidate. He said his losing total as a write-in in the mayor's race - about 21,000 votes - was a 'tremendous mandate' from the people.

"'I'm going to campaign all over the country,' said Gregory. 'If nothing else is proved we'll whip George Wallace. If Wallace gets one-tenth the vote I got today he will be lucky.'

Wallace, the segregationist former governor of Alabama, has said he would be a candidate for President in 1968".

Black Power Convention

On September 1, 1967, the Black Power Convention's opening rally was held at the Hyde Park Methodist Church, 1451 East 54th Street, Chicago, Illinois. Approximately 800 Negroes attended this rally. DICK GREGORY was among the speakers. In his talk GREGORY stated that racism and capitalism are synonymous and must go out together by revolutionary means if necessary, not just in the United States but also in Asia, Africa and Latin America. He stated whitey knows violence will come but does not know where or when. He stated speakers for Negroes would talk "over and under" so that whitey will have no information of value. He urged Negroes to unite in order to show "crackers" their power as a "cracker power" was about to reach an end. GREGORY stated that Negro soldiers returning from overseas and black youths will not take what the old folks have taken in the past.

(CG T-7, 9/2/67) u

Black Power Convention (BPC) was held in the Christ Methodist Church during the National Conference for New Politics Convention (NCNP) held in Chicago August 31 - September 3, 1967. The NCNP was made up of delegates primarily of anti-war feelings and advocates of civil rights. Negro delegates to the NCNP formed a BPC because their leaders who were predominantly members of CORE and SNCC, felt that the demands of the Negroes to the NCNP would not be accepted by the main body of the NCNP. When the Negro demands were accepted by the NCNP, no further activities were undertaken by the NCNP.

[CG T- 29 , 9/1/67 and 10/25/67] u

On September 1, 1967, the BPC held a rally at Hyde Park Methodist Church, Chicago, Illinois. GREGORY spoke to those assembled at this rally and said black people need to organize. Only through organization can the revolution be successful. GREGORY stated he hates all white men except Fr. GROPPi of Milwaukee, (characterization later in this report). Anyone who does not hate whitey is a fool. Any black person who would marry a white person is a double fool. GREGORY stated "damn the American flag. Instead of saluting the flag you people should salute your black brothers".

Midwest Black Students Conference

On November 23 - 25, 1967, Midwest Black Students Conference was held in Chicago, Illinois. This Conference was an outgrowth of the National Black Power Conference held in Newark, New Jersey in July, 1967. At one of the sessions at this Conference held on November 27, 1967, at the Christ Methodist Church, 6401 South Sangamon, Chicago, GREGORY addressed a gathering of 175 people. GREGORY spoke of a necessity of Negro citizens uniting to combat the injustice existing in the United States which affect Negroes.

Black Fast

On November 22, 1967, CG T-1 advised that GREGORY held a press conference in Chicago. During this press conference GREGORY announced that he was going to begin a 32 day black fast as a protest against the war in Viet Nam. GREGORY stated that he was determined to set an example as an individual American lawfully protesting United States government policies. GREGORY stated that this fast was to begin on Thanksgiving through January 1, 1968, ~~(u)~~ u

Anti-Willis Marches

Daily marches were staged in Chicago by various civil rights groups during the Summer of 1965. These civil rights groups banded together to protest the rehiring of BENJAMIN C. WILLIS, Superintendent of the Chicago Public Schools. The demonstrators marched from Buckingham Fountain to City Hall. DICK GREGORY was observed leading these marchers on a continual basis. During one such march, GREGORY was arrested at Columbus and Balboa Streets and charged with obstructing traffic and making a public nuisance of himself.

B. Activities Outside the City of Chicago

Atlanta, Georgia

The following information was taken from an article captioned, "Gregory Leads 35 in Atlanta Sit-Ins; 3 Cafes Close Up", which appeared in the "Chicago Sun-Times", a daily newspaper published in the Chicago area on December 31, 1963. This article reflects that DICK GREGORY led a desegregation march on a chain of lunch counters on December 31, 1963, at Atlanta, Georgia, forcing the closure of three. The manager of one of the restaurants asked the demonstrators to leave but GREGORY vowed to stay until they are served. The manager subsequently ordered the restaurant closed for extermination.

Arkansas

The "Chicago Daily News", a newspaper published in the Chicago area, contained an article entitled "Gregory Arrested Pine Bluff, Arkansas", in a February 17, 1964, edition on page 9, column 4. This article reflects that GREGORY was arrested at Pine Bluff, Arkansas on February 16, 1964, after he refused to leave a segregated restaurant where he was conducting a sit-in. This article further reflects that GREGORY told an audience of 500 Negroes in a Pine Bluff Church that "the Uncle Toms have got to go. The days are over when these little kids are going to fight your battles for you old folks".

Los Angeles, California

The following information was taken from an article captioned, "New Rioting, 6,000 Fight Cops", which appeared in the August 13, 1967, edition of the "Chicago American", a daily newspaper published in Chicago.

This article reflects that DICK GREGORY was shot in the left thigh by a .22 calibre bullet as he stood in the center of a Watts riot area during the second night of the Los Angeles rioting. This article further reflects that Los Angeles police said that GREGORY was attempting to mediate between police and the rioters when he was shot. GREGORY was rushed to a hospital where his wounds were described as not serious.

Mississippi

The June 7, 1966, Four Star Final Edition of the "Chicago Sun-Times", a daily newspaper published in Chicago, carried an article which stated that DICK GREGORY flew to Mississippi early on June 6, 1966, to "take up JAMES MEREDITH's march where he left off". The "Sun-Times" quoted GREGORY as disclosing shortly before he departed, "I've never been more scared in my life but somebody's got to do it and I guess I'm the guy". The article reflects that this march as instituted by JAMES MEREDITH was to proceed from Memphis, Tennessee to Jackson, Mississippi. MEREDITH was wounded by an assailant with a shotgun during the course of this march.

JAMES MEREDITH is nationally known as the first Negro to graduate from the University of Mississippi. He is further known as a civil rights activist. N.Y.

The article reflects that DICK GREGORY was standing in for Rev. JAMES E. GROPPi who was sick with the flu, in the 20th consecutive day of open-housing demonstrations in Milwaukee.

Rev. JAMES E. GROPPi is nationally known as a militant white priest who is a civil rights activist engaged in leading demonstrations for the purpose of obtaining an open housing ordinance in the City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

National Conference on Black Power, Newark, New Jersey

On July 20 - 23, 1967, DICK GREGORY was among those who participated in the National Conference of Black Power in Newark, New Jersey. The opening meeting for delegates at this Conference was held on July 20, 1967, at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, 208 Broadway, Newark, New Jersey. DICK GREGORY addressing this session urged that a petition be started in Newark to obtain 25,000

New York

A political rally was held by DICK GREGORY at 1251 West 63rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, on March 15, 1967. Approximately 200 individuals attended this rally. GREGORY stated that he was going to join Congressman ADAM CLAYTON POWELL on March 16, 1967, over the weekend of March 18 and 19, 1967. GREGORY stated that he would accompany POWELL to New York City and in this connection GREGORY stated that if the New York City authorities attempted to arrest POWELL, while in New York, he (GREGORY) would lead demonstrations and "turn the town out" to secure POWELL's release.

Seattle, Washington

The February 7, 1967, edition of the "Chicago Daily News", a daily newspaper published in Chicago, published an article captioned, "Gregory's Newest Routine: Fish-In for Indians' Plight". This article reflects the following:

"Comedian Dick Gregory went fishing in an Indian dugout canoe Sunday afternoon in fir-forested Washington State and broke the law by netting two salmon from the nearby Nisqually River.

"Gregory , turning his fervor for civil rights from the plight of the Negro to that of the Indian, vowed to stay here-and fish every day in defiance of state law - until 'Uncle Sam honors his treaties with the Indians..'

"Gregory accepted an invitation from the local Survival of the American Indians Assn. to risk almost certain arrest. He was watched from across the river by a green-uniformed agent of the State Game Department.

"Gregory later told newsmen:

"If I'm arrested, my wife will be flying in from Chicago to go fishing, too. We are trying to force the issue, to get the Justice Department involved and carry this battle for human dignity to the Supreme Court, if necessary....Some people ask if this is a publicity stunt. I say if this is a publicity stunt, then so was the Boston Tea Party.'

Washington

"James E. McIver, Seattle attorney representing Gregory, said law enforcement officers would have no trouble serving the entertainer with an arrest warrant. 'All they have to do is call me. I'll take him to jail and save the state the expense'.

"No attempt was made by the agent to cross the river and arrest Gregory-at a place called Frank's Landing. Gregory, wearing mud boots and a faded green raincoat over natty sportswear, climbed into the dugout canoe with two Indian brothers, Louis and Leonard Squally.

"Game and fisheries officials maintain that Frank's Landing is outside the Nisqually reservation and is not covered by rights accorded the Nisquallies in a century-old treaty.

"The Indians contend the river salmon hole is federal land and a part of their guaranteed fishing grounds.

"Authorities said no action would be considered against Gregory until 'high officials' receive a full report Monday.

"Gregory is not the first celebrity to go on the warpath here. Actor Marlon Brando fished with the Puyallup tribe in 1964 and was nearly jailed. San Francisco attorney Melvin Belli joined the Indians in 1965 for a court fight. And last week Washington Gov. Daniel Evans was burned in effigy at Frank's Landing."

On February 7, 1966, the "Chicago Sun-Times", Four Star Final edition, page 14, column 1, contained an article captioned, "Gregory Holds a Fish-In to Help the Indians", which reads as follows:

"Negro comedian Dick Gregory Sunday canceled appearances in Miami, Montreal and New York to help a group of Indians carry on their fishing rights fight with the state.

"Gregory and two Indians netted two steelhead trout, worth about $5 in a 'fish-in' demonstration defying a state law prohibiting off-reservation net fishing in the salmon and steelhead-bearing rivers off Puget Sound.

"The comedian said he would remain here to fish with the Indians 'every day until the battle is won.'

"State game wardens watched the demonstration on the Nisqually River, 10 miles east of here, but did not arrest Gregory or his Indian companions, Louis and Leonard Squally.

~~SECRET~~ (U)ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN UNITY, INCORPORATED (OAAU)

On June 28, 1964, MALCOLM X LITTLE, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basic OAAU aims read by MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of MALCOLM X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. LITTLE condemned the non-violent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes in education, politics, culture, economics, and social reform.

MALCOLM X was assassinated on February 21, 1965, while addressing an OAAU rally at the Audubon Ballroom, New York City.

On April 13, 1965, a confidential source advised that on March 26, 1965, the OAAU filed a Certificate of Incorporation with the Department of State, State of New York, Albany, New York, and henceforth, the organization's true name will be Organization of Afro-American Unity, Incorporated.

On February 28, 1966, a second confidential source advised that the president and head of the OAAU is ELLA COLLINS, a half-sister of the late MALCOLM X, who resides in Harlem, New York.

On May 8, 1967, the first confidential source advised that the headquarters of the OAAU is located at 224 West 139th Street, New York, New York, which is the residence of ELLA COLLINS.

Characterizations of the MMI and NOI are set out separately.

~~SECRET~~ (U)

~~SECRET~~ (U)MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article, would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes, only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement, MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

~~SECRET~~ (U)

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

MODERN TEENS

A source advised on August 1, 1960, that the Modern Teens (MT) started approximately January, 1957, as an outgrowth of a youth club which was known as the CAPS, a Club Against Prejudice, which became active in the Chicago area just after the Labor Youth League (LYL) disbanded.

On April 25, 1960, a second source advised that in April, 1960, [ ] of the Youth Commission, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, and a member of the National Committee, CP, USA, described the MT as a discussion group of socialist-minded youth, which is sponsored by the CP of Illinois, and a point of concentration for the future formation of a national Marxist youth organization.

According to a third source in May, 1961, the MT is under the guidance and sponsorship of the CP of Illinois, and it is the responsibility of the adult advisor to help obtain speakers for the group who will influence their political thinking. It is also the duty of this adult advisor to consider certain members of the MT for membership in the CP when they have reached their 18th birthday.

A fourth source advised in May, 1965, that [ ] is the [ ] of the MT. This source advised that the MT is a group of young people who meet in the homes of its members once a month during the school months to discuss current events and gather for social functions.

A fifth source advised in May, 1966, that [ ] a CP member, had the main responsibility of directing the MT.

On March 16, 1967, the fifth source advised that for over a period of a year he has heard of no activity on the part of the MT. Source said that for all intensive purposes the MT was considered by the leadership of the CP of Illinois as defunct during June, 1966. Source added it is the feeling of the leadership of the CP of Illinois that the accomplishments resulting from this organization's existence were negligible.

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

WASHINGTON PARK FORUM, Aka. The South Side Educational Forum, Washington Park Open Forum ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A source advised on June 11, 1954, that the Washington Park Forum (WPF) started in the 1930s as a spontaneous group of unemployed persons interested in discussing current events. In the late 1930s, the Communist Party (CP) penetrated and took over the WPF. From 1936 to 1940, the CP penetration was so great that it secured and maintained control of the WPF at that time.

A second source advised in May, 1957, that the CP of Illinois was attempting to regain control of the WPF which had been taken over by the Trotskyites.

A third source advised on January 16, 1963, that the "purpose and objectives" set forth in the WPF constitution include "To discuss and educate on the issues of the day through presentation of speakers on different subjects, with free discussion by people in attendance,...to aid in the realization of the Declaration of Independence,...to aid civil liberties and charitable organizations interested in expanding freedom..."

The third source advised on October 28, 1964, that the WPF recently changed its name to "The South Side Educational Forum;" however, most people still referred to it as WPF.

A fourth source advised on October 19, 1964, that the CP in the past had used the WPF as a platform to implement its program; however, there was no clear cut control of the WPF by the CP or any other organization. During the past 18 months the only apparent CP interest in the WPF was in the nature of a few speeches at WPF meetings by individuals connected with the CP; however, for the past several months there has been no CP interest, not even in the nature of speeches.

A fifth source advised on November 5, 1964, that currently the CP of Illinois did not consider the WPF to be one of the main political forces in the Negro community. The CP no longer discussed the WPF and in fact paid no attention to the WPF. Although individual CP leaders, such as CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, CP of Illinois Chairman, maintained personal contact with some of their friends in the WPF, there was no direct following from the CP to the WPF. The CP would consider using the WPF if and when expedient to the CP cause; however, the WPF was basically not considered worthy of concentration by the CP.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is being made to Chicago Memorandum dated January 11, 1968, captioned, "Richard Claxton Gregory"; Racial Matters."

On January 18, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information setting forth an additional speaking engagement scheduled for the Los Angeles area by Richard Claxton Gregory on April 18, 1968.

Gregory is publicly known as a Negro comedian, entertainer and civil rights activist, who has been arrested on numerous occasions relative to his civil rights activity.

Source indicated that the student body at San Fernando Valley State College, Northridge, California, has invited Gregory to speak at the institution on April 18, 1968. The exact time of day for Gregory's presentation has not been determined, but it is considered to be an evening affair.

The tentative arrangements for Gregory's lecture specify that the presentation will be opened to both students and public. Gregory will receive financial remuneration for this appearance, however, the aggregate total of this remuneration is unknown to source.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY,
Also Known As Dick Gregory
Speech
Wittenberg University
Springfield, Ohio
January 24, 1968

On January 25, 1968, Captain [redacted] Springfield, Ohio, Police Department, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that Negro civil rights leader and comedian Dick Gregory told a Wittenberg University audience numbering approximately 1,400 students, professors, and area residents that the American system must change "or we will burn the country, house by house." Gregory described America as a "racist society" and called policemen "America's new nigger."

b6
b7C

Gregory saw, according to Captain [redacted] no hope for a peaceful summer, stating that Negroes are tired of the white man's insults and crime within the Federal Government.

b6
b7C

Gregory advised that in the southern part of the United States, five-year-old girls are placed in jail cells with adult lesbians by Southern law enforcement officials. Captain [redacted] advised that at this point in his talk, numerous members of the audience stood up and called, "No. No. No." to Gregory, who reiterated his claim of treatment of five-year-old female girls in Southern jails.

b6
b7C

Captain [redacted] noted that the audience of 1,400 individuals was composed of both Caucasian and Negro individuals. Captain [redacted] advised that the majority of the audience clapped only when Gregory was introduced and after his speech, but a small group of local Negro individuals and a group of students from Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, cheered "wildly" when Gregory spoke of the American flag as a "rag" and when he spoke of "burning every home in the country."

"At Wittenberg

GREGORY WARNS OF VIOLENCE
UNLESS SYSTEM IS CHANGED

"Civil rights leader and comedian Dick Gregory told a Wittenberg University audience Wednesday night that the American system must change 'or we will burn the country house by house.'

"More than 1,400 Wittenberg students, professors and area residents were on hand to hear Gregory label America a racist society and call policemen 'America's new nigger.'

"'I didn't say the whites are racist. I mean both black and whites are racist. It was here when we got to this country but we're too sick to admit it,' he said.

"The 35-year-old Negro saw no hope for a peaceful summer, saying that Negroes are tired of the white man's insults and crime within the federal government.

"He said that nonviolence was a favor, not an obligation, because the 'Constitution spells out the right of men to carry a gun. We have the right to destroy the government if our rights are abused,' he charged.

"Gregory said he resented statements by Nobel Peace Prize winner Martin Luther King who advocates nonviolence among the Negro population. He said the right to be violent for a right purpose is a personal obligation.

"'Every time I demonstrate for my rights as a citizen, I hope it bugs America like it (America)

University, Springfield, Ohio,
January 24, 1968

bugged me. You haven't lived until you've seen a five-year-old hit in the mouth with a brick,' he said. 'You haven't lived until you see five-year-old girls in the same jail cell with lesbians in the South.'

"Dick Gregory's speaking engagement at the Wittenberg Field House was sponsored by the Wittenberg Union Board and several other school-affiliated groups. Some school authorities reported that he was paid about $1,000 for the hour-long blast on American society. Tickets were sold to the audience in advance.

"For the first half-hour, Gregory rallied the audience to spontaneous laughter and applause with commentary on U.S. policy in Southeast Asia, federal officials and social habits.

"'I've got a new book out,' he said. 'It's called "Nigger." And my ambition is to put a "Nigger" in every home of this country.'

"His serious comments found favor with many Negroes and whites alike in the crowd as he said his intentions were 'to discuss the symptoms' of the civil rights doctrine. Others in the room looked on with interest but applauded without enthusiasm.

"'The cop in this country is America's new Nigger today. It was society that made him dirt. He's underpaid and mistreated. Unlike the soldier, he doesn't even know he'll be shot. The federal government should pay the widow of a policeman $10,000 if he is killed,' Gregory said.

"He said that an increase in police salary would 'make a cop think twice about accepting a bribe. He'll then have something to lose.'

"Gregory recently ended a 32-day hunger strike-- protesting the Vietnam war--and lost 55 pounds.

He's back to his normal weight but still a disciplined vegetarian.

"He compared the 'black revolution in America' with the American Revolution against Great Britain.

"'Get a gun and burn the cities," Stokely
Carmichael says, and you ask yourself if he's crazy,' Gregory said. 'Well he's just as crazy as the revolutionaries in the colonies who fought the British.

"'They fought over tea, man. But don't tell me the colored folks aren't going to fight for their brethren,' he added.

"He said politicians don't talk about Black Power because it keeps the Democrats in office and the Republicans out. He said America has 'always been a hoodlum nation' and crime in the streets isn't as important as crime in the syndicates which 'is tolerated by our politicians.'

"Gregory said his write-in campaign for President is going well and he expects to draw not only Negro votes but also white votes because people are 'sick and tired of voting for the lesser of two evils.'

"He said earlier in Dayton that his civil rights efforts have left him $35,000 in debt.

"The St. Louis native said the northern white middle class population has no idea of the killings and civil injustices in the South 'but down there a cop is at least honest. He'll say, 'Nigger get off the street' instead of running around scared.'

"He challenged the Wittenberg audience to visit the South--but on the condition that each student take back a Negro to his white home. 'Let them really tell you what it's like down there,' he said. 'You're sittin' pretty in your suburbs.'

"He said riots have helped the cause of civil rights, adding 'Henry Ford hired 6,000 Negroes in two days, not because he understood the problem (in Detroit), but because the fire got too close to the Mustangs. You read about that. But did you know they were hired without even a job test?'"

On January 25, 1968, Chief of Police Isaac W. Hollowell advised a Special Agent of the FBI it was his understanding that Negro comedian Dick Gregory had left Springfield, Ohio, on the evening of January 24, 1968, after his talk at Wittenberg University. Chief of Police Hollowell advised there was no demonstration or any unlawful or disorderly activity prior to, during, or subsequent to Gregory's speech.

he had just received information that DICK GREGORY had apparently been extended an invitation to make a speech at the Student Union Building on the campus of the University be a two to three hour talk on "Black Power" and will be a question and answer type of speech. This invitation was extended to GREGORY by the Student Association Convocation Committee which received its money from the Student Government Committee at the University. GREGORY apparently is being paid $1,250 for this appearance by the Student Association Convocation Committee. It does not appear that he will stay overnight in Vermillion and it is unknown specifically concerning his arrival in the city.

The source revealed there apparently will be no protest actions taken by any groups on the campus at the University. There is no indication of any expected

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he had learned that the Producer of Television Documentaries for the British Broadcasting Company (BBC) had contacted Dick Gregory regarding the making of a documentary film in the United States during the Spring of 1968. The film would include Dick Gregory and Father Groppi as the BBC feels that their activities are of great importance and that any film about the United States should not fail to show the particular concern of Gregory and Groppi and have them express it. (U)

This documentary is to be broadcast on BBC television prior to the election of the President in the United States. (U)

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTERS

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 1-18-80 BY 2842/CW

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated January 11, 1968, captioned Richard Claxton Gregory,
Racial Matters.

On February 6, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory was scheduled to speak on February 6, 1968, at St. Mary's Gymnasium, St. Mary's University, San Antonio, Texas. Gregory was originally sponsored by the Cultural Activities Committee at St. Mary's University, which has since been dissolved. The Union Building is handling the affair, which is open to the public.

It was source's understanding that Gregory planned to leave San Antonio, Texas, early on February 7, 1968, for Connecticut.

The February 7, 1968, edition of the San Antonio Express, a daily San Antonio newspaper, contained an article which reflected in part that Negro activist Dick Gregory pledged in San Antonio on the night of February 6, 1968, that he and his will bring an insane America to her knees.

Gregory said he has as much right to burn an American flag as he has to touch a match to his own hair.

The article also pointed out that in a rambling fashion, sometimes witty and at other times volatile, he fascinated most of his audience for more than two hours by denouncing America, President Johnson, the Bill of Rights, the war in Vietnam, and what he calls "the dirty, trampy, white system."

ENCLOSURE

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The article also reflected Gregory said he is nonviolent but would tell nobody to be nonviolent.

On February 7, 1968, the above-mentioned confidential source advised that Gregory appeared at St. Mary's University on February 6, 1968, before an estimated crowd of 1200 persons. Source advised that Gregory warmed up the crowd using humor; that he broke the tension with humor. Source said Gregory used humor effectively as a speaking technique. He spoke about two hours and twenty minutes. Gregory was travelling alone and left San Antonio at 11:30 p.m., February 6, 1968, for Chicago. He was supposed to go to Amherst today.

According to source, there were no known incidents such as protesters or disturbances. St. Mary's University did receive numerous crank telephone calls protesting Gregory's appearance.

On February 7, 1968, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory left San Antonio, Texas, on [redacted] Flight No. 542 at 11:30 p.m., February 6, 1968. Gregory was to change to [redacted] Flight No. 530 in Dallas to arrive in Chicago at 5:23 a.m., February 7, 1968.

Dick Gregory's back in town and ready for political bout

WELL, FANS, be of good cheer. Dick Gregory has returned after a month-long stay in London and thereabouts. His new slim, starvation-diet figure was encased in a green jumpsuit, with matching pale green shirt and wide green velvet tie. Brown kid-laced-up boots graced his feet, and the whole bit was topped off with a worn green suede sports hat on his arrival at O'Hare Airport.

Beneath all this splendor, Dick hasn't changed a bit. He ran on about the United States being pagan, barbaric, etc., and proudly displayed his Dick Gregory for President button on the peace ticket of course.

We asked if, being for peace, he would support Sen. Eugene McCarthy. "Heck no. I'm not goin' to vote for nobody but my self, besides I don't trust politicians." We pointed out to Gregory that he, too, is a politician if he is running for President. "No, I'm not," he replied. "I'm a statesman. Politicians flex their muscles while statesmen flex their minds."

In London, Gregory opened a campaign office for Americans abroad to support his presidential campaign. During the trip, he also met with some North Vietnamese and proudly displayed a ring they gave him. It was made of silver and had 1900 inscribed on it. "These rings are made from downed U.S. planes, the number represents the number of U.S. planes the North Vietnamese managed to shoot down—it's a souvenir very common over there," Gregory said. "I plan to give it to my kids. It's the first time I ever got any of my tax money back," he added, toying with the ring.

As referenced cable indicates, subject departed London 12:15 PM, 2/5/68 for Chicago. [redacted] advised that when subject left London Airport he stated to the British Immigration Officer that he had spent all his time in England. This, of course, is not true as he made a trip of less than 24 hours duration from London to Zurich, Switzerland and return. There was no apparent reason why he should say what he did as the entrance and exit stamps would have been placed in his passport when he did depart for Zurich and returned to London. (U)

Enclosed are two copies of a clipping which appeared in the "Morning Star" of 2/3/68 indicating subject plans to enter politics as a Peace candidate in the forthcoming elections. In addition to subject appearing on a television broadcast on 1/26/68. [redacted]

GREGORY IS SERIOUS

American comedian Dick Gregory announced in London yesterday that he seriously intended to stand as the only Peace candidate in the United States elections.

He intends to travel to various countries in the course of his campaign to win the postal votes of Americans living abroad. Dick Gregory plans to start another 40-day fast, starting on Ash Wednesday and ending on Easter Sunday.

On Good Friday, he and his wife Lillian and six children are planning to picket the White House.

Richard Claxton Gregory, also known as Dick Gregory, is a nationally known Negro comedian active in civil rights movements, who recently stated that he would disrupt the National Democratic Convention in Chicago in August, 1968, unless certain demands made by him were met by local Chicago authorities.

On February 5, 1968, a confidential source advised that Gregory arrived at Chicago O'Hare Airport on this date at that Gregory usually has two Negroes with him as body guards. ~~(U)~~ (U)

Gregory was interviewed at the airport by Sally O'Hare, reporter for the "Chicago Daily News," a leading Chicago daily newspaper. Gregory advised her that he was enroute by commercial airlines to Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where he would be met by a private plane to take him to the place where he was to make a speech. He did not identify the location of this speech.

On February 5, 1968 a second confidential source advised that Gregory boarded flight 983 of [redacted] at O'Hare Airport at 5:15 p.m. on this date. He was alone. This flight was due to arrive at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, at 7:15 p.m. on this date, but was grounded enroute at Sioux City, Iowa, due to poor weather. ~~(U)~~ (U)

The January 24, 1968, edition of "The Ohio State Lantern," an officially recognized campus newspaper at Ohio State University (OSU), Columbus, Ohio, contained an article reporting an appearance of Richard Claxton Gregory, also known as Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, at Mershon Auditorium, OSU, the evening of January 23, 1968. The article, entitled, "Gregory Raps War, Racism," written by David Haglund, Lantern Staff Writer, is as follows:

"A funny man talked about some unfunny things Tuesday night at Mershon Auditorium.

"He talked about a 5 year old Negro boy being hit in the mouth with a brick while trying to remove segregation bars from an elementary school in Greenwood, Miss.

"He talked about a nation engaged in a war to free a far-off population in a far-off land, but not guaranteeing democracy for millions of its own citizens.

"And when he had finished, Negro comedian and civil rights activist Dick Gregory had more than 3,000 people on their feet, applauding a speech that ran the gamut from killing in Detroit to killing in Saigon.

Association's 'Little Man in a Big, Big World' series, said the primary problem facing the United States 'is not air pollution, but moral pollution!'

"'America is the world's number one racist country, bar none,' he charged. 'I did not say America's white folks, because when we realize that black folks are Americans, too, we gonna have to admit there's a lot of white folks and black folks that are racists.'

"He blamed the American system for nurturing this atmosphere of racial hatred. 'There's no way to talk about America today without talking about violence.'

"'That's why white folks get so upset when they hear the words black power,' Gregory continued, 'because they know what white power is: bombs, hand-grenades, and police dogs.'

"Gregory, at times impassioned, at times violent, and frequently comical, traced the roots of city violence to the role of the policeman.

"'The policeman is America's new nigger,' he said. 'He's the most under-payed, under-respected man in America today. The system is misusing him, so he's misusing the poor folk.'

"Warns of Revolution

"Gregory warned of social revolution in the United States if America's youth do not succeed in 'doing the job we should have done when we were coming through.'

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"'We don't hate you as white folks,' he said, 'we hate your system. That's not war, that's revolt, and you don't stop revolt with numbers.'

"'America's racial pregnancy is just about over, and the baby's gonna fall even if it brings death to the mother and the child.'

"Gregory, 35, said he would run for President this year to give the voter dissatisfied with the Democratic or Republican candidate a chance to express himself."

Appearing on the front page next to the Gregory article was his photograph, with the following appearing underneath: "Mayor Warned - Dick Gregory, at a press conference before his Mershon speech, threatens to disrupt this summer's Democratic convention in Chicago. 'I can do more in Chicago than Mayor Daley can,' Gregory said. 'He can't get five people to demonstrate in front of my house.'"

A review of the two daily newspapers in general circulation at Columbus, Ohio, editions of January 23, 1968, disclosed no reference to the Gregory appearance.

[redacted] Sioux Falls, South Dakota, advised on February 6, 1968, he had received information from his office at Sioux City, Iowa, to the effect Richard Gregory, together with two other male persons, would arrive at Sioux City, Iowa, via [redacted] Flight 983 at about 7:00 P. M. on February 5, 1968. There was no indication that any woman was present with the trio.

In addition to Gregory, one of the person's name was [redacted] and the other person's name, which was illegible, appeared to be [redacted]. Both gave their residence as Chicago, Illinois. These three persons rented a car in Sioux City, Iowa, presumably from Hertz Rent-A-Car. They gave no hotel contacts in Sioux City.

Early in the morning of February 6, 1968, Richard Gregory boarded [redacted] Flight 982 at 7:03 A. M., which flight was destined to arrive Chicago, Illinois, at 8:10 A. M. The other two individuals who had arrived at Sioux City, Iowa, the previous evening were not with Gregory on his departure to Chicago on the morning of February 6, 1968.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Dick Gregory appeared for a previously arranged speaking engagement at the Lacoda Dining Hall, University of South Dakota, Vermillion, South Dakota, at about 8:30 P. M. on the evening of February 5, 1968. About 900 persons were present to hear him. The crowd consisted mostly of white students from the University of South Dakota. The audience listened politely with some applause and there was no heckling during the lengthy talk. His comments carried an occasional profane word, however, he did not appear to be particularly radical or abusive. The context of his speech dealt with such matters as the plight of the Southern Negro and the substandard conditions of the South Dakota Indians. He did not dwell very much on the war in Vietnam and surprisingly stated he did not believe in draft dodging but felt more consideration should be given to legitimate conscientious objectors. ~~(S)~~ (U)

In respect to his personal plans, Dick Gregory said he was going to go on another hunger fast in the near future and intended to be a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. He pointed out when he goes to the White House to take office, he will arrange to have the White House painted black.

Gregory was very well received by the audience present. There were no incidents of disorder or violence nor did it appear Gregory had made any seditious statements. His speech was taped by Station WNAX of Yankton, South Dakota.

It was believed Gregory did not remain in the city of Vermillion, South Dakota, during the night of February 5-6, 1968, but had returned to Sioux City, Iowa, that same night.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On Sunday, February 11, 1968, Richard Claxton Gregory, also known as Dick Gregory, appeared on the campus of Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, in connection with Negro History Week at Ohio University, scheduled for February 9 through February 17, 1968. Gregory is a Negro comedian - entertainer and civil rights activist who has been arrested on numerous occasions relative to his civil rights activity.

Other speakers scheduled to appear at the university during Negro History Week include Floyd McKissick, Executive Director of the Congress for Racial Equality (CORE), and John Wooten, Cleveland Browns football guard who is Executive Secretary of the Negro Economic and Industrial Union, followed by Cleveland Browns teammate, Jim Brown, Cleveland, Ohio.

Gregory appeared in Memorial Auditorium on the university campus, Athens, Ohio, at 3:00 PM on February 11, 1968, speaking on "Civil Rights and Black Power".

The following newspaper articles appeared in "The Post", student newspaper, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, on February 12, 1968:

"Gregory Views Freedom; Pledges Fast" by Clarence

Page;

"Telling It Like It Is" by Deena Mirow; and

"The Post" editorial, "Black Truth".

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On February 14, 1968, Captain [redacted] Amsterdam, New York, Police Department, advised that RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY fulfilled his speaking engagement on the evening of February 12, 1968, at the Wilber Lynch High School, Amsterdam, New York. Subject was sponsored by the Student Activities Committee of the Fulton-Montgomery Community College, headquartered in Johnstown, N. Y. Subject allegedly received $1,000 for the speech which was attended by approximately 450 to 500 individuals, mostly in the college age group.

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that subject gave what appeared to be a prepared speech and referred to notes during the process. Subject seemed to hold the attention of the audience in his condemnation of President Johnson, the role of the United States in Vietnam and the lack of public concern for the Negro and their problems.

b6

Subject apparently lost this audience support when he started condemning the American flag. Subject in effect stated that if he bought an American flag that it was his, his very own, that he could do with it what he wanted and that he could even burn it. He stated that the American flag was nothing but a rag. He stated that the Americans put too much value on their flag and cited as an example that in England they do not have such feelings. To prove his point he displayed a shopping bag made out of a British flag.

Subject also commented on the fact that the United States is not paying enough money to fight organized crime. The U.S. is spending all of its money on foreign aid and in fighting the war in Vietnam. GREGORY stated that the people in Vietnam do not want our type of democracy which we are trying to shove down their throats. For this reason, we should get out of Vietnam.

Captain [ ] advised that the meeting was orderly and that approximately two thirds of the audience left after the speech and before subject held an open question and answer session.

b6
b7C

He advised there were no disorderly incidents either inside or outside of the auditorium.

On February 14, 1968, [ ] Investigator, Montgomery County Sheriff's Office, Fonda, New York, also advised that the meeting was orderly and presented no problem. He stated that those present clapped when they agreed on a point made by subject and that those who did not merely sat still.

GREGORY, nationally known as a night club entertainer, is a civil rights activist who publicly endorses civil disobedience and militant type action by Negroes under the auspices of the civil rights movement. GREGORY, in a recent speech at Wittenberg University, Springfield, Ohio, warned that the American system must change "or we will burn the country house by house."

GREGORY has also publicly denounced the policies of the United States in Viet Nam. In August, 1967, during a speech in Atlanta, Georgia, GREGORY urged his audience to "paralyze the economy" in this country in order to stop the war in Viet Nam. In this respect he suggested a boycott of the automobile industry. He further urged his audience "to disrupt telephone service in an effort to inconvenience organizations having a hand in the national defense."

GREGORY has threatened to disrupt the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago in August, 1968. He has issued a series of five demands to Chicago's Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY warning that if these demands are not met by the Chicago city administration, the Democratic Convention will be held in Chicago only over "my dead body."

APPEARANCE OF RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY
DE LAND, FLORIDA, March 18, 1968
RACIAL MATTERS

On February 8, 1968, [redacted]
John B. Stetson University, advised a representative of the FBI that Richard Claxton Gregory, also known as Dick Gregory, was invited some months ago by members of the Student Government at John B. Stetson University, DeLand, Florida, to appear as a guest entertainer and he, Gregory, did accept for March 18, 1968.

b6
b7C

According to [redacted] Gregory's appearance at John B. Stetson University in DeLand, Florida, will be in connection with so-called political emphasis week at the University.

b6
b7C

According to [redacted] individual students at Stetson University contributed the money requested by Gregory for his appearance there. [redacted] further emphasized that the school did not in any way solicit these contributions from the students at Stetson University.

[redacted] advised that from what he understood, Gregory was originally invited to Stetson University as a regular entertainer.

b6
b7C

[redacted] added that in all probability the Union Hall at Stetson University will be provided for Gregory's appearance.

Dear

I have received your letter of February 13th and appreciate the concern which prompted you to write.

You may be assured the FBI, which is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government, is aware of the activities of the person you mentioned and any information obtained which might indicate a violation of Federal law over which this Bureau has investigative jurisdiction is furnished to the United States Department of Justice for prosecutive consideration. However, under no circumstances will this Bureau ever engage in harassment or intimidation in carrying out its responsibilities.

I thought you might like to know that the only Federal law which makes it a violation to desecrate or improperly use the National flag is in the District of Columbia. I might add, however, there are several bills currently pending before Congress which would make desecration of our flag anywhere in the United States a violation of Federal law.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Bufiles contain no record identifiable with correspondent. Our files indicate Gregory has made numerous vicious attacks against the Director and the Bureau and there are indications that he is demented and mentally unbalanced. He has supported the Black Muslims and injected himself into Negro movements. He has also espoused causes and individuals closely associated with the Communist movement. He has recently been on a speaking tour throughout the country and we have been closely following his activities and keeping the Department advised.

Some of his statements were that the American flag was "a dirty rag" and that he has a right to burn the American flag if he has a desire to do so. I can only presume that he has made many other statements, both here and in lectures elsewhere, that would turn the stomach of any good American who has a love for his country and the flag that waves over it.

Not only do I feel that Dick Gregory should be punished for his crimes, and I consider his statements to be a crime, but I feel that any school or organization that permits Dick Gregory the freedom of their campus or property to continue his treasonable remarks should be investigated, harassed and intimidated by the F.B.I. until he would no longer be welcome to speak anywhere.

Appearance of Richard Claxton Gregory,
Also known as Dick Gregory;

March 18, 1968

On February 20, 1968, [redacted]

[redacted] DeLand, Florida, advised that at approximately 5:30 PM on that date some 300 people, which included a few newspaper reporters, but mostly students of the university, and a few faculty members of the university, had assembled in the Stetson Room located on campus and had heard Dr. Paul Garen as the first speaker.

According to [redacted] Dr. Garen explained to the assembly that prior to his assuming the presidency of the university, arrangements had been concluded by a student group at the university for Dick Gregory to appear as a speaker on March 18, 1968. He then pointed out that he assumed everyone was aware of the fact that the trustees of the university had met and had decided to cancel Gregory's appearance there on March 18, 1968, for the reasons given as being in the best interest of the university, as well as the community. He then emphasized although he would have possibly personally agreed to allow Gregory to have appeared, he felt that everyone should now support the trustees' decision.

According to [redacted] John Welch, President, Student Government, above university, was the next speaker and he said in essence that where he did not personally agree with the decision of the trustees in this matter, he too, sincerely felt that everyone should now support their decision.

On February 16, 1968, [REDACTED] John B. Stetson University, DeLand, Florida, advised that there had been a lengthy meeting of the Administrative Executive Board of the university held on the evening of February 15, 1968. This meeting had concerned itself with the scheduled appearance of Dick Gregory at the university on March 18, 1968. It was tentatively decided at the meeting to permit Gregory's appearance, which had been the result of an invitation of a student group, subject to the development of further information bearing upon the potential consequences of such a visit. [REDACTED] advised that the Board of Trustees of the university were scheduled to have a regularly scheduled meeting on February 16, 1968, at which meeting Gregory's scheduled appearance might be further considered.

b6
b7c

The Daytona Beach News Journal, Daytona Beach, Florida, contained a news item in its February 18, 1968, issue reflecting that at the request of the Stetson University Trustees, the Stetson Union Board has cancelled the March 18 appearance of Dick Gregory on the campus. It was reported that this announcement was made by the Stetson news bureau after a meeting of trustees of the university. The item related that the news bureau said that Jeff Ledewitz, President of the student group which booked Gregory, had contacted the comedian's agent to make the cancellation. Ledewitz was reported to have told Gregory's agent that the action was taken at the request of the trustees and that student officers involved in the invitation were acting in response to that request.

On January 31, 1968, Detective [redacted], Teaneck, New Jersey, Police Department, who is in charge of security on the Teaneck, New Jersey, campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University, advised that the subject was scheduled to appear on the Teaneck campus on Thursday, February 15, 1968, at 10:00 a.m. He stated that this information was made available to him by the Director of Student Activities on the campus. b6 b7C

On February 15, 1968, Detective [redacted], Teaneck, New Jersey, Police Department, advised that the subject arrived on the Teaneck campus of Fairleigh Dickinson University on that date at 9:55 a.m. He first spoke to approximately 450 to 500 students in the gymnasium. He spoke there for approximately 50 minutes and then went to the student commons room where he answered questions posed by the students. In all, he was at the school for approximately three hours and his appearance was covered by the press and CBS-TV. b6 b7C

Detective [redacted] stated that the subject in his remarks spoke of conditions in the ghetto areas in the country, of the riots that have resulted, of the need for higher paid policemen, and stated that his position on rioting is that of a nonviolent Baptist pacifist. b6 b7C

Detective [redacted] stated that the students were polite in their treatment of the subject, silent on issues raised by the subject where they were obviously in disagreement, and that no disturbances occurred. He also stated that the subject did not indicate where he was scheduled to go after leaving Fairleigh Dickinson University and Teaneck, New Jersey.

The "Record", a Hackensack, New Jersey, daily newspaper, which covers Teaneck, New Jersey, in their February 16, 1968, issue carried a photograph of the subject as he appeared at the university and an article written by Roger Beirne, staff writer. The article titled "Racists' Democracy Stinks, Gregory Fumes" attributed the following remarks to the subject:

"If Negro ghettos stink and are contemptible, it is not the Negroes who stink and are contemptible. It is democracy, as practiced by racists, that you are smelling. The smell at Dachau was not of the Jews, but of Nazism.

"The law of the land should be changed to all whites are born equal. South Africa can stand on its racist attitude with honesty since that country has no law saying everyone is born equal.

"The President came to Washington as a poor, young Baptist high school teacher of 26. Today he is a multi-millionaire and TV station owner."

Richard Claxton Gregory

An article, appearing in "The New York Times" dated February 28, 1968, Final Edition, page 5, reported that Dick Gregory held a press conference on the afternoon of February 27, 1968, at the Village Gate, New York City. At this conference, Gregory announced a 40 day fast in protest of the United States involvement in the war in Viet Nam. He asked that young people give up smoking so that the government would lose tax revenues and be forced to reconsider its war policies.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY spoke to more than 2,000 persons in East Stroudsburg State College's Koehler field house February 15, 1968.

The source further advised GREGORY, attired in a tight blue denim suit and yellow shirt, labled the American system as "sick" and "insane". The source stated GREGORY called America's number one problem a "moral problem" and the United States the number one racist country in the world. The source said GREGORY told the college students they should not feel guilty about racism because they inherited it.

The source said GREGORY referred to H. RAP BROWN and STOKELY CARMICHAEL as "two young cats who have scared the USA to death and neither one owns a missile. BROWN had nerve enough to be as bitter as PATRICK HENRY." The source said GREGORY quoted H. RAP BROWN as saying "Get a gun and watch the police," was not original; "PAUL REVERE said, "Get a gun, white folks, the British are coming."

The source stated GREGORY several times blasted Russia but not once did he mention Communist China.

The source advised GREGORY, in comparing today's and yesterday's Negroes said, "Twenty years ago Blacks had empty stomachs; today, they have full stomachs but hungry minds."

The source stated GREGORY talked like a man who hates his country but he does not look it, he does not act it, and it just is not possible to imagine that the hate is sincere. Once past his delivery of comedy, GREGORY stops being a first-class salesman. To rate attention beyond a laugh, he apparently must do something flashy. This he has done by first cancelling some night club appearances to help lead a march in Alabama and more recently to announce a hunger strike of forty days.

Mabley's report:

Dick Gregory came, spoke and conquered

By Jack Mabley

DICK GREGORY IS talking to the college students of America. "That's where the action is, and nobody knows it," said Gregory.

When you ask the whereabouts of this radical Chicagoan, you learn he is on a "college tour," which sounds innocuous enough.

Gregory is the most brilliant speaker I've heard in 30 years of listening to speakers. I'm not talking about the content of his talks, but about the mechanics of his delivery, his voice, his projection, his skill with words, his persuasiveness.

He is delivering his message of revolt "against this sick and insane system" to no less than a thousand college students a day, from one coast to the other. He is paid $1,000 for most appearances. In the next 80 days he will speak before 90 campus audiences ranging up to 5,000 students, faculty members, and others.

And he is reaching them. Most of them walk into the hall hating the draft, hating the war, contemptuous of the President's policies. And these audiences are not hippies or beatniks. They are young, middle class Americans.

AN INFORMED PERSON should know what Dick Gregory is telling our college students. I stood in the back of the Kendall college auditorium in Evanston for 3½ hours Thursday night. I had to stand because I arrived at 2 minutes after 8 and every seat was filled and kids were lining the walls and backed out into the halls. I thought only Castro could hold an audience 3½ hours and Castro needs a gun to do it.

"Two college students burned their draft cards, and it took Congress two weeks to pass a law making it illegal to burn a draft card," Gregory shouted. "We waited one hundred years for a law to make lynching illegal. The white system puts more value on 2 pieces of cardboard than on my mother's life—AND WE ARE GOING TO TAKE THIS COUNTRY APART, HOUSE BY HOUSE, BRICK BY BRICK!"

The students cheered.

"Suppose my daddy had been killed in 1942 fighting the Nazis. That would have meant I would have grown up without a father. But now, in 1968, the same Nazi that killed my daddy could come to America and live in a place where I can't live! You wonder why we're mad?"

Gregory was dressed in work clothes, and wore a mustache and scraggly beard. "I have made a vow," he said, "that I am not going to have my hair cut, or shave, or wear anything but work clothes, until the war in Viet Nam is stopped.

"SO I TRAVEL around the country and I like to stay in a decent hotel and eat in a decent restaurant but my friends say, 'Greg, they won't let you in places dressed like that.' And I say, 'Brother, if I can't get in dressed like this, then neither can my brothers fighting in Viet Nam, with their shirts covered with mud and sweat, and dried blood caked on their arms.'"

The Kendall students gave him an ovation.

They applauded when he violently attacked communism, and Russia and China supplying bullets, guns and planes which are killing our soldiers. They cheered when he said the most important people in America are our policemen and firemen, and the students should dedicate themselves to seeing these men get the security and dignity of $10,000 salaries.

"I am a non-violent, vegetarian pacifist," said Gregory. "I am opposed to violence. But that's my hangup. I can't tell Rap and Stokely they should be against violence. I'm a vegetarian. I think it's wrong to kill animals. But I won't knock a steak from your hands.

"I fasted for 40 days. Baby, did I get the hate mail then. One I'd like to read you. Did this man hate! It starts: 'Dear Sir: This is to inform you that for dinner today I had baked chicken and gravy ...'

"MAYBE YOU REMEMBER I smoked a lot — 6, 7 packs a day. About 6 weeks ago I got to thinking, a lot of my money for cigarets is going to the government, and they're using that money to buy napalm. And I decided I was going to stop smoking, and I did.

"Would you like to hurt yourselves a little? Would you be willing to stop smoking until they end the war? Make 'em hurt just a little more? 'Cause one you stop, maybe you won't start again, and we can get them cats in the cigaret business to start carrying signs to end the war before they go broke."

The Kendall students gave Gregory a standing ovation when he stopped. He got home at 1 a. m., caught a plane for Atlanta at 7 Friday morning, flew later to Mississippi, and wound up Friday night in New York City. He made a speech at each stop.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Dick Gregory is the Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist who is also well known for his outspoken denunciation of the United States Vietnam war policies. Gregory has also threatened to disrupt the Democratic National Convention to be held in Chicago in August, 1968.

Re Cincinnati airtel to Bureau, 1/29/68, with enclosed LHM and Cincinnati letter to Bureau, 2/13/68.

On 2/1/68, [redacted] Merchor Auditorium, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, made available to SA [redacted] three reels of tape (which are enclosed) he said contain the entire speech made by DICK GREGORY at the auditorium on 1/23/68. He advised he did not want the tape returned and that the FBI could have it for whatever use it deemed advisable. This tape is being enclosed for the Bureau's information.

The last reel #3 of the tape consists of a question and answer period after GREGORY's speech. A review of the tape at the Cincinnati Division reveals comments made by GREGORY fellow very closely to the remarks he made previously at a speech at Wittenberg University at Springfield, Ohio on 1/24/68. The text of this speech was set out in referenced LHM.

In these tapes GREGORY makes numerous references in a derogatory manner to "LBJ" as well as Senator ROBERT KENNEDY, Governor RONALD REAGAN, Governor NELSON ROCKEFELLER of New York.

GREGORY also makes several favorable references to STOKELY CARMICHAEL and H. RAPP BROWN.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated January 3, 1968.

On February 28, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he recently learned that in January, 1968, Dick Gregory stated that he had received $50,000 from Bertrand Russell, the English pacifist-philosopher, who conducted mock war trials in Copenhagen condemning United States policy in Vietnam. Gregory indicated that the purpose of the money was to finance a Negro movement directed against the Democratic National Convention scheduled to be held in Chicago during August, 1968. Gregory further indicated they planned to use this money to pay for the transportation of as many Negroes as will come to Chicago to participate in this movement. Gregory also planned to purchase large quantities of food staples to help feed this group. Ralph Schoenman, Secretary to Bertrand Russell, was in Chicago during January, 1968, to help Gregory make arrangements for the temporary housing of this group. (U)

This source advised that in February, 1968, Gregory indicated that he had purchased 36,000 pounds of beans, prunes and coffee and had stored these items in a warehouse located on Chicago's South Side. Concerning demonstrations during the Democratic Convention, Gregory disclosed plans to have simultaneous demonstrations at various locations miles away from the Convention site, for the purpose of attempting to pull police units from the Convention area. In the immediate area of the International Amphitheatre, the actual Convention site, approximately 150 militants armed with guns, knives and other equipment, placed in strategic positions will create a violent demonstration. Referring to Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daly, Gregory stated, "I got that white man worried; he is really afraid of me." ~~(U)~~

Dick Gregory is a Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist who has threatened to disrupt activities of the Democratic National Convention.

On February 28, 1968, a second confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he learned that [ ] who is active in Chicago's Puerto Rican community, stated recently that plans are being made to disrupt the forthcoming Democratic National Convention by means of demonstrations to be held three days before the actual beginning of the Convention. [ ] feels that police security will not be as intensive at this time as it will be when the Convention actually convenes. In this way, greater impact will be made on Convention delegates who will be arriving in Chicago during this period. [ ] expects that delegates will have time to react to such demonstrations and translate their reaction to their activities during the Convention. ~~(U)~~

HOPE COLLEGE,
HOLLAND, MICHIGAN
3/7/68
RM
(OO: DETROIT)

Re Detroit airtel to the Bureau, dated 3/4/68.

Enclosed for the Bureau are 11 copies of an LHM setting forth data regarding the above-captioned appearance.

2 copies of this LHM are being disseminated to Secret Service, Grand Rapids, Mich. and G-2, Detroit, Mich. and one copy to USA, Grand Rapids.

For additional information of the Bureau, Detective [redacted] advised that in his estimation, the people who attended or heard GREGORY's talk at Hope College on 3/7/68 who are residents of Holland, Mich., were upset about his appearance at the college and that he feels the local population will be critical of college officials for sponsoring the appearance.

Re: Scheduled Appearance of Dick Gregory at Hope
College, Holland, Michigan
March 7, 1968

Re Detroit memorandum dated March 4, 1968.

On March 8, 1968, Detective [redacted] Holland, Michigan, Police Department, advised that Negro comedian Dick Gregory spoke at Dimnent Memorial Chapel on the campus of Hope College, Holland, Michigan, from 8:15 PM to approximately 10:00 PM on March 7, 1968, as part of a three-day program sponsored by the college captioned "The Crisis in Our Cities". Detective [redacted] advised that the chapel where this talk was held was filled to capacity and that closed circuit television was employed to cover Gregory's talk for additional audience in two adjacent buildings. Detective [redacted] estimated that approximately 2,000 persons heard or saw Gregory on the campus and that in excess of 95 per cent of the persons in attendance were of the Caucasian race. He said there was no violence, demonstrations, or other incidents prior to, during, or after Gregory's talk.

b7C

Detective [redacted] advised that the talk given by Mr. Gregory was critical of the United States Government's policy and position in the Vietnam conflict and critical of the current United States administration's policies in general. He decried the ghetto conditions existing in the American cities, indicating the Negro is forced to live in slum conditions and that money spent on the Vietnam war could be better used to solve domestic problems existing in United States cities.

b6
b7C

Detective [redacted] said Mr. Gregory remarked in effect that the United States Government was more afraid of H. Rap Brown and Stokeley Carmichael, officers or former officers of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, than it was of the Russians.

Re: Scheduled Appearance of Dick Gregory at Hope
College, Holland, Michigan
March 7, 1968

Detective [ ] said Gregory remarked that the Negro in the United States has been downtrodden and victimized for generations and whereas in the past he was pacified by food for his stomach, he now has a full stomach, but he will have to satisfy his mind.

b6
b7C

Detective [ ] stated that the entire tone of Gregory's talk was critical of the conditions under which the Negro lives in the United States and critical of all current policies of the United States Government, although he made no specific recommendations for change.

b6
b7C

Detective [ ] advised that there was no question and answer period after the talk and that Gregory was believed to have left Holland, Michigan, immediately after his talk, possibly for travel to Chicago, Illinois, via Grand Rapids, Michigan.

RACIAL MATTER

In January, 1968, Dick Gregory, whose identity is known to your office, stated that he had received $50,000 from Bertrand Russell, the English pacifist-philosopher. Gregory indicated that the purpose of the money was to finance a Negro movement directed against the Democratic National Convention scheduled to be held in Chicago in August, 1968.

Gregory has publicly declared his intention of disrupting the above convention.

Through your sources, you are requested to attempt to develop information as to whether Russell did or did not finance Gregory in the amount of $50,000.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Detective [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Des Moines, Iowa, Police Department, on March 15, 1968, advised that the National Affairs Committee of the Drake University Student-Faculty Council sponsored a two-week program on "Riots: Analysis and Alternatives". This program, which began on March 5, 1968, featured a number of prominent speakers, including Richard Claxton Gregory, who spoke on "black power" at Drake University on the afternoon of March 14, 1968.

b6
b7C

Detective [redacted] advised that he attended the speeches and that during the speeches Gregory talked about forthcoming demonstrations in Chicago. Gregory stated that he would have demonstrators marching twelve hours a day, then twenty-four hours a day, and that these marches would eventually paralyze the city. When police could not cope with the situation, the "soldiers" would then be called out. Gregory said that calling the "soldiers" out would look bad in the eyes of the world and that this will cost the country about ten million dollars to hold the Democratic National Convention in Chicago. Gregory also remarked during his speech that some banks would be robbed and stores looted while the demonstrations were taking place.

b6
b7C

Detective [redacted] said that there were no racial incidents in Des Moines as a result of Gregory's appearance at Drake University.

b6

According to the March 15, 1968, edition of the Des Moines Register, in an article captioned "Gregory: I'd Bring Boys Home, Send L.B.J. with Barbecue Gun", Gregory when asked at the news conference about his plans to disrupt Chicago, Illinois, during the Democratic National Convention in August, said he hopes to have fifty to sixty groups "going out in different directions and paralyzing the police. They will make them bring the army in and that will cost the country ten million." Gregory said he plans the protest "because Chicago is one of the last cities in the world that

Also, according to the article, Gregory in his afternoon speech, which lasted one hour and forty minutes, said that if elected President, "The first thing I'd do is paint the White House black. Then I'd bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send Lyndon Johnson - with nothing but a barbecue gun. And I'd have Eartha Kitt call him up every day and say we're working on peace feelers, baby." ) )

Comic With a Cause Dick Gregory Assumes Solitary, Costly Role As a Rights Activist

He Alarms Some Old Fans, Passes Up Club Bookings;
Peace Is Newest Passion

A Vow to 'Bug You to Death'

By DAVID GARINO

Staff Reporter of THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

CHICAGO—When the time comes, write this epitaph for Richard Claxton Gregory: He Put His Money Where His Mouth Was.

Dick Gregory won't be needing a tombstone just yet, of course. He's very much alive and living in Chicago—when he isn't demonstrating for open housing in Milwaukee or telling it like it is, baby, to collegians in Latrobe, Pa. Still, the description fits.

Many people still think of the 35-year-old Negro as a full-time comedian and part-time civil rights activist. Actually, it's now the other way around, and the switch has cost the comic dearly.

Five years ago he was raking in $5000 a week and driving a new Lincoln Continental. Even Southerners roared when he told the one about the waitress in the Dixie restaurant (Waitress: "We don't serve colored people here." Gregory: "That's OK, I don't eat colored people. Bring me a whole fried chicken.").

Today, Dick Gregory is some $35,000 in debt and doesn't own a car. What's more, he isn't nearly as funny to a lot of people; some call him demagogue now. But none of this

"Dick has given more of himself than anyone I know."

But there is puzzlement among some who wonder what Mr. Gregory hopes to achieve in his lone wolf role. Though he contributes a great deal of time and money to various civil rights causes he represents no organization and thus has no solid base. It can't be said that his efforts have resulted in passage of a single law or ordinance that might help his people. He has some influence, no power.

Ted Determan, his former publicist, says, Dick Gregory is "the best satirical comedian this country ever had." Along with others, he thinks Mr. Gregory could make a greater contribution to civil rights by "keeping us laughing at ourselves."

But Dick Gregory himself says pressing social problems can't be laughed out of existence. He views himself as a social commentator who uses humor to interpret the needs and wants of Negroes to the white community, rather than as a comedian who happens to deal in topical social material.

He says he is trying to become a "militant but humble" civil rights spokesman, filling a vacuum between the Rev. Martin Luther King ("humble but not militant") and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee ("militant but not humble"). He is pressuring the white community into action now; clad in battered hat, denim jeans and jacket and suede shoes, he is often to be seen marching in Milwaukee, where civil rights forces led by a white Catholic priest, Father James Groppi, have been demonstrating daily for passage of an open housing ordinance.

But he is equally interested in the long-haul job—reeducating people and reshaping their attitudes on the race issue. His emphasis is on youth; he has undertaken a rigorous lecture tour that will take him to scores of colleges within the next few months. He is paid for these appearances ($1,000 is a common fee), but his total income from this source, while high by usual standards, doesn't approach what he could be making as a comedian.

He treats his audiences to 15 minutes of humor for a starter. "I have this Arab friend," he says, "who kept telling me how the Arabs would wipe out the Jews. After the war I called him and said: 'What happened, baby? We held out in Watts longer than you did over there.'" After that, he takes a more serious tack, though he uses barbed witticisms to make his points. Some of his public statements, at colleges and elsewhere, shock. Gasps are heard

He will not criticize the militant advocates of black power. "Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael taught me nonviolence," he says, "but then they saw the same rat that bit a baby five years ago bite another one today."

In his forthcoming book, he declares: "When America heard Martin Luther King speaking nonviolence she was temporarily relieved because 'turn the other cheek' sounded better than 'an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' But the failure to respond to 'turn the other cheek' has produced the 'eye for an eye' revolution." Elsewhere, he has said: "There is nothing in the rules which says the Negro must be nonviolent. Nonviolence is a favor, not an obligation."

One "myth" he seeks to dispel is the claim that violence has done nothing but harm to Negroes. "It sickens me to admit it," says Mr. Gregory, "but violence has helped." He notes that in some cities racial disturbances have been followed immediately by improvements in recreational and other facilities serving the ghetto.

As for Mr. Gregory, he prefers the boycott to the riot as a tactical weapon. He has encouraged use of it in Milwaukee, among other places. He views the boycott as a "substitute brick" for the frustrated ghetto dweller, observing: "People will get mad at boycotts, but afterwards buildings will still be standing, firemen won't be getting shot and Negroes won't be dead."

Mr. Gregory also recommends that the entire war on poverty be removed from political control and turned over to colleges and universities for administration. In this way, he reasons, the best brains in the country would play a decisive part in shaping antipoverty efforts. "To close the missile gap we went out and bought the best minds we could. The Congressmen realized they didn't have the education and the understanding," he says. The same thing should be done to close the social and economic gap between Negroes and whites, he believes.

Though he differs from the more radical black militants in several ways, he is at one with them in his contempt for gradualism—the step-by-step approach to Negro-white equality. A driving sense of impatience runs through all his commentary on civil rights; time and again, he lambasts the establishment for what he believes is a distorted set of priorities.

"They tell us they can't get rid of rats," he says in apparent reference to Congressional shillyshallying over a rat-control measure. The same people talking who got rid seems to bother him much; after all, he chose the rôle he plays now, that of the most prominent lone wolf in the civil rights movement.

The transition began in 1962. Late that year when he was in Jackson, Miss., he says he was stunned by the case of a 78-year-old Negro man who was jailed during a voter registration drive. The man's wife died while he was imprisoned—on the first night the old man ever had spent away from home. About then, says Mr. Gregory, he began to wonder if he "really had it made" when so many of his people were suffering.

His involvement in civil rights grew. Using jets the way most people use taxis, he crisscrossed the country, going where the action was. He marched in demonstrations north and south. He was hurt trying to cool the Watts riot. He saw many a fall from the inside.

Mounting Debts

He had less and less time for nightclub dates, TV and other lucrative engagements. His advisers urged him to pay more attention to business, less to rushing around the country, but he brushed off their counsel. His debts mounted as his income shrank.

Mr. Gregory's manager, Ralph Mann, estimates that the comic is giving up $100,000 to $200,000 a year in bookings because of his civil rights activities. Much of this is lost because Mr. Gregory simply isn't available to work a good deal of the time. In other cases, says Mr. Mann, his client's outspokenness in behalf of civil rights has caused "major TV variety shows" to reject him. Mr. Mann won't say which shows.

Creditors began to get tough. American Airlines revoked his credit card privileges because of an unpaid bill of $8,000. It would be difficult for most people to roll up a tab so huge, but not Dick Gregory; two years ago he flew round trip daily for a month from a nightclub job at the hungry i in San Francisco to Chicago, where he participated in demonstrations against Benjamin Willis, then superintendent of schools. Also, he had his telephone service cut off. It was restored upon payment of $3,000, says the phone company.

What's Money?

Mr. Gregory has a supreme contempt for matters monetary and admits he's no canny manager of his own financial affairs. "When America gets out of debt, so will I," he says breezily. Actually, he's better off now than he was awhile ago, when he owed a grand total of roughly $200,000.

Dick Gregory's financial sacrifices earn him the deep respect of a number of people. "If I had his talent, which I don't, I'm not sure I'd have the courage to do what he did," says Bernard Kleinhman, the comedian's lawyer. Father James Jones, a white Episcopalian priest in Roanoke, Va., and a friend, says:

riots were legal, sanctioned by the Declaration of Independence, which, says Mr. Gregory, obligates people to overthrow the government if their inalienable rights are violated. He also raises hackles when he calls America the "number one racist country in the world."

Not long ago he created a flurry of ill-feeling, plus puzzled queries and complaints from Jewish friends, when he commented on anti-Semitism among Negroes. He said: "Every hip Jew in America over 30 knows another Jew who doesn't like niggers. So when you find some niggers who don't like Jews—well, that's just even, baby."

All this has given Mr. Gregory a reputation in some quarters as a bit of an anti-Semite, a rabble-rouser and a black power militant. But many who have watched his career closely insist he is none of these. George O'Hare, a friend who is a merchandising manager with Sears, Roebuck & Co., says: "Dick sometimes uses the volatile statement as shock treatment in order to get people to think."

Actually, Dick Gregory is a thoroughgoing integrationist, among other things. Everywhere he tells his audiences, be they collegians or business executives, "This (the racial problem) is not a question of black against white but right against wrong." He tells a reporter: "When I stop being your Negro friend and become just your friend, then we'll have a thing going." He is not interested in Negroes' exercising their rights in a black society but in an integrated society.

He remains an advocate of nonviolence. To predominantly white audiences, he declares: "I will not hit you. I will not kill you. But I will bug you to death." As for intimations that civil rights forces somehow are linked to communism, he says: "I'm not saying I won't bring this country to its knees. But if I did, I wouldn't fly across the ocean and give it to another white boy."

His own conception of black power differs markedly from the doctrine of violence and separatism propounded by others, a doctrine deeply disturbing to most whites. To Dick Gregory, black power means simple equality. Commenting on black power in his book, The Shadow That Scares Me (it will be released next month), he says: "All Americans have a right to a decent wage, to own their own businesses, to own their own property, and to choose and elect their own public officials who will serve as their power of attorney at the seat of government."

While he personally abhors rioting and separatism, he finds their existence today wholly understandable—and believes that whites should stop viewing violence as simple lawlessness and wake up to the "injustice" that he feels has bred the racial explosion in our cities.

of the buffalo." He maintains that if the Soviet Union publicly pledged it would rid itself of rats in five years the U.S. would respond by eradicating them in nine months.

Dick Gregory says a "monster" is driving him. Certainly something is; a reporter accompanying him is exhausted by a 15-mile march in Milwaukee, followed by a night flight east, where Mr. Gregory gives talks at three colleges in one day. But the comedian is fresh after only two hours sleep; this pace is routine for him.

A compulsive talker, he often will order a meal in a restaurant and leave it untouched while he delivers a civil rights monolog to those accompanying him. He is a vegetarian ordinarily, and currently he says he is abstaining from all food. From Thanksgiving to Christmas, he has pledged to take nothing but water, as a mark of protest against American involvement in Vietnam. He has promised $1,000 to anyone who can prove he has eaten anything in that time. If the challenger can't prove it, he must donate $100 to SNCC.

The fast is the most recent symbol of Mr. Gregory's increasing involvement in the peace movement. An advocate of immediate U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam, he says he intends to run for President as a peace candidate in the 1968 election.

Quixotic though this effort may sound, Mr. Gregory says he wants to serve as a focus in the next election for those who want to express their opposition to the war in concrete fashion. He is harshly critical of Lyndon Johnson, calling him "the most vicious tyrant since Julius Caesar." Of the Johnson-Kosygin conference at Glassboro, N.J., he says: "The two most powerful men in the world were meeting. Kosygin was sitting there and he don't understand English, and neither does LBJ."

His friends worry that Dick Gregory is spreading himself dangerously thin, damaging his health and perhaps diluting his effectiveness. Certainly he has little time to spend at home, a comfortably furnished six-room apartment in south Chicago that is a far cry from the slums of St. Louis, where he was raised.

He is married and has six children, ranging in age from a six-month-old boy, simply called Baby Gregory, to an eight-year-old girl, Michelle. Though he can't spend much time at home with them, he does take his wife, Lillian, and the two oldest children on some of his travels: Lillian was once jailed in Atlanta while pregnant with the Gregory twins, Pamela Inte and Paula Gratton.

If Dick Gregory sometimes yearns for a more settled existence, feels despair or hopelessness or tires of his lonely odyssey, he does not show it. Says his friend, Father Jones: "Dick doesn't believe he can be beaten."

PRESS CONFERENCE - February 27, 1968
Village Gate

Immediate Release to all Media

Dick Gregory, the comedian who is an Independent write-in candidate for president of the United States, announced today at a press conference that he was beginning another 40-day fast in sympathy with the suffering on both sides of the war in Vietnam. [REDACTED]

b6

Mr. Gregory said he and his wife Lillian would take no nourishment but liquids from Ash Wednesday until April 1st, after which they will restrict themselves to a diet of distilled water for the two weeks preceding Easter. [REDACTED]

Mr. Gregory declared that his two eldest children, Michele, 8, and Lynne, 6, would fast from Good Friday until Easter and join him and Mrs. Gregory in a vigil in front of the White House throughout the Easter Week-end. [REDACTED]

Mr. Gregory, who has not shaved nor cut his hair for 3 months, since his first fast which began on Thanksgiving and lasted until New Year's, urged all those who wished to make a personal sacrifice and demonstration against the war in Vietnam to join him. He has also foregone conventional clothing for the uniform of the common laborer until the war is over and urged those who sympathized and "wish to express their opposition to the system" to follow his example.

Specifically Mr. Gregory asked "that people do not buy Easter eggs this holiday season as large numbers of people had expressed their opposition to the war by not purchasing Christmas trees, decorations, toys, and gifts to impress the economy with their determination to make peace on earth a reality."

Mr. Gregory repeated his admonition to "all those who wish to express their desire for peace to refrain from purchasing 1968 American automobiles and to give up smoking cigarettes, not only for your own health but to save the lives of innocent victims in Vietnam who are burned with napalm bought with the tax on smoke."

Mr. Gregory will continue with his current lecture schedule which will take him to over 40 colleges and universities in as many days.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On February 11, 1968, Gregory was scheduled to leave Richmond, Virginia, at 6:50 A.M., en route to Huntington, W. Va.

On February 19, 1968, Captain [redacted] Commander, Investigations Unit, Huntington Police Department, Huntington, W. Va., advised that Gregory did not make any public appearance in Huntington on or about February 11, 1968, and there was no indication that Gregory was in Huntington. Captain [redacted] further advised that had Gregory spent any time in Huntington, he [redacted] would have known it. He said that if, in fact, Gregory did come through Huntington, he had apparently merely transferred planes there.

b7C

On February 18, 1968, information was received from the Buffalo, New York, Police Department, Detective Bureau, by the Buffalo Office of the FBI, that Gregory was scheduled to leave Buffalo en route to Pittsburgh at 10:00 P.M. that date via Mohawk Airlines.

Telephone inquiry of the information operator or Mohawk Airlines on February 19, 1968, indicated that Mohawk Airlines does not have any direct flights from Buffalo to Pittsburgh.

On February 19, 1968, [redacted] Reservations Clerk, United Airlines, advised that United Airlines Flight No. 587 leaves Buffalo at 10:00 P.M. and arrives at Pittsburgh at 10:45 P.M., daily. She advised that the passenger manifest for the flight on February 18, 1968, indicated that D. Gregory was a passenger from Buffalo to Pittsburgh. She advised he left no contact point in Pittsburgh and had no continuing reservations.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTER

On February 8, 1968, BS T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that Dick Gregory, who was introduced as a former comedian turned Negro protest leader, addressed an assembly of approximately 3000 students and faculty members at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts, on February 7, 1968. The appearance was arranged under the Distinguished Visitors Program which is described as a long standing student-faculty organization which provides for regular lecturers.

The source advised that Gregory's remarks were politely received and that no demonstrations were held or incidents occurred in connection with Gregory's appearance. According to BS T-1, Gregory also spoke at Amherst College and Smith College in Northampton, Massachusetts, on February 8, 1968, which was corroborated by BS T-2 and BS T-3 on February 9, 1968.

The "Daily Collegian", a daily student newspaper published at the University of Massachusetts, contained an article relative to the appearance of Gregory at the University in its issue of February 8, 1968. According to this article Gregory stated: "We live in a country so sick and insane that even riots help out." According to the article Gregory praised the black power movement headed by Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown, and said that America is so sick that black people as well as white people are racists. He said that if he were elected President he would "Bring all the boys back home from Vietnam and send LBJ there all by himself", and that Vietnam "Ain't worth saving."

In his speech Gregory urged Martin Luther King to stop preaching non-violence to Negroes and start preaching it to whites. He spoke of how he and Carmichael got fed up with the non-violent philosophy, and recalled the day when non-violent Negroes were knocked down and stomped on by white policemen in Birmingham, Alabama.

According to this article Gregory predicted new riots in the cities this summer and stated that the riots will continue until we stop making the ghetto a battleground, and turn it into a lab. Gregory concluded his speech with this remark:

"It is a mark of insanity when a nation as powerful as our's gets frightened over the two simple words 'black power.'"

The February 14, 1968 edition of the "Concord, New Hampshire Daily Monitor" on page 1 carried an article captioned "Battle-Garbed Gregory Places Hope in Youth." This article stated that on February 13, 1968, Dick Gregory spoke at Colby Junior College, New London, New Hampshire, for about 2½ hours during which time he held his audience spellbound. During his speech Gregory stated that his generation is leaving the country in a mess for the next generation, and that the only hope for the country is the young generation. He said that he does not trust anyone who is more than 26 years of age.

According to the article Gregory, who is running for President as an independent candidate, stated: If I were President I would give a $10,000 reward to anyone getting goods on any congressman. In this way we would have no dishonest congressmen."

Gregory further stated that he felt Chicago was a poor site for the Democratic National Convention and said "Unless the city adopts a five point program suggested by me I will keep the policemen busy." Gregory stated that he will not cut his hair or shave until "LBJ does something about Vietnam" and suggested that the male students present not cut their hair in protest of the war in Vietnam.

The February 16, 1968 edition of the "Lewiston Evening Journal, Lewiston-Auburn, Maine" on page 12 carried an article captioned "Challenge to Protest War Given by Gregory." According to this article Dick Gregory addressed a group of students at Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, on February 14, 1968, during which he challenged his audience to protest the Vietnam war in a non-violent fashion. He urged them to refrain from getting their hair cut or from shaving until hostilities cease. In addition he asked them to wear work clothes until the end of the war and to quit smoking.

According to the article Gregory stated that for some strange, sick, insane reason the United States is afraid of black bombs and sent in the National Guard to take ammunition away from Negroes, while at the same time the Minutemen are allowed to keep their ammunition. Gregory stated "One of these days they are going to shoot at you. The Minutemen have never shot at the Negroes, and the dynamite they have buried in the suburban areas one day will wipe out blocks of white men and then maybe you will take that ammunition away from them."

Gregory stated that he did not come to Maine to impress the audience, but only to inform them. He stated that he did not come to Maine to make people mad, but that he could make one phone call in Chicago and make trouble and therefore he did not have to come to Maine in the middle of winter to cause trouble.

Gregory warned the audience not to feel guilty about the racism that exists today, but that the frightening thing is that in 1968 we refused to admit that this racism exists. He stated that Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown have scared this nation to death and expressed surprise that the United States could be frightened by two such people who did not even have any missiles.

Gregory stated that these two civil rights leaders were originally in favor of non-violence but after being exposed to killings and mistreatment for a period of six years, their attitudes have changed.

He described civil rights laws as nothing but an insult to the Negro. He stated that if these laws are so good "Let the white people live under them and we will take the Constitution. Don't do us any special favors. The Negroes are not asking for crumbs when the Constitution says half the cake is our's.

This is my country whether you like or or not."

The February 15, 1968 edition of the "Bath-Brunswick Times Record", a daily evening newspaper published at Brunswick, Maine, carried an article captioned "Dick Gregory - hip mahatma." This article reflected that on February 14, 1968, Dick Gregory addressed an overflow crowd of 700 people at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine. According to this article Gregory made virtually the same speech here as he made at Bates College which is described above.

None of the above newspaper articles indicated that there were any demonstrations or incidents of any kind in connection with any of Gregory's appearances.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Dear

Your letter of March 11th has been received.

I am opposed to communists speaking on college campuses; however, I would like to point out that the FBI has no authority to prevent speakers, academic or otherwise, from appearing on college campuses, nor do we have any control over the selection of faculty members or the views they may espouse. Nevertheless, I do consider it my responsibility and obligation to present to the public facts concerning the infiltration of communist propaganda in our schools and colleges. The communists are highly trained and skilled in the ways of deception and distortion of the truth. These conspirators are not bound by any obligation to be honest or factual in their statements. While we all believe in academic freedom and freedom of speech, I do not feel these privileges grant license to deliberately present distortions and falsehoods.

I am enclosing an excerpt from my testimony before the House Subcommittee on Appropriations on February 10, 1966, and other literature which I hope you will find of interest.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Bufiles reflect that [REDACTED] is the [REDACTED] of the John Birch Society. Last outgoing 1-27-67 declined comment on newspaper article forwarded by correspondent concerning Soviet American Consular Treaty. [REDACTED] is also affiliated with "Let Freedom Ring" an ultra-conservative venture critical of the Administration. Concerning Dick Gregory, Bufiles indicate that he has made numerous vicious attacks against the Director and the Bureau, and there are indications that he is mentally unbalanced. He has supported the Black Muslims and injected himself into the Negro movements. He also has espoused causes and individuals that were closely associated with the communist movement.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

A number of Communists and revolutionists are continueing to speak on college campuses. This of course is wrong. Newspapers come out and say that the students can speak their own minds and are not influemced. However, in talking with students direstcly, I find the opposite is true.

You have testified or made statements to the effect that Communists are not free - that they are under the complete control of Moscow, etc. and of course they are dedicated to their cause.

I would appreciate hearing from you with the documentation of your thoughts on subvensives such as Dick Gregory speaking on campuses and Communists, many of whom have spoken on the campus of Ohio State University

Thank you,

(OO: Chicago)

DATE: 3/21/68

Re Chicago airtel and LHM dated 1/11/68.

RAYMOND WALTON, Chief of Police, Ypsilanti, Michigan, has advised that subject spoke at Pease Auditorium, Eastern Michigan University, on 1/10/68, to an audience of approximately 800 persons. WALTON added that GREGORY appeared wearing workmans "dungaree" type appearel, and spoke on a variety of topics, mostly political. He added that although subject touched on such topics as opposition to the Vietnam war and the draft, his approach seemed to be more entertaining. He directed jokes at government leaders, white society and "niggers," and recalled GREGORY stating that the idea of Negroes enslaving white people was ridiculous because "it'd take 2½ years just to teach them how to eat watermelon." He pinpointed the problem in the United States to be "moral pollution" resulting from "people telling lies from one end of the country to the other." He added that if social problems in the United States were faced honestly, they could be solved.

Concerning Vietnam, GREGORY stated "You guys are gonna die under the false pretense that you are creating democracy," and later added "with my political beliefs, if I tried to volunteer, the government would tear up my draft card." He characterized the Vietnam war as a genocidal war against a country without an air force, and regarding whether he would fight, stated "I'm the same guy who ran around last summer and told colored folks not to throw bricks."

WALTON added that GREGORY spoke for about two hours and presented a program which contained many of Confidential Informant PH T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised February 23, 1968, that he had learned that GREGORY would be in Philadelphia on the evening of February 27, 1968, where he would appear at the Nixon Theater, 52nd and Locust Streets in West Philadelphia, which is a predominantly Negro area. GREGORY would speak and obtain signatures on petitions for the coming Pennsylvania primary election to be held in April 1968. GREGORY was seeking to get on the ballot as a candidate for President of the United States. ~~(S)~~

On February 28, 1968, PH T-1 and PH T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the appearance of GREGORY at Philadelphia on the previous day had been sponsored by the Pennsylvania Peace and Freedom Party for the purpose of obtaining signatures to place GREGORY's candidacy for President on the Pennsylvania primary ballot. There were an estimated 250 people at the rally. Instead of the Nixon Theater, the rally was held at the Antioch United Church of God, 11th and Huntingdon Streets, Philadelphia. ~~(S)~~ (U)

Among the things that GREGORY said during his talk was that if elected President, he would paint the White House black and bring the boys home from Vietnam. The Negro does not want integration, he wants liberation. He was quite well received by the audience.

Re: Appearance of Dick Gregory,
Benton Harbor, Michigan,
March 8, 1968

On March 9, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and civil rights worker, spoke on the racial situation in the United States at the Benton Harbor High School gymnasium, Benton Harbor, Michigan, to an audience, predominantly Negro, of an estimated 1,350 on the evening of March 8, 1968. The speech was without incident.

Gregory, a self-styled presidential candidate, commented that Negroes are engaged in an irreversible revolution, that the Kerner Report on Civil Disorders may "keep it cool" in many fights this summer if whites examine it, although in his opinion it does not go far enough. Gregory claimed politicians are responsible for 90 per cent of the problem and said he wants to create an atmosphere through demonstration in Chicago that will keep whites out during the Democratic National Convention August 26, 1968.

He predicted that commencing the last week in May, 1968, or the first of June, 1968, marches will start in Chicago on an 12 hour basis and gradually escalate to an around the clock basis by the 4th of July.

Re: Richard Claxton Gregory; Racial Matters

On March 12, 1968 the Daily Cougar, official student newspaper of UH, contained an article indicating that Gregory's speech at UH was being sponsored by the University Center Program Council in cooperation with the Lecture-Artist Series.

On March 21, 1968, the Houston Chronicle, daily newspaper, Houston, Texas, carried the following article regarding the speech given by Gregory on the night of March 20, 1968.

-U.S. 'Insane Nation,' Gregory Says at UH

BY TED D'ANDRIOLE
Chronicle Reporter

American college students have inherited "the most morally polluted, insane nation on earth," says comedian and civil rights militant Dick Gregory.

"You youngsters have got to bring sanity back to a nation gone mad. College students have become the number one moral force in the world," Gregory told more than 600 predominantly white students in a 2½-hour speech at the University of Houston Wednesday night.

The general reaction to Gregory's bitter denunciation of and jokes at the American government and social system ranged from stammering applause to uncomfortable silence.

Most of the enthusiasm came from the estimated 40 Negroes in the audience. "Like a bomb," said one student, "he blew the lid off the lid of the lid." There was no heckling.

"When will this country be honest and stop playing games with us?" asked Gregory. "If you're going to take away the guns and ammunition from the blacks, we expect you to take away the ammunition from the minutemen."

"America's attitude toward crime and violence wasn't upset until it came to black crime and black violence."

"Fort Lauderdale has been torn up by white kids every year for the last 10 years and none of them has been shot," said Gregory.

He called Dr. Martin Luther King the "greatest moral force" in the country, but said he does not "appreciate Dr. King telling black folks to be nonviolent while not telling white folks the same."

Gregory said the country must face the fact that America, both black and white, is the number one racist country on earth.

"The shame is that the German who killed my daddy in 1942 can come to this country and move into a white neighborhood his son can't live in," said Gregory.

"What disturbs me is that if these same social problems existed in any other country, America could solve them."

Gregory aimed his strongest diatribes against the U.S. war effort in Vietnam.

"Nobody in his right mind will ever again ask America to help get rid of communism after what we've done to Vietnam," said Gregory. "It's like destroying this university with bombs to get rid of rats and cockroaches."

"If our democracy is as good as we say it is, why do we have to run all over the world trying to run it down everybody's throat?"

"Where were we when democracy fell in Greece?" he asked.

"Your parents are siding with the federal government against their kids and the kids are gunning for them from the right," about the Vietnam war, he said.

"If a government inspector came to your door and asked to take the family dog or cat down the street to help fight communism and perhaps he killed, your parents would fight against it."

"But the government can just send a letter asking them to send their son to Vietnam where he might be killed and they just send you off with no questions asked."

"Your parents are sick," said Gregory.

He defended black power militants Stokely Carmichael and Rapp Brown as men who "have dared to become as bitter as Patrick Henry."

He said America laughed when Khrushchev proclaimed "we will bury you."

"Rapp Brown hasn't got any armies or missiles and yet the most powerful nation on earth is afraid of him," he said. "When a whole nation hates two men (Brown and Carmichael), there's nothing wrong with those men, but that nation is insane."

Gregory mildly criticized UH basketball star Elvin Hayes for favoring Negro participation in the Olympics.

"If America needs its Negro athletes to win, Gregory said, a Negro should be placed on the Olympic Committee."

His talk was sponsored by the UH Program Council and Lecture-Artist Series.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 3/21/68

Richard Claxton Gregory, also known as Dick Gregory, is Negro comedian allegedly involved in civil rights movement. Gregory is a loud mouth, scurrilous liar.

Attached states Gregory made speech, Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana, 3/19/68, castigated American Vietnam policy, described FBI Agents and Director, FBI, in derogatory terms.

Special Agent in Charge, New Orleans, recommended Gregory be confronted by FBI Agents and admonished for his attack on the Director and FBI Agents. While we admire the spirit of Special Agent in Charge, New Orleans, and agree Gregory is a dastardly character, New Orleans, Houston, and Chicago Offices were instructed to not confront Gregory as such action could only lead to unfavorable national publicity. We will not forget Gregory's remarks, are following his activities closely, and will recommend appropriate counterintelligence measures against this low-life, un-American nonentity, when indicated.

Pertinent information in attached is being dissemination to the Inter-Division Information Unit and will be included in today's teletype summary to the White House and interested agencies.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

New Orleans, Louisiana
March 21, 1968

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 20, 1968, that subject spoke at Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana, on the night of March 19, 1968. This speech was given to a gathering of approximately 1200 people at McAlister Auditorium on the Tulane Campus. The title of Gregory's speech was "Civil Rights - Black Power." This speech lasted approximately two hours and concentrated on attacks against the United States Government. Gregory stated American Negroes were blameless for high crime, illegitimacy, and poor living conditions found in Negro neighborhoods. He described all such conditions as products of white racism and were forced upon the Negroes. According to Gregory, a history of violence by whites toward Negroes was the cause of urban rioting. Gregory severely criticized the United States Government. He referred to that Government as "rotten and filthy" and stated that every nation in the world was coming to hate the United States. He castigated the United States role in Viet Nam. Gregory criticized the Federal Bureau of Investigation and used scurrilous remarks to describe Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents and the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover.

Gregory stated the white population of the United States owed a very large debt to the Negro community and unless Negroes were given what they wanted, they would "burn this country down, house by house, and tear it down brick by brick."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Gregory urged all students in the audience to participate in a protest march on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, on March 23, 1968. Gregory urged all young people to work in the present "revolution" to save the country.

Gregory praised policemen and firemen, stating they were the most important people in the country. He stated that soon everyone in the country would apologize to them for their poor salaries and the disrespect shown them. Gregory believed all policemen should be paid a minimum salary of $10,000 per year.

Most of the audience appeared to be composed of university students. Gregory's presence on the Tulane Campus was without incident.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 20, 1968, that during his speech, Gregory characterized President Johnson with abusive remarks and described the United States Government as insane and on a destructive course. He stated the United States Government must be destroyed if it was going to destroy us (meaning the Negro race.) Gregory also strongly implied the United States Government was in fact attempting to destroy the Negro race. Gregory also stated this Government was no longer a democracy. He felt if the Government did not reform itself quickly, the country will be burned down. Gregory was given a standing ovation for approximately 10 minutes after his speech. During his speech he was interrupted by applause on numerous occasions. The audience was composed of approximately 25 percent Negroes, many of whom were from Dillard University in New Orleans, Louisiana, but some came from as far as Bogalusa, Louisiana.

A third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 20, 1968, when Gregory spoke to the audience he directed some of his remarks at the Negroes in the audience and called them "niggers." He stated they should not be in a white college, that they should go to Negro colleges. Gregory stated "A white man is afraid of you" and that Negroes should use this fear to their advantage. Gregory stated birth control pills passed out by the United States Government in Negro communities were very dangerous and the Government knew this but was concealing that. Gregory approved of a boycott by Negro athletes stating the Negro should stop being an animal for the white people while the white people take credit for the Negroes' accomplishments. According to Gregory, any Negro soldier who fights a foreigner he does not know is a fool because he should be in Mississippi fighting "cracker rednecks." Gregory stated the Negro is echoing the words of Patrick Henry when he said "Give me liberty or give me death."

Before Gregory's appearance he spoke to a reporter from WDSU-TV, New Orleans, Louisiana. Gregory stated he intends to disrupt the forthcoming democratic convention in Chicago and hopes to have the Army called out and the police tied up coping with large numbers of demonstrators. Gregory stated that these demonstrators would be "half a million hippies." The result of this, according to Gregory, would be the United States being embarrassed abroad and cause this country to lose ten billion dollars in foreign investments. Also he felt this would make it appear the United States Government was close to collapse. The United States public would then feel the present Government was corrupt.

While in New Orleans Gregory stayed in Room 11 of the Mason Motel, on Melpomene, New Orleans, Louisiana.

RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to prior memorandum dated November 13, 1967.

On the afternoon of March 15, 1968, Lieutenant [redacted] Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit, Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department, informed that a recent article in the "Antioch Shopper", a community news sheet, North Kansas City, Missouri, indicated that Dick Gregory would speak in the Park College gymnasium, Parkville, Missouri, on the night of March 16, 1968; that there is no indicated potential for violence in connection with Gregory's scheduled appearance, but that for security reasons the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department would cover Gregory's scheduled appearance to determine whether Gregory might spend the night, after his speech, in Kansas City, Missouri. [redacted] said he had determined [redacted] through law enforcement officials at Parkville, Missouri, who had contacted officials of Park College, that Gregory's contract for appearance at the college banned any recording of Gregory's speech.

Subsequently on Sunday morning, March 17, 1968, Lieutenant [redacted] informed that [redacted] a Negro detective on [redacted] staff, had orally reported the following coverage of Gregory's speech and that such oral report would be formally reported later in the week; [redacted] said that after Gregory's speech at Park College the night of March 16, 1968, Detective [redacted] had visited with Gregory in Kansas City, Missouri, for several hours, early Sunday morning, and had transported Gregory to the Municipal Airport where Gregory explained about 4:00 A.M. to return to Gregory's home in Chicago, Illinois:

[ ] reported that Gregory spoke at Park College from about 8:20 P.M. to 10:20 P.M., March 16, 1968. Gregory mentioned he is a presidential candidate as other candidates present only an evil choice for voters. During his speech, Gregory exhibited two books he had authored, namely, "Nigger" and "The Shadow That Scares Me", and referred to a third publication, "Sermons".

b6
b7c

Gregory said he spends about 90 per cent of his time before similar type college audiences; that youngsters must give sanity to an insane nation, and, in effect, oppose their parents, the older generation, public leaders and government, which lie to and betray youngsters. He decried parents who protect their dogs and pets but think nothing of a government taking their children for military service and killing them. He said the fact that 18-year olds are not old enough to vote but are old enough to be drafted and killed is "insane".

Gregory said he was on the 17th day of his second 40-day fast, that he wears work clothes, has stopped cigarette smoking, will not shave or have his hair cut, and will continue his civil rights work until the Vietnam war is stopped and American soldiers come home.

Gregory's remarks were interpolated with mimicry, humor, and sarcasm. He said police and firemen are necessary for our society and for order and protection, but are paid "like dogs" and "act like dogs". He said he is not for killing or hurting anyone, and, in effect, that he is not for violence; that Negroes do not hate whites but do hate the white American system; that if Negroes continue to be insulted, the nation will have to be brought to its senses, for it is man's nature to be free, and Negroes will have equality now as they are tired of lies and empty promises.

Gregory decried the public's concern about five youths burning their draft cards, about desecration of the American flag, and fear of two "niggers", Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown. He said actually draft cards are scraps of paper, flags are rags, and Carmichael and Brown are only two niggers; that what people should be concerned about is an "insane war", what the American flag should stand for, and the fact that Brown and Carmichael speak the truth. He displayed a shopping bag, he had used in London, which bore on it a printed "British Union Jack". Gregory said if people understood what Brown and Carmichael and SNCC had been through, when 20 civil rights workers were being lost a week in the South, the people would understand that Brown and Carmichael are doing only what they must in telling the truth.

Gregory said he had seen a lesbian loosed on children in a southern jail cell across from Gregory's jail cell after arrest for peaceful civil rights activity in the South.

There follows a copy of an article dated March 17, 1968, in the "Kansas City Star", daily newspaper, Kansas City, Missouri:

Dick Gregory Decries Racism Before Park College Crowd

By Nancy Milner

(A Member of The Star's Staff)

DICK GREGORY, author, comedian, lecturer and civil rights worker, stood on a makeshift stage in the center of the Park college gymnasium last night and told his mostly young, mostly white audience that he didn't care what they thought of him.

He said a lot of things that he has said before—that America is the most racist country in the world, that the Negro had a hungry stomach 20 or 30 years ago but now he has a hungry mind, and that moral pollution is a greater threat than air pollution.

Just Saying 'Nigger'

In a speech mixed with sarcasm, passion, irony and conviction, Gregory charged that the term "crime in the streets" is the new American way of saying "nigger."

"What about white crime?" he asked. "Those kids that go to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and tear up the town every year—they don't get shot at."

"And what about the crime syndicate? Is it too white for the government?"

Gregory charged that the United States was the most morally polluted, most insane nation that ever existed on the earth. Again and again, he returned to Vietnam.

"It is insane in Vietnam when we say that we have to wipe out a city to save it," he told approximately 400 persons gathered on bleachers and chairs in the gymnasium. "Who would want this country to come to their country to wipe out communism after what we've done in Vietnam?"

Negroes, Gregory said, are tired of white people talking about what they can do for them.

With, Not For

"When are the white folks going to start talking about what we can do with you?" he asked.

"Yeah, we're hard on northern white liberals, because northern white liberals have become obsolete in the Negro cause. What we need are white radicals.

"With democracy comes a lot of responsibility, and one of these days, you are going to have to stop telling us that and start listening yourselves. We're tired of this country playing games with us. We aren't asking America to change its ways, just to be honest with us."

Gregory told the crowd that he hadn't come to impress them, but only to inform, and that when he left, he couldn't care less what they thought of him.

"Some of you may walk out of here angry or upset — but understand that I didn't fly all the way to this town to make you mad. It isn't my intention to come here and try to change your views or cure your hang-ups. I only came here to inform," he said.

In one of many attacks on the administration, Gregory said that Lyndon Johnson was probably one of the sickest tyrants that ever lived since Julius Caesar.

"You young folks are fighting to survive," he said. "This country is after youth . . . you have a tremendous problem, the problem of giving sanity back to an insane nation."

The riots, he said, haven't hurt the Negro cause. They should have hurt the cause, he said, but in a country as insane as this one, they've helped.

On the lighter side, Gregory said that he had been tempted to fly to Africa to get a white heart, but pointed out that the only successful transplant that has worked involved a "black heart."

"Maybe this has proved that we've got rhythm in something other than our feet," he said.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated March 13, 1968.

On March 19, 1968, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory held a press conference at the Knickerbocker Hotel, 163 East Walton Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, on March 19, 1968. During this press conference Gregory announced that he is planning to begin massive demonstrations commencing at the end of May and running throughout the summer in an attempt to force Chicago City Administration Officials to "bring in the Army". Gregory stated that the purpose in doing so is to disrupt the Democratic National Convention scheduled to be held in Chicago in August, 1968. Gregory indicated he wanted to "create a type of atmosphere where 'they' will either cancel the Convention or bring in the Army".

Gregory stated that he planned to lead marches 12 hours a day from the end of May to July 4. After July 4, the marches would be stepped up to 24 hours a day. Gregory further stated that he would organize 40 to 50 simultaneous non-violent demonstrations to be held in various sections of Chicago in an effort to disrupt the Democratic National Convention.

On March 28, 1968, [redacted]
[redacted] Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

Richard Claxton Gregory appeared at 9:00 p.m., March 27, 1968, at Grady Gammage Hall, ASU, before a crowd estimated at 750 people, which was composed mostly of ASU students. [redacted] advised that Gregory spoke from 9:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. and was very critical of the President of the United States, Lyndon Baines Johnson, the United States involvement in Vietnam, the Executive and Legislative Branches' futile efforts to correct crime in the street and such departments' placing all the blame of such crime on Negroes. [redacted] stated that Gregory was extremely critical of parents of teenagers for permitting their sons to serve in Vietnam, and he called the Americans the Number One racist nation in the world.

b6
b7C

[redacted] further stated that although Gregory professed to ascribe to the philosophy of non-violence, he did use several analogies in the talk, the interpretations of which were "if the white people don't come around, there would be more 'burnings to the ground'".

b6

[redacted] stated that Gregory's attempts at humor were well received by the audience, but that his philosophy of Black Power was not enthusiastically accepted. [redacted] concluded that from 11:00 to 11:30 p.m. Gregory had a question and answer period at which time he stated that it was his intention to have demonstrations around the clock in Chicago, Illinois, from May 30, 1968, until the Democratic National Convention and the purpose of such demonstrations was to exhaust the police department which would result in the calling in of the National Guard outfits, which would cause extreme embarrassment to the United States.

b6

On March 28, 1968, PX T-1, a reliable source of information in the past, advised that in addition to the above comments, Gregory further stated that the younger people of today should boycott the purchase of Dow Chemical domestic products, give up smoking cigarettes and the purchase of new clothes. The effects of such boycotts would arouse the manufacturers of these goods to place pressure on the government of the United States to withdraw from the Vietnam conflict.

PX T-1 stated that when Gregory was queried by a young man on whether or not he, the young man, should accept draft, Gregory advised him to be inducted and to go to Vietnam but refuse to shoot any weapons at the enemy. At this point Gregory stated that he would rather kill [redacted] than permit him to perform acts of violence in such places as Vietnam in the future.

b6
b7C

PX T-1 advised that after the question and answer period from 11:00 to 11:30 p.m., Gregory had a private newspaper conference until midnight.

Following is the March 28, 1968, morning edition of the ARIZONA REPUBLIC newspaper article on Gregory's appearance at ASU:

"DICK GREGORY THINKS 'SOMETHING IS WRONG'

"TEMPE--Dick Gregory, a comedian and civil rights crusader, said last night that America is depraved, corrupt, inept and the number one joke in the world today.

"Gregory, who addressed a crowd of 1,000 persons in Grady Gammage Auditorium at Arizona State University, lampooned President Johnson and this country's foreign policy.

"He also accused parents of betraying their teenagers by permitting them to serve in Vietnam.

"Although he criticized the federal government, America's handling of racial problems, and life in general, Gregory offered no solutions.

"His diction, coupled with the acoustics in the auditorium, rendered many of his comments unintelligible.

"Hundreds of persons leaned forward in their chairs to try to understand his remarks. Particularly when he used a falsetto voice for emphasis.

"'America is the most violent country in the world,' he said. 'I can't hit a white boy but I can shoot foreigners all over the world with the U.S. Army. I'm not going to be violent anywhere, anytime.'

"Gregory, who said his book 'Nigger' has sold 2 million copies, urged teen-agers to suspect their parents.

"Parents are rubber stamps for the government which drafts their sons, he said.

"'Watch out for your parents,' Gregory said. 'If the government knocked at your folks' door and asked to take their parakeet to fight Communists, they'd make a big stink. But parents don't flick an eyelash when their sons are drafted.

"'Something is wrong in this country when the life of a parakeet would be questioned, but the life of a teenager is not.'

"Gregory described President Johnson as a hopeless bumpkin stumbling around with barbecue sauce on his mouth.

"'After LBJ had an operation, he showed the barbecue sauce on his scar on national TV,' he said. 'We should thank God he didn't have a hemorrhoid operation.'

"'America becomes concerned about the increase in crime only when the Negro is mentioned as a contributor,' he said.

"'A crime in the street is a new way of saying 'nigger,'" Gregory said. 'LBJ of all people is talking about crime. If Bobby Baker had been working for Adam Clayton Powell instead of LBJ, both of them would have been in jail by now.'

"He called America the number one racist nation in the world and he said Negroes and whites are to blame. Both races tend to lack compassion and understanding, he said.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On March 14, 1968, [redacted] East Texas State University (ETSU), Commerce Texas, advised that the university had a committee entitled "Ideas and Issues Committee", and this committee, with the approval of the Dean of Students as well as himself, could hire outside speakers for the benefit of the student body. He said that he had been advised that this committee had received a letter from the American Program Bureau, 59 Temple Place, Boston, Massachusetts, in regard to the consideration of Richard Gregory as a lecturer on the ETSU campus. He stated that he understood that Gregory was to be in the area of Commerce, Texas, about May 1, 1968, and that this had been a suggested date made by the American Program Bureau.

b6

[redacted] both advised that there had been no commitment made to Gregory or the Program Bureau, and that actually the school officials did not expect any to be made or sent to the school officials for consideration, since this student committee was not in a majority in wanting Gregory on the campus. [redacted] said that he was leaving this matter in this status since he wanted the students to make up their own minds and did not want them to say that the university officials ruled against allowing Gregory to speak on the campus. He pointed out that he had not found it necessary to step into any such matters previously and did not think it would be necessary in this case, but that if it were necessary he would take issue. [redacted] stated that Gregory's fee for the campus appearance had been quoted at $1900.00 for the one night and that as far as he was concerned, and he understood this was the feeling of the majority of the committee, that such a fee was entirely too much for such a program when only a "handful of students would attend."

b6

[redacted] stated that in the event anything more was heard of from the committee about Gregory he would advise but he felt that the matter was a closed issue and it had not been necessary that the university officials make an issue of it.

The Negroes will "burn this country down house by house if you whites don't stop this nonsense of insulting us."

"What we want is constitutional rights . . . We hear of civil rights legislation. This is nothing. Why don't white people live under it? We want to live under constitutional rights."

"Why isn't the FBI helping Garrison in New Orleans instead of following H. Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael?"

"In Greenville the FBI knew of twenty or so killings and did not do anything about it."

"When I was in custody in Birmingham, the jail was segregated and across from my cell was a group of young girls who were molested and the FBI did not do anything."

"H. Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael said, 'Negroes get a gun,' and the FBI got all shook."

"I will head a demonstration in Chicago from April to November that will make the Democratic Party Convention seem undemocratic as they will have to call out the Army."

"FBI Agents in Houston on March 20, 1968, tried to record my statements."

"CIA has followed Stokely Carmichael around the world and has recorded all of his speeches."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
RACIAL MATTER

Reference is being made to Chicago's Memorandum dated January 11, 1968, captioned, "Richard Claxton Gregory; Racial Matter."

On March 8, 1968, page one of the "Mustang Daily", college newspaper for California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, California, an article appeared captioned, "Comic - Annotator slated to appear" which indicated that Dick Gregory a comedian turned political critic, ~~who would~~ appeared on the college campus, March 29, 1968, in the Mens Gym at 8:00 p.m. The article further related that Gregory would draw a capacity audience and numerous churches and civic organizations were sending large delegations.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, on April 1, 1968, indicated that Gregory spoke at California Polytechnic College before approximately 1,500 college students, a mixture of mods, war protestors and hippies. The rally went without incident and Gregory's comments were mainly concerning civil rights problems and statements against the war in Vietnam.

In the March 30, 1968, edition of the Santa Maria Times, Santa Maria, California, an article appeared on page one entitled, "Gregory" written by George C. Flowers, Santa Maria Times Newspaper Editor related substantially the following:

Negro Comedian Dick Gregory was loudly applauded by 1,600 young people at the California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, California, on Friday night, March 29, 1968, when he spoke concerning riots and violence that have helped the American Negro. He related "I would be sick if I told you I advocate violence" but further stated that "black man in Watts and in Detroit and everywhere has made some big gains since he began to riot."

Gregory related he was on his 31st day of a protest fast, but his speech lasted approximately two and a half hours during which time he defended H. Rap Brown and STOKELY Carmichael and suggested a boycott of Dow Chemical products and told the audience "half you young men here will be dead in 18 months if we don't stop the war"; rapped Bobbie Kennedy; and said that if American's problems are not solved in the next three years, "there won't be any problems."

Repeatedly he criticized America as an insane nation, and he was repeatedly applauded by the audience. The height of the insanity, Gregory said "is the war in Vietnam."

In reference to the Negroes avoiding the Olympic games, Gregory said "I wouldn't have said anything. I would have qualified, and then I would have dropped the baton."

He related, "I can't understand why white folks are dumb enough to pay me $1,500 so that I will explain black power to them. Look it up in the dictionary, that's where it will tell you what 'black' and 'power' means."

Gregory called President Johnson, "The greatest tyrant since Caesar" and was loudly applauded.

He said Americans had a double standard about violence. "Americans pay little attention to violence as long as it's white violence. But when it's black violence they get very upset."

Gregory characterized himself as a racist. He urged the white people to work among the poor white people and the black people to work with the black people. The article terminated by saying that "Gregory avoided obscenities in his public speech at Poly, but used them liberally in the semi-private press conference that followed."

An article captioned "Gregory in Great Issues" appeared in issue dated March 7, 1968, page one, of the "Michigan State News", the official Michigan State University (MSU) student publication. This article states that Dick Gregory, comedian turned Black Power spokesman, will speak in the MSU Auditorium at 3:45 PM, March 8, 1968, as part of the "Great Issues Series".

DE T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 9, 1968, that Dick Gregory, while at MSU on March 8, 1968, met with members of the "Black Student Alliance", a student organization which was organized during the fall of 1967 and is presently a recognized student organization. The "Black Student Alliance" has not held any demonstrations or participated in any disruptive activities as of this date. They have advocated that a special Negro history course be taught in the American Thought and Language Department.. Some of the members are advocating that Negro students be housed in separate dormitories.

An article captioned "Work Shops Cover Black Revolution" appeared on page ten of the "Michigan State News", issue dated April 3, 1968, and is as follows:

"Black Expo One, sponsored by the Black Student Alliance, will be held in the Union Building, Saturday (April 6, 1968). Steve Moore, South Carolina State College Senior,

Chicago T-1 is a source with whom contact has been insufficient to determine reliability, but who for a number of years has been knowledgeable in Chicago civil rights activities and with prominent leaders in that field, such as Dick Gregory, a Negro entertainer comedian and civil rights activist, who has recently threatened to disrupt the Democratic National Convention which will be held at Chicago, Illinois, during August of 1968. (U)

CG T-1 stated that while he believes that Gregory lacks self-discipline and organizational ability, Gregory is currently engaged in a speaking program throughout the United States at various colleges. According to CG T-1, while Gregory is not overtly recruiting individuals from these college audiences to come to Chicago and participate in demonstrations this summer, he frequently comments to the effect that he, (Gregory) will be in Chicago prior to and during the Democratic National Convention, and the implication is that others are welcome to join. (U)

Further CG T-1 noted that at these college talks Gregory emits skillful stage presence and is a spellbinder that captivates the audiences. CG T-1 noted that at one eastern college, at the conclusion of such a talk, what appeared to be a middle-class white coed, approached Gregory to thank him for his talk and that the coed appeared completely awe-struck by Gregory's comments and asked what she could do to help. CG T-1 related that while Gregory merely acknowledged her remarks and offered no specific instructions after the coed had departed he stated to the effect that he probably could have given her a bomb and told her to go blow up the police station and that she would have done same. ~~(U)~~

CG T-1 stated that while Gregory has no specific plans, however, he hopes to secure large groups of individuals to demonstrate in Chicago this summer. He does evince plans of commencing with preliminary demonstrations in the latter part of May and that these demonstrations will continue to build in size through June into July, and finally they will reach their peak at the last day of the Democratic National Convention. According to CG T-1, Gregory claims that all demonstrations will be peaceful and non-violent, and will merely be along the lines of using massive numbers of pedestrians, all of whom will obey all laws including traffic regulations, to tie up the streets and sidewalks and to otherwise hinder and impede the activities of the Chicago Police Department. CG T-1 noted, however, that it was pointed out to Gregory that if the demonstrations completely comply with all regulations, they may not obtain the desired results of impeding police activities. In response to this, Gregory, in complete contradiction of the foregoing, is reported to have said that the demonstrators would then lay down in the streets and thus gain the desired results. ~~(U)~~

CG T-1 further related with reference to undisciplined, disorganized thinking by Gregory, with reference to demonstrations that in some conversations Gregory spoke of sending [ ] away from Chicago for the summer. However, in other conversations, when discussing the problem of attracting the attention of the police, Gregory indicated that, if necessary, he would lead marches to various Chicago suburbs such as Cicero, and that [ ] would be at his side during these marches. ~~(U)~~

According to CG T-1, Gregory indicates that he plans to climax the summer-long Chicago demonstrations on the final day of the Democratic Convention when Lyndon B. Johnson accepts the Democratic Presidential Nomination. Reportedly the theme of this final demonstration will be "The Funeral of the Democratic Party" and the major objective of this final effort will be to embarrass the President and Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago. However, as to whether Gregory has the ability to carry out such grandiose plans, CG T-1 was uncertain in view of Gregory's lack of capacity for organization, self-discipline and administration of given programs. ~~(U)~~

In addition, CG T-1 was in receipt of information concerning [redacted], also known as [redacted], who is allegedly now in Chicago working to organize a coalition of anti-war groups to demonstrate against the Democratic National Convention in August. [redacted] is characterized by CG T-2 as presently one of the leaders of the Joint Community Union, formerly known as Jobs or Income Now, which is the community action organization in Chicago for the Students for a Democratic Society. ~~(U)~~

According to CG T-2, during the latter part of 1967, [redacted] visited North Viet Nam where he met with representatives of the National Liberation Front. ~~(U)~~

CG T-1 advises that this coalition, as yet unnamed, will meet somewhere in the middle west around the latter part of March to make specific decisions concerning these demonstrations. Reportedly [redacted] feels that the disruption of the convention would not achieve widespread endorsement and the possibility of an alternate ticket, born out of a counter convention, to be called by the coalition, will be considered. ~~(U)~~

b6

[redacted] indicates that some of his associates believe that mass demonstrations at the convention could play into President Johnson's hands and result in a blood bath. [redacted] explained that Mayor Daley of Chicago would take firm police action against the mass demonstrators and that this would reflect favorably towards the Democratic Party, in that Democrats would appear to be able to handle mobs in the streets. Further [redacted] noted that as a result of such street action the cream of the leadership of his coalition might become casualties and the anti-war movement would be crippled. ~~(U)~~

According to [ ] at this point only disciplined and coordinated non-violence demonstrations are planned, and there would be no laying siege to the Amphitheater Building or massive confrontations. It is planned that this march will be led by various military figures and clergymen who oppose the war in Viet Nam along with other well-known Viet Nam dissenters. RACIAL MATTERS

On March 28, 1968, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed captioned individual arriving on Western Airlines Flight 700 from Phoenix, Arizona, at 4:15 p.m. that date, the plane being 27 minutes late. Gregory was observed to contact Frontier Airlines regarding the flight from Denver to Alamosa, Colorado, and then wandered about the airport for awhile prior to entering a restaurant where he was observed sitting at the counter. Gregory was not met at the Denver airport by anyone but it was observed that some young people spoke to him briefly after they apparently recognized who he was. Gregory left Denver, Colorado, via Frontier Airlines, Flight 583, which was scheduled to arrive at Alamosa, Colorado at 8:13 p.m., March 28, 1968.

On March 29, 1968, [redacted] Adams State College, Alamosa, Colorado, advised that he was in attendance at the college auditorium on the evening of March 28, 1968, when Gregory appeared before a group of approximately 1500 persons, mostly students, which audience was reserved and orderly.

b7C

[redacted] stated that Gregory went into a comedy routine for the first few minutes and then told jokes involving President Johnson. Gregory stated that America was a violent country and that the only way to solve the problems was through violence; however, he said he did not personally condone violence.

b6

Gregory stated that a great number of the criminal activities in the United States involves whites only and mentioned the Bobby Baker incident and stated that the Government and "LBJ" knew all about it. Gregory stated that the United States was the most mixed up country on earth and mentioned that there are soldiers in Viet Nam who are not old enough to vote but old enough to die and stated that the blacks hated the whites. Gregory stated that the CIA had followed Carmichael all around the world and reported on his activities and that Carmichael and H. Rap Brown would be heroes in future history. Gregory told the audience to watch the riots on TV this summer and to have the sound of the TV turned off and then to stand behind the TV and recite the Declaration of Independence. Gregory referred to the coming political convention in Chicago and stated that an effort was being made to stop it. He stated he was serious about running for President and spoke against the United States spending money in Viet Nam when the United States has real need for this money at home.

[ ] stated Gregory wore a wrinkled shirt, purple trousers, and a fancy purple jacket with gold piping around the edges. He had a long beard and looked disheveled.

Domestic Intelligence Division

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 4/11/68

We previously received and disseminated information indicating that Dick Gregory, Negro Comedian who has been very active in civil rights demonstrations and in demonstrations opposing U.S. participation in the Vietnam War, planned to hold a vigil in front of the White House during Easter Week.

Attached indicates Gregory currently in Oregon and due back in Chicago, Ill. 4/13/68. Reliable Chicago source stated there is some question as to whether Gregory will go through with plans for vigil at White House in view of announcement by President Johnson that he will not seek reelection.

This information has been furnished to Secret Service Headquarters and to the Inter-Division Information Unit of the Department. A copy has been sent to the Attorney General.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On April 11, 1968, CG T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Gregory was reportedly currently in Oregon and due back in Chicago on April 13, 1968. He also advised that there is some question as to whether Gregory will go through with announced plans for an Easter vigil at the White House in view of President Johnson's announcement that he will not seek re-election and is not a candidate.

On April 13, 1968, CG T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Gregory left Chicago, O'Hare International Airport, at 11:45 AM, that date, by [REDACTED] Flight 356, which was scheduled to arrive at Washington National Airport, at 1:15 PM, Eastern Standard Time. Gregory obtained passage on a stand-by basis and, therefore, did not need a reservation and no reservation was made. On departure, Gregory wore blue dungarees, beads, and a full beard and was traveling alone.

b7D

On April 13, 1968, CG T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Gregory arrived at Chicago, Illinois, aboard American Airlines Flight 2305 at 11:00 PM, that date.

"Ghetto Negro Wants Rights,
Dick Gregory Says at USU

"LOGAN (AP) -- The young people have got to wake up and see what is going on in this country, if for nothing but to protest themselves, Dick Gregory told an audience of 2,500 at Utah State University Friday.

"If you kids aren't careful you are going to be in trouble,' he said, 'There are a lot of problems to be solved and nobody can solve them but you.'

"Mr. Gregory told the students that they are facing a crisis that has never been faced before by young people.

"The world has progressed so far in science it doesn't even count,' he said. 'Now it has to develop talents in fields where we can help man live together even when they hate one another.'

"The 'nigger' in the ghetto is not a fool like you,' he said, 'because we are tired of the American system playing games with us.'

"You taught me to be a white man,' he said, 'and to react the same way you react and then you yell nonviolence at me. Don't give us civil rights unless they will work. Give us the constitutional rights same as the white Americans.'

"We want our rights on the Constitution-- no more, no less.'

"The problems between the two races can never be solved until the Negro will trust a white man, said Mr. Gregory, and no 80 million dollars is going to buy this trust.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"He added that the Declaration of Independence should be changed to 'white folks' because that's the way it reads now--it doesn't include all Americans."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The March 19, 1968, issue of the "Stockton Record," a daily newspaper published at Stockton, California contains an article which reveals that Dick Gregory, Negro comedian and Civil Rights worker, would appear at the University of Pacific (UOP) Conservatory Auditorium, Stockton, California, at 8:15 PM, on March 30, 1968, and again on March 31, 1968, in the Chapel on the UOP Campus.

On April 1, 1968, [REDACTED] Chief, Campus Police, UOP, advised that Gregory spoke to a near capacity audience of over 1,000 persons, mostly of college age, on the evening of March 30, 1968, in the Conservatory Auditorium. Admission was $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for students. Gregory spoke for two hours and was warmly received by the audience.

b7c

Gregory mentioned that he was on the thirty-first day of his forty-day fast but did not appear weakened and was vigorous in his speech.

Gregory, during his speech, described Martin Luther King as the number one moral force in our country today and added that he hoped the recent violence in Memphis, Tennessee, would not affect King's work.

Gregory challenged the statement that there are communists in the Civil Rights Movement and inquired as to why the FBI and the Central Intelligence Agency had not identified them.

He criticized the double standard in the United States and said that Congress did not get upset over crime in the streets until it became crime by Negroes. He pointed out that the syndicate was ten times worse than anything else and if the Mafia was taken over by Negroes it would be stomped out immediately. He stated that Bobby Baker stole eight million dollars while working for "LBJ" yet the boss knew nothing about it. He spoke of "LBJ's" attempts to spread democracy in Southeast Asia, yet some of the biggest crooks are in control of Vietnam and why should the U. S. go all the way to Vietnam to stomp out corruption when we have not set our own house in order.

Gregory stated that the attitude of Congress is what can be done with the Negroes, not what can be done for the Negroes. He suggested that next summer when the television stations are showing cities being burned by Negro rioters, turn off the sound and read the first part of the Declaration of Independence which states that it is the duty of the citizens to revolt when they have been misused for long periods of time.

Gregory urged the white people to understand the attitude of the "Blacks" in order to understand why they riot. He told of his first meeting with Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown in the South about six years ago. He stated that these kids were obtaining their freedom house with nonviolence while the red-necked crackers shot them up and blew them up. He cited Carmichael's recent remarks relating to not wanting any whites in the Civil Rights Movement and then explained that Carmichael does not want "northern white liberals" involved in local situations in Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi, as this serves to antagonize the southern red necks when these same northern white liberals cannot guarantee civil rights to the Negroes in their own home town up north. He stated that the Negro wants help from the white radicals not the white liberals. HSA

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Gregory ridiculed Congress for passing a bill against burning draft cards within a period of a few days after one had been burned but had not been able to pass anti-lynching law after hundreds of lynchings. Gregory claimed to be opposed to violence and opposed to all war and was especially resentful of the U. S. sending troops to Vietnam to inflict freedom for a bunch of foreigners when there is no enforcement of freedom at home. He repeated that he does not agree with violence but had to admit that progress comes only after riots and as an example cited the recent hiring of thousands of Negroes by the Ford Motor Company in Detroit. He claimed they were hired only because the fires got too close to the Ford Plant.

Chief [ ] advised that on March 31, 1968, Gregory appeared before a group of approximately 150 students and faculty in the Morris Chapel on the UOP Campus. He gave a short speech entitled "Where's The Church, Baby?" He spoke of the failure of the church to meet its commitment and told of his hope that the church would put an end to capital punishment. He told of his disillusionment of the church at an early age because of its hypocritical attitude.

Chief [ ] advised there was no racial activity of any type during the time Gregory spoke in the Stockton, California, area.

Dick Gregory Says Blacks 'Cricket in Whites' Ear'

Negro comedian Dick Gregory is a hungry man.

The hunger is both physical, resulting from a 40-day self-imposed fast in protest to the Vietnam War, and psychological—a burning appetite to insure equal rights to his fellow Negroes in this country.

Both were displayed here Saturday night when the thin, bearded comedian delivered an emotional 2½-hour lecture that brought an applauding audience in University of the Pacific's Conservatory Auditorium to its feet.

WEAKENED VOICE

"I noticed LBJ left the country and was blessed by the Pope—Now we can't get out, and who's going to bless us?" he chided in an obviously weakened voice.

Then followed the customary jabs at the Establishment:

"Hey, this is a private school, isn't it? That means even Ronald Reagan can't threaten you."

"I'm tempted to fly to South Africa and get me a white heart," he proclaimed. "But, you know, I hate the thought that you white folks'll start assumin' that we gonna start givin' you spare parts."

Gregory said he'd prefer seeing integration where it shows, "Like I'd like to see a white cat get a black foot."

An urgent surge of frustration flowed from Gregory's speech. He damned United States involvement in Vietnam, crime in the streets, and government neglect of domestic issues.

NO BUILDING

On Vietnam: "It's as if I called in napalm on a building to get rid of the rats and roaches. Ain't no rats and roaches left, but there ain't no building either. . . . Now tell me, what other country in the world is going to ask the U.S. to help them achieve a democracy after seeing how we're doing it in Vietnam?"

On race riots: "Crime in the streets has become America's new way of saying 'nigger.' . . . People call on me to come and say something to stop a riot. Well, I didn't heat 'em up, and I don't know a way to cool 'em off."

On government assistance: "If welfare bothers you so much, then stop callin' it that. Call it foreign aid, 'cause that don't seem to bother you at all."

A self-declared candidate for the presidency of the United States, Gregory stated his aims are "totally non-violent."

He crowned the incumbent "The slickest tyrant that walked the face of this earth since Julius Caesar."

Gregory declared his allegiance to black leaders Martin Luther King, Stokely Carmichael, and H. Rapp Brown.

Unperturbed by the varying views they represent, Gregory cited Dr. King as a "misunderstood man" to whom the country owes a debt of gratitude for keeping the lid on a dangerously boiling vat of violence.

MILITANT VIEWS

The militant views of Brown and Carmichael were dismissed by Gregory as "completely understandable." He noted their tireless efforts on behalf of the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC), prior to their present preaching of the "get a gun" philosophy.

"Carmichael and Brown," advised Gregory, "have dared to become as bitter as Patrick Henry."

Gregory rasped, "when ol' Khrushchev said he'd bury us, we said, cool as you please. 'come on, baby,' and he had all those missiles and all those destroyers, and now two young men stand up and make a speech and the whole country is terrified."

"And you know what, baby," Gregory shook his head incredulously, "Stokely, he ain't even got one missile. And Rapp Brown, well, he don't even own a canoe."

"But you white folks know we'll burn this country down house by house, brick by brick—that's what they're talking about," he lamented. "We got to give sanity back to an insane nation."

The lengthy lecture led Gregory to the final observation:

"The white folks in this country is the lion, and the black folks is the cricket—and we're gonna jump in your ear every time we get the chance."

Fresno State College, Fresno, California, advised that Gregory was scheduled to make an address in the Cafeteria at appearance was sponsored by the Community Lecture Service.

The following article appeared in the April 1,
1968, issue of the "Fresno Bee" daily newspaper:

Dick Gregory Shows 3 Faces In CC Talk

President Johnson "is the slickest tyrant since Julius Caesar," a man who has become rich in public office and who presides over a "sick, insane nation" in danger of take-over by a "Nazi-Facist" element, says Dick Gregory, the nonviolent but militant civil rights crusader.

However, Johnson's decision not to run may signal an end to an "era of political muscle" and a new period of statesmanship in America, says Dick Gregory, the presidential candidate.

"But we're going to have to watch LBJ — if he leaves the country next week, I'm going to say, 'Bye, you-all!'" says Dick Gregory, the comedian.

Gregory, 35, a former night club comic who has become a preacher for the rights of American minorities, and against what he considers to be the sins of the country, socked it to an audience of a thousand persons at Fresno City College last night, in a two-hour sample of his new, stiff line.

Wide-Ranging Speech

Wearing a dark-green jump suit and appearing with a beard, which he said will remain until America makes peace in Vietnam, Gregory spoke here on the 32nd day of his second 40-day fast in protest of the war. He did not look weak, and in fact used energy enough for two well-fed men in a speech that ranged from off-hand gags to fire-and-brimstone pulpit oratory.

And while he still says some very funny things, Gregory appears to be in dead earnest about his principal theme: America is in bad trouble, sinking fast, and it is up to the youth of the country to pull it out.

Most of what he had to say centered on racism and the situation of the black man in this country, but he also had a word for the Mexican-American, the Indian and "the poor white hill-billy."

One of the blacks' biggest problems has been in remaining too humble in the face of white repression, Gregory said.

"Black people should adopt a

Se Gregory, Page 6-A

Gregory

policy of being totally militant to the system," he declared. "Nonviolence is my own personal hangup — I won't preach nonviolence, because all that means is black folks aren't supposed to hit white folks."

Before settling into the serious substance of his message, Gregory offered some material like that in his old routines.

He noted that the only successful heart transplant to date involved a black heart (Clive Haupt's, donated to Dr. Philip Blaiberg) in a white man.

"That's the only thing wrong with white folks—they just need a change of heart." After that drew heavy applause, Gregory added: "But the last thing we want white folks to assume is that we're going to be your spare parts."

Speaking as a presidential candidate, which he has declared he seriously is, Gregory said one of the first things he would do is set up a $50 billion, white-folks "rest plan"—in order to open up jobs for blacks. But he predicted he would incur the wrath of blacks, who would demand to know why he was giving whites "all those checks while they ain't doing nothing but having all those babies."

Most of the balance of his talk was without levity. Much of his comment touched on American violence. "There's no way to discuss America today without talking of violence. America is a very violent nation."

Whites will not understand the powder-keg of the ghetto until they venture from their "lily-white suburbs" and see some of the "mean, evil" Negroes who "don't give a damn about dying," Gregory said in warning about chances of summer violence.

Speaking of the President's riot commission report, Gregory said he thought the $80 billion proposed for urban ailments "is not going to solve the problem." First, he said, "we've got to get black folks to trust this country."

On crime, Gregory recalled congressional cheers when Johnson called for control of "crime in the streets." White crime or white violence doesn't upset the nation, he said, but when the crime is black, "the country goes crazy."

He warned of the far-right "Minute Men" whose dynamite he claimed may blow up white suburbs, and of the American penchant for guns that sees "grown men go hunting for little-bitty rabbits with a shotgun."

He called college and teen-aged youth "the No. 1 moral force" in the nation, but cautioned that "the system is getting ready to wipe out young folks," by measures such as elimination of deferments from military service for graduate students.

The job of youth, Gregory declared, is to "give sanity back to a nation gone stone mad."

Before his lecture in the City College gymnasium, Gregory met briefly with reporters. Appearing minutes after President Johnson's disclosure he would not seek re-election, Gregory said he was "caught by surprise" by the announcement.

"But I think we have to give the credit to the young kids — I think it's a tremendous victory for peaceful but militant protest."

Commenting on the changed election picture, Gregory said he could not support "any politician," including the announced candidates. America needs "a statesman" which is what he declares he would be if elected.

Asked about his reactions to the riot commission report, Gregory said he was surprised "it was this honest" regarding racism, but added he was disappointed who they put the blame on. Rather than white racism, he stated, the finger should point to "politicians" who have sworn to uphold the constitution.

Turning to implications of Memphis rioting last week, Gregory said it was "very important" the disturbance was checked in one day. He added that police now seem to understand the difference between dealing with "a hoodlum, a thug, and a looter, and with a revolter."

"A lot of things are not going to get out of hand because of advanced police training," he declared.

Will the country solve its racial problems, or will the end be revolution? Said Gregory:

"I have a firm belief in my heart we've gone beyond the point of no return, unless we get a shift in the wind. Tonight may be that shift in the wind, with the President stepping down. . . I think if we don't solve the problems confronting the country in the next three years, that America won't exist — it will be torn apart from the inside."

SPEAKS IN VALLEJO

Dick Gregory Hits Moral Pollution

The major problem confronting America today is "moral pollution" and it is up to the younger generation to solve this problem created by their elders, Dick Gregory told a crowd of 900 in Vallejo Monday night.

Speaking at Hogan High School, Gregory, an independent candidate for president who has been mentioned as the possible standard bearer for the new Peace and Freedom Party, said: "The number one problem confronting this country is not the problem of air pollution, but moral pollution. I say to you youngsters, you got to solve the problems the old, morally corrupt generation has presented."

Turning to the Democratic and Republican parties, Gregory said they won't let you vote at 18, but make you wait until you're 21 when you are "thoroughly morally corrupted."

"That's why the Peace and Freedom Party has it all, baby, they're the only way out," Gregory told the crowd. The Peace and Freedom Party is currently circulating an 18-year-old initiative ballot measure.

America from its "insanity," Gregory said. "What's wrong with an 18-year-old saying to his country, damn it, if I'm too young to vote, then I should be too young to die."

STAYS ON FAST

Although in the 33rd day of a 40-day fast in protest of the Vietnam war, Gregory entertained and confronted the audience for two and a half hours, interspersing criticisms of America with cutting wit.

He opened his talk by saying: "I just finished crying about LBJ being out of work," but minutes later added if he were elected president, he would "bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ over there."

Condemning all aspects of the "establishment," Gregory told the audience: "The biggest job you youngsters have is to give sanity back to the insane nation. The Senate and House debate four months over a clean meat bill. Is clean meat debateable?"

Turning to the failure of Congress to pass the anti-rat bill, Gregory said: "You wiped out the buffalo but you can't get rid of the rat."

U.S. POLICY HIT

Attacking U.S. policy in Vietnam, Gregory said if you believe what you read in the newspaper, the Viet Cong Tet offensive "didn't hurt us. We won." But wasn't LBJ surprised when he tried to call the American Embassy and a Viet Cong answered, Gregory said.

Recalling President Johnson's speech Sunday night, Gregory asked: "How do you de-escalate the war cutting back in the bombing and calling up the reserves?" He answered by saying: "When they shot down two $6 million planes, LBJ decided it's cheaper to lose boys rather than the planes."

With an audience of about 50 per cent black, Gregory spent much of his speech on race problems in America.

He advised young black people, when riots again are televised during the summer, to call their parents to the television, turn down the sound, and read the Declaration of Independence. The section Gregory said to read was:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men. That whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it."

Gregory continued by saying the Black man has not received these unalienable rights during his 300 years in America. "If you think the civil rights bill is progress, you white people ought to live under it. We want the Constitution."

The problem with America, it refuses to face up to racial violence and it keeps passing the buck, Gregory said. "Someday we will have to admit America is the number one racist country on earth," he said. "If these problems existed in any other country on earth, we could solve them."

TOO MANY GUNS

"One day you young kids are going to ask the question — if democracy is as good as you (adults) tell us it is, why are we running around the world trying to ram it down people's throats with a gun?

Further commenting on violence, Gregory said he was committed to non-violence but America today is a "violent country."

"I don't go around preaching non-violence because it is the white folks who own the army, planes, and police," Gregory said. "How in the hell are you going to ask a nigger to be non-violent?"

Gregory cited Black Power "committed to non-violence" but leaders Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown of examples of two young men who were non-violent six years ago during the civil rights movement in the south but today "are telling the truth" and have scared the most mighty nation on earth to death."

Commenting on the Black Power speeches of Carmichael and Brown, Gregory said: "When a whole nation can hate two men for telling the truth, there's something wrong with the nation, not the two men."

Gregory concluded his speech by saying we no longer need liberals, but "radicals." Seeing the hope of the country in the young, he concluded: "It's a sick country. It's yours, you youngsters to straighten up or tear down."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

An article appearing in the March 25, 1968, issue of "The Sacramento Bee" newspaper revealed that Gregory was scheduled to appear at American River College (ARC), Sacramento, California, on April 2, 1968.

On April 3, 1968, a source <sup>who has furnished reliable information in the past</sup> advised that Gregory appeared at ARC as scheduled and spoke before a crowd of approximately 1,700 persons, most of whom were of college age.

Gregory reviewed the history of the Negro race from the days of slavery to the present so-called Civil Rights legislation. He claimed to be an adherent of nonviolence but has nothing but respect for Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown and invited the white radical students to join the Black minority cause. He also praised Martin Luther King and claimed there would be more severe rioting and bloodshed if it were not for the nonviolent attitude of King.

Gregory also criticized Senator Robert Kennedy and stated that when Kennedy was a statesman about eight years ago, he was a highly respected national leader but now that he is in politics, he "stinks."

Gregory complimented the students throughout the country for their continuous protest against the war situation, the draft situation and certain policies laid down by the Johnson Administration. He gave credit to the student protesters for forcing President Johnson's decision in not accepting the nomination as a candidate during the coming national elections. He urged the students to continue their violent and nonviolent actions against the "rotten establishment." He claimed that the riots which are bound to occur during the coming summer will make last year's riots appear to be insufficient.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The source advised that no incidents occurred in connection with the appearance of Gregory at ARC.

The following articles appeared in the April 3, 1968, issue of "The Sacramento Bee" newspaper and the April 5, 1968, issue of "The Beaver," ARC newspaper, respectively:

'We Don't Hate You'

Gregory Says Whites Have 'Stinking System'

By Art McGinn

Negro comedian Dick Gregory, with wit as grim as the ghetto itself, last night tried to explain to about 1,700 students, mostly white, what it is like to be black in "white America."

"We don't hate you," he told a standing-room-only crowd at American River College. "We hate your stinking white system, and everything it stands for."

Cites Examples

As an example of the "system," Gregory said:

"If a German soldier had shot my father dead in World War II, he could come to this country today — right now — and live in a neighborhood that my father, who would have died fighting for his country, could never have moved into."

He gave another example:

"A Negro named Charles Drew gave the world blood plasma. But he bled to death in a hospital where they wouldn't give him blood plasma, his own invention, because he had black skin."

35th Day Of Fast

Gregory, on the 35th day of a 40-day anti-Vietnam fast but showing no signs of it in a 2½-hour speech in the Student Center, said the racism and rampant materialism of "the system" have made this country "the most morally polluted, corrupt and insane nation on the face of the earth today."

Interrupted by applause several times, Gregory chided the recent report of the President's Commission on Civil Disorder, which recommended a crash $80 billion program to alleviate riot conditions in the ghettos.

"Baby, you ain't gonna buy this one," Gregory said. "It doesn't cost one nickel to enforce the U.S. Constitution and the U.S. Bill of Rights."

Citing a string of what he called "double-standard practices against Negroes and other minority groups, he charged:

"It's the insults that are driving us crazy."

"And if this nation doesn't stop insulting us, we'll burn this nation down house by house, brick by brick. And don't tell us education is our problem — that's a cheap white cop-out."

(U)

Tired Of System

"We are tired of this whole vast system playing games with us. We are tired of a nation that tells us to be 'non violent' when you — the whites — own all the gas, the police, the CIA and the napalm."

Gregory, noting he is opposed to violence, said "We are going to take your own violence and make you destroy yourselves with it."

Calls It Youth's Job

Gregory said he spent 98 per cent of his lecturing time on college campuses, because the young persons of the nation "have the job of giving sanity back to an insane nation!"

He said they will discover the "No. 1 and the No. 2 men" in the country are "farmers and cops."

"You will find they are both very important, and that if you pay them enough — maybe even overpay them — they can be pretty decent fellows," he said.

"We're tired of your insults . . . Baby, we will burn this nation down house by house and brick by brick if you don't quit insultin' us!" This is the cry of angry frustration, the cry of a man who feels the United States is not living up to the guarantees of the Constitution, a man who is going to do something about it if things are not changed soon.

Whether or not the hundreds of people who crowded into the Student Center at 8 p.m. Tuesday agreed with Dick Gregory, they listened; and when, two hours and 20 minutes later, the Negro leader concluded his speech, they gave him a standing ovation.

"The number one problem in this country," said Gregory, "is moral pollution." And the former comedian implored the young people in the audience to help him eliminate the problem.

He condemned the hypocrisy of the United States for insisting the South Vietnamese government eliminate the corruption in its ranks when America has not cleaned up crime syndicates in her own cities.

He deplored the fact that this is a country where freedom supposedly exists yet where southern Negroes, among them Stokeley Carmichael and Rapp Brown, both one-time advocates of non-violence, pulled guard duty on freedom houses to keep them from being burned by white southerners. And where, only six years ago, as many as 20 civil rights workers were murdered or disappeared within a week's time.

He also told of being locked up in the Birmingham, Ala. jail after a demonstration and having to watch as jail officials allowed lesbians to enter the cell directly across from his and molest the little girls, some no more than 4 years old, who had been among those arrested.

In order to focus attention on the "insanity" of the present system that has allowed so many injustices to occur, non-violent demonstrations have been planned to begin next month in Chicago. The veteran protester stated, "After the Democratic Party announced it would hold its convention in Chicago, I sent letters to the president, party chairman, the mayor and the city council expressing my objection to the selection of Chicago as the site for the convention inasmuch as Chicago has not even tried to solve its problems of racial injustice and economic deprivation. Unless something is done soon, I will begin demonstrations the last week of May. These peaceful non-violent demonstrations will begin on a 12 hour a day schedule and be increased to 24 hours a day by July 4 until dozens of demonstrations will be conducted in different parts of the city simultaneously and continuously."

The purpose of these marches, he said, is to tie up the police force and hopefully force the government to call out the National Guard. "If the National Guard is required to maintain peace and order in Chicago, this summer, the United States will have to face the world-wide shame of a democratic government forced to hold a democratic convention we would recognize the situation as evidence of a tumbling government."

In spite of the violence and injustice he has seen, Gregory says, "I am committed to non-violence, just to myself." But he does not oppose the violent actions of others.

Gregory Hits Moral Pollution

He sees the United States as a country that glorifies violence, where, if you watch Matt Dillon, you learn that it is "a virtue to shoot straight." The civil rights activist pointed out that, "We are sick and tired of you telling us to be non-violent when white folks have all the guns."

On the subject of politics, the write-in presidential hopeful praised young people for opposing the Vietnam war. "You made LBJ quit, baby . . . All you had was young, innocent right, and he had to go . . . It's the greatest victory in the history of the world for non-violent right."

The former comedian also expressed disillusionment with Robert Kennedy because he had come out in support of President Johnson prior to the New Hampshire primary. "He ain't to be believed no more."

Senator Eugene McCarthy fared better in the Negro activist's evaluation. Gregory commended the Democratic nomination hopeful for challenging the president's war policy, but criticized him for not taking a stand on civil rights issues.

As for why he is seeking the presidency, Gregory stated, "I'm a candidate because a lot of people don't want to vote for the lesser of two evils; I'm giving them a choice."

Poverty programs alone will not help, he feels. And poverty is not what is making Negroes riot. "Insults are what's driving us crazy . . . It won't cost this country one nickel to implement this constitution . . . We ain't never going to solve this problem 'til we can trust you."

Although he was in the 35th day of his 40 day Vietnam protest fast, Gregory seemed almost tireless. At times he stood talking quietly, almost whispering, but in other instances, he would nearly begin to dance and would shout into the microphone.

In summary, Dick Gregory is a revolutionary. He is out to destroy not democracy, he feels, but the moral pollution that keeps this country from being a democracy.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On April 4, 1968, Harold T. Kulbeth, Chief of Police, Merced, California, advised Special Agent  that on the evening of April 3, 1968, Richard Claxton Gregory spoke at the Merced County Fairgrounds Pavilion. His appearance was sponsored by the Associated Students of Merced College, a faculty approved organization at Merced College, Merced, California.

The meeting was attended by between 200 and 300 persons. Gregory was in the final stages of a forty-day fast and appeared unsteady on his feet as he delivered his speech. Gregory discussed the Civil Rights problem in the U. S.; rioting by the Negro; and crime on the streets. He also denounced President Johnson, Senator Robert Kennedy and Senator Eugene McCarthy.

The audience at this meeting was composed mainly of Negroes but there were a large number of whites present. No disturbance resulted from his speech even though between 50 and 75 persons left the meeting while Gregory was speaking.

The following article appeared in the April 4, 1968, issue of the "Merced Sun-Star" newspaper:

Gregory Addresses 250 at Pavilion

By DORIS PIRES

Sun-Star Staff

The fireman and the cop are the best friends you have," Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, presidential candidate and civil rights activist, told the approximately 250 people who gathered at the Fairgrounds Pavilion Wednesday evening.

Gregory, whose appearance here was sponsored by the Associated Students of Merced College, said society has treated both the fireman and policeman like dirt.

"If you want to get rid of crime in the streets," he said, "give dignity and respect back to the policeman, pay him what he's worth. Then you'll have no more problem. Ain't no man going to do something in front of a man that has dignity."

"Garbage collectors can go on strike," Gregory said, "and get higher pay. One of these days, all the firemen and cops are going to wake up and decide not to go to work. Believe me, when you get robbed, raped and your house burns down, you're going to see that they get decent wages."

Gregory pointed out that young people, as well as adults think it is terrible that our young men must put on a uniform and go to Vietnam to face death.

But, he added, when he dons his uniform each day and kisses his children good-bye, the policeman knows that it may be for the last time.

As for police brutality, Gregory said, "you treat a man like a dog and he acts like a dog."

At the end of the 35th day of a 40-day fast in protest of the war, Gregory appeared weak. His knees buckled almost constantly during the three hours he spoke, giving the appearance of a bobbing and weaving fighter. At times he seemed to forget what it was he wanted to say.

Yet, whether crooning softly, "that's what we're talking about, baby," or booming sonorously from the Declaration of Independence, "all men are created equal, with certain inalienable rights... and when these rights are denied for a long period of time, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it and institute a new form of Government," Gregory never lost his audience.

Of course, Gregory said, the white fathers of this country did not riot over the same things the black people riot over. "They got up tight over a tea tax! Now you know, we aren't going to riot over a Lipton's tea bag!"

One of the problems in the United States today which bothers him most, Gregory said, is that of moral pollution.

The American attitude toward crime and violence is difficult to understand, he said, in fact, "it is insane."

Crime in the streets is another term for the problem of what to do about the Negro, Gregory said. But almost no attention is paid to white crime.

"We support one of the biggest crime syndicates in the world," he said. "Bobby Baker stole $8 million while he was working for LBJ but we're supposed to believe LBJ never saw any of it or even knew it was going on.

"I'll bet you if Bobby Baker was working for Adam Clayton Powell, they'd both be in jail!"

Another example of American insanity, Gregory said, is James Hoffa and Cassius Clay. Clay is fighting induction into the Army, he said, and was stripped of his heavyweight boxing crown before the outcome of that trial was known. "But Jimmy Hoffa remained president of the Teamsters' Union right up until he went to jail! That's what we're talking about, baby, justice."

Gregory insists he is serious about being a presidential candidate.

He denounced both senators Eugene McCarthy and Bobby Kennedy although he said McCarthy was the most honest of the two. "He attacked a tower with a toothpick," Gregory said, "and he knocked it down. Then Bobby out, LBJs, LBJ and says he'll run."

He warned his audience against Kennedy because he is a politician. "Besides that, he looks good," Gregory said. "We saw through LBJ because he didn't look so good so we could see what he was doing, but watch out for Bobby... he's pretty."

Perhaps the most obvious example of America's insanity, Gregory said, is its reaction to Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown.

"Krushchev comes over here and says he will bury us and we say 'Come on, baby,' but Rap and Stokely have scared this nation half out of its mind. That's insane."

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also known as
Dick Gregory

On [redacted] a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available a projected itinerary for a speaking tour by RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, a Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist who has been arrested on various occasions as a result of his civil rights activities. One talk appearing on this itinerary was shown as scheduled for April 9, 1968, at Olympic College, Bremerton, Washington. The itinerary also listed a talk to be made at Central Washington State College, Ellensburg, Washington, the same date. b7D

On April 11, 1968, [redacted] Olympic College, said that in January, 1968, an effort was made to obtain the services of GREGORY as a speaker at the college, but no agreement with respect to financial arrangements could be made and no firm commitment was ever made. GREGORY did not and is not in the future scheduled to appear at Olympic College. b6 b7C

On April 11, 1968, Sgt. [redacted] Ellensburg, Washington, Police Department, said he had attended an affair at Central Washington State College (CWSC) in Ellensburg on the evening of April 10, 1968, at which GREGORY appeared as a symposium speaker. b6 b7C

[redacted] estimated the audience at the affair, sponsored by the Student Government Association, at about 750-900, of which some 50 were Negroes. Of the latter, more than half appeared to be persons from out of town, or, at least, non-students. There were no demonstrations or disorder of any kind; however, in the text of his speech, GREGORY at one point addressed himself to "any FBI or CIA Agents in the audience" with the admonition to "mark in their book that one policeman's life will be taken for every black person's life lost." He stressed that politicians are responsible for much of the current disorder, remarking "they promise much but do not fulfill their promises." b6 b7C

ENCLOSURE

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

GREGORY derided the Civil Rights Bill as too slow, and insisted Negroes want all their rights and privileges now. He stressed that on the same day he had heard of the death of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. he also received notice of the affirmation by the Washington State Supreme Court of a 90-day jail sentence which had been imposed upon him by the State of Washington in the past as a result of his involvement there in Indian "fishing rights" demonstrations. He said he would "do his 90 days" quietly, but that the 90 days would probably be something the people of Washington would never forget, hinting that his friends might engage in civil disobedience during his jail term. He inferred this coming summer might be a most difficult time for any persons wishing to visit Washington as tourists.

GREGORY alluded to the assassination of KING as probably "the work of Government Agents," and placed the deaths of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and of MALCOLM X in this same category.

[ ] said GREGORY had stayed in Ellensburg at a local motel and was accompanied by a light skinned Negro woman who registered separately as [ ] [ ] N.W., Washington, D. C. He neither made nor received any telephone calls.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

An article covering the talk of GREGORY at CWSC appeared in the April 11, 1968, issue of the Yakima Herald Republic, a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Yakima, Washington, as follows:

Gregory blisters politicians

ELLENSBURG — Negro comedian Dick Gregory was deadly serious in his address to a Central Washington State College audience here last night.

America has got to stop worrying about the methods of Dr. Martin Luther King, Stokely Carmichael and Rap Brown, and start talking about their common purpose, he said.

That purpose is the realization of the principles of the U.S. Constitution for black America, he said. "It's not the white racist who allows injustice to exist in this country, it's the politician who swears in his oath of office to uphold the Constitution and then doesn't."

Gregory said he will return to Washington State this summer to serve a 90-day jail sentence for violating state fishing laws while staging an Indian fish-in on the Nisqually River last year. That protest was in support of the Indian's right to fish off the reservations without restrictions.

"For the first time, maybe my Indian brothers will get the kind of attention they deserve," he said. "I'm going to do them 90 days with pride. It will be 90 days the state will never forget."

GREGORY spoke on April 11, 1968, at Western Washington State College (WWSC), Bellingham, Washington, and the following article covering this appeared in the April 12, 1968, issue of the Bellingham Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation published in Bellingham, Washington:

Gregory Tells College Students They Have Job to Do on Rights

By HUNTLY GORDON
Of The Bellingham Herald
"You young kids got a job to do," Negro comedian Dick Gregory told an audience of about 1,200 Western Washington State College students Thursday afternoon.

Gregory, a civil rights leader and announced presidential candidate, appeared at Carver Gymnasium on the 44th day of a 47-day fast.

His fast, a demonstration against the war in Vietnam, may "continue 'til election day in November", he told an audience from which he elicited occasional applause from small pickets of listeners.

WRONG EMPHASIS

"I spend 92 per cent of my time on college campuses," he said, and hoped they could find the answer to the problem of why men don't put emphasis on how fast man can eradicate man's inhumanity to man rather than how fast he can travel from point to point.

Referring to the State Supreme Court's refusal to strike down a 90-day jail sentence, he said that he would be returning to the state soon to serve the sentence, but warned about the consequences.

"You don't have a Ku Klux Klan in white sheets up here. Your clan wears black sheets and calls itself the Supreme Court," and added, "When I get through with this state this summer, Whitey will be dead or as American as anybody."

Speaking of the Civil Rights bill passed Wednesday, Gregory said: "We don't want a rights bill, what we want is the rights guaranteed in the Constitution."

INSTALLMENT PLAN

Noting that provisions of the bill don't go into effect until 1970, he added: "We don't want our rights on the installment plan."

Repeatedly insisting that the white man "is playing games with us" and "that we're tired of games," he launched into a discussion of non-violence.

"What is non-violence?" he asked. "To some it's turn both cheeks, then swing. To others, it's not hitting first. To others it's not getting hurt," he said.

In referring to the late Martin Luther King Jr., he said that non-violence is a method — and only a method — but the purpose is equal rights. Change in method doesn't mean a change in purpose.

UP TO HISTORY

"History will decide which method is best," he said.

Turning to the American Indian, he said that the highest rate of suicide in the nation and the tuberculosis rate is among Indians.

"As long as he's peaceful, no one gives a damn," he added. "I hope we'll live long enough to be as afraid of injustice as we are of communism," he declared.

He told the students: "Don't let them (older people) tell you that you're weak. You made the number one man-quit. You've got a thing going."

Referring to the civil rights movement, he said that it no longer needs northern white liberals, it needs white radicals.

"Before you come South, take a nigger home and bug your mom and daddy. We're tired of your picking on our redneck cracker," he said.

In other parts of his speech, he said it is "more honorable to go to jail than to go to Canada," to oppose the draft law; that Negroes should have "qualified, gone to Mexico and dropped the baton" in the Olympics, rather than refused to participate early; and that "money won't buy the Negro's trust."

Saying that a statesman doesn't have to solicit votes, so he wouldn't discuss his presidential candidacy, he said he opposes Sen. Robert F. Kennedy because "he's lied to the world" when he said he hadn't entered the race because he thought it would split the Democratic party.

And of Sen. Eugene McCarthy, Gregory said he still likes him and "he hasn't lied to us yet."

He closed by inviting students down to Tacoma while he's serving his sentence for "the action."

Gregory was on campus to keynote the Associated Students nominating convention Thursday night.

S.C.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

With reference to GREGORY's talk at WWSC, [redacted] Security Officer, WWSC, who attended the affair, offered the following supplementary remarks on April 11, 1968:

b6
b7C

GREGORY said nothing in the course of his talk about disrupting the Democratic National Convention as he has in the past threatened to do. He talked a good bit about the Indians in the State of Washington and how they have suffered. He referred derisively to President JOHNSON on several occasions, and described him as the "slickest politician since Caesar;" said he originally had a rather high opinion of ROBERT F. KENNEDY, but this was before he became "a politician." He now holds him in low esteem. L 4.

GREGORY stated he had met JAMES GARRISON, the New Orleans Prosecuting Attorney, and remarked that they both know something the general public doesn't know--that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was sent to Russia by the FBI to see if the U-2 airplane made contrails at 27,000 feet.

GREGORY read from a paper he held in his hand an article pertaining to the shooting of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., this being to the effect that on a direct line of fire from the window from which the fatal shot was fired to where KING was standing was a tree, but this had been split and bent over, and "only the United States Government would be that thorough and have the foresight to move a tree from the line of fire." GREGORY said the Government also was involved in the shooting of MEDGAR EVANS.

With reference to the 90-day jail sentence imposed on GREGORY by the State of Washington for his actions in connection with the Indian fishing rights matter in that state, subject said he did not intend to appeal the Washington State Supreme Court affirmation of the sentence, but expects to start serving it on May 20, 1968.

At a press conference following his talk, [redacted] said GREGORY was asked whether he is still planning on disrupting the Democratic National Convention, and he replied "No, I don't have to now; you saw what happened in Chicago."

b6
b7C

[redacted] said there were no disturbances, demonstrations, or disorder of any kind incidental to subject's appearance in Bellingham. He said following his appearance

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

GREGORY was to be taken to Vancouver, B. C., Canada, airport where he had reservations on a flight to Seattle, Washington.

A source in Seattle, Washington, on April 11, 1968, advised that subject had reservations at the Hilton Inn at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport for the night of April 11-12, 1968; and [redacted] also had a separate reservation there for the same night. b6 b7c

A second source in Seattle advised that subject arrived in Seattle at 11:13 PM aboard United Air Lines (UAL) Flight #223 on the night of April 11, 1968, and departed Seattle on the morning of April 12, 1968, at 6:20 AM aboard UAL Flight #222 en route Salt Lake City via Portland, Oregon, and Boise, Idaho.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The "Bellingham Herald", issue of April 12, 1968, carried an item pertinent to GREGORY's imminent incarceration and this is reproduced below.

Group Plans Support Sit-in For Gregory

OLYMPIA (AP) — A group supporting Negro comedian Dick Gregory for President plans a sit-in outside the Thurston County jail while he serves his 90-day jail sentence for illegal fishing, Gregory's attorney said Thursday night. WA SH

Jack Tanner of Tacoma told the Capital City Press Club the demonstration would be staged by the Peace and Freedom Party, which has nominated Gregory for President in the California primary.

Gregory announced at Central Washington State College in Ellensburg Wednesday night that he would serve his sentence "with pride." The comic's appeal on a conviction arising out of demonstrations on behalf of Indian fishing rights was turned down last week by the State Supreme Court.

Tanner said Gregory did not plan to surrender until after he had asked the supreme court for a rehearing, which he has until May 4 to do. However, Gregory, who was in Seattle overnight Wednesday, said he would be prepared to start his sentence May 20. He plans to ask for an extension of the May 4 date.

A characterization of the Peace and Freedom Party is in the appendix.

APPENDIXTHE PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY OF WASHINGTON

The records of the Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington, indicate that the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) of Washington is a duly constituted minority political party in statutory conformity with the laws of the State of Washington. As a result of a nominating convention held in Seattle, Washington, on September 20, 1966, 276 registered voters qualified as delegates.

A press release issued by the PFP from its office, 512 Wellington Avenue, Seattle, Washington, on September 26, 1966, states the Party's platform is based on opposition to U.S. intervention in the war in Vietnam and declared "that the war is immoral, brutal, and illegal," and asked that American troops be withdrawn. It expressed concern about the grave effects of this war at home; and that preoccupation of the government and the American people with the war in Vietnam is causing the civil rights movement, which the Party supports, to meet with increasing resistance.

On August 24, 1967, a source advised that many communists attended the nominating convention of the PFP upon the urging and insistence of Communist Party leaders and qualified as delegates.

This same source also advised that at the PFP Political Issues Conference held in Seattle on May 7, 1967, Communist Party leaders participated and submitted position papers. A larger number of Communist Party members than at the nominating convention participated and many were elected to Congressional District Committees and representation on the PFP State Committee.

The above source advised on August 24, 1967, that at a meeting of the PFP held in Seattle on August 21, 1967, delegates were selected to attend a conference in Chicago, Illinois.

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated April 16, 1968. ZIL

On April 19, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an organization known as ~~Politics For Peace~~ is sponsoring a speech by Dick Gregory, Negro comedian, and critic of the United States Vietnam war policy, at the Orchard Junior High School, Skokie, Illinois, on April 28, 1968, at 2:30 PM. Gregory's topic is listed as "Moral Pollution in the United States."

This source stated that Politics For Peace is a continuation of the ~~National Conference for New Politics~~ which was held in Chicago over the Labor Day weekend of 1967. This organization is running a campaign to elect peace candidates for the 13th Congressional District in the Democratic primary to be held in Illinois on June 11, 1968.

This source further advised that there are seating arrangements at the Orchard Junior High School to accommodate 400 people, however, approximately 600 are expected to attend Gregory's appearance.

The above information is being furnished the United States Attorney, Chicago, Illinois, United States Secret Service, Chicago, Illinois, and 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency. It and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: 4-25-68

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages E3292-E3293. Congressman Rosenthal, (D) New York, extended his remarks concerning civil strife and stated "If our knowledge and understanding of the frustration, despair, and rage in our ghettos is limited, we must acknowledge a grave responsibility to give our full attention to those black Americans who can reach us with their words. Dick Gregory has shown us that he can communicate with white America. In an address before Yale College's senior class dinner last winter, he tells it very much like it is, and in exceptionally moving terms." The address was reprinted in the Washington Post on April 14, 1968. Mr. Rosenthal also inserted it in the Record. Gregory in relating the events of school integration in the South stated "You're not only being attacked by the mob, but by the police, - - -. Then you realize today is your turn to die, and you stop being so scared and you start relating with reality and you look around and you see the FBI taking pictures that will never show. You know what I'm talking about, don't you?"

RACIAL MATTER

The information below was provided on April 22, 1968 by a source who was in a position to be well informed and who has furnished reliable information in the past.

During the evening of April 9, 1968 at a private residence at 3606 N.E. Garfield Avenue, Portland, Oregon, about 50 persons gathered for a meeting of Black Student Union (BSU) members. Persons attending, all non-Caucasian, were mainly college students in the Portland area.

At 11:45 p.m. Dick Gregory, the nationally known Negro comedian, appeared at the residence. He said that he had been in Atlanta, Georgia in the day for the funeral of Martin Luther King and had flown directly to Portland for a scheduled public appearance in the evening at the University of Portland.

In addressing the BSU members, Gregory said that he does not usually talk to gatherings of Black students. Then commenting upon the death of Doctor King, he said: "This is it for this country. I am going to stick around until I see it fall then I am going to leave. I hate this country". He said that his purpose in appearing at colleges is to encourage militancy and revolution among the students. He noted that he is successful in this even among White students. Gregory stated that he is a "write-in" candidate for President of the United States and that after the election he is going to travel to 20 countries to see if they recognize him as a "President-in-exile." Persons present in the group asked Gregory questions about what they could do as students to help the cause of destruction in this country. Gregory said that he would not say anything that would cause him to be guilty of conspiracy, but he replied, "Keep on doing what you're doing". He noted that in Chicago, for example, there is a gas station situated by a freeway and that a pipe to one of the gas storage tanks could easily be broken permitting gas to flow over the freeway and when it was lit, all traffic on the freeway would be stopped. During the course of his talk, Gregory indicated he is opposed to racial violence, but it is the only way for Negroes to gain their manhood.

Gregory left the meeting at 1:15 a.m., April 10, 1968.

The above mentioned source advised that he has no further details relative to Gregory's comments during the BSU meeting.

RACIAL MATTERS

ReSClet and letterhead memorandum (LHM) both dated 4-19-68.

Fourteen pages of referenced LHM consist of copies of newspaper articles relating to public appearances by Gregory in your territory. The practice of submitting verbatim accounts of newspaper articles in letterhead memoranda is undesirable and should be avoided in the future. In this connection, you are referred to the FBI Handbook, Part III, page 154e, which states that pertinent data appearing in newspapers or publications should be concisely summarized in letterhead memoranda. B

Referenced LHM has been classified "~~Confidential~~" (U) because of data received from [redacted] concerning Gregory's appearance at American River College, Sacramento, California, on 4-2-68. As you are aware, Gregory on this occasion appeared before approximately 1,700 persons. It is felt that the possibility of disclosing the identity of this informant on the basis of information furnished is extremely remote and such a classification is, therefore, not considered warranted. Accordingly, Bureau copies of the LHM have been declassified and both Sacramento and Chicago should take similar action. b7D

Re Springfield airtel to Bureau dated 3-7-68. B

On 3-12-68, [redacted] Eastern Illinois University (EIU), Charleston, Illinois, advised that inasmuch as Charleston, Illinois, is a small, rural community, he expected no racial demonstrations or problems of any kind in connection with GREGORY's speech on 5-6-68.

On 3-12-68, [redacted] Security Officer, EIU, stated that he had no reason to believe there would be any demonstrations connected with GREGORY's speech. He advised that as a matter of course and in addition to his being in attendance himself, he is planning to have GREGORY's speech recorded. He offered to discreetly make a copy of the recording available to the FBI. He related that although there would be no display of force by police officers, his officers, city police officers, sheriff's deputies and State Police would be in an area adjacent to the campus in the event of any possibly disturbances.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY,
ALSO KNOWN AS

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated April 24, 1968.

On April 28, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory spoke before approximately 160 teen-agers, described as hippies, at Orchard Junior High School, Skokie, Illinois, that date. Gregory's speech was sponsored by an organization known as Politics For Peace which is a continuation of the National Conference for New Politics which was held in Chicago over the Labor Day weekend, 1967. The turnout at Gregory's speech was considered disappointing to the sponsors inasmuch as over 600 individuals were expected to be in attendance.

During the speech Gregory advised his audience that the Negroes of this country were going to "burn down this country brick by brick" if America did not wake up to its racism. Gregory was very critical of civil rights legislation which has been passed by Congress in recent years. He stated that the only good thing about this year's civil rights bill is that it was tied in with anti-riot legislation. Gregory stated, "This is good because it will force militant Negroes to stop talking, go underground and start doing something."

Gregory was also critical of "white liberals" and referred to them as obsolete. In reference to this, Gregory stated, "Liberals are the kind of people who will talk to you, they might even do something for you, but they always act as if they were doing you a big favor."

Gregory referred to Skokie, Illinois, as an anti-Negro area. He contended that Skokie was not only anti-Negro, but also populated by many crime syndicate figures. Gregory stated, "In this town you won't let a Negro live next to you, but you have syndicate hoods living all over. They are the filthiest snakes that crawl on this earth."

RACIAL MATTER

Sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

Source 1 on April 15, 1968, indicated that a rally which was being sponsored by the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) and the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) (see appendix) will be held at the intersection of Sunset and Vine, Los Angeles, California, on April 16, 1968. The purpose of this rally is to raise funds in memory of Bobby Hutton, who was recently shot and killed by members of the Oakland, California, Police Department. Hutton was a male Negro member of the BPPSD.

The PFP is a legitimate registered political party in the State of California.

Source 1 indicated that the rally would feature numerous well-known Black Nationalists and would include Dick Gregory, a Negro comedian, who is running for President of the United States.

Source 2 on April 17, 1968, related that a rally was held at the Kaleidoscope Club located at the intersection of Sunset and Vine, Los Angeles, California. This rally was sponsored by numerous Black Nationalist organizations in Los Angeles, California. There were approximately 500 persons who attended the rally which went without incident. The featured speakers included Dick Gregory and Bobby Seale, who is connected with the BPPSD.

On April 18, 1968, a third source advised that on Tuesday, April 16, 1968, at 8:00 p.m., a rally was held at the Kaleidoscope Club located at the intersection of Sunset and Vine, Los Angeles, California. The rally was sponsored by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the BPPSD, and the PFP. Between 400 to 500 persons attended this rally and of these, approximately 40 per cent were Negro.

Dick Gregory, a Negro comedian, was one of several featured speakers and he ridiculed the white race and urged that black men find white girls to love, as all he had ever seen in his life were white people making love. He criticized President Johnson, Robert Kennedy, and both major political parties in the United States.

Gregory Rally
Ventura College
Ventura, California

In the April 11, 1968, edition of the "Press Courier", a daily newspaper in Oxnard, California, an article appeared on Page 1 entitled "Gregory To Speak At Ventura College". This article indicated that Dick Gregory, a Negro civil rights leader, comedian, and author, would speak at Ventura College on April 17, 1968, in the college gymnasium. The article related that Gregory would draw an exceptionally large crowd and many groups were coming from outside the Ventura area.

On April 18, 1968, Lieutenant [redacted] Ventura Police Department, Ventura, California, advised that Dick Gregory was the featured speaker at a rally held at Ventura College gym, Ventura, California, on April 17, 1968. There were approximately 800 people in attendance who were mostly of the young "hippie type" and indicated there were few Negroes in the audience. Gregory criticized everything that was white and stressed how the Negroes had been suppressed by the white majority. This rally went without incident and no disturbances were reported and no arrests were made.

In the April 18, 1968, edition of the "Press Courier", a newspaper in Oxnard, California, an article appeared entitled "Gregory Apologizes For Negroes' Behavior" written by Bob Denman, which related substantially the following:

up your spring time and your cherry blossom season in Washington because everyone knows the riot season runs from June through August."

"Martin Luther King was our man and in the ghetto when somebody does in your man, you do something."

He criticized the United States as a sick insane country where a man who preaches nothing but good and love can be hated. He said of the civil rights bill passed by Congress after Martin Luther King's assassination, "You can take it and tear it up". "We don't want no special nothing for us. We want our rights under the same piece of paper by which we pay our taxes, the Constitution." He further related that "We'll burn this country down house by house, brick by brick, until you quit insulting us."

In his speech, Gregory criticized the war in Vietnam, President Johnson, poverty, and the white racist structure.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY FOR SELF-DEFENSE (BPPSD)

A source advised that the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) was formed by HUEY PERCY NEWTON, Minister of Defense, and BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, Chairman, in Oakland, California, in December, 1966, as a militant black nationalist political organization to combat "police brutality," to unite militant black youth, to determine the destiny of black communities, and to educate black people in African history. The political philosophy of the organization was taken from the writings of MAO TSE-TUNG of Communist China and black militant writers.

The official BPPSD publication "The Black Panther - Black Community News Service" indicates the leadership of the BPPSD advocates the use of guns and guerilla tactics in the violent revolutionary program to end oppression and to oppose the drafting of black men to fight in Vietnam.

A second source advised that in early 1967, SEALE, NEWTON, and their associates carried carbine rifles and holstered pistols in plain view on the streets of Oakland and elsewhere while on "defense patrols."

BOBBY GEORGE SEALE was one of the persons arrested by the Sacramento, California Police Department on May 2, 1967, when members of the BPPSD invaded the California State Legislative Assembly in Sacramento while in session, carrying loaded guns to protest restrictions on the carrying of guns.

A Grand Jury of Alameda County, California, Oakland, California, on November 13, 1967, indicted HUEY PERCY NEWTON on charge of murder of an Oakland, California police officer on October 28, 1967, in Oakland, California.

The first source advised that the headquarters office of the BPPSD at 5624 Grove Street, Oakland, California, is closed and that no membership meetings have been held since August, 1967.

The November 4, 1967, issue of "The Sun Reporter," a San Francisco, California Negro community newspaper, states that a HUEY PERCY NEWTON defense fund has been established and that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) through the national offices have pledged their complete and continuous support to the defense of HUEY PERCY NEWTON.

Dick Gregory, famed comedian and civil rights leader will speak tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Freeborn Hall. Gregory is sponsored by Student Forums. Gregory has been mentioned as a write-in candidate for President of the United States. He has come into the news recently for his hunger strikes against the war in Vietnam. Gregory has been arrested many times for his civil rights activities.

Gregory is a man with a message... a message of freedom and equality not only for the Negro but the entire human race. He has spent more time in southern jails, marched in more demonstrations, prevented more racial violence and worked harder for the rights of the Negro than any other entertainer in America. His autobiography, "Nigger" has become a best seller and his new book "Sermons" for Doubleday, looks to be an even bigger success.

But more than a commentator, more than an author, more than a comedian, he is a soldier in a war against hate and bigotry. His weapons include a complete personal dedication of his talent and a razor sharp sense of humor. His home is in five suitcases, a garment bag and a tape recorder. He lives en route, stopping to play countless benefits, deliver church sermons, lobby in Washington and speak at colleges and universities all over the country. Named as the man most hated by the Ku Klux Klan, he quips, "They're so out of style, I think they're the only people in the country who aren't using colored sheets." A dynamic and communicative man, his message is vital to the fight for equality in this country and his experience is first-hand.

Dick Gregory, in addition to being the great leader in the Negro's fight for equality is a top star of television, stage and motion pictures. He has toured the continent, become an international leader, starred on Broadway and on the major television shows, and made a spectacular motion picture debut in "Sweet Love, Bitter."

Gregory Places Society's Hopes In Hands Of Young During UCD Speech

DAVIS — Dick Gregory, civil rights leader, presidential candidate, author and comedian, last night placed the hopes of the Negro people and American society in the hands of the college student.

Gregory, who recently halted a 47-day fast in opposition to the war in Vietnam, was the guest of Student Forums on the Davis campus of the University of California.

"This generation of college youth," the 36-year-old entertainer remarked, "is the greatest in history, for you are willing to march, to demonstrate and to oppose the status quo for equality and right."

Cautions Youth

He cautioned youth to beware of "slick politicians and hackneyed explanations" for major events.

"The assassination of Martin Luther King," he stressed, "must be understood for what it is . . . the killing of an American by an American, not as King, a Negro, having been killed by a racist cracker.

"You young people feel the pain of the death of King," he remarked, "while the older generations feel the shame."

Tired Of Insults

Black people are tired of being insulted, Gregory continued, and of having to take a secondary position in society.

"Why is it?" he asked, "that a German who killed my father in World War II, making me fatherless for 26 years and my mother a widow, can come to America in 1968 and buy a home us black people cannot own?"

The black people were offended when President Johnson told King's widow he could not attend the funeral because he was too busy with a meeting with Gen. Westmoreland.

"Can this be right," he asked, "that a man with so much love in his heart, who felt so strongly toward equality and right, can be gunned down in the streets by hate, and then to be ignored for a meeting with a man of war as is Westmoreland?"

Gregory called society "sick" if it thinks a Negro soldier can be trained to kill a Viet Cong sniper at 500 yards, a man he does not know, "than return to his Negro community and not fight to liberate his mammy.

"The real problems in the world are in America," Gregory charged. "One has only to go 500 miles in any direction to find them."

He predicted that if any country in the world suffered from the social ills that exist in the United States, "We would surely be able to solve them."

Applause from more than 2,500 persons, capped with a standing ovation, greeted Gregory when he concluded, "America was mighty when she was right!"

Gregory wit lashes at politicians, injustices

By Jan Ritter

As a UCD audience convulsed with laughter, comedian Dick Gregory proved in Davis last night he's the world's funniest "36 year old non-violent vegetarian nigger."

Slim-built and slightly bearded, Gregory is a civil rights riot — pun intended — who fights his cause with a rambling and brilliant wit, instead of a gas bomb.

Yet, he can slash through gales of belly laughs, and seriously comment on the power of young people, and the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Gregory is campaigning for the presidency as a write in candidate for the Peace and Freedom Party. Speaking at the UCD sponsored student forum, he apologized for being out of campaign buttons but distributed hundreds of chartruese and orange bumper stickers. An estimated 3,500 persons were on hand for the talk.

"If elected president, the first thing I would do is paint the White House black, and the second thing would be to bring our boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ over there with nothing but barbecue sauce," said the candidate.

Gregory considers himself a statesman, as opposed to a politician.

"If you want a politician then vote for LBJ," said Gregory. He added his opinion of politicians saying 98 per cent are lowest only to the American crime syndicate.

Gregory urged his audience not to let "those slick politicians fool you ... LBJ the Hawk, Sen. Eugene McCarthy the Dove and Sen. Robert Kennedy the Chicken."

President Lyndon Johnson, often the basis for Gregory's jokes, was referred to as the "slickest thing walking this earth since Julius Caesar."

Another politician getting jabs from Gregory was California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

"I dig Reagan. Are you aware that Reagan spelled backwards is nagaer," he chided.

"If Bobby Baker had been working for Adam Clayton Powell instead of LBJ, both would be in jail today," said Gregory.

On the same vain, Gregory spoke of Cassius Clay former world boxing champion who lost his title because he refused induction in the Selective Service system. He called Clay, who has taken the name Mohammed Ali as a member of the Black Muslims, the "only man I know who got a divorce because his wife's dresses were too short."

"Clay lost his championship title, yet you allowed Jimmy Hoffa to remain teamster president while he was in jail appealing his case," Gregory said.

The Negro comedian, who said he spends 93 per cent of his time speaking at colleges and universities, made reference to the Negro boycott of the summer Olympics in Mexico City. He said he opposed the boycott at this stage . . . "they should have worked out and gone to Mexico city first."

Gregory said he was close to sports and was the third fastest trackman among the small colleges in 1954.

"I guess its the racism in me," he quipped.

Dressed in green work overalls, pink shirt and blue work jacket with bead pendant around his neck, Gregory explained he has extended his fast, which was supposed to end on Easter Sunday, to election day November 5. Besides his diet of liquids, the peace candidate said he will wear only work clothes, he will not shave or get a haircut nor will he buy a new car or purchase a pack of cigarettes until the war in Vietnam is ended.

"If you young people agree with me, just stop smoking and send an empty cigarette package to the manufacturer with a short note saying you will not buy, and will encourage your friends not to buy, any more cigarettes until the war has ended. Then watch and see how much power you young people have," he said.

"Speaking of the power of young people in today's society, Gregory attributed it to making "that man (LBJ) quit his job."

Gregory said he has much concern for the burden of the young folk today.

"I wish you young people could make America as afraid of injustices as she is of communism . . . You youngsters must understand this country is sick. Black folks are saying we want you (white people) to stop playing games with us.

"We (black people) are trying to say to this country, just stop insulting us . . . White people have rights under the constitution of the United States but black people have rights under civil rights legislation. That's the same as segregation," he exclaimed.

Gregory made reference to the civil rights bill which President Johnson signed last week saying it only covers 80 per cent of open housing and does not come into full affect until 1970.

"If I were draft age then I would call my draft board right now and tell them you can't have me until 1970, and then you can only have 80 per cent," he said.

He said the same bill provides life in the penitentiary for killing a civil rights worker "and everyone here knows that, just means seven years in jail."

Gregory said the one good thing in the measure is the anti-riot clause. "All you cats who were talking about doing something after Dr. King's death are going to have to shut up now or go to jail."

"You young folks always will feel the pain of Dr. King's murder. Older Americans will feel the shame," Gregory said.

"This is a strange country with a strange atmosphere where men of peace can be hated and shot down in the streets while men of war like Gen. William Westmoreland are loved."

Gregory said it was hard to explain reaction in the black ghettos after King's assassination because "black people are ignorant and close to nature and black and whites don't think alike."

"This country hasn't woke up yet. Everyone talks about Dr. King's non-violence but nobody wants to talk about his purpose which was equal justice. This is the same purpose the black militants have, the same purpose of H. Rap Brown and Stokley Carmichael, only their approach is different. Each one has his own method of trying to get equal justice," explained Gregory.

"Black soldiers enlist in the military five times more frequently than whites. This shows blacks love to kill for freedom... After you train this black cat to kill and use napalm then you expect him to come home and not kill you for the same type of freedom."

Gregory spoke of the inequities of our selective service system. He said it rejected men who had killed previously because the government preferred to train men how to kill, in other words the government does not want experienced men.

On the lighter side, Gregory talked about the recent medical advances in transplants.

"One thing I don't want is for white people to forget that black people also need spare parts. However, what I don't want to see is a white cat with a black foot.

On the heart transplants... "there's nothing wrong with white folks that a change of heart wouldn't help."

DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1968

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Dick Gregory, Negro entertainer, and civil rights activist, in a press conference on April 15, 1968, advised he was cancelling all previous arrangements to demonstrate against the Democratic National Convention scheduled for late August, 1968, in Chicago, Illinois.

Gregory stated that in view of the disturbances and violence which occurred in Chicago following the murder of Martin Luther King, he did not believe nonviolent marches could be held in Chicago. He also stated that as a citizen he did not want to be responsible for the possible death of anyone who might participate in such demonstrations.

An article in the "Chicago Tribune," a major Chicago Newspaper, dated April 16, 1968, cites that Dick Gregory called off plans for a civil rights protest here this summer and warned Negroes to "put aside emotionalism" arising from the death of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Continuing, Gregory said at his press conference which was held in the Knickerbocker Hotel "a peace march in the wake of frustration of Doctor King's death could easily top off major rioting; I cannot be responsible for leading upset Negroes and whites thru this city."

Gregory originally notified Mayor Daley and the City Council that he was going to stage daily marches of 12 hours each beginning in May in protest against holding the Democratic Party's National Convention in Chicago, August 26, 1968. The marches were to be an effort to switch the convention to another city and "embarrass Chicago into improving housing and economic conditions for Negroes."

Gregory said "but the attitude of the Negro community must change before we can resume peaceful nonviolence in the name of human rights."

Gregory emphasized that white politicians must recognize the "despair of ghetto Negroes following the death of King."

"While little has been done to improve conditions here, it must be conceded" Gregory said "the attitude of police and fire departments has broadened considerably since the peak period of civil rights protests 18 months ago."

The article cited that Gregory considered the passage of the Federal open housing bill a "step in the right direction" which should be supplemented by renewed interest and economic assistance from the white business community. "Taking proper steps at the proper time can do much to ease tensions and eliminate hostilities."

He said he notified numerous civil rights organizations across the country to "stay away from Chicago this summer and work rationally, not emotionally, for civil rights." He said that only a tightly controlled well-organized group could handle a peace march here without bloodshed.

RE: DEMONSTRATIONS AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
AUGUST, 1968

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

He said he would march peacefully in organized protests planned here by the Southern Christian Leadership conference "but I cannot in good conscience lead them." Gregory also said "I used to demonstrate emotionally and it worked but I am afraid of that now."

Gregory described his chances for election as a write-in candidate for president as "about equal to the chances for becoming Pope."

Gregory indicated that he would continue campaigning and urging white leaders to pursue "statesmanlike-unpolitical" policies towards minorities. He will continue an all-liquid diet begun last November in protest against the war in Viet Nam until the November elections.

He said "My purpose is to demonstrate the kind of dedication and self-sacrifice needed to preserve our democracy."

One copy of the letterhead memorandum has been furnished the United States Attorney, Chicago; United States Secret Service, Chicago; and Region 1, 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
also known as
Dick Gregory

---

On May 7, 1968, RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY spoke at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois, in conjunction with the Student Convocation Lecture Series - 1968.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that GREGORY spoke in the college gymnasium and that 700 - 800 people attended. The source advised that there were between 25 - 50 Negroes present and that there were few, if any, outsiders present.

Source advised there was no disorder of any type and the speech was humorous, but lacking in depth. The general text was based on the effect college students can have on the economy in their prospective influence as leaders. GREGORY stated students could best demonstrate against the war in Vietnam, not by carrying signs, but by economic effects such as (1) stop smoking so taxes will not go to the Government; (2) stop buying clothes; (3) stop buying new cars; (4) don't buy products of the Dow Chemical Company; and (5) stop shaving.

GREGORY made no threats and did not encourage rioting, but said that July and August is the riot season. GREGORY's statement was not militant as indicated when he stated that he had planned to be in Chicago for the National Convention, but now has changed his plans. GREGORY stated that if the U. S. would live by the Constitution

Chief of Police, HAROLD TINDER, Monmouth Police Department, Monmouth, Illinois, advised there was no problem in conjunction with GREGORY's speech, and that he had his entire Department available in the event of any problem.

TINDER advised that officers were utilized to direct traffic and this was the extent of their utilization.

U. S. Secret Service and 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois, advised of above information.

RACIAL MATTERS

On April 29, 1968, [redacted] Security Officer, St. Andrews Presbyterian College, Laurinburg, North Carolina, advised captioned individual had been invited to speak at the college by the Christianity and Culture Department of the college. The speech was scheduled to be from 9:00 A. M., to 11:00 A. M., April 29, 1968.

b6
b7C

According to [redacted] GREGORY arrived via private chartered airplane, arriving at the Lumberton, North Carolina, Municipal Airport early on April 29, 1968, and arrived at Laurinburg by automobile.

b6
b7C

Lieutenant [redacted], Laurinburg, North Carolina, Police Department, advised on April 29, 1968, that GREGORY appeared at St. Andrews College as scheduled and made a speech from a portable rostrum set up in front of the library building on campus. There were approximately 200 people present, including some Negro students from Laurinburg Institute, a predominantly private Negro school at Laurinburg, North Carolina. The speech was made outside and the students mingled around the speaker.

b6
b7C

GREGORY's speech was humorous and consisted of many jokes. His theme seemed to be to ridicule the white race and the white people in general. He spoke of the Negro race as

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
ALSO KNOWN AS
DICK GREGORY
SPEECH ON MAY 6, 1968
CHARLESTON, ILLINOIS

✓ [redacted] Security Officer, Eastern Illinois University (EIU), Charleston, Illinois, advised on May 7, 1968, that Gregory spoke on the subject of civil rights - black power, from 8:10 P.M. till 10:00 P.M. on May 6, 1968, to an audience of about 2200 students and residents of the local community in the Lantz Gymnasium on the EIU Campus.

b6
b7C

Prior to Gregory's speech; Dr. Quincy V. Doundna, President of EIU, announced to the audience that there had been an anonymous phone call received that evening, concerning a bomb in the building. Doundna expressed his disbelief that a bomb was planted and stated he was going to stay and hear the speech. The event continued without further incident.

In his speech, Gregory referred to himself as a "36 year old Uncle Tom Nigger". In commenting on the war in Viet Nam, Gregory stated "any black cat who goes to war for America got to be crazy to free some foreign people when their mommy and papa haven't yet been liberated". He expressed opposition to the new civil rights legislation stating that the Civil Rights Bill was "good only for 80% and not until 1970".

After the speech, Gregory informally spoke to a small group of students, mostly colored, in the lounge of the Lantz Gymnasium and left Charleston, Illinois, about 12:05 A.M. There were no racial demonstrations of any kind.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On May 9, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a "Salute to Dick Gregory", negro comedian, will be held at Fillmore Theatre, New York City, on June 2, 1968. This source stated that he believes that the purpose of this program is to raise money for Gregory, since it is rumored that Gregory is some $40,000.00 in debt. This source stated that the following persons are among the members of the committee sponsoring this program:

1. [redacted] of the Village Gate Night Club, New York City.
2. Ossie Davis, Hollywood movie star.

The April 30, 1968, issue of "Northern Iowan," student newspaper at the University of Northern Iowa (UNI), Cedar Falls, Iowa, carried an article on page five, stating Dick Gregory is scheduled to speak in the gymnasium on Friday, May 3, 1968. The article describes Gregory as "the man most hated by the Ku Klux Klan," and said he would be a speaker on the Controversial Speakers Program of UNI.

On May 6, 1968, [redacted] Security Office, UNI, stated he had been with Dick Gregory at the Controversial Speakers Program on May 3, 1968. He said he would estimate about 4,500 to 5,000 persons attended Gregory's talk, and said no incidents occurred, nor was there any problem arising from Gregory's remarks or presence at UNI.

b7C

He said a number of Negro residents from Waterloo, Iowa, located adjacent to Cedar Falls, Iowa, had attended the talk in the gymnasium, which was held from about 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, May 3, 1968. He said that Waterloo Negroes had invited Gregory to attend a luncheon and give a short talk in Waterloo, and tried to make arrangements with Gregory for this second appearance before Gregory arrived in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Gregory reportedly declined to make a second appearance at Waterloo, unless the group wished to pay him $1,000.00 for that appearance and talk.

[redacted] said Gregory arrived in Cedar Falls, Iowa, by automobile, and is believed to have been driven from Mankato, Minnesota, to Iowa. He left the Cedar Falls - Waterloo area on May 3, 1968, in mid-afternoon by Ozark Air Lines en-route to Chicago, Illinois, and his home.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that the "Northern Iowan" newspaper at UNI, issue of May 7, 1968, carried a long article on Gregory's comments on May 3, 1968. He said that the newspaper article is an accurate summary of Gregory's comments during his talk at UNI.

Over 5,000 Hear Gregory Criticize LBJ, Rights Bill

by IOWAN Staff Writer

More than 5,000 persons Friday jammed the inside, corridors and area in front of the Men's Gym where speakers had been set up to hear the comedian and civil rights leader Dick Gregory criticize the new Civil Rights Bill, LBJ and American white society in general.

The over-capacity crowd consisted primarily of UNI students and faculty with a number of people from the Waterloo-Cedar Falls community including a large delegation from Waterloo's East High, a predominately Negro school.

Prior to Gregory's speech, Dr. Edward Thorne, head of the speech department and a member of the Controversial Speakers Committee, told the audience that committee chairman Jim Heller would be absent from the talk because he was being detained by the Armed Forces Induction Center in Des Moines "because he is a member of the Controversial Speakers Committee." (See last story).

DWIGHT BACKMAN, Jr., in speech, introduced Gregory as his "black beautiful brother" and said that a 10-minute conversation with Gregory would end the racial strife in the country.

The bearded Gregory had just finished a 47-day fast in protest of the Vietnam war. In his two-hour talk interspersed with humor to emphasize his points, Gregory told the audience other ways in which he protested included wearing only work clothes, in order to stifle the clothing industry; not smoking (saying taxes from cigarettes go for buying weapons and bombs); refusing to be shaved or get a haircut, thus rattling the barbers of the country; and refusing to buy many other American products.

An attache case on the stage next to Gregory's chair carried a sticker proclaiming "Dick Gregory For President." Gregory has announced himself as an independent candidate for the presidency.

He TOLD THE audience a common question he had come across in his lecturing was "What would be the first thing you would do if you were elected president?" He simply said that he would "paint the White House black" and then "bring the soldiers back home from Vietnam after sending LBJ over there with a barbeque gun!"

In a most serious manner he told the audience that the present educational system is "anemic" whites as well as blacks. "The corruption of the system has gotten to the black people, but now with such things as the new draft law prohibiting graduate deferments, it is getting white students, too," he said.

"THE MAJOR problems confronting Americans today can only be solved by you, the young people," Gregory told students. The older generation made the problems and then passed the burden to the younger generation for their sins."

"Moral pollution is the country's greatest problem and young people must be responsible for it," Gregory said. "You must tell the old people."

"I hope you are all strong young people," Gregory told the students. "It is your time to act."

He said that the major problem of America's future is "the spending of 80 billion dollars, but creating an atmosphere of fear by freezing the national group" (continued on page 2).

"THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL is a new form of segregation," comedian Dick Gregory told an audience of 5,000 Friday.

ed Forces Induction Center in Des Moines.

America Prone To Killing'

in this country so black people trust the whites."

The problems could be solved "if politicians would obey their oaths of office and uphold the Constitution," Gregory pointed out.

Concerning the new Civil Rights Bill, he explained that he felt it was a bit unfair in idea. "The whites get judged under the Constitution while blacks have to be judged under Civil Rights legislation."

"We don't want the Civil Rights bill—we want civil rights under the same sheet of paper we pay our taxes—under the same one black boys are drafted," Gregory said.

"THE CIVIL RIGHTS Bill is just a new form of segregation. We don't want a graded segregation. We're fighting for liberation and an end to segregation. That's what we're going to get."

Gregory went on to say, "I think the black cat is insane to go to war, after the Civil Rights Bill was passed I would have to call the War Department and say, 'Don't call me 'til 1970 and then call only 80 percent of me.'"

Gregory refers to similar stipulations in the recently passed bill.

TOUCHING BRIEFLY on the area of housing, Gregory asked, "Why should a Negro go to Vietnam to free the Vietnamese from tyranny and give them a new home when back home he himself won't be able to get a home except on some long, complicated installment plan?"

Gregory also expressed the opinion that he felt the anti-riot legislation in the bill to be "ridiculous" since all it accomplishes is to prohibit anyone from talking about riots.

"The way to do it now," he said, "is not to talk about it, but just go out and do it."

He said the anti-riot sections do not eliminate persons who incite riots but merely push them underground, and indicated that there persons are much more dangerous underground.

"WHITE KIDS HAVE been going to Fort Lauderdale, tearing up the town every year for ten years. Better not try it now," he said, pointing out that the anti-riot bill now covered such things.

Gregory expressed the feeling that "America is a country prone to killing." He cited the assassination of Martin Luther King as "an American killed by an American," and told students particularly that what happened to Dr. King affected them more than it did the older generation.

"You feel the pain," he said. "Older folks only feel shame."

Gregory criticized the current government and administration under Lyndon Johnson severely throughout his speech.

"IF OUR DEMOCRACY is as good as they tell us it is, why are we running all over the world trying to force it down people's throats with guns? If we make it work right, they'll steal it from us."

Gregory admitted being non-violent and made a humorous apology for Negro reaction and behavior after the assassination of Dr. King.

"They know the accepted riot season is July to August," he said.

Gregory also mentioned the high re-enlistment rate in the Armed Forces among Negroes and deplored the fact that the government was teaching them to kill.

"YOU BETTER teach the police—they need a lot more training. It is one thing to deal with a 13-year-old throwing fire bombs at a tank and quite another to deal with a trained killer who comes back from Vietnam, an expert sniper at 500 yards."

Gregory said that Dr. King did not die for non-violence as most news media have said he did.

"He died for equal justice for all," Gregory said. "Non-violence was only his method."

GREGORY TOLD the audience that the Negro is "tired of playing games."

"Crime in the streets, which all the politicians say they are going to eliminate, actually refers to the Negro."

"Why not knock out the white crime syndicate. That would be an accomplishment!"

The way things are today, Gregory said, "I would just as soon live under a dictatorship with whites and blacks both together underground singing 'We Shall Overcome.'"

"Twenty or thirty years ago the Negro had a hungry stomach and didn't want to learn except how to fill himself. Today he has a hungry mind and wants to get his share of knowledge."

GREGORY CONCLUDED by saying that the mistake arose when everyone was so busy learning how to make a living, that they forgot to find out how to live.

The former nightclub and television entertainer was the fourth person to appear in this year's Controversial Speakers Series.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The information herein supplements that contained in the memorandum under this caption dated April 25, 1968, at Seattle.

On May 14, 1968, [REDACTED], Assistant Thurston County Prosecutor, Olympia, Washington, advised that GREGORY's attorney has filed a petition for a rehearing by the Washington State Supreme Court of the sentence outstanding against subject which the Supreme Court earlier had affirmed and which was scheduled to begin on May 20, 1968. [REDACTED] said this action will delay the start of subject's sentence until action on the new petition is taken by the Supreme Court. No tentative date for this has as yet been set.

An article titled "Black Power Leaders May Visit for GREGORY Sit-In," in the May 10, 1968, issue of "The Bremerton Sun," a daily newspaper of general circulation published at Bremerton, Washington, quoted JACK TANNER, identified as subject's attorney, as stating:

"Black Power advocates H. RAP BROWN and STOKELY CARMICHAEL and the Rev. RALPH ABERNATHY just may show up in Washington State in a protest demonstration against the jailing of Negro DICK GREGORY.

"He knows them all and I wouldn't be surprised if they weren't included in demonstrations that are being planned," GREGORY's lawyer, JACK TANNER of Tacoma, said here yesterday....

"TANNER has petitioned for a rehearing of the case but did not express much hope it would be granted....

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"In the meantime demonstrations are planned, TANNER said, by members of the Peace and Freedom movement, of which GREGORY is to be the presidential candidate this year.

"I understand they have already sent telegrams around the country urging a boycott of Washington products, apples and Rainier and Olympia Beer, he said.

"The Peace and Freedom movement is no small thing, he said. There are 106,000 registered members in California alone.

"Delegations are going to come up and help him serve time, stay with in sympathy, TANNER said.

"And knowing how GREGORY's friends BROWN, CARMICHAEL and the Rev. Mr. ABERNATHY operate, he said, he expects them to sit-in.

"As for the case, it does not make any sense to him GREGORY could be convicted of violation of fishing laws when he contends that any fish he handled were dead. They were cold storage fish, so how could somebody be convicted of catching a dead fish?"

A characterization of the Peace and Freedom Party is

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on May 13, 1968 Richard Gregory would speak at the Student Center, University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota on the night of May 13, 1968 at 8:00 p.m.

This source advised on May 14, 1968 that he attended the talk by Gregory which was attended by an estimated 1400 to 1500 people, mostly students at the University of North Dakota. The audience consisted predominantly of white students. There were no incidents as a result of the speech. He advised that an account of the speech in the Grand Forks Herald, a daily newspaper published at Grand Forks, North Dakota, summed up the speech by Gregory. Source stated that Gregory remained in Grand Forks overnight and left via Northwest Airlines at approximately 7:00 a.m. May 14, 1968. It is noted a Northwest Orient Airlines flight schedule shows they have a plane leaving Grand Forks, North Dakota at 7:25 a.m. for Fargo, North Dakota and Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The article appearing in the Grand Forks Herald in its issue of May 14, 1968, is as follows:

"Gregory Hits N.D. Politicians

"Negro comedian and civil rights worker Dick Gregory Monday night blasted the actions of some North Dakota politicians who have attempted to keep American Communist Party boss Gus Hall from speaking at the University of North Dakota.

"Gregory addressed an overflow crowd of 1,400 in the University Center ballroom and almost immediately became involved in the statewide controversy concerning Hall and the question of his scheduled speaking engagement.

"Talks on Freedom

"Gregory talked about freedom of expression in the U.S. Constitution.

"'You kids are getting it first hand here,' he said. 'You tell those old fools (some state politicians) that they better do what the Constitution says. Even a communist can speak here,' Gregory said.

"'Why do we have to go around shoving democracy down people's throats?'

"He talked about the plight of the Indian in America and the Indian in North Dakota, pointing out that the highest suicide rate in the nation among the young occurs on Indian reservations. So does the highest rate of tuberculosis, he added.

"Given Standing Ovation

"'If the Indians could upset the politicians as much as Gus Hall did, the Indians would be in good shape,' shouted Gregory. A standing ovation followed.

"Gregory estimated that he spends 98 per cent of his time on college campuses.

"'If we solve the great problems in our country,' he said 'we'll solve them through you. You must solve problems you didn't even create . . . they won't be here when you leave.'

"Says He's Non-violent

"Gregory called the civil rights bill just part of the game 'white America' has been playing with the Negro for 400 years, and 'now we are going to stop playing this game,' he said.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"He asked the audience why they thought Negroes should be non-violent.

"'I'm non-violent,' he said, 'but I'd be out of my mind to go around preaching it in a country where Matt Dillon comes into the room every week.'

"Some of his other comments were:

"--'The biggest breakthrough in the civil rights was in Texas last year. We got our first colored hurricane - Beulah.'

"--'The only heart transplant now working is a black heart. . .but we don't want it to work too good. The last thing we want is you white folks thinkin' we're going to be your spare parts.'

"--'The first thing I would do if elected president would be to bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ with nothing but his barbecue gun. And I'd have Eartha Kitt call him every morning saying 'We're working on peace feelers, baby.'"

"--'If the problems here are not solved in three years, America will not stand.'

"--'We don't want you to do a damn thing but get out of the way of that United States Constitution. We don't want integration, we want liberation.'

"--'Progress is Americans getting killed by Americans. I'd much rather see American cities go up in flames than bomb cities around the world . . .maybe then they'd wake up.'

"--'We never draft murderers into going to Vietnam. You've got to be a good Christian to make the best killer.'

---

"--'When we see that the Constitution works right, that's the day we can bring our guns home.'

"--LBJ is the biggest tyrant to walk the face of the earth since Julius Caesar.'

"--'Those black athletes should have qualified for the Olympic team, gone to Mexico City and then dropped the baton.'

"--'First you have to create an atmosphere for Negroes to be able to live and cut all those cats loose. If you don't do that, you can take that $80 billion appropriation and buy the biggest guns you can find cause you're going to need them'".

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The following article appeared in "The B-G News", Bowling Green State University (BGSU), Bowling Green, Ohio, student newspaper, issue dated January 19, 1968:

Dick Gregory, comedian and military leader, will speak from 8 to 9 p.m., February 20 in the Grand Ballroom. His speech during the first half hour will be a comedy reflection the racial situation. The second half hour will be more serious, as Mr. Gregory will speak on advocating black power.

At Yale University in a speech similar to the one he plans to give at the University, Mr. Gregory received a standing ovation.

After appearing at the University of Florida at Gainesville, a student said, "Dick Gregory was good. I was expecially impressed with his cordiality towards us."

At Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, students said, "Dick Gregory is an outstanding performer. The speech was both interesting and informative and was ended with a standing ovation. Every aspect of his visit was enjoyable. It was a pleasure to have him visit our campus."

Dick Gregory is a commentator, an author and a comedian. In addition to being a leader in the Negro fight for equality, he has appeared on the stage, on television and in motion pictures. He has made national as well as international tours, and is presently touring the country visiting college campuses.

On February 21, 1968, [redacted] BGSU advised that Richard C. Gregory had appeared at BGSU the previous evening under the auspices of a student body organization before an audience of approximately 1200 people. [redacted] stated that the audience was almost all white and Gregory stayed with comedy almost entirely throughout the program and gave very little serious discussion on black power, although his talk was previously advertised as being half comedy and half a serious discussion on black power. He advised that the program went quietly with no incidents.

On February 23, 1968, Donald Brechler, Chief of Police, Defiance, Ohio, advised that Richard Claxton Gregory spoke before a small almost all-white audience at Defiance College on the evening of February 21, 1968. He stated that Gregory made jokes about the Vietnam war, the selective service system and government operations in general, but gave no serious discussions about black power. Chief Brechler stated there were no incidents of any nature connected with the visit of Gregory.

On March 27, 1968, [redacted] University of Toledo, Toledo, Ohio, advised that Richard Gregory spoke there before an audience of approximately 3000 persons, mostly students the night of March 26, 1968, without incident.

The following article appeared in "The Times", Toledo Ohio daily newspaper on March 27, 1968:

Negro comedian Dick Gregory, sporting a beard and a blue denim work jacket, urged University of Toledo students Tuesday night to stop smoking and buying new cars in an effort to halt the Vietnam war.

"By doing this you will avoid payment of taxes" which finance the conflict, Gregory told a student group.

Gregory, in the 28th day of a 40-day fast to protest the war, also said the Government is being embarrassed by students who are protesting inadequate draft laws.

He said the recent lifting of deferments for some graduate students and other young persons was proof of this.

"You young white kids are so honest and embarrassing to the country that they are fixing to give you all to the Viet Cong," he said.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

He added that the fate of the country rests in the hands of today's youth.

"Youth can save this country if it hasn't already gone beyond the point of no return morally," he concluded.

On March 27, 1968, a Confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that several members of the Peace Action Council of Toledo a local group engaged in opposing the war in Vietnam had planned to hold a small reception for Gregory following his appearance at the University of Toledo, but their plans failed to materialize and the reception was never held. ~~(S)~~ (U)

On May 6, 1968

[redacted] Ohio, a [redacted] Ohio, advised that he was present on the night of May 4, 1968, at Seiberling Gymnasium on the Heidelberg Campus when Richard C. Gregory, a Negro comedian was the principle speaker before approximately 300 students and local citizens. Also appearing with Gregory was the Mitchell Negro Trio, a vocal group. Gregory was introduced by a Negro student from Heidelberg College.

According to [redacted] Gregory's appearance was before an almost all white audience, and was without incident. There was no serious discussion of Black Power by the subject, and the subject poked jokes at the CIA and the Government in general.

On May 22, 1968, Detective [redacted]
[redacted] Police Department, stated that DICK GREGORY, comedian and civil rights leader, made a speech on Monday evening, May 20, 1968, at Knox College, in Galesburg, Illinois.

b6
b7C

According to Detective [redacted] GREGORY had been invited to make the speech by the Knox Student Senate and he appeared in the Fine Arts Center, Knox College Campus, Galesburg, Illinois. [redacted] estimated the attendance to be between 800 and 1000 people.

The speech was concerned with ending discrimination in this country and also in ending the war in Viet Nam.
He also commented on racial discrimination on the Indian reservations and GREGORY stated that he had demonstrated for the rights of young Indians.

GREGORY told the students that they had more power and influence than they are aware of. He advocated more student participation in anti-war demonstrations around the country.

[redacted] stated this speech was low key and GREGORY did not advocate any violence or extreme militant activity.

Re Bureau letter to Chicago dated 4/23/68 instructing Chicago to develop counterintelligence measures to neutralize GREGORY noting he has traveled all over the country preaching black nationalist extremism, hatred and violence.

Concerning GREGORY it may be noted that an article appeared in the Tuesday, 5/21/68 edition of the "Chicago Sun-Times", newspaper of general circulation in Chicago, in "Kap's Column" (IRV KUPCINET, Chicago newspaper columnist and TV personality), which states "Dick Gregory calls a temporary halt to his write-in campaign for President next week when he reports to the state of Washington to serve that 90-day sentence for civil disobedience".

It is also noted that the 5/14/68 edition of the "Chicago Daily News", also a daily newspaper of general circulation, reported the Illinois Appellate Court upheld a 1966 conviction of comedian GREGORY on charges of battery and resisting a police officer during a 1965 civil rights demonstration. GREGORY in his appeal charged he was denied a fair trial because of a "systematic exclusion of Negroes from the jury". The Appellate Court in ruling on his appeal, said GREGORY failed to prove the charges.

GREGORY had been fined $200 for each of 2 counts of battery and $500 on each of 2 counts of resisting arrest and was ordered to serve 5 months in the County Jail. 100-440423

On May 9, 1968, [redacted] State University College at Cortland, Cortland, New York, advised that RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY fulfilled his speaking engagement at the State University College at Cortland on the evening of May 8, 1968, at the health and physical education building. GREGORY was sponsored by the House of Delegates, student governing body at the State University College at Cortland and was introduced by [redacted] House of Delegates. He stated that there were approximately 500 to 600 students and a few faculty members at the meeting. He stated further that the meeting was orderly and was not marred by any incidents.

On May 13, 1968, [redacted] Bureau of Criminal Investigation (BCI), New York State Police, Homer, New York, advised that he was in attendance at the speech given by GREGORY on May 8, 1968. [redacted] furnished the following information:

GREGORY quoted passages from history books and the Bible to justify the actions of his black brothers today. He was not recruiting and his remarks, though shaded with bitterness, were not inflammatory. GREGORY severely criticized President JOHNSON and indicated that the United States was without a leader at this time. GREGORY attempted to get the message across to the students that there is a problem and although they did not create the problem, they will have to be the ones to solve it. GREGORY also commented that we never draft murderers to go over and kill the Viet Cong, but rather we take good Christians and train them to become the best murderers in the world, killing people they have never met.

Gregory's Comments After Show Reveal Bizarre Political Views

by Brent Carson

tary will then take power. In response to Dick Gregory's performance, many Heidelberg students have, at least temporarily, found a new hero with whom they can identify. Mr. Gregory's flashy lapel buttons are even rivaling the Senator McCarthy buttons in popularity. Before allowing ourselves to be carried away in the "Gregory for President" movement, perhaps we should have a closer examination of his beliefs. Following the program Mr. Gregory, the Mitchell Trio, and a small group of students were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colbert. At that time "Candidate" Gregory gave some enlightening projections of what the future will hold for our country. First, he stated that the Democratic Convention will be bombed on the second day of its meeting this summer. Mr. Gregory also prophesied that there will never be another Presidential election. He believes that on the next election day, riots will break out across the nation (including Tiffin), and stop people from going to the polls. According to his predictions, the military will then take power. Through this chain of events Mr. Gregory believes that the nation's twenty richest families will exert the pressure needed to put himself in as President of the United States. As President, Mr. Gregory said that he would be the closest thing this nation has had to a dictator. For example, since Mr. Gregory is a vegetarian, the whole country would have to give up eating meat. On the subject of Civil Rights, Mr. Gregory believes that any white person who would not sell his house to a Negro should be shot. For those students wearing the "Gregory for President" badges as a joke—the joke has lost its humor. In regards to those people who are wearing the badges in a serious vein—I feel that Mr. Gregory's statements portray his illogical thinking. Dick Gregory ended his performance by praising our generation. I, too, praise our generation's actions and will continue to praise them so long as we remain intelligent enough to refute the illogic of such men as Dick Gregory.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, Also Known As

A source advised on May 27, 1968 that RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY appeared at a regularly scheduled student assembly program held at Murphy Auditorium, Morgan State College (MSC), Baltimore, Maryland on May 16, 1968. The Cultural Arts Council was the sponsoring organization and about 700 students were in attendance.

GREGORY is a Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist who has been arrested on numerous occasions relative to his civil rights activities.

The source advised that GREGORY was the main speaker at the regularly scheduled assembly program. GREGORY's speech was along his usual pattern, giving emphasis on white racism in America. He did not talk on any one subject but used profanity throughout the program. After the regularly scheduled assembly, a smaller group of about 50 to 75 students assembled in the Student Union Building where GREGORY answered questions. GREGORY left the MSC Campus about 5:30 P.M. No incidents were reported.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The information herein supplements that in the memorandum under this caption dated at Seattle May 20, 1968.

On June 7, 1968, [redacted]

[redacted] Olympia, Washington, advised subject had that date, at about 2:00 p.m., surrendered himself to authorities to start serving the sentence previously imposed upon him by the State of Washington for violation of State fishing laws. After a short "press conference," which subject was permitted to hold on the steps of the Court House at Olympia and in the course of which he reiterated statements he has made in the past that he will spend his sentence fasting, he was "booked" into Thurston County Jail at 2:15 p.m. Subject was accompanied by [redacted] and [redacted]

[redacted] said the motion for a Washington Supreme Court rehearing of subject's case, which had been entered by his attorney, has been withdrawn. It is estimated subject will have to serve at least 75 days of his 90-day sentence unless the Governor intervenes.

At booking, according to [redacted] Thurston County Jailer, subject had on his person $480 in Traveler's Checks and $305.44 in cash. He also had with him six plastic gallon jugs filled with what was said to be distilled water and was permitted to take one of these to his cell with him.

Upon GREGORY's arrival in Olympia from Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, there was only a scattering of people at the Court House, mostly individuals from the press, radio, and TV. There were no incidents, disturbances, or demonstrations of any kind.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY
also known as
Dick Gregory
Speech at Eastern Illinois University
Charleston, Illinois
May 6, 1968

---

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, provided a tape recording of captioned speech. The following excerpts and summary are set forth after a review of this tape by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

The first 20 - 25 minutes of GREGORY's speech was purely humorous in nature and dealt only with joke telling and the like.

As the speech progressed, GREGORY stated that he likes the anti-riot portion of the new Civil Rights Bill because "all you radical whites and militant blacks are going to have to keep your damn mouths shut now and just go on and do what you have to do, because if you talk about it any more you can get busted under that new anti-riot section. I'm damn sick and tired of hearing you all talk about it anyway, just go on and do it." (applause) GREGORY said this type legislation would "force people under ground." He went on, "everytime a nigger rises up and says what he's going to do, the FBI can tap his phone." GREGORY further stated this portion of the new Civil Rights Bill is unconstitutional but he hopes no one will attack it.

ENCLOSURE

---

GREGORY went on to say America is heading for a dictatorship, stating that the possibility exists that the November, 1968, elections will be thrown out because of riots in major cities. This he said would lead to a military take-over. He stated further, "I wouldn't mind living under dictatorship. I'd love it, because then me and the white folks would all be going underground singing 'We Shall Overcome' and 'What We Going To Do With All Them Soldiers.'" GREGORY made the statement, "I am non-violent" and said that America is sending black boys into the Army to learn how to be killers and some day "they'll come back to the United States and we'll regret it." GREGORY went on to say America is more concerned with "black crime in the streets" than it is with the crime syndicate. He said further that when Washington, D. C. tells Saigon to clean up its corruption, Saigon should say, "When you clean up Chicago, we'll clean up Saigon."

GREGORY described President Lyndon B. Johnson as "probably the slickist tyrant that has walked the face of this earth since Julius Caesar." He said, "Had Bobby Baker been working for Adam Clayton Powell instead of L.B.J. they'd both (Powell and Baker) be in jail tonight."

GREGORY went on to cover such topics as the 1968 Summer Olympics, American history, white christianity, lowering the voting age, education, income taxes and discrimination in housing. Pertaining to the housing issue he said, "I was 10 years old then and had a German kill my Daddy in '42. I am 36 years old tonight, Baby. How would you talk, if that same German that killed your Daddy in 1942 can come to your Daddy's country and live in a neighborhood you couldn't live in. Baby, we'll burn this damn country down to the ground house by house and brick by brick." (applause)

GREGORY further stated, "The biggest threat to communism is for a democratic society to make our constitution work right Baby, that's all. You don't need no tanks to wipe out communism."

---

GREGORY went on to talk about what changes the younger generation could make in American society and advocated, among other things, economic boycotts. Specifically, he advised, "Please understand your power; and for you new young voters with this new political year coming up please don't get caught in the same trick we (GREGORY's generation) got caught in." He continued, "We need statesmen with guts, not politicians with money." Referring again to the younger generation, he said, "You will solve the problems in the next three years, or the problems will solve you."

Concerning the problems that face the country today, GREGORY asked, "Can America, for a few minutes, quit playing games with us?" Also in his position as a presidential candidate for the Peace and Freedom Party, GREGORY listed his priorities as to what he would do if elected and the first would be to "Paint the White House black," and secondly, "Bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send L.B.J. with nothing but a barbecue gun." Further, concerning the war, GREGORY stated, "Any black cat that goes to war for America has got to be insane." He asserted that, "It would be a cold day in Hell before white Americans would go to Vietnam and fight, only to come home and live under the Civil Rights Bill." He also stated that the Declaration of Independence should contain a statement, "For Whites Only."

He continued by saying, "I think I see progress myself. Dr. Martin Luther King got killed in America by an American, I'd rather see America tear up America than tear up a foreign country. I see progress because maybe this will wake us up."

GREGORY's speech concluded with a few words concerning the books he has authored.

On June 20, 1968, SE T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Indians at the above described vigil at Olympia had been joined by a number of Communist Party (CP) members from both Tacoma and Olympia, Washington, and that the CP was planning on creating another Resurrection City on the State Capitol grounds. The CP members mentioned above, according to SE T-1 are [redacted]

[redacted] SE T-1 further advised that as of this date two tents had been erected across from the County Court House at Olympia. (U)

On June 20, 1968, FRED DERICK, Chief of Police, Olympia, advised that there had been no disturbances or violence in connection with the above described vigil at Olympia.

On April 27, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that an organization at Marshall University, Huntington, W. Va., known as IMPACT, scheduled a series of speakers for the week of April 24 through 27, 1968. The source stated that the Co-ordinator for IMPACT is [redacted] a Marshall University Student, and the Honorary Chairman of IMPACT is Doctor Stewart H. Smith, President of Marshall University. The source stated that five speakers were scheduled to speak with the keynote speaker on April 24, 1968, being Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey. W. Va.

The source stated that two speakers were scheduled to speak on April 27, 1968, with the first speaker on that date being Allen Ginsberg, whose topic is to be "Free Expression in America: Fact or Fiction," and the second speaker on April 27, 1968, is to be Dick Gregory, whose topic is to be "Black Power: Revolution or Evolution."

On April 29, 1968, the source advised that Allen Ginsberg and Dick Gregory appeared as scheduled on April 27, 1968, with an estimated audience of between 600 to 700 persons. The source stated that these two speeches were recorded on a tape recorder. The source stated that portions of the tape recording are somewhat unintelligible due to Dick Gregory moving away from his speaker's microphone, voice inflection, and outside crowd noises.

On May 20, 1968, the source stated that he had not had an opportunity to have the tape recording of Gregory's speech transcribed and he made available the recorded speech of Gregory, which is substantially verbatim as follows:

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I would like to say thank you very much and just to say good evening.

"You know, when they told me I was going to Huntington, West Virginia, I didn't see anything wrong with that at first. But when they mentioned changin my airline, I got a little suspicious. In all honesty, I did get a little suspicious. And then I still didn't, you know, like really slip off until I called Piedmont Airlines and said, 'What time is your next flight to Huntington?' and the voice said, 'What time can you get here?' At that point, I should have known something, you know? Old stupid me. I just kept thinking, well it sounds normal. You know, I've been on a lot of airlines that, you know, get in a little trouble but Piedmont is the first airline I've been on that looked like it was going to wreck and the stewardess kept serving coffee.

" I just finished a 47-day fast and, you know, a lot of people ask, 'How did you feel on the fast; what's the worst thing about the fast?' And I'd like to inform you that if you ever plan to go on one the worst part about any fast is the dumb stupid questions the eaters keep asking you. Like after 54 days without eatin: 'How do you feel now?' and when you say 'hungry,' you know, they're surprised!

"Let me read a hate letter I got. I always get hate mail, it usually starts out, you nigger this, you nigger that. Can you imagine someone being cold-blooded enough knowin you haven't ate in 46 days? You go to the mailbox and you pull this letter out: 'Dear Mr. Gregory, This is to inform you that yesterday for dinner I had fried chicken with gravy.' That's the first time I realized there's a black cat out there somewhere who hates me. We know you white folks eat a lot of fried chicken but we do know who eat it with gravy. 'Mashed potatoes smothered in butter.'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Well, that could go either way. It was this next item that lets you know who it was, 'black-eyed peas with grilled onions.' Now dig, now he tries to fake me out and make me think he's white. 'Jello topped with whipped cream.'

"Well, we have problems. I was sittin on the plane today and there was a white cat sittin next to me and he decided to strike up a conversation and he did it the usual way, you know. 'Wake up, boy.' When you on Piedmont Airlines, you wake up boy. And he wasn't talkin about nothin, but he asked me about black power. I didn't know white folks was still asking about black power, but I didn't explain to him what it was. I just gave him an example of black power and I tried to express to him how all of the heart transplants that had been performed, the only ones that worked is the one with the black heart. Matter of fact, they worked a little too good. But I've always felt that there's nothin wrong with white folks that a change of heart wouldn't help. But I think the heart transplant was too good, not that I didn't want it to work, but I didn't want it to work too good. The last thing us black folks want is when you white folks start assuming we gonna be your spare parts. You know there's a lot of people against heart transplants, religious folks what have you. I'm against heart transplants, but it had nothin to do with religion. I'm against any transplant you can hide. I would love to see a white cat get a colored foot, then let him take that to the beach with him.

"You know, the fact that I'm a presidential candidate, I have a lot of people ask me, 'If you were elected President, like what is the first thing you would do?' Seems like a very stupid question 'cause the whole world knows the first thing I'd do if elected President, would be to paint the White House black. Second thing I'd

"do would be to bring all the boys home from Vietnam and send LBJ. I'd send LBJ to Vietnam with nothin but a barbecue cup; have Eartha Kitt call him up every morning and say, 'We're working on de-feller (sic), baby.' The next thing I would do, a lot of people ask, they say, 'Greg, what segment of the people do you think you would have the most problems from if you were elected President?' And, in all honesty, I must say I think I'd have the most problems from the colored folks 'cause you see I do know how black folks would react to some of the things I'd do, and the first things I would immediately do after taking office would be to wipe out the poverty program and set up a fifty billion dollar a year white folks rest program. Yes, I'd take all the good jobs away from you white folks and put you on my rest program and I'd give my black brother a good job for the first time in his life. And I'd guarantee you in about six months, when the black folks really realized I was payin you white folks to rest, there would be a hugh march in Washington. I can just see them standing out in front of my mansion now screaming, 'Nigger! What's wrong with you? We got all these white folks out here not working, sitting on their ass, getting these checks, having all them babies.'

"I really must say to you, it's a pleasure to be here. I guess I spend about ninety-eight per cent of my time on college campuses. The reason I spend so much time on college campuses today is because you young folks have a difficult task of solving the problems. I say difficult task because the problems that this country is confronted with and the problems that you have to solve are problems you didn't even create. These problems were here when you got here. Sometime I meet a lot of young bigots, but they better wake up and realize they ain't doing nothin new. Almost all these conditions was here, but you will have to create an atmosphere to solve these problems. The reason I say you young folks is on the spot like you've never been on the spot before is because if you don't solve the problems "in the next three years, the problems will solve you and we have never been confronted with this type of ultimatum before. And it's groovy because now even the bigot that wants to be a groovy bigot he has to join us and solve the problem so five years from now there will be someone around here for him to hate. So, I figure youngsters not only have a problem to solve but it's so difficult because of the very things that's goin on. For instance, what I mean, is we have a civil rights bill that was pushed through and there was a lot of groovy white folks that didn't want that bill pushed through and for the first time bigots was walking around hand in hand together for different reasons. But we didn't want no civil rights bill neither. We're tired of this damn country playing games with us. We want our rights under the same piece of paper we pay our income tax by. We want our rights under that same piece of paper that draft black folks in the army. And we want you to realize right now you white and black folks, that don't do us no personal small favors, baby. This is what we're sayin. We want America to go on alert to realize we don't want nothin but the Constitution, baby. Which means white America has a right to call me a nigger. You just exercise your freedom of speech, but you'd better not never, never in your life, spit on me is what we said. In the Constitution, white America has a right to dislike me because I'm black, that's freedom of expression, but you better never, never burn a cross on my front lawn, that's what we said. And we hope this country understands what we are trying to say real good. We are going after that Constitution, the Constitution that gives you a lot of rights. And all those people talking about an atmosphere of love and all that, that's the Bible. We don't want the Bible, baby. We are talking about the United States Constitution, no more and no less and we're tired of games and if you read that civil rights bill you know they were playing a lot of games with us on that because eighty per cent of the housing never comes really into effect until 1970.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I wish I were the type of nigger that believed in going to war for this country, and when I say nigger I mean any black man that is silly enough to go to fight for this country all over the world and shoot at people he never met to free some foreigner when his own mammy needs liberation in America, is a nigger. I sure wish I was that type because I sure would call up the State Department and put them on alert, that baby, I don't mind fighting wars for you, but since the civil rights bill didn't pass, don't call me until 1970. Then when you call me, don't expect but eighty per cent of me, and if I live in a slum flat dwelling, don't expect none of me.

"Now you got to understand. First let me explain to you my position. I am a 36 year old Uncle Tom nigger and I will be as good a nigger as this country will let me be comfortable being and when this country makes me uncomfortable I will do everything I can to make America uncomfortable. But now, when it treats me, like don't bug me, I'll try to behave myself and I say that in good faith. Being a 36 year old Uncle Tom nigger, I'm the type of cat who will try to apologize to all white folks for black folks behavior after Martin Luther King was killed. I thought it was just very awful that them black folks did act like that. They know damn good and well that the accepted riot season in America is in July and August. And I'm sayin how you good white folks felt. It just broke my heart too. Niggers gettin so you can't trust them no more. They're gettin so uppity. I know you white folks, I know you got upset. To you I say please accept my humble apologies, and it just really upset me when those niggers in Washington, D.C., had nerve enough to mess up the cherry blossom season. The bad part about their behavior is that even the police department had accepted the riot season and they usually sneak out and take their "vacation in the spring. They had to come back home. And all them tanks, them tanks they been buyin for us this summer, they hadn't even unwrapped them yet.

"Now, I must say I was disappointed in you white folks. All year long I been readin about that new Chemical Mace that you have, the new thing that was going to control all riots, and I was tryin to tell white folks you got to get something else 'cause Mace don't do no good if you really want to throw a brick. So I say that if white America will kind of band together with the rest of us Toms and kinda guarantee that no more black leaders get shot in the spring, we can almost guarantee you that we can teach black folks how to behave. This country wants to kill any more leaders, try to do it in July because during the accepted riot season niggers are going to riot whether you do something to them or not. We get scared not to have a riot now because you expect it and if we disappoint you, then we'd find it would really upset you. Again I'd like to say I'd like to apologize for reacting.

"I had a black detective come by my house in Chicago and ask me if I'd come out and help cool down the brothers and I said, 'No, I just come out of the house during racial disturbances.' And he says, 'Well this is the black folks.' I said, 'They're reacting to Doctor Martin Luther King,' and I said, 'I don't think that's racial. I think you'd have the same reaction in America only in a different neighborhood had a Baptist killed the Pope.' And he said to me what so many of you have been reading in the newspapers, that the black folks are just hurting themselves and he said, 'You read in the papers that 500 colored folks have no place to live now.' That's true, but they should have wrote the whole story. 500 black folks got burned out but it was three million rats that didn't have no place to live. They'd have to move to the white policeman's 'cause rats aren't prejudiced. They kinda like livin with the colored folks better 'cause we cook a little bit more food. But when the rats ain't got no home, we say, 'We have rats. We will travel.'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Now I explained my type of religion and you know my record. I got shot in Watts tryin to keep the colored folks cool so you can call me anytime black folks react. I would like to see them kept in their place, but now I got a condition on how you can call me. I'm sure those of you that's informed and those of you that's not informed better get informed that for every one white boy that re-enlists in the United States Army there's five black boys. I'm sure you can read this because it's been publicized a whole lot. Now you white folks go on record as really speaking out for non-violent niggers. But for some reason you better wake up or check with your State Department and realize that we aren't non-violent. And the record in the army shows it. For everyone of you white boys that re-up, there's five black boys, so you should understand real quick that black folks speak out for killin for freedom. We're better murderers than you white folks are, and I say that in faith. And when that black cat whom you taught with your tax money—you taught him how to drop Napalm indiscriminately, you taught him how to just blow up villages and knock planes out of the sky and blow up railroad embankments and just wipe out whole towns for freedom—and you're silly enough to believe that this black cat will go all over the world being your hired murderer killing foreigners to liberate foreigners and when he come back home this time, he's not going to do the same thing to liberate his mammy, then you are out of your mind. So when your black murderer come back home, starts burnin down your neighborhoods, and blowin up your schools, and knockin your planes out of the sky, don't call me. This is what I'm sayin. And when you call me, the first thing I'm gonna ask you is, 'Is he a veteran?' Because if he's your murderer, I won't have nothin to do with him. If he's just some old silly nigger just killin on his own that hasn't been trained—And also tell your police department they better get a lot of good training because it's one thing shooting a 16 year old black cat throwing a brick at a tank. It's

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"another thing dealing with one of them old black guerrillas you've made. One of them black snipers that been knocking Viet Cong out of the trees from 500 yards back.

"And, so I say you youngsters have a tremendous job to do, a big job. A big job that us poor old moral corrupt Americans could do, but you're facin it in the face. Now you can go home and talk to your mama and you can talk to your daddy, black kids and white kids, you gotta talk. Okay, they'll talk to you, but don't let them put you in no trick, hear? Because it's a mischange(sic) in attitudes in this country today. And there was a time when a white man was the only man that could get mad. But I want to tell you niggers is mad too, baby, and we ain't puttin up with no more of this nonsense and we hope that America can become as afraid and as scared of injustices as she has become afraid of communism. And this is what we tryin to say and maybe you can wipe out these injustices like you're tryin to go all over the world and wipe out communism. But I say you young kids carry the burden. What happened to Doctor Martin Luther King, you young folks will feel this much more than older Americans because you young kids feel the pain of what happened. Most older Americans will only feel the shame of what happened. That's why we got across those civil rights bills because America got embarrassed around the world because Doctor King was killed, so they gave us that little old piece of paper.

"And so I say you youngsters have many, many problems, but I think we got to realize that there's some progress that's being made. I look at what happened to Doctor Martin Luther King and we try to say in America that Doctor Martin Luther King got killed in the South by a red neck cracker racist. No! No! Doctor Martin Luther King got killed in America by an American. You don't have to say no more.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"One thing about them Nazis, we never tried to say what town he came from. We says you're Nazis and that's all we have to say about America. And let's get groovy now because I feel had Hitler made enough mistakes and killed enough Germans he might of woke up the rest of them Nazis. But I say to you in all honesty what's happening in America now is progress to me because I'd rather see Americans killing Americans than killing foreigners. I'd rather see Americans burn the whole damn country down than burn foreign countries down. In my little sickness, I'd rather see my daughter kill my wife than kill your wife. I'd rather see my son kill me than kill you. I'd rather have my kids burn down my house than burn down your house because I feel I'm responsible for that mess at home. Well, I feel the same way about America. I feel that I'm responsible for this mess and I'd rather see New York, Chicago, and California get together and bomb the hell out of Massachusetts. And see Massachusetts, New York, Chicago, and California get together and bomb the hell out of New York, and maybe what's happening in this country will wake us up to see the sickness that this society is coming to. Maybe, and I say maybe, for you young folks see, because somewhere down the line we are to change.

"Now let me try to explain black folks to you for those of you that need some explaining. For those of you that just don't understand black folks reaction today, just say, 'Niggers is crazy.' That's all, you don't have to say no more, 'cause we are crazy for that United States Constitution. But you see I hate to admit this but I have to admit it. That one of the things, that the reason we can't seem to think alike is because black folks and white folks don't think alike and all the old bigots have been saying that for years. I want to confirm it for you. Black folks and white folks do not think alike. Now, I didn't realize that until I read the American history book, and when I read your American history book, I got the sneakin suspicion that black folks and white folks did not "think alike. Because here's a white man telling niggers that we got to be non-violent and we got to do this and that and I pick up the damned history book and I read that George Washington and that band of white farmers he had tore up the colonies, whipped the hell out of the British, called it a Revolutionary War. I say, 'What was they fightin over?' He says, 'tea.' And I kept sayin, 'Oh, no, you white folks ain't goin to fight over no damn tea and then tell a nigger he got to behave.' But I went all the way through and that's what your white ancestors went to war over, Lipton tea bags. And then you are silly and sick enough to tell black folks to behave and still run this old filthy book out in my neighborhood bragging about how you whooped the British. And, I tell you I give you the benefit of the doubt. I tried to be over fair. I got all my little black kids, I dirtied them up, put grease on them, tried to make them look as much like a nigger as I could make them look. And I hung a Lipton tea bag next to each one of them and I said, 'Greg, which one of them things is worth killin for? Them tea bags or them little black kids?' You know, them little black kids won out every time. Every time they won out. And I just tried to think. 'No! White folks back home don't think that much different. Let me see something else now.' And I just tried to see if I could fight over tea and I made me a big old tea bag. I took me a big old white sheet and I sowed about twelve of them together and I bought 500 pounds of tea and I put it all in that big white sheet. And I told my wife, 'Hit me with that tea,' and flip, she hit me with 500 pounds of tea. I still couldn't get mad enough. So, you know you never realize how much different white folks think than black folks, till you read this American history book. Boy, this is beautiful here, 'Give me liberty or give me death.' Who said that? Rap Brown! What did Patrick Henry say? Oh, Patrick Henry spoke of peace. He spoke of loving our British brother. Only niggers like Stokely and them would talk about doing somebody in. Oh, yes, this old great white apostle of love talked of getting some Americans together and goin to Boston to help

"the British unload the tea. 'Let's get there quick because 't h e m old niggers might try to throw it in the water.' Patrick Henry talked about we shall overcome. And the British felt the same way about George Washington and Thomas Jefferson as Americans feel about Rap Brown and Stokely Carmichael today. Tell you one thing, if all of us out here could freeze ourselves to death and wake up a hundred years from now, you'd be surprised whose birthdays we'd be gettin out of school on.

"You know Rap Brown made a speech last year in East St. Louis, Illinois, where he said, 'Get a gun nigger and watch the police.' And the press got to calling me and said, 'Greg, we know you're non-violent How do you feel about Rap Brown and Carmichael sayin for colored folks to get a gun and watch the police?' And I said, 'Let me get my history book and I'll show you the original statement.' One thing I hate about black militant cats, they ain't got nothing original they're coming out of this old American history book. Oh, here it is right here. During the time when the British was the police, Paul Revere rode through white communities saying, 'Get a gun white folks, the British are coming.' Maybe we should all just read this American history book. It's probably the dirtiest, filthiest piece of literature put on the market. Oh, the first page is beautiful. I love the first page of the American history book. It just brings tears to my eyes. It says here was a white European society which broke the shackles from the King and Queen and find freedom. He would want to find him a new land where he could worship his own God, have freedom of expression and freedom of religion. Can't nobody say there's anything wrong with that page one of the American history book. But, I say to you don't turn the page 'cause it gets dirty from that part on. So, on his way over here to find freedom, he stole us. That's a hell of a prayer meetin you're going to. The more you read this book, the dirtier it gets. Page 51 just really touched me. Not only did he steal

"us, but he came to these shores and discovered a country that was already occupied. And one day you sit down and ask yourself how do you do that. How do you discover something that's already discovered. Like me and my old lady walkin out here tonight. You and your lady are sittin in your brand new automobile and my lady says, 'I sure would like to have that brand new automobile to pray in.' And I say, 'Well, let's discover it.' So I walked up to you and said, 'Get out of that damn car, me and my old lady just discovered it.' And, I'd bet you'd be as surprised as the Indians was.

"And, so we say to you youngsters, you have a tremendous job and sort of a very complex job. When Doctor King was killed, I heard all the radio and television. I couldn't believe that American had really missed the boat. Everybody kept saying that black folks should be non-violent because Doctor Martin Luther King would have wanted this. And I can't believe that during that time I listened to the commentators I never heard nobody mention Doctor Martin Luther King's purpose which was equal justice for all. Everybody talked about his method, which was non-violent, and we don't want to know about methods. We want to know about the purpose. Everybody has different methods of doing things, but it was the purpose that we was unified on. Doctor King, Rap Brown, Stokely Carmichael, Malcolm X, and all the organizations have the same purpose and I think if America is sincere then she should implement Doctor Martin Luther King's purpose and we'll all blame it on non-violence, if through non-violence we gained our Constitutional rights. But I think if I am non-violent as an individualist. I don't go around preaching it to people. I think America is a very violent country. Matt Dillon comes into your home once a week teaching you it's a virtue to shoot straight. The United States Constitution says you have a right to bear arms and protect yourself and your property.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"So America is a very violent country. But, I choose to be non-violent as an individualist. I'm a vegetarian. I don't believe animals was put here for us to eat. But, baby, I would never knock a steak off your plate. That's your hang-up. Like being a vegetarian is my hang-up, bein non-violent is my hang-up. I would love to see the world one day committed to non-violence and I'd also love to see the world one day committed to vegetarianism.

"And so I say if America is sincere about respect she has for non-violence, then why don't America rush up to the Indian reservation and get my red brother off of there and give him his full Constitutional rights. Because you can't get no more non-violent than an Indian today. So what we're tryin to say is we hope America quits playing games with us because if we can justify men 13,000 miles away from our shores tonight dropping bombs and things trying to liberate foreigners and give them a better way of life/ than our own red brother can get in America, then we're thinkin in vain. But we got enough sense to know that if that Indian wants a better way of life in the morning, he goin to have to come off that reservation in Arizona and get up on the viaduct Monday morning and check white folks driving down the expressway and start shooting at them. Pow! And yelling, 'Red Power' and 'Whitey go home!' And if that Indian behaves like that Monday, Oh, the whole country would be shocked. LBJ would be on television saying that 'the red boy's at it again. I just sent my number one specialist of Indian Affairs up to that Indian reservation' and Huntley and Brinkley and the Cronkites and ABC will all be up on the Indian reservation and next Sunday, you'll sit at home and watch "Meet the Press" and they'll be talkin to some old Uncle Tom Tom Indian.

"And so I say for you young folks' sake, it's a sad commentary in this country when we have to admit that it seems that the only thing that stirs this country up is violence. The Mexican American, he hasn't been violent, but nobody cares about him. So I say somewhere down the line you youngsters have to solve problems and I figure the problems can be solved non-violently. I don't believe that's the American way of solving problems, but I think it's the best way and I think you young white kids in America have proved it and the great thing about your actions is that Doctor Martin Luther King did have the consolation of seeing one non-violent victory and black folks would have nothin to do with that and you young white kids across this country decided that you didn't like LBJ's action and you got out and you marched and you swallowed tear gas and you swallowed Mace and you kept marchin and you kept marchin and you made LBJ quit his job. Not one shot was fired. But you youngsters have got to understand you have a lot of power. You have a lot of power to do a lot of things. And we say we hope young folks black and white in this country will use your power to help us get our things and we are tryin to ask this country will she just quit playin games with us.

"LBJ gave his State of the Union message last January at a time when the Senate and Congress couldn't agree with the President on nothin till LBJ in his State of the Union message mentioned crime in the streets. The whole Senate chamber stood up and clapped and screamed and hollered and made little animal sounds for five minutes. Why? Because crime in the streets has become America's new way of sayin, 'Nigger.' Now, I'm not sick enough to stand here and tell you that America shouldn't deal with black crime and black violence, but what I am trying to say, what day will you become as afraid of white crime and white violence as this country is afraid of black crime and black violence. This is what we're sayin. We think that America should work hard and we don't mind the President talkin about doin away with crime in the streets. But, we say what day will

"you demand your President to say, 'Not only if elected will I wipe out crime in the streets but I'll also wipe out the crime syndicate, or is that too white for you? That's what we're sayin. The crime syndicate in America is the lowest form of humanity second only to about 99 per cent of your politicians. And we say to America if black folks took over the crime syndicate tonight, you'd see to it it would be wiped out by next Wednesday. We say we're tired of playin games. LBJ out of all the people in the world to talk about crime in the streets, he is not one of them. LBJ went to Congress at 26 years old, a poor humble Baptist school teacher. Tonight, LBJ is a multimillionaire and you don't want to know where that money came from. Well, we say to you, if LBJ was black, you'd want to know. Bobby Baker worked for LBJ. Old Bobby boy stole eight million dollars while he was working for the boss. LBJ didn't know nothin about it. The FBI and LBJ is not the dumbest guys walkin the face of the earth. Matter of fact, LBJ is probably the slickest coward that's walked the face of this earth since Julius Caesar. You not only want to believe that LBJ didn't get none of that money; he didn't know nothin about it neither. But what we're sayin to you is had Bobby boy been working for Adam Clayton Powell, both of them would be in jail tonight. That's what we're sayin.

"So, we're sayin we're just tired of this country playing games. We know if America finds out that poor black folks got some dynamite in the black community, he will run your soldiers in to take it from us. We say groovy. You've been acting like that for 400 years, but we wonder when you're going to take that dynamite away from them Minutemen. One day when you whites realize that Minutemen are not goin to kill black folks but kill white folks, I bet you take it away from them then. You couldn't give a Minuteman a million dollars and a tank and

"pay him to go to Harlem tonight. All that dynamite the Minutemen have buried out in your little lilly white neighborhoods, if it ever blows up accidentally, one day, it ain't goin to do nothin but wipe out blocks of white folks.

"You got to understand while you're playin games with us, you're playing games with yourselves, too. And the big game you see is all these white folks that went out and got a nigger gun. They never had a gun in their house. Now they're upset. Bring it home. 'Listen, honey, let me show you how to use it.' If you know one of these white folks, tell them Brother Greg says if they got one of these nigger guns in their house, they better quit cheatin on their old lady now 'cause she might find out about it. You also got them little old radical white sons and daughters comin home for the vacation period and ask for the car. Best be a little careful how you get it because you might wake someone while he's asleep at night. And some white folks live so far away from black folks, they don't need guns. They need missiles.

"And, we're sayin we're tired of this country playin games with us.

"Muhammad Ali, can't nobody remember nothin but Cassius Clay. But had he changed his name to a good nigger name like Jack O. Jones, Oh, yeah, he wouldn't had no problems then. Yes, Jack old boy, yes. I want to tell you somethin else that word's goin to get you in a lot of trouble, too, boy. We're tired of that word. That's what you call us niggers. You call us boy. You've got to realize white men call us boy not because they mean to be derogatory. They got doubts about their own manhood, but my brother's not aware of that.

"And so we said, you know like the games got to stop. Muhammad Ali, what did he do? He said, 'I'm not goin to war and I'm goin to stay here and I'm goin to stand trial.' And we said that was very honorable. A 100,000 white kids didn't want to go to war and they split to Canada, but that don't seem to bother you. I'm not sayin goin to Canada is dishonorable but if you've got to take your choice of which is most honorable, the most ethical, the most legal, to tell America you're not going to war and I'm standing trial and let's say I go to jail. I say what Muhammad Ali did was the most honorable. And, what happened to him? A bunch of syndicate trampy hoodlums that controlled boxing decided to strip him of his title. One of the cleanest men on the face of the earth. You know damn good and well Muhammad Ali can't be different the way this white press hates him. If they can get anything on him, you know they'd print it. One of the cleanest men in the world. The only cat I know who got divorced from his wife because the dresses was too short. We got upset over that because we remember Jimmy Hoffa, elected President of the Teamsters Union, until you put him in jail. Teamsters is a million people, $600 million dollars. You can trust old white Jimmy Hoffa until he went to jail, but Muhammad Ali, who ain't dependant to nobody, had to be stripped. We're tired of these games.

"And I must say to you that I got to criticize black folks and it's hard to do that. I guess that's the racism in me. Yeah, I found out one day I was a racist. I kind of suspected it because I've been watching white folks all my life. And I asked myself one day a simple question, I said, 'Greg, if you ever lose your black wife in the morning to another man and you had the choice of losing your wife to a black cat or white cat, which one would you pick?' And you think I didn't find my racism. I hurried up to pick the black cat under the false pretenses that I didn't want to lose my wife to a white boy because I didn't want my black friends laughing at me. I don't care what you hide or nothin, that's the way it is.

"And, so I guess there's a racism in me that makes me hate to admit that I think black folks was wrong when they decided to boycott the Olympic games. I think them niggers should of kept their mouth shut and went on and qualified for the Olympics and went to Mexico City, then dropped the baton. Just a nice little way of telling America we ain't goin be your gladiators no more. This is what we're sayin. We're tired of playin games. And for the people that's upset over black folks not going to the Olympics, we hope you get as upset over the fact that you never would of won an Olympic game without the black athletes. But it don't upset you, the fact that you've never had a black man on the Olympic board. This is what we're tryin to say. We're tired of playin games.

"And a lot of people wonder about how effective that black boycott will be. And let me say one thing to you. We don't control white neighborhoods and we don't never want to control them and we just gettin on our neighborhoods and will you believe one thing? If we truly decide that black athletes ain't goin to the Olympics, we ain't goin. You understand that?

"And, so what we're tryin to say is can we have these games? And one of the groovy things about black folks boycotting the Olympics for the first time in the history of the summer Olympics is America will go to the Olympic games under the true spirit of the Olympics which the Olympics was set up way back in Rome. And the true spirit of the games was not to win, but the brotherhood of competition. When black cats decide they're not goin, you can believe you're goin to go under the true spirit of the Olympics. And so we're sayin that if this country can quit playin games with us. You know what we're tryin to say is we hope you young folks can be just a little bit more honest.

"We ain't asking you to make any changes. And instead of gettin the civil rights bill pushed through the other day, I wished this country would have gave us another bill. I wish this country would have put a bill in law that says all black male baby boys at five years old have to go to a Government camp and stay for a year. That's the type of law I wish they'd had gave us, which was simple. All black male babies born at five years old go to a Government camp and stay from five to six. And also, they stipulate in the law that these little black baby boys for that whole year just sleep six hours a day and the other 18 hours, the Government will teach 'em just one very important thing from five to six, 18 hours, just stand in front of them, just brainwash them, document it: 'Nigger, don't ever date a white lady; don't never goin to have anything to do with a white lady.' In this country, nothin upsets us no more than seein a nigger with a white broad. If you don't believe me, you're dishonest with yourselves. Man, you ought to shake clean and sky write it in the air: 'Nigger, don't go with this white lady.' You can't believe that!

"And so I say maybe, I'm not sayin niggers gonna behave but you're gettin out of hand. But maybe if you start out bein honest with us, that might be half the problem. See, I went to the movie when I was four years old. Somewhere down the line, Whitey got to get enough sense to say they want white ladies. We're not just born wantin them. Must be somethin you're doin. We just ain't got no magnetic brain and I need to get attracted to you. One thing, if you realize this old stupid society of yours, you ain't got enough sense knowin not to want me to have that's all. Now you want to make me forget that you made me want her. Go check your movie house, and see who you got makin love. I went to the movie when I was four "years old. I went to the movie every night 'cause it was during the Depression. It was always warmer in the movies than it was at home. And you didn't have to pay to go to the movies when I was a kid until you were 12 years old, as long as you was with an adult. And my mother didn't take me to the movies every night, but I went every night because I always could get an adult because I had a switchblade. Anytime I couldn't get in by myself with my mama, I just get some adult goin in and take my switchblade, stick it in his butt, and say, 'I'm just tellin you to get past that door.' So, every night I went to the movies, four years old. And who do I see making love? Ava Gardner and Humphrey Bogart. By the time I'm eight years old, I've been goin to the movies for four years, makin love with them white broads. And I get to thinkin, I say, 'You know, my mommy and daddy ain't never made love. I ain't seen no white folks in the bed.' You did a good job of brainwashing me. The same thing you didn't want me to do. There was a kid eight years old sittin in the movie. I nudged my little black friend. I says, 'Man, I sure be glad when I grow up 'cause I can get me one of those white broads.' He says, 'What you going to do with her?' I say, 'The same thing as Humphrey Bogart.'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Now I want to tell you that I do want a white woman and I'm gonna get me a white woman. You brainwashed me and the madder it makes you the more I'm gonna get. Because you made the damn stupid mistake of bringing your movies into my black community and I sure mean nothin but white ladies making love and any time you should meet a black woman it was Beulah and you know damn good and well I wasn't going to make no love to Beulah.

"We say maybe if you can get honest you know! If you can't get honest, maybe you should take that white lady and stick her on the moon somewhere 'cause we're gonna deal with you. You can believe that.

"In white universities all over this country, if a black cat brings a white broad back to the dormitory, the house mother takes it upon her own to write that white lady's mother: 'Dear used-to-be white folks,' We are very sorry to inform you that your girl, your daughter, is dating a whatsamacallit, a thing, you know, a colored.

"Now we're not sayin that we want you to stop behaving like that. You've been acting like that for a hundred years. We're just sayin can you get a little bit more honest with it? Can you write that black cat's parents too? 'Cause there's a whole lot of niggers that don't want their kids with white girls.

"So we say to you, you youngsters got a big job. We've been telling you in this country that the number one problem confronting America today is the problem of air pollution. The number one problem confronting this country today is the problem of moral pollution. It is the most morally polluted insane nation on the face of this earth and it's left up to you young kids.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"You know what scares me the most about America? Not the social conditions, they don't bother me at all. What scares me the most about this country is that if the same social conditions that exist in America right this hour existed in any other country on the face of this earth we could solve it. Now is there any young black kids that think this system is just after black folks? You better forget it. And you white kids that think it's just after you, ah! This system's after young folks. And if you white folks don't believe it then you go back and reread that new draft law they just made law two months ago. The one that wiped out graduate school you know what that is don't you? You young hip white kids get to asking too many embarrassing questions. You want too much freedom for everybody. Now they have to give you to the Viet Cong to stop you from being so sassy. Yeah, well you youngsters got the problems. And there's not no help from us old immoral cats. I mean as good as I found I ain't no good to you. I just finished cheating on my income tax. I'm patriotic though. I was whistling the Star Spangled Banner: 'Oh Internal Revenue I hope you don't see.'

"Let me show you how many problems you've got and what you're dealing with. Every now and then I read this Bible. But when I read the Bible, baby, I've read everything else I can get my hands on including the telephone book. I used to love the Bible, you know I'm an ex-Baptist. I don't know about the white Baptists 'cause I could never get in your church. But southern Baptists that's about as extreme as you can go, baby. Oh we just go to church and whoop and holler. We have a thing goin on Sunday. And I used to love the Bible until one day I was readin some of them white folks literature and I read where, I couldn't "believe it, white missionaries went to Africa and Africans owned the land and the missionaries had the Bible and the white missionaries left and the white missionaries had the land and the Africans had the Bible. So I said, 'Let me hurry up and put this book down' because I wouldn't want to create ill will among the races because I just might take that Bible in a white hotel one day and when I leave--white folks own the Bible and I own the hotel. Ever hear of those old strange Bible stories that come back from the front line? Every soldier that comes back from every war says, 'You know I always carry a little Bible, a little Gideon Bible, right over my heart. Had it not been for that Bible that bullet would have gone clean through me. They wiped out the whole battalion and I just got that rip in my Bible. Thank God.' That's one thing about our Army we've Christian soldiers which means Marines that pray. And so I got so tired of hearing them stories I decided to carry a bullet over my heart, and it's a good thing too 'cause the Shriners will have its convention in Chicago and you know you white kids get a bad rap for tearing up Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. You want to see a town tore up? Follow your daddy this summer to the Shriners convention. And this summer in Chicago they was just havin a ball, man. They was up in the Hilton Hotel, 27 floors and I was just walkin down the street minding my own business, downtown Chicago minding my own business, singing my little tune: 'Oh Jesus I want to be with you, Lord. Oh Jesus I want to be with you, Lord.' You know I thought white folks said all niggers have rhythm? I usually try to develop mine. It isn't good though, but I try 'cause I knew they wasn't lying on this one, you know. And

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I was walking downtown singin my little Jesus song and looked up and I see the Shriners had this big party and somebody got mad in the hotel and they picked up this Gideon Bible and they threw it at one of the Shriners and he ducked and this Gideon Bible came out the window, right through the window, and sailed 27 floors. And I seen this thing coming through the air and it didn't scare me. I just kept singing: 'Oh Jesus I wonder what that is Lord. I don't want to be with you too soon Lord.' And that Gideon Bible hit me right in the chest and I want to tell you if it had not been for that bullet that Bible would have gone clean through me.

"This Bible, its really taught me a lot of things, white christianity, you know because there's a lot of people in America that believe that black folks is the dirtiest, well you know the little games you hear, your mom and dad tell you. Well let me tell you something, wait, I'm not sayin we're not dirty and ornery and low down and all that, but I will say this here, that all bad habits that black folks got if you do any studyng of them at all, you'd find out that they're European bad habits, white European bad habits. We have no African bad habits. We learned our bad habits. We do not know what the Africans do in the bushes after dark. We know what you do in the bushes and whether you like it or not we do the same thing. Oh I never will forget. I was so upset when this white christian told me that Africans was bad folks. I said, 'Tell me about my ancestors.' He said, 'They're immoral, they're just bad, they're savages.' That's what he said. Because they eat folks they're cannibals and then I got confirmed. I went to see a Tarzan movie and I got to lookin at those niggers. I didn't have "enough sense to know them was California niggers and I was just upset over my ancestors that was savage enough to go around eating folks and I rushed into that white christian church to pray for them savages. And I said, 'Oh white christian Jesus please forgive my black heathen ancestors for being savages, for being cannibals, Lord.' That's the only mistake I made. I went into this white christian church on the first Sunday, communion Sunday, and this white minister heard me praying for them savages and he said 'Boy, that's a good prayer. Most of you black folks ought to be praying for them savages and cannibals. I sure appreciate that, boy.' I said, 'Thank you Mr. White Minister. I was going to leave now.' He says, 'No, we'd like you to share communion with us.' I said, 'Communion? What's that?' He said, 'Open your mouth.' I said, 'Yes sir.' He said, 'This is his body and this is his blood.' I said, 'I can't believe that in this white christian society you're all cannibals every Sunday.'

You know I'd like for you youngsters to do me a favor. When you go to the library tomorrow or next week, I'd like for you to copy down the Declaration of Independence and keep it in your pocket and never be caught without it. And this summer when the riot season opens up again I'd like for you to do me this favor. Now I would never be sick enough to stand here and ask you to justify violence or a riot but when them niggers start burning towns there's a favor I'd like you all to do me. Get your television set and just put it right in the middle of the house and run and get your mama and your daddy. And you black folks get your aunts and your uncles and old ignorant niggers that think worse than the Ku Klux Klan, please get them too.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"And if you can get your grandma and grandpa, all of you, that would be groovy. Bring them down and let them see them niggers burning and Huntley and Brinkley be doin their commentaries. And here's what I'd like you to do for me. After you put them right down in front of the television, your grandpa put him under it, I'd like for you to just reach up and take the knob and turn the sound down so you just can't get anything with it. You can just see 'em. And get it down real low and pull out your Declaration of Independence and move way back behind your parents and read it as loud as you can: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal and endowed by the Creator with certain unalienable rights and when these rights are destroyed over long periods of time it is your duty to destroy all violations of that government.'

"I know them old ignorant parents of yours is goin to believe that was a note Stokely Carmichael wrote to Malcolm X. But with a minimum amount of persuasion you can convince 'em that that was a reading from the Declaration of Independence.

"Now the problem is this. We need to have a huge march with the young, a huge white march on Washington to show colored folks that white folks ain't racists? I think that's irrelevant. I think we ought to have a huge white march on Washington and get them to get that Declaration of Independence and change it so it will read white only. 'Cause you see there are a lot of black folks, that's ignorant enough to believe that Thomas Jefferson and Paine and Washington were cats that meant that to qualify for all Americans. We didn't know that they was just for white folks. So maybe if you could change it for us

"we would read it and we'd know we ain't suppose to have no country. Just you white folks is supposed to have a country with tea. That was a groovy war. In 1968, 85 per cent of Americans don't even drink tea.

"And so I'd say you youngsters have a lot of problems. You know whenever I read the Bible, I love to read that Biblical predication where it says it will come to pass the time when the parents will turn against their own kids. You know I'd never thought I'd see the day in America when we would surpass that Biblical predication, but we have. There will come a time in America that your parents and I never thought I'd see the day, when parents in America would side with the Federal government against their own kids and their kids happen to be right. And I say to you what's wrong with an 18-year-old American sayin, 'Damnit if at 18 years old I'm too young to vote, I should be too young to die.'

"And so I say somewhere down the line you young kids got a heck of a job. One day you got to ask yourself if democracy is as good as we say it is, why are we running all over the world trying to ram it down people's throats with guns? One day when you, youngsters make democracy work right for the first time, that's the day we can bring the guns home. Because anything good we don't have to force on people, they will steal it.

"If you want to force communism not just underground but out of the world, you force democracy to work to the nth degree and communism will not have a leg to stand on. But baby, if you think you goin run all over the world with this old half-time democracy that you got in America your guns ain't big enough to stop communism.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Twenty or 30 years ago, black folks and white folks used to talk to one and other, but they wasn't talking about nothing. No. I imagine your parents tell you now. I imagine folks my mama used to work for are still telling their kids: 'I don't know what's wrong with those colored folks, especially Richard. His mama was so nice.' They didn't know my mama was born. They was talkin to my mama but my mama didn't like it. My mama didn't even like those jobs. She stole everything she could. My mama worked for some rich white folks. Go to Africa to do that big game hunting. My mama stole a whole bear. I didn't know my mama could steal like that. She hated them white folks so bad she just chopped up the whole bear. And I wanted to let you white folks in on something. You think them black folks ate lunch out of a good old shopping bag? You better check on it. Just 'cause them old niggers like you, just 'cause they're tomin and acting ignorant around you sayin what you want to hear. Check that Baptist songbook out: 'You got shoes, I got shoes, all God's children got shoes.' Once we get to heaven, what's you got to do is go there if you got to die. They said way back then they had to kill you. No baby, they're just talking. Thirty years ago it was hard to get a black man to sit down and listen to you 'cause 20 to 30 years ago black folks in this country had an empty stomach. Today black folks in this country got a full stomach but a hungry mind. And I'm just sayin one thing. A hungry mind won't tolerate the same things an empty stomach does. Empty stomachs deal on smell and hungry minds deal on sounds and this country don't sound right to us, that's all.

"Three years ago five white boys burned up their draft cards. Within two weeks' time the Congress had pushed through an anti-draft

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"card burning bill, but we can't get an anti-lynching bill pushed through in a hundred years of American history. America just told me she thinks more of a piece of cardboard than she thinks of my black mammy. I'll bring her to her knees for that.

"Twenty or thirty years ago, white folks told black folks the problem with you niggers is education and we had black folks thick enough to believe that. You still have niggers who believe that. Education is not our problem. You're in Vietnam tonight with 688,000 red-blooded Americans with their life to free that Vietnamese and not one white or black American has ever questioned Vietnamese educational standards. That's what we're sayin. We don't question that bond of educational standards and if you want to liberate him, you better not question mine.

"Just stop one day and think how many millions of people would be dead today on the face of the earth if it were not for blood plasma. Are you aware of the fact that an American Negro by the name of Charlie Drew invented blood plasma? Don't take my word for it. Check it out in your libraries. Charlie Drew, American Negro, invented blood plasma. Charlie Drew bled to death in an Atlanta, Georgia, hospital waiting room after an automobile accident because they didn't accept niggers. Oh, never tell us about education, never. A blackman that had the wisdom and knowledge and the education that 'ur supposed to demand, enough of it to give blood plasma to the world, died from the lack of his own invention 'cause his face was black.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Why don't you get demonstratin and go on down into the black ghetto and pull your brother up by his boot straps? You say, 'Why don't you give him some boots?'

"And all of these people that talk about morality, you've all got to go and build up your morals. No we ain't got to go do nothin. White folkds tell you that black women in America got 20 per cent illegitimate babies. They ain't lying. We have fun ghettos. White women in America had two per cent illegitimate babies. Well let's get the record straight. Don't you never forget it. If we ever get our hands on your white folks abortion credit cards we will show you how to lie.

"All you fools that run around talking about, 'I wonder why they keep having all them babies; they can't take care of them. They'll end up on relief or welfare or ADC.' We figure relief, welfare and ADC upsets you. Then call it foreign aid. That word don't bother you. And all them babies we have down in that ghetto, we're gonna keep havin, but we'll make a deal with you. The day this dirty, stinkin white system learns how to hire black boys and give us good jobs like it gives you white boys so we can afford all these whores and prostitutes like you, we'll quit having all those babies. Before you come back to us with your old holier than thou stuff, you forget we know about whores 'cause it's my sister. And when she do come back home and talk she tells on you. So we got the same problems. We're both dirty, stinkin and immoral. We got a way we speak dirty. We talk about we don't want these dirty ignorant niggers living next door to us. The property depreciates. Customers always act surprised when you tell them 'What do you mean, Ralph Bunche?'

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Black folks got to admit we're playing games with these white folks too. You've got to admit that most niggers you know is dirty and stinkin and will depreciate property. But America better understand one thing. She's dirty herself. And one good thing about Hitler is with all of his insanity and sickness they say when he went out to inspect his Nazis concentration camps and smelled them dirty, stinkin Jews, he had enough scruples about himself to realize that that wasn't Judaism he was smelling, that was pure Nazism. And one day you will have to get honest enough with yourself. So when you're sayin 'These dirty niggers,' you'll realize that's America you looking at and that odor you smell was that democracy. And one day when you sweeten up democracy, we'll sweeten up niggers.

"Some of these old racist red-neck crackers I've run across, I could nail 'em to a bullpen. That's why I travel and eat Limburger cheese. I get on a plane; a cracker don't want to sit next to me, but he ain't got no place else. I just stop for lunch--Limburger cheese. He says, 'What is that I smell?' I says, 'Ignorant niggers.'

"And so in closing, let me say to you we don't want no more games. We don't want no civil rights legislation and we don't want no fair housing bills. How come I need a fair housing bill to live next door to you? What kind of animal are you? That old red-neck white Russian cracker broad that came to my country, Stalin's daughter, a known communist and a known Russian. You don't make her get no fair housing bill to live next door to you. How come I got to get one? Those Russian exchange students you bring over here, you're supposed to be scared of the communists.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"You bring them Russian exchange students over here. They don't want to be citizens; gonna go back to Moscow after they finish their education; might drop a bomb on your mama's house in ten years. You don't make them old white Russian exchange students get no fair housing bill to live near where they want to live. How come we need it?

"If I was in Vietnam tonight and the Viet Cong killed me dead, this old insane nation would give my black woman $10,000 as a token of its appreciation. Your husband died upholdin the beliefs of this country and my black woman couldn't take that $10,000 and buy her house in any neighborhood she wanted to buy one in. Maybe I got killed shooting at the wrong cats. Maybe you better understand these insults, we're tired of them.

"Black folks in America die six years younger than white folks. I got six black kids at home. Whenever they sit at the dinner table at the same time I got to go through the pain and misery of looking at 36 dead years that you white folks don't have to listen to. And for the benefit of you CIA and FBI Agents that usually follow me around on lectures, put this in your book and wire it back to Washington quick. You'll get those 36 dead years out of my house only over my dead body. Don't you never forget that.

"I'm sayin we're tired of being insulted. Did you ever stop to realize what black folks have to go through? It's in our head. At night, I go to bed and try to go to sleep and then I got to realize that during World War II a German killed my daddy. 1942, that German killed my daddy. I was ten years old then. In 1968, I'll be 36 years old this year.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Insults? Not only was that German killing my daddy make me go 26 years without a daddy, which ain't bad though, you expect daddies to get killed during a war, but the insult is that the same German that killed my daddy in 1942 can come to my daddy's country tonight and live in the neighborhood my daddy's boy can't live in. Man, we will burn this country down house by house.

"And we don't give a damn about this country's attitude because the problem with black folks today is they're thinking too white. You see we do know that if we took this country away from you tonight and put white folks in the same situation for ten years this country has had us in for 100 years you would burn it down to the ground, baby. We know, we don't have to ask you. Look what you're doing in Vietnam. You're burnin Vietnam down to the ground to free a foreigner. We know what you'd do to free your mammy. We don't have to ask you what your behavior would be. So I say to you young folks, I spend 98 percent of my time on college campuses. Why? Because you young kids is the most moral, ethical force that ever lived in the history of this country. And why? I'll tell you why. You're so morally committed. It's possible for Dick Gregory to go back into his hotel, get in bed, go to sleep, the hotel catch fire and I burn to death. That is possible. But it is not possible for Dick Gregory to walk into a hotel that's on fire with intentions of going to sleep. And this hotel's on fire, youngsters, and there are those of you who are not aware of it. I tell you to go to sleep!

"And I hope you youngsters don't make the mistakes that we made when you study in these colleges and universities ahead of you. We were so busy going to college and universities to learn how to make a living we forgot to learn

"how to live. I promise you if you waste your four years at this or any other institution just learning how to make a living you haven't got a guarantee you can get a job or keep one after you get out. But if you spend these four beautiful years at this or any other institution learning how to live, I guarantee you makin a living will be the easiest thing for you on the face of this earth.

"So the challenge is yours. Solving these problems will not be hard. We've got our heads straight and we've located it. So can't nobody say we don't know where it is. So this is what we're sayin.

"I just came off a 47 day fast. I went on the first 40 day fast last Thanksgiving to New Years. I started the fast off with nothing but distilled water. I started off weighing 152 pounds. I ended weighing 97 pounds. I never went through such misery and torture in my life. Now for me, 36 years old, I'm too old to get drafted and with my political beliefs if I tried to volunteer for the Army, the government would burn my draft card. But I went on that 40 day fast to say to you young folks that there is some older immoral Americans like myself that really appreciate what you're doing and it's just not small talk. I'm sayin thanks to you and don't stop. Just keep doing it.

"I started the second fast Ash Wednesday and was supposed to come off of it Good Friday. But now I intend to keep this fast on now all the way through 'til November 5, Election Day. Now I'm on distilled water, and I'll take nothin but juices and liquids in hopes that you young kids that just started votin don't get caught in that old political trick.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Especially that old Bobby Kennedy trick. I hope you will demand that who you vote for will be a politician second and a statesman first.

"In 1964, I couldn't vote because I would never stoop so low as to vote for the lesser of two evils. And that's why I'm a candidate for the Presidency today. To allow people that would never stoop to vote for the lesser of two evils, I'm gonna give them something to vote for if they got any sense. But I'll tell you one thing. Had in 1964, I'd been dirty enough to stoop to vote for the lesser of two evils, you can damn sure betcha that it would have been for Brother Barry Goldwater 'cause the only thing wrong with Goldwater in 1964 was that he dared to be the most honest of the two candidates. I mean I could of stomached Bobby Kennedy had he just been honest with the young folks and just told you pointblank that 'LBJ is a hawk; McCarthy is a dove; and I'm a chicken.' Had he just been honest enough to tell you that he was scared of messin up his political chances so he didn't want to buck LBJ. So after McCarthy went out there and took him on and the effect of what you young kids had been doing showed tco and Bobby stood up and said, 'So I admit I was wrong and I was a chicken, but now I realize my daddy's richer than McCarthy. We can buy more votes than he can and I got more money than him. I might look a little bit better than him and I talk stranger than he talks and I think I can appeal to more stupid Americans.' He wasn't even that honest with you. What did he say? 'The only reason I didn't come into the race was 'cause I didn't want to split the Democratic Party.' A five-year-old maladjusted baby got enough sense to know if he had the opportunity to split the moon and become President, he'd split the sun to make sure he'd get it.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"In this country you're too young to vote so that the Democrats and Republicans don't have to listen to you. But I guarantee you one thing if you're sincere about ending that war in Vietnam. If enough of you young kids stop gettin a haircut, although you can't vote, the barbers will have to come out in the streets and demonstrate, they vote. Enough of you young folks decide you're not going to shave 'til that war's over in Vietnam, I guarantee you one thing. Some old gal, 75 years old, don't care nothin about Vietnam but she owns 15,000 shares of Gillette Blue Blades, she got to get in a picket line. Enough of you young kids decide you're not going to wear nothin but work clothes 'til that war's over in Vietnam. Baby, you're going to upset the garment industry. And when you get this garment industry on your side, talk about ending the war! You'd be surprised how much power you have in your hands, non-violent power. If you use it you can do anything you want to do. It's a groovy thing you young kids demonstrating against Dow Chemical and sayin, 'We don't want you to make no more Napalm' but Dow Chemical makes about 200 other products for the house. Those little old tissue papers you wipe your eyeglasses with, that's Dow Chemical. The same one that makes the Napalm bomb. That Dial soap you kids washin up with Dial soap so you can rush out and demonstrate against Dow Chemical. You tell Dow Chemical that if they don't hurry up and quit making Napalm you ain't gonna buy any more Dial soap, baby. You'd be surprised how quick they'd get out of the Napalm business."

"Now let me drop this on you for what it is worth. If you really want the war to end, you really don't want to play no games, you take what you have to do. Now I've been smoking cigarettes since I was 13 years old."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"I quit six months ago when I read an article in the paper where the Federal government said it was going to supply the local law enforcement agencies with all of the Mace they needed to stop peace demonstrations. So that kind of upset me and I went home and I did my homework and I checked it out and I found out that every time I buy a pack of cigarettes I pay eight cents Federal tax immediately. At the end of the year, the cigarette industry gives the government two billion dollars. At that point, I decided I would never catch cancer and buy Mace and Napalm at the same time.

"If you youngsters want to end that war in Vietnam, you see up until six months ago I was smoking three to four packs of cigarettes a day. You want to end that war in Vietnam? When you smoke that last cigarette outta your pack, you take that empty pack and you mail it into the cigarette company and you put a little note with it: 'Dear Cigarette Industry, I'm not gonna smoke or buy another cigarette and I'm gonna entice my friends not to smoke or buy another cigarette 'til the war's over in Vietnam. Not to mention what it's gonna do for my chest.' I guarantee you when that cigarette industry realizes that the Vietnamese getting free means that they might have to go bankrupt they will hurry up, fly to Washington, D. C., kick LBJ's door in, and smack that barbeque sauce off his mouth. I guarantee you that within six weeks' time the boys will be coming home from Vietnam.

Let's also understand you not only have the power to shape your future, it's bigger than that, you have the power to shape the future and the destiny of the entire world. And I get around the world and there's a whole lot of young folks even in communist countries

"that would love to follow your lead because your makin a lot of noise and it's gettin out. I mean more news is getting out of the country on how beautiful you are than is getting in here to you.

"So I say to you; oh, before I run I want to remind you about my two books. The first book is Nigger . This book has really come in handy for me. I never will forget I was demonstratin once and a sheriff came up and slapped me down and picked me up and looked me in the eye and said, "How you doin, Nigger?" I said, 'Niggers doin all right.' And it is, four million copies. The height of my ambition is to put Nigger in every home. So for those of you that use the word nigger I want you to always know that you'll be advertising my book.

"This is my new book that's been out for about two months. It is a very important book, probably one of the most important books on the market today. It's called The Shadow That Scares You. I'm not asking you to buy this one. Go to the library and check this one out. Read it; dig it; steal it.

"So again I say it was a pleasure to be here. I wish I didn't have to fly back to New York.

"I don't know, but they tell me there was rumors out that Dick Gregory was arrested. I hope that if the police arrested any colored cat today they thought it was me. Please go back to the station and when he tells you 'I ain't Dick Gregory,' be cool. I hope you all let him go.

"And again I say to you youngsters, stay as pure as you are because you put a lot of trust in old immoral cats like me but for

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"the first time I got something morally pure to see and look at that I never had before in this country. And I say to all of you, thank you and may God bless you. Just look around. Look at the crowd that's here. This is Saturday, we're usually out shooting marbles or raisin hell or something. What did you come here for? You come to hear a message and you got it, right? Okay, look at the old people, the elderly people, they're out cookin usually somewhere but they're here too. You know why? Because they wanted to hear the message and they got the message. So go home and think about it. Good-bye."

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The information herein supplements that in the memorandum under this title dated June 27, 1968:

A Special Agent of the FBI observed approximately forty to fifty individuals participating in a non-violent march around the Thurston County Courthouse, across from the State Capitol grounds, Olympia, Washington, for approximately one hour during the early afternoon of June 29, 1968. Persons in the march carried signs protesting the incarceration of RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY. No disturbance was noted.

[redacted] Thurston County Sheriff's Office, advised that no violence or arrests occurred in connection with this demonstration.

b6
b7c

[redacted] further advised that on the evening of June 28, 1968, a sit-in on the Capitol grounds by a number of Indians was terminated by Washington State Patrol Troopers through dismantling of three tepees and four tents belonging to the Indians. The arrests of nine persons followed as a result of resisting police officers during the dismantling. Eight of those arrested were juveniles. The sit-in was mainly in protest of rights of Indians, along with a protest of GREGORY's sentencing and jailing.

An item in the June 29, 1968 issue of the Seattle Times, a Seattle newspaper of general circulation, under the caption "Protests Continue in Olympia," stated with respect to the dismantling of the tents which had been erected on the Capitol grounds:

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

"Earlier, State Patrol Chief WILL BACHOFNER said that if police had not removed the encampment Friday night, 'it would have been moved by the citizens of the town'".

The June 30, 1968 issue of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, a Seattle newspaper of general circulation, carried an article under the title, "GREGORY Invites EVANS to Jail," in which GREGORY is said to have transmitted a letter by way of his wife to Governor DAN EVANS of Washington State inviting EVANS to visit him in his jail cell "or I'll have no alternative but to lead demonstrations against you at the Republican National Convention in Miami." The article continues:

"I hope you will find time to come over during your lunch hour one day to discuss with me the problems of Indians and other minority groups," GREGORY said.

"GREGORY, who has gone without food and taken only distilled water since he entered his cell June 7, told EVANS he intends to serve his full 90-day sentence and 'continue my fast until I am released to demonstrate to the world the problems confronted by my Indian brothers'".

SPECIAL AGENT OF THE FBI OBSERVED APPROXIMATELY FORTY TO FIFTY INDIVIDUALS WHO PARTICIPATED IN NON-VIOLENT MARCH AROUND THURSTON COUNTY COURTHOUSE, ACROSS FROM STATE CAPITOL GROUNDS, OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON, FOR APPROXIMATELY ONE HOUR EARLY AFTERNOON OF 6/29/68. PERSONS IN MARCH CARRIED SIGNS PROTESTING CONTINUING INCARCERATION OF RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY.

[REDACTED] THURSTON COUNTY SHERIFF, ADVISED NO VIOLENCE OR ARRESTS IN CONNECTION WITH THIS DEMONSTRATION.

[REDACTED] FURTHER ADVISED THAT ON EVENING OF 6/28/68, A SIT-IN AT THE CAPITOL GROUNDS BY A NUMBER OF INDIANS WAS TERMINATED BY TROOPERS OF THE WASHINGTON STATE PATROL THROUGH DISMANTLING OF THREE TEPEES AND FOUR TENTS BELONGING TO THE INDIANS; THE ARRESTS OF NINE PERSONS FOLLOWED AS A RESULT OF RESISTING POLICE OFFICERS DURING THE DISMANTLING. EIGHT OF THOSE ARRESTED WERE JUVENILES. SIT-IN WAS MAINLY IN PROTEST OF RIGHTS OF INDIANS, ALONG WITH PROTEST OF GREGORY'S SENTENCING.

RE: RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The information herein is supplementary to that contained in memoranda under this title dated at Seattle, Washington, July 2, 1968, and prior thereto.

A news article in the July 17, 1968, issue of the Seattle Post Intelligencer, a Seattle, Washington, morning paper of general circulation, in an article captioned "Gregory Freed as 'Trusty' for Last 15 Days," reflects that GREGORY had been released from Thurston County Jail, Olympia, Washington, on July 16, 1968, as a "trusty-at-large" by order of Superior Court Judge HEWITT A. HENRY. GREGORY is quoted as saying his eating would be resumed gradually under the direction of a doctor, and that he intended to spend at least several days in the State of Washington, living with [redacted] in his Tacoma, Washington, home [redacted]

On July 17, 1968, [redacted] County Jail, said the release order on GREGORY is tantamount to an unconditional discharge, although, technically, he is still "serving" the remaining portion of his sentence. There are no apparent restrictions on any travel GREGORY wishes to undertake.

At a press conference held by GREGORY on July 17, 1968, at Tacoma, he stated he would continue his efforts in behalf of the American Indian, this being, in his opinion, the number one problem facing the American people today. GREGORY placed this even ahead of the "black man's struggles," and said he hoped the Indians would not get as militant as the Negroes.

GREGORY did not enlarge on any immediate plans. He dismissed the possibility of his participation in a demonstration against Washington Governor DAN EVANS at the Republican National Convention. He stated this was a personal issue between himself and EVANS. He further advised that from what he has seen in the State of Washington, this state is ahead of other states in solving racial problems. He stated he is the Presidential candidate for the Peace and Freedom Party. His plans for the future include a world tour to visit North Korea and talk to the crew of the Pueblo. He also said he plans to visit North Vietnam, Russia, and Red China.

14th June, 1968

John Collins,

The wife of Mr. Dick Gregory telephoned me yesterday to tell me that her husband has been sentenced to imprisonment for 90 days, in connection with his part in the negro Civil Rights Movement. Mr. Gregory had undertaken to take part in a Concert, to be given at the Albert Hall on June 26th, on behalf of the International Defence and Aid Fund for Southern Africa. I would be immensely grateful if you should feel able to intervene, and to obtain for Mr. Gregory either a remission of his prison sentence or his pardon so that he might be able to fulfil his promise of coming to London; I would suggest that such an intervention might be justified on the ground that the majority of British people would find it difficult to understand how your country, which they regard as one devoted to freedom, should imprison a man committed to non-violence, whose only offence would seem to be a desire to obtain for the negroes of the United States of America their freedom and just rights.

Please forgive me for making such an unusual request. But I did not wish to have to disappoint so many people who will have looked forward to Mr. Gregory's appearance on the platform at the Albert Hall on June 26th. His name, as you may have seen, has already been publicly announced as one of the artists to be giving their services free on this special occasion.

with best wishes

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 1, 1968, Dick Gregory appeared on the Jerry Williams television program, Station WBZ, Boston, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., and on the Jerry Williams radio show on the same station from 10:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m. on the same date. Both programs are talk shows which encourage telephonic questions from the public at large.

On the morning show Gregory appeared with Jules Feifer (phonetic), a well known cartoonist, and on the evening show with James Farmer, former Chairman of the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE), who was in telephonic contact with the program from New York City.

Gregory's remarks generally criticized the United States as being a racist country which had no right to be engaged in the war in Vietnam. He discussed his write-in candidacy for President in the coming election and his book "Write Me In" which has just been published and which explains in detail his candidacy and his program for solving United States problems.

Gregory was wearing coveralls and a self-conferred peace medal, and stated he would not shave nor wear conventional dress until the war in Vietnam has ended. He discussed his recent conviction of ninety days in jail in the State of Washington in connection with his protest concerning unjust laws of that State against American Indians there.

He stated that he is on the ballot in the State of Pennsylvania representing the Peace and Freedom Party, and in the near future he expects to go to California to address the Peace and Freedom Party there in the hope of getting on the ballot in that State representing that party. He stated that by getting on the ballot in several states he hopes to demand equal time on television as other presidential candidates.

Gregory stated that he has instituted court action to force the administration to brief him in the same manner as the other six white presidential candidates. He stated that the administration has refused to offer him Secret Service protection as it has the other presidential candidates including Harold Stassen whose Secret Service protection unit constitutes his largest crowd.

Gregory described himself as a integrationist and not a black nationalist, but stated he was in sympathy with the black nationalists because, as things are at the present time, the Constitution is not working to bridge the gap between whites and blacks, and, if it comes to the point where he believes no further progress can be made towards integration, then he will join with the black nationalists.

Gregory stated that he expects to get the most write-in votes of any of the presidential candidates, in which case he will consider himself elected President of the United States in exile and will set up his office in Washington, D. C.

Gregory stated that in this capacity he expects to handle grievances against the United States Government by people who were not successful in originally referring these grievances to the administration in power.

Gregory made the comment that he believes that Chicago will be the most violent city in the nation this summer mainly because the Democratic National Convention is being held there. He stated that he had hoped that "We could slip through the summer without violence", but that it does not look as though this will happen.

Gregory stated that since his request to be briefed as a presidential candidate has been refused by the administration, he feels compelled to make a world tour of his own to obtain the necessary information.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 2, 1968, the records of the United States District Court, Washington, D. C., revealed that Gregory instituted an action entitled "Dick Gregory vs. Dean Rusk; et al" subsequently filed by the Clerk of the Court on May 23, 1968 as Civil Action Number 1243-68.

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, Gregory, has been discriminated against as a presidential candidate by the said defendants on the basis of race.

The relief sought by the plaintiff, identified as Dick Gregory, 1451 55th Street, Chicago, Illinois, is by way of a complaint for injunction against defendants who are identified as:

Lyndon Baines Johnson, President of United States.

Dean Rusk, Secretary of State.

Nicholas deB Katzenbach, Under Secretary of State.

The nature of the relief sought is by way of a preliminary and permanent injunction whereby the plaintiff requests the court to issue an order:

(A) Enjoining defendants from refusing any information made available to the "preferred six" other candidates for President on equal terms with equal privileges; or

(B) In the alternative directing defendants to cease forthwith from making available in any way any said information to said "preferred six" and

(C) Granting such other further relief as the court deems just.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 19, 1968, [redacted]
Chicago, Illinois, [redacted] Airlines, advised that some time ago she had discussed with Dick Gregory his travel plans for a world tour. They worked out a tentative itinerary, and tentative fares for the tour. However, no definite plans were made and no bookings were arranged for him.
Since that time she has not had further contact with Dick Gregory and does not know whether he intends to leave the United States on a world tour and further does not know whether Gregory intends to utilize the services of Pakistan Airlines on such a tour.

On August 19, 1968, Dick Gregory was contacted under a suitable pretext at his residence, 1451 East 55th Street, Chicago, Illinois. Gregory advised that he was leaving Chicago that day, but only briefly, and would return the following day.
Gregory said that he intended to be in and out of Chicago during the next few days, but expected to be at his Chicago apartment later this week.

On August 22, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he had learned in recent conversation with Dick Gregory that Gregory was scheduled to make a speech on the night of August 19, 1968, at Valparaiso, Indiana, and on Tuesday, August 20, 1968, Gregory was planning to go to Manhattan, Kansas, to speak to the National Student Association.
Gregory now plans to travel to Seattle, Washington, during the first week of September, 1968, to participate in a "rock band music festival", which is being held to raise funds for Indians contending with local authorities over fishing rights. This source said at the present time it appeared that Gregory would not be leaving the United States during the next few weeks. Source noted that in the past Gregory has said that he was planning a world tour to begin in late August; however, it appears that the plans for a world tour have been postponed or even possibly canceled by Gregory.

On August 22, 1968, a second source, an agency which conducts security investigations in the Chicago area, advised it had no information concerning Gregory's plans for the near future other than he was thought to still be planning foreign travel, the dates of which are unknown.

RICHARD CLAXON GREGORY

On August 22, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that RICHARD GREGORY, Presidential Candidate, would arrive in Philadelphia, Pa., on August 23, 1968. Source indicated that GREGORY's schedule would be as follows:

- 1 p.m. - Press conference at the Hotel Philadelphia
- 6 p.m. - Open rallies at 22nd Street and Columbia Avenue and 52nd and Market Streets
- 8 p.m. - Speech at the Mt. Olivet Tabernacle Baptist Church, 42nd and Wallace Streets

Source indicated that GREGORY's appearances concern his political campaign for the Presidency of the United States.

On August 23, 1968, Lieutenant [redacted] Philadelphia Police Department, advised GREGORY arrived at Philadelphia International Airport approximately 12:20 p.m., August 23, 1968, and held a brief news conference after which he traveled to the Hotel Philadelphia. At 6:30 p.m. GREGORY appeared at 22nd and Columbia Avenue where a group of only ten spectators greeted him. After 20 minutes, GREGORY traveled to 52nd and Market Streets where 20 persons attended a brief talk. At 8:15 p.m. GREGORY addressed approximately 150 people at the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church. Following GREGORY's address to the audience, entertainment was provided in the church which continued until 11:15 p.m. Lieutenant [redacted] advised that none of the above appearances produced any incidents whatsoever.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 23, 1968, [redacted] Pittsburgh Police Department, advised that Richard Claxton Gregory arrived in Pittsburgh via air at approximately 9:00 AM on August 23, 1968, in furtherance of his candidacy for the Presidency. Gregory held a press conference at the Pick-Roosevelt Hotel, downtown Pittsburgh, in which he predicted, "a lot of awful things will happen in Chicago" during the Democratic Convention and stated that the racial situation will not improve because "the Negro sees he can get too many gains by being unsmooth."

b6
b7C

[redacted] said Gregory departed Pittsburgh via air at approximately 11:00 AM on August 23, 1968, enroute to Philadelphia, Pa.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 27, 1968, that during the above conference, which was attended by approximately 50 persons, Gregory stated that he was a statesman and not a politician and that his candidacy offers an alternative to the two party system. In referring to George Wallace, Gregory said he is the best possible candidate since everyone knows how Wallace thinks.

Gregory said that his campaign is an independent effort and that he has refused to accept five million dollars which has been offered to him because to do so would compromise his independence. He declared that the news media has given him very little coverage because he is a peaceful man and he stated that if he threw a brick or two he would be on the front page of "Time Magazine."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Source advised that Gregory, in referring to the Czechoslovakian Situation, said that he wished the United States would be as peaceful in Vietnam as the Russians were in Prague. Gregory said he has not been given a briefing by the State Department regarding Czechoslovakia and that he intends to file suit. He said he had written a letter to Secretary General U Thant of the United Nations requesting information regarding the Czechoslovakian Situation and U Thant had replied that no information could be furnished to Gregory inasmuch as he is a Presidential candidate.

According to the source, Gregory predicted that President Lyndon B. Johnson will again be a Presidential candidate and that his running mate for the Vice-Presidency will be Mayor Carl Stokes of Cleveland, Ohio. He said that such a ticket would be a sure winner.

Gregory said that he feels his chances for becoming President are not impossible and that he may be the only candidate left. He said that the situation in Chicago is not good and that Mayor Richard J. Daley's attitude toward the Yippies and Hippies will create a great deal of trouble. In this regard, Gregory said that the blacks will not be the ones to destroy Chicago and that none of his "group" will participate in the demonstrations which have been planned.

In referring to gun control, Gregory stated that if the police shot a white youngster, gun control would probably result immediately and police would not even be allowed to carry night sticks.

Source said that Gregory stated that the riots have helped the Negro cause, but lamented the fact that a negative force has been the only thing to bring about positive reactions. He said that the country is sick and insane and that one of the first things he will do if he is elected President, will be to eliminate all civil rights legislation because if the Constitution is adhered to, there is no need for such legislation.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Prior to the termination of the conference, Gregory indicated that he was on his way to Philadelphia to attend a rally, but that he planned to return to Pittsburgh sometime before the November elections.

The Pittsburgh Police Department is cognizant of the above. The U. S. Attorney's Office and Army Intelligence, Pittsburgh, Pa., have been apprised of the above information.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 20, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory is scheduled to address a session of the National Students Association (NSA) at 11:00 PM this date. Source noted that the 21st annual Congress of NSA is currently meeting on the campus of Kansas State University (KSU), Manhattan, Kansas. He said the NSA agenda indicates Gregory's topic will be a "special presentation on the nature of racism in America."

On August 21, 1968, Bill Colvin, editor of the "Manhattan Mercury", daily newspaper, Manhattan, Kansas, advised that in an after midnight speech today Gregory addressed an audience of some 1,000 students and spectators at Williams Auditorium, Umberger Hall, on the campus of KSU. He said the speech lasted over two hours and was made during bursts of cheering and applause from NSA delegates, who were urged by Gregory to unravel the nation's political dilemma and create a government where "our leaders can be honest" and "the black folks can trust the white folks". Gregory also said "this government has become a slick bag of tricks run by no-good politicians, and unless you young kids do something about it this nation is going to burn". Other comments by Gregory were that "Our leaders have not been able to take out cities from control of crime syndicates, and yet, they demand the poor and powerless to obey laws. They day America starts dealing out law and justice instead of law and order, we might not even need cops", and "you young kids cannot be slaves to money anymore, you cannot be slaves to education anymore. If you have to get kicked out of these ratty colleges just because you are searching for the truth then go, because they are going to kick you if you stay".

Colvin said he understood Gregory arrived in Manhattan, Kansas, shortly before his speech and departed immediately thereafter enroute to Kansas City, Missouri, even though the hour was late. He said Gregory's transportation was a vehicle obtained from Hertz Rent-a-Car in Kansas City, Missouri.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
AUGUST, 1968

On August 29, 1968, at 7:20 p.m. a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that a group of approximately two thousand to two thousand five hundred demonstrators were beginning to leave the Grant Park area in downtown Chicago following a speech by Dick Gregory, Negro entertainer and civil rights activist. Gregory invited the entire group to his residence on Chicago's south side. The group was to be his guests and Gregory said he would tell police he was walking to his home with friends. This group intends to proceed to the amphitheater where the National Democratic Convention was being held and Gregory stated in the park that he would go through police barricades if necessary. This group is accompanied by a number of police and a contingent of the Illinois National Guard. has also been observed in the area. The group included demonstrators against the war in Viet Nam, and many "hippies". Only a few of the demonstrators were Negroes. ~~X~~ (U)

At 8:00 p.m. on August 29, 1968, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that a group of demonstrators, about two thousand in number, were proceeding south from Grant Park on Michigan Avenue. This group was strung out on many blocks, but its leaders were then at 16th Street and Michigan Avenue. The crowd was moving slowly and in small groups. Dick Gregory is leading this march and other leaders with him include members of the Wisconsin and California regular delegations to the National Democratic Convention. It is the definite intention ~~X~~ (U) of this group to proceed to the amphitheater, where the convention is in progress. ~~X~~ (U)

At 8:30 p.m. on August 29, 1968, Special Agents of the FBI observed that the marchers, led by Dick Gregory, were stopped by the Chicago Police Force and by a contingent of the Illinois National Guard at 18th Street and Michigan Avenue. Police officers called Dick Gregory aside to confer with him. The group then assembled on Michigan Avenue, including spectators and marchers, was approximately two thousand in number.

At 9:00 p.m. on August 29, 1968, Superintendent James Conlisk, Jr., Chicago Police Department, advised that in connection with the march led by Dick Gregory on South Michigan Avenue, a confrontation had taken place at 18th Street and Michigan Avenue. Present at this confrontation, in addition to members of the Chicago Police Department, and Illinois National Guard were representatives of the Community Relations Service, Department of Justice; representatives of the United States Attorney's Office, Chicago, and representatives of the Corporation Counsel's Office, City of Chicago. Superintendent Conlisk said that the representative of the Community Relations Service took the position that Gregory and the group could lawfully "march wherever they pleased". Conlisk said that it was the position of the police department and the City of Chicago that this march, which was obviously headed in the direction of the amphitheater where the National Democratic Convention was in session, could not proceed for security reasons. Gregory and other leaders of the march were advised that they must turn back or submit to arrests. Superintendent Conlisk said they refused to turn back and, therefore, Gregory and ten or fifteen other individuals were arrested under peaceful circumstances.

On August 30, 1968, a third source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Dick Gregory, who had previously held a reservation on Pan American Airways Flight 58 to London, England, from Chicago on August 30, 1968, had cancelled that reservation. Gregory now has a reservation on September 3, 1968, from Chicago to London via Pan American Airways Flight 58, which leaves Chicago at 5:00 p.m. central daylight time. ~~(S)~~ (U)

On September 3, 1968, [redacted] Sheriff's Office, Cook County, Illinois, advised that Dick Gregory was released from the Cook County Jail on Friday, August 30, 1968, on bail.

On September 3, 1968, Dick Gregory was contacted at his residence, 1451 East 55th Street, under a suitable pretext. Gregory advised that he had been arrested for his part in demonstrations during the National Democratic Convention, but had been released on bail on August 30, 1968. He said he intends to depart Chicago today, September 3, 1968, by air for London, England, and will return to Chicago on September 10, 1968.

DEMONSTRATIONS AT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION, AUGUST, 1968.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 23, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Richard Claxton Gregory departed Chicago via airplane en route to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and will return to Chicago on August 25, 1968. Source advised that the reason for Richard Gregory's trip was not known. Source related that Richard Gregory now plans to remain in Chicago during the week of the Democratic National Convention; however, source has learned of no indication that Richard Gregory plans any disruptive activities during the convention. Source stated that Richard Gregory, after the convention is over, intends to vacation with his wife at the Jim Smith Family Farm near Stevens Point, Wisconsin. Smith is the publisher of the "Chicago Gazette," a newspaper directed to the Negro community.

On August 23, 1968, [redacted] Pittsburgh Police Department, advised the Pittsburgh Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Office that Richard Gregory arrived in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, at 9:00 A. M., August 23, 1968, for purpose of furthering his candidacy for the presidency.

He stated that Richard Gregory, at a press conference, predicted "a lot of awful things will happen in Chicago" during the Democratic convention and also stated the racial situation will not improve because "the Negro sees he can get too many gains by being unsmooth."

He related that Richard Gregory departed Pittsburgh via airplane at 11:00 A. M. on August 23, 1968, en route to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

A copy of this memo is being furnished the office of the United States Attorney, Chicago, United States Secret Service, Chicago and Region I, 113th Military Intelligence Group, Evanston, Illinois.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI; it is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On September 10, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Richard Gregory arrived back in Chicago, Illinois, on September 10, 1968.

This source stated Gregory arrived at Chicago's O'Hare Airport aboard Air France Flight 031 from Paris, France, via Montreal, Canada.

Gregory is a nationally known Negro entertainer and civil rights activist who maintains his residence in Chicago.

On September 11, 1968, a second source, an [redacted] in the Chicago area, advised that Gregory was back in Chicago after a trip to London, England. Gregory has a court appearance at Branch 47, Criminal Court, Chicago, on September 29, 1968. The source advised this court date stems from an arrest of Gregory on August 29, 1968, at 18th Street and Michigan Avenue, by the Chicago Police Department during the time of the Democratic National Convention. Gregory was arrested leading a large number of persons who had formed for a march to Chicago's south side.

RACIAL MATTERS

According to a brochure of campus events 1968-69, at Western Maryland College, Richard Claxton Gregory and Andrew Hatcher, former Associate Press Secretary during the administration of the late John F. Kennedy, are scheduled for a "black power" debate at 10 a.m., 2/12/69, Alumni Hall, Western Maryland College.

b6
b7C

For the information of Baltimore, Gregory, a Negro comedian-entertainer and civil rights activist, has been arrested on numerous occasions in connection with his civil rights activities and has vehemently criticized the war in Vietnam, President Johnson, and the white racist structure in his speeches. In view of Gregory's past statements and his black extremist activity, you should make plans now to afford discreet coverage of his appearance. Bear in mind that he could make statements which are in violation of the Antiriot Laws and that coverage should, therefore, include sources who would be in a position to testify. B

Insure that interested local authorities are aware of Gregory's scheduled appearance. Results of your coverage should be submitted in form suitable for dissemination.

Dick Gregory Reports On Paris Meetings With N. Viets

Former nightclub comedian Dick Gregory flew into Portland Wednesday night, fresh from meetings with the North Vietnamese peace team in Paris.

There was no quip on his lips and only briefly did he flash the topical irreverence which made him a favorite standup funny man.

Questions Answered

Instead he carried a briefcase bulging with campaign material and reports on the Paris meetings, and his manner was grave and attentive, not flip and funny.

He said there are no "peace talks" going on now between Washington and Hanoi envoys — only "talks."

"The principal delegate answered my questions candidly and explicitly," Gregory said. "And he made it plain that until the bombing stops in North Vietnam the subject of peace is not even under discussion."

Gregory continued: "For the first time they (the North Vietnamese) stressed they were interested in ending the war and finding a political settlement to the present difficulties."

Gregory said he is not "against the Vietnam war but against all wars. I am a pacifist. I don't agree with wars as a means of settling international differences."

Write-Ins Urged

He said the Peace and Freedom Party has placed his name on the Pennsylvania ballot for November and he hopes for a place on the ballots of West Virginia and New York.

But he emphasized: "I am not a member of the Peace and Freedom Party. I am an independent and I am urging that people write in my name on ballots."

DICK GREGORY

In a talk at Pacific University Wednesday night, Gregory predicted Richard Nixon will be elected president, explaining "Daley did a good job of whupping the Democratic party in Chicago." advocate overthrow of the capitalist system.

He refused to blame "You don't do away with Chicago police for any brutality during the convention. If they (the police) had been told to lay off, they would have laid off. They laid off the Shriners when they come to town and they raise about as much hell. Mayor Richard J. Daley is to blame."

Systems Chance

He predicted 1968 would mark the end of the two-party system, explaining to his audience, "If they (the politicians) dare think they're going to preserve this corrupt system with you young people around, they're in as big trouble as Washington caused the British."

The number one problem "confronting this country is not air pollution," he asserted, "it's moral pollution," getting a laugh.

Gregory said he doesn't change the order of things and put capitalism in its proper perspective — in second place. Nobody gives a damn about human rights — but don't you mess with property rights. But if you're so hung up on property rights, then the Indians ought to be the richest men in the world."

The speaker spent considerable time discussing the plight of American Indians. He said: "I love the way you Oregonians treat your black folks here — all 200 of them. It's the way you treat your Indian brothers that bugs me. Tonight we're 13,000 miles away, fighting for a better way of life for some little country, and look at the way we treat our Indian brothers. Nobody gives a damn about them."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY,
also known as Dick Gregory
RACIAL MATTER

[redacted] advised that Gregory did not have the appearance of being a "violent man" but that his remarks did have the effect of advocating civil disorder. He spoke of the effects of dynamite and spontaneous combustion and said that black soldiers are constantly returning from Vietnam and are trained in the use of explosives. He advocated opposition to the draft and to war. Gregory occasionally used vulgar language with an anti-white content which caused his audience to become hostile and a large number of persons walked out during his performance. Gregory predicted that this country is heading into a dictatorship and further predicted that he, himself, would be elected President in 1972.

In a conversation with [redacted] following his public appearance, Gregory indicated a strong belief in astrology and said that he has an "astrologer on his staff." He said that from the formation of the stars he believes that there will be an enormous disaster for California on September 22, 1968, resulting in large areas of the state sliding into the ocean.

[redacted] said that he felt let down in that Gregory was a man of lesser intelligence and less well informed on current events than he had been led to expect. [redacted] felt this was the general reaction of the Pacific University audience.

[redacted] said further that Gregory indicated he had no further appearances to make in the Portland area and intended to fly to the St. Louis, Missouri, area for a scheduled appearance.

STATEMENT BY DICK GREGORY

CONCERNING MEETING WITH NORTH VIETNAMESE TRUCE TEAM IN PARIS

On September 8, 1968, I arrived in Paris with my wife, Lillian and telephoned the North Vietnamese Embassy. I requested an opportunity to meet with an official of the truce negotiating team in my capacity as a candidate for president of the United States. Inasmuch as I had been denied a foreign policy briefing in spite of my attempts to secure it thru a federal court order, I felt that I had no alternative but to seek the vital information necessary to conduct an intelligent discussion of this most critical issue by meeting directly with a representative of the North Vietnamese government.

On Monday, September 10, at 3:15 P.M. Paris Time, accompanied by my wife, Lillian, I met with three members of the North Vietnamese Truce Negotiating Team at the residence of the representative of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, 8 Avenue le Clerc, Choisey Le Rio. The principle delegate, Mr. Nguyen-Minh-Vy, A Deputy of the National Assembly and his secretary, Mr. Bai and his interpreter, Mr. Yoang spoke with us for 2½ hours. I asked all the questions which most Americans would want answered. At no time did Mr. Vy hesitate to answer my questions candidly and explicitly.

Viewing the war from a neutral perspective in Paris it was possible for me to see the war from another point of view than I had been able to before. That is not to say that it changed the way I feel about the war in general for I am a pacifist and I am opposed not only to the war in Viet Nam but to all wars as a means of settling disagreements between nations. But speaking to the North Vietnamese I saw another side of the picture, a side which most Americans have not been able to see. In the first place I was shocked to learn that in reality there are no peace talks being conducted in Paris. Listening to the President and the Republican and Democratic Candidates, all of whom are always asking us to pray for the success of the Peace Talks, I was naive enough indeed to think there were peace talks going on in Paris.

The North Vietnamese have flatly stated that no peace talks will even begin until the bombing above the demilitarized zone is stopped unconditionally. Our government has known this from the beginning of the first communications with Hanoi and the terms for establishing the negotiations in Paris were a concession by the North Vietnamese predicated upon this prerequisite. The truce teams have met formally now in 20 sessions over a period of 3 months, but at no time has a single step been made toward initiating the negotiations because the American government has not fulfilled the initial requirement of unilaterally ceasing the bombing of North Viet Nam. Recently the American government has begun to ask for some reciprocal action of de-escalation in exchange for a cessation of the bombing. The North Vietnamese consider this a travesty of the initial ground rules. Their facts and figures show that the so-called limitation of the bombing has actually meant an increase of air activity over their nation and they are adamant on this point. There will be no peace talks until the bombing ends. Now if any parent with a son in Viet Nam has been feeling a little more secure in the last 3 months because they felt that at least our government was doing something to try to end the war, it is my sad obligation to inform them that nothing whatsoever is being done.

It is important, I think, for me to convey to the American public the attitude of the North Vietnamese since they are supposed to be our enemy. In the first place, I was assured that the North Vietnamese do not consider the American people to be their enemy. There is a reason for this you must understand that the Vietnamese declared their independence and declared their war of liberation from colonial power 23 years ago in 1904. President Ho Chi Minh is considered to be the George Washington of Viet Nam which used to be French Indo-China, just as the United States used to be a colony, of Great Britain. The Vietnamese were occupied during the Second World War by the Japanese and after their defeat they undertook to declare their independence from France. The Vietnamese defeated the French and yet they do not hate the French as we can see inasmuch as the conversations are taking place in Paris. To the Vietnamese the American soldier is simply a foreigner and the agent of a colonial power which wishes to control the economy and natural resources of their land. They do not blame the American people who they believe are opposed to the war but they blame the government, the military and the industrial powers which hope to profit from conquest and the war itself.

Let me explain to you how this is demonstrated in just one example. I was told that one of the most difficult things to control in North Vietnam is the insurance of safety under the Geneva Convention for prisoners of war to American pilots who are shot down over Vietnamese villages. "You must understand, Mr. Vy said to me, that when a pilot is captured, he does not fall into the hands of disciplined soldiers but he is taken by ordinary people on whom he has only a moment before been dropping bombs. The anger of these people is very great and the only way that we have been able to persuade them not to harm the pilots is because they know of the large amount of young people in the United States who risk imprisonment and brutality in order to protest against such atrocities".

Another very startling impression which I received in Paris which I was unable to imagine from my reading about the war here at home was that in the eyes of the Vietnamese they genuinely believe that every day the war progresses the United States is losing and they are winning. I was not talking to the representative of a government who was desperately seeking to end a war for any reason other than a deep conviction that only peace could resolve a problem. Clearly they consider the continuation of the war a greater problem to us than to them even though it is being fought on their soil. We are counting our victories on a balanced sheet.

of casualties, many of whom are civilians and they are able to calculate the results in territory controlled and the enormous loss of material to us and the cost (between 2 and 3 million dollars) a day upon our economy. I do not think the American people realize that (a) there are no peace talks, (b) there will be no peace talks until we stop the bombing, and (c) there can be no political solution to the war as long as we continue to believe that we are winning or can win a military victory. The facts are that as our investment in the war has increased so has our losses.

I asked Mr. Vy the question which the other political candidates have made an issue: What assurances do we have that if we stop the bombing more American lives will not be lost? He replied the only way to stop the loss of life is to end the war. The only way to end the war is to stop the bombing.

Now I am sure that if this war were being fought by some other country we would be able to see it quite differently than we do or if we were reading about it in a History book, we could be more objective than we are because it is a rather clear picture if you get far enough away from it so that you are not emotionally involved. Here we are a great nation engaged in a military conquest of a country smaller than the state of Florida, 13,000 miles away, dropping more bombs on it already than we did in all of World War II. We got into this by first sending just a small group of advisors who were not even supposed to do any shooting and now we have an army of half a million men shooting and burning and chemically destroying the crops. We have admittedly killed many innocent civilians and we are operating concentration camps in order to control the people we are supposed to be defending. Nevertheless, the Vietnamese know that Americans have a great sense of national honor. Mr. Vy told me that his country was prepared to take this into consideration in the negotiations but that Americans must also realize that the Vietnamese who had been fighting for 23 years for their independence also have a justifiable sense of national pride.

For my part I was convinced after our discussion that the Vietnamese are genuinely eager to settle the political problems of Viet Nam at the conference table now, but that they feel the longer the war continues the more it will be evident to the American people that there can be no military solution and that a public demand will require our government to negotiate a settlement.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Source #1 advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on September 16, 1968 that Richard Claxton Gregory departed Chicago, Illinois via American Airlines Flight 581 at 3:00 p.m. en route to St. Louis, Missouri. This flight was scheduled to arrive at St. Louis, Missouri at 4:13 p.m. on September 16, 1968.

Source #2 advised on September 16, 1968, that upon arriving at the St. Louis Airport on September 16, 1968, Mr. Gregory rented an automobile from the Avis Rent-A-Car Company desk at the airport. This automobile was a four-door Chrysler Newport automobile bearing Missouri license number YE 1259. At the time Gregory rented the automobile he gave his address as 1451 East 55th Street, Apartment 1030, Chicago, Illinois. Source stated that Gregory was scheduled to appear on the Washington University campus in St. Louis, Missouri at 7:00 p.m. on the same date.

Source #3 advised on September 17, 1968 that Richard Gregory had appeared on the Washington University campus at the Field House as a guest speaker on September 16, 1968. His appearance was sponsored by the Freshmen Orientation Organizing Committee. According to the source, Gregory, in his talk, praised the Negroes and student militants as being in the tradition of men who wrote the Declaration of Independence. He stated, "You made LBJ (President Lyndon B. Johnson) step down when the Russian Army with all their guns couldn't have done it." Gregory urged the young people to use their power to change the system. Two of the issues touched upon by him in his talk as of vital concern to the students were the Draft and the Vietnam War. He defined the actions of Negro militants as being in line with Patrick Henry's "Give me liberty or give me death." Gregory stated that the issue today is not black against white but right against wrong.

Gregory To Speak Thursday

Dick Gregory, a Negro comedian and civil rights crusader, will speak on campus this Thursday at 8:15 in the University Auditorium as part of the Associated Students Speakers Board series.

First achieving recognition on the stage and in television, Gregory moved into motion pictures with his debut in 'Sweet Love, Bitter.' More recently Gregory became a best-selling novelist with the publication of his autobiography, 'Nigger.' Doubleday will soon publish his second book, 'Sermons.'

In his personal civil rights crusade, Gregory marched in innumerable demonstrations, languished in jails, and criss-crossed the country delivering speeches in which he uses his humor to dispell hate and bigotry.

Of last year's performance by Gregory on campus, the Daily Wildcat wrote: "This University should insure that more speakers of Gregory's quality are heard on this campus to make sure that even those who are here must learn how to make a living will still have to come to grips with this society, its truths and its lies, its good and its evil."

No admission will be charged for the program.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On September 19, 1968, [redacted] [redacted] UA, advised that Dick Gregory was scheduled to arrive at the Tucson International Airport at 6:30 p.m., that date. He would be met by representatives of the Associated Students of the University of Arizona (ASUA) Speaker's Board and escorted directly to the UA campus where he was to speak at 8 p.m.

b6
b7C

Later on September 19, 1968, [redacted] advised that no violence of demonstrations occurred during Gregory's appearance. Immediately after his speech he was given a reception at the Student Union by the ASUA, and from there he went to the Statler Hilton Motel in Tucson for the night. He told Gregory at the reception that he had reservations for an American Airlines flight at 8:25 a.m., September 20, 1968, to Dallas.

The September 20, 1968, edition of the "Arizona Wildcat" carried the following article concerning Gregory's appearance at the UA the previous evening:

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

To Overcome Obsolete System

Gregory Challenges Youth

By BARBARA SCHULER

Civil rights leader Dick Gregory last night charged youth to get involved and overcome an obsolete American system that shows them no respect.

Speaking to an enthusiastic, overflow crowd in the University Auditorium, the entertainer-turned-civil rights crusader told the audience that the Nov. 5 election would mark 'the last leg of the two party system in America.'

Outside Speech

Gregory, who is on the ballot as a presidential candidate in six states, said that a system that allows 18-year-olds to fight for the country without giving them an opportunity to vote for its leaders, must be destroyed.

The start of the ASUA Speaker's Board-sponsored program was delayed 20 minutes while Gregory mounted a table outside the auditorium to speak to the approximately 200 people not allowed to enter by the campus security force.

Fire Restrictions

Douglas Paxton, chief of campus security, said that the program was in danger of being halted because of fire regulations when almost 100 students rushed through the front doors that were opened to allow Gregory outside to speak.

Paxton said there were at least 200 people admitted to the auditorium that were not University students or faculty members.

Gregory, who spends almost 98 per cent of his time on college campuses, said that youth must understand its own power and not be afraid to ask questions. He cited youth's actions as the prime reason Lyndon Johnson is not seeking re-election this year.

The author of the best-seller "Nigger," Gregory said that youth must create an atmosphere in the country "where America is as afraid of injustice at home as it is of Communism abroad."

Americans, Not Foreigners

A close associate of Dr. Martin Luther King in the 1965 Chicago demonstrations, Gregory said he was glad to see the reaction of the hippies and the hippies in Chicago during the Democratic convention. He said he was glad to see the demonstrations because he "would rather see Americans burn American cities than foreign villages."

Gregory, whose sharp humor came through clearly, said the first thing he would do if he were elected president would be to bring all the boys home from Vietnam and "send LBJ by himself."

He said, "you must put the capitalistic system in its right place—behind the Constitution, not in front of it."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

The September 20, 1968, edition of the "Arizona Daily Star," a newspaper published daily at Tucson, Arizona, carried the following article concerning Gregory's appearance at the UA:

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Gregory Urges 'Youth Power'

Negro Rights Activist Tells UA Students 'To Straighten Out Our Corrupt System'

By JUDY DONOVAN

Civil rights activist and comedian Dick Gregory urged a University of Arizona student audience of nearly 3,000 last night to "straighten up this country's corrupt system — violently, the easy way, or non violently, the harder way."

His expert comic timing and dramatic delivery scatter-gunned topics from Vietnam to draft card burning, from slavery to policemen's pay. Wearing what looked like a jail uniform, he entered the University Auditorium to a standing ovation, after briefly addressing from a tabletop the 200 to 300 students in front of the building who couldn't get seats.

"You have to turn this country around. Understand your power," he told the rapt, packed audience. "LBJ is not running this year because of you youngsters. All the Chinese and Russian Armies couldn't have stopped him, but you made him step down without one bullet fired."

"Leadership today yells law and order to the black folks," he continued, "but that's the same leadership that fails to take away control from the large crime syndicates. And the same man that tells us to be non violent, is the one that owns all the missiles, the Army, the Navy, and tonight is dropping napalm on Vietnam."

The number one problem facing the nation is moral pollution, Gregory shouted. "This nation is the most morally polluted, corrupt, insane nation on this earth. If the two-party system doesn't represent you young folks — old enough to die at 18 but not old enough to vote — then that system must be destroyed," he said.

If Humphrey wins the election, Daley will be the president and that's worse than Wallace because at least Wallace isn't a gangster, he added.

"The police of Chicago should get no more blame for what happened with the hippies and the yuppies at the Democratic convention, than the German Army got for what Hitler did with them," Gregory said. "A cop is America's new nigger — underpaid, with bad working hours. You have to help him stop being America's nigger, the way you helped us. It's the system — the Daleys, the LBJ's, the ones that are bugging the cops and making them take it out on young kids."

On rights: "This country don't give a damn about human rights, just property rights."

On non violence: "If you really believed in non violence, you'd cut loose my red brother from the reservation (you can't be more non violent than he's been for the last 50 years), the Mexicans in the fields, the Puerto Ricans and the Jews."

On the Paris peace talks: "There are no peace talks — stop the bombing for 30 days, sit down at the peace tables and in five hours you'd have a solution."

On heart transplants: "The only heart that's still working is that one in South Africa from a black. Nothing a change of heart won't fix for you white folks!"

"Black and white are not colors anymore — they're attitudes," he asserted. "We resent the words 'law and order' because it's just a new word for nigger. I don't want to destroy the capitalistic system, just beat it into its proper place behind the Constitution and not in front of it."

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On September 20, 1968, [REDACTED]
Operations Office, [REDACTED] Tucson International Airport, advised that Richard Gregory was a passenger on American Airlines flight 138 which departed Tucson at 8:25 a.m. en route to Dallas, Texas.

Date 9/26/681

ROBERT S. PERKINS, Newscaster, Television Station KDKA, Channel 2, Pittsburgh, Pa., advised that he was present at a news conference held by DICK GREGORY at the Pick-Roosevelt Hotel, downtown Pittsburgh, on August 23, 1968, from approximately 10:00 A.M. to 10:45 A.M.

Mr. PERKINS said that approximately 400 feet of film, representing about eight to nine minutes of the news conference, was shot by a KDKA camera man. However, the film has been misplaced and is not presently available for review.

Mr. PERKINS stated that he was present for the entire news conference and at no time did Mr. GREGORY state that he planned to promote or participate in any demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention, although he did mention the probability of disorders at the Convention.

Mr. PERKINS further advised that his recollection of the press conference is extremely slight and he cannot recall verbatim any statements made by Mr. GREGORY.

JAMES W. CRAWFORD, JR., Staff Writer, "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," Pittsburgh, Pa., advised that he was present at a press conference given by DICK GREGORY at the Pick-Roosevelt Hotel, Pittsburgh, on August 23, 1968. He said that the conference was held sometime around noon and lasted for approximately 30 to 40 minutes.

Mr. CRAWFORD said he was present for the entire conference and that Mr. GREGORY's comments were non-inflammatory in nature and at no time did he make an appeal for people to go to Chicago and demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention.

Mr. CRAWFORD furnished one photographic copy of the following article which appeared in the August 24, 1968, edition of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette:"

"Black comedian and presidential candidate DICK GREGORY, who describes his own chances for election this year as 'remote,' had more praise yesterday for ultra-conservative GEORGE WALLACE than either RICHARD NIXON or HUBERT H. HUMPHREY.

"Black people at least know where he stands," GREGORY said at a press conference Downtown. "You can't say that of the Democrats or the Republicans."

"A self-described pacifist, the 35-year-old entertainer appeared here briefly to rally support for the Peace and Freedom Party's presidential drive in Pennsylvania, where he and former New York State Assemblyman MARK LANE are listed on the November ballot.

"In most other states GREGORY is seeking support as a write-in candidate.

"GREGORY said he has renounced his earlier plans to lead a protest demonstration at the "Democratic National Convention in Chicago next week. But he added that he fears 'a lot of awful things are going to happen there.'

"He made only one brief comment on Russia's invasion of Czechoslovakia:

"'I am saddened that my country has to radiate with pride over something bad the Russians did--I wish we could be as non-violent in Vietnam as the Russians have been in Czechoslovakia.'

"Racial violence has not hurt the black man's cause, GREGORY asserted. 'For three hundred years black men have been unable to trust the whites. Now that white folks have gotten as uncomfortable as the blacks, maybe at last we can sit down and talk about things.'"

Mr. CRAWFORD said that the above article reports accurately the essence of the remarks made by Mr. GREGORY in reference to the Democratic National Convention.

S. ALAN BOAL, Newscaster, Television and Radio Station WTAE, Pittsburgh, Pa., advised that he attended a press conference held by DICK GREGORY at the Pick-Roosevelt Hotel, Pittsburgh, on August 23, 1968. He said that the conference was held sometime between 10:00 and 11:00 A.M. and lasted approximately 22 to 25 minutes.

Mr. BOAL stated that Mr. GREGORY's remarks were non-inflammatory in nature and that in reference to the Democratic National Convention, Mr. GREGORY said that he had previously planned to participate in demonstrations but now had no intention of so doing.

Mr. BOAL said that Mr. GREGORY made a statement to the effect that there was a possibility that trouble might occur at the Convention.

Mr. BOAL further advised that a WTAE camera man filmed approximately 10 minutes of the conference, but that he has not had the opportunity to review the film in order to refresh his recollection.

DAVID MURRAY, News Director, Radio and Television Station WTAE, Pittsburgh, Pa., made available for viewing a 16 millimeter color film with sound tract taken by WTAE camera man WILLIAM GOLL at a news conference held by DICK GREGORY at Pittsburgh on August 23, 1968. The film, which is approximately 10 minutes in duration, is comprised of various segments of the news conference.

In the film, Mr. GREGORY states that he had planned to lead demonstrations at the Democratic National Convention, but following the assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., he decided against such a course of action. Mr. GREGORY predicted that "an awful lot of things are going to happen" (in Chicago) and said that he hoped sufficient force was present in Chicago to stop anything from happening from inside (the Convention).

Mr. GREGORY made the statement that more blacks have benefited from riots than have not benefited from them.

The following article appeared in the August 23, 1968, issue of "The Pittsburgh Press," a Pittsburgh daily newspaper:

"LBJ Here To Stay, Negro Comic Says"

"LYNDON B. JOHNSON may be nominated at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago next week, according to Comedian DICK GREGORY, himself a presidential candidate on the Peace and Freedom Party ticket.

"Mr. GREGORY, 35, who now devotes his time to campaigning, said at a press conference here today that President JOHNSON may turn out to be the 'compromise' candidate.

"As for the prospect of demonstrations and disorders during the convention, he said, 'I think a lot of awful things will happen in Chicago.'

"Mr. GREGORY said in most states he will be a write-in candidate and predicted he will get the largest number of write-ins for the nation's highest office.

"In discussing President JOHNSON's record in office, Mr. GREGORY termed the 'Great Society' a flop.

"It has done no good whatsoever. It started out as one of the great human acts in resolving poverty problems, but then it was put in the hands of the politicians,' he said.

"As for improving black-white relations, Mr. GREGORY foresaw no bright future ahead.

"The Negro sees he can get too many gains by being unsmooth,' he concluded;

"He had the following commentary on the Czechoslovakia crisis: 'I am saddened that my country has to radiate in pride because the Russians did something so bad. I wish WE could be as nonviolent in Vietnam as the Russians were in Czechoslovakia.'"

On September 26, 1968, JOHN CARROLL, City Editor, "The Pittsburgh Press," Pittsburgh, advised SA [redacted] that the above article was written by a summer employee, LINDA GOLDSTEIN, of Pittsburgh. He said that Miss GOLDSTEIN is presently a graduate student in the School of Journalism at Boston University, Boston, Mass.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

On August 27, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on the morning of August 23, 1968, Dick Gregory held a press conference at the Pick-Roosevelt Hotel, Pittsburgh, which was attended by approximately 50 people.

According to the source, Gregory stated that he was a statesman and not a politician, and that his candidacy offers an alternative to the two party system. In referring to George Wallace, Gregory said he is the best possible candidate since everyone knows how Wallace thinks.

Gregory said that his campaign is an independent effort and that he has refused to accept five million dollars which has been offered to him because to do so would compromise his independence. He declared that the news media have given him very little coverage because he is a peaceful man and he stated that if he threw a brick or two, he would be on the front page of "Time Magazine."

Source advised that Gregory, in referring to the Czechoslovakian Situation, said that he wished the United States would be as peaceful in Vietnam as the Russians were in Prague. Gregory said he has not been given a briefing by the State Department regarding Czechoslovakia and that he intends to file suit. He said he had written a letter to Secretary General U Thant of the United Nations requesting information regarding the Czechoslovakian Situation and U Thant had replied that no information could be furnished to Gregory inasmuch as he is a Presidential candidate.

Source said that Gregory predicted President Lyndon B. Johnson will again be a Presidential candidate and that his running mate for the Vice Presidency will be Mayor Carl Stokes of Cleveland, Ohio. He said that such a ticket would be a sure winner.

Gregory said that he feels his chances for becoming President are not impossible and that he may be the only candidate left. He said that the situation in Chicago is not good and Mayor Richard J. Daley's attitude toward the yippies and hippies will create a great deal of trouble. In this regard, Gregory said that the blacks will not be the ones to destroy Chicago and that none of his "group" will participate in the demonstrations which have been planned.

In referring to gun control, Gregory stated that if the police shot a white youngster, gun control would probably result immediately and police would not even be allowed to carry night sticks.

Source said that Gregory stated that the riots have helped the Negro cause, but lamented the fact that a negative force has been the only thing to bring about positive reactions. He said that the country is sick and insane, and that one of the first things he will do if he is elected President, will be to eliminate all civil rights legislation because if the Constitution is adhered to, there is no need for such legislation.

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY

Prior to the termination of the conference, Gregory indicated that he was on his way to Philadelphia to attend a rally, but that he planned to return to Pittsburgh sometime before the November elections.

Interview of GREGORY re antiriot matter is being held in obedience at present stage of investigation but will be considered in near future after additional information developed, UACB.

It is noted that in July, 1968, GREGORY said to [redacted] that if the FBI tried to interview him, he would note the agents name and "badge number" and use the attempted interview in his speeches in effort to discredit the FBI, which information was furnished to the Bureau in CG tel 7/25/68, under above RM caption.

In view of the above, Chicago will weigh the possibility of embarrassment to the Bureau against results likely to be achieved by an interview before recommending such interview.

On September 16, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Dick Gregory is scheduled to make an appearance at Carney Hall, on the campus of Kansas State College, at Pittsburg, Kansas, on the night of September 23, 1968. Gregory's appearance is being sponsored by the Kansas State College Student Union Board, headed by [redacted] the [redacted] and the main theme of his address is supposed to deal in the area of "Civil Rights". His appearance time is scheduled for 8:00 PM, and it is expected that he will speak in the neighborhood of two hours. The source stated that he will personally cover Gregory's appearance at Kansas State College on the 16th. b6

On September 23, 1968, the same source advised that Gregory arrived at the Joplin Airport, Joplin, Missouri, on this date at 6:27 PM, on Frontier Airlines Flight # 447, arriving from Kansas City, Missouri. Gregory was met at the airport by [redacted] and [redacted] and was transported to the campus of Kansas State College in Pittsburg in the [redacted] personally owned automobile, a 1968 Plymouth. KANSAS

On September 24, 1968, the same source advised that he personally covered Gregory's address at Kansas State College on the night of September 23, 1968, and the following information is set forth reference Gregory's appearance as furnished by the source:

At 8:00 PM on the night of September 23, 1968, Gregory spoke for approximately two hours before approximately 1,500 people at Carney Hall on the campus of Kansas State College, Pittsburg, Kansas. Gregory's central theme throughout his speech was that of criticizing the "corrupt political system" of the United States of America. He mentioned the fact that he was a write-in candidate for the ~~Pre~~ President of the United States and stated that if he had to choose between Nixon, Humphrey and Wallace, as our next president, he would choose "Tricky Dick" as the lesser of evils.

He stated that Richard Daley, mayor of Chicago, Illinois, is literally a "pawn" for organized crime in Chicago and is no better than a syndicate hoodlum himself. He referred to the Chicago police force as "Mayor Daley's Niggers" and was highly critical of the way the entire situation surrounding the Democratic National Convention in Chicago this year was handled by Daley and his "Niggers". Gregory made the statement that he was sitting in his Chicago apartment watching the "police brutality" going on in the streets of Chicago on television during the Democratic National Convention and that he couldn't stand it any longer and that he just had to go into the street and be a part of it. He referred to all policemen as this generation's "Niggers", based on the fact that he believes the policemen of today are receiving the same treatment Negro people received 30 years ago.

He accused the Kansas Bureau of Investigation of being in the audience tapping his speech for the benefit of the governor to hear what he had to say. He said "tape all you want" because you're not going to get anything. He said the KBI should be trying to obtain tape recordings of the Kansas City mafia and crime syndicate who are lawbreakers rather than himself.

Gregory, speaking of the subject "Racism" made the comment "we're not going to be your nigger anymore". Throughout his entire address he constantly praised the youth of America as the only surviving hope to save our political system and made mention time and time again that "you young people are faced with a big job". He called today's college students "the most morally committed and ethical group of young people the United States has ever produced. He referred to "LBJ" as the "shrewdest" politician ever and that all politics are crooked. He stated that if the Constitution of this country was upheld civil right laws would be unnecessary.

In reference to demonstrations throughout the country, Gregory said that they will begin in full swing in the near future and continue through Thanksgiving and Christmas, and you might even see "Niggers rioting on skis" before it is over. He made no specific reference to any cities or future "troublespots" but merely warned that they were coming.

Mo.
KANSAS

Upon the conclusion of his address, Gregory held a short question and answer session, and was thereafter interviewed by one of the local radio stations. Following this Gregory was the guest of the United Christian Fellowship (UCF) on the campus. Gregory's time and means of departure from Kansas State College is unknown, but it is believed through information furnished by this same source that Gregory was driven to Kansas City, Missouri, by two former Negro students of Kansas State College from the Kansas City area, on the night of September 23, 1968, or early morning of September 24, 1968. These two individuals were probably [redacted] and First name unknown [redacted]

Reurairtel and LHM 9-13-68, captioned "The Resistance, SSA, 1948; Sedition."

Enclosed for Chicago is one copy of reairtel and its LHM. ReLHM sets forth information that Richard Claxton Gregory and [REDACTED] plan to visit the University of Pittsburgh in September or October, 1968, and a large demonstration of support is being planned. For your information, Gregory has been arrested on numerous occasions in connection with his civil rights activities and has vehemently criticized the war in Vietnam, President Johnson, and the white racist structure in his speeches. If you have not already done so, in view of Gregory's past statements and his black extremist activities, you should make plans to afford discreet coverage of his appearance at the University of Pittsburgh. Bear in mind that Gregory could make statements which are in violation of the Antiriot Laws and coverage should therefore include sources who would be in a position to testify. P

Insure that interested local authorities are made aware of Gregory's appearance. Results of your coverage should be submitted by letterhead memorandum to the Bureau and Chicago. REC 44 100-440423-368

Synopsis:

RICHARD CLAXTON GREGORY, also known as Dick Gregory, appeared at Hartnell College, Salinas, Calif., on 4/4/68, and told the audience, according to the "Salinas Californian" newspaper, that he endorsed no backing off from protest demonstrations including his own plans for the Democratic National Convention (DNC). He appeared at Monterey Peninsula College, Monterey, Calif., on 4/6/68, and no mention was known to have been made by GREGORY regarding the DNC. On 4/20/68, GREGORY appeared at the College of San Mateo, San Mateo, California, and told the audience that there was a strong possibility that the International Amphitheater in Chicago would be blown up during the convention and for that reason called off the demonstration because he didn't want black people to be blamed. College of San Mateo student newspaper for 4/26/68, said GREGORY advised against going to the DNC. STEVE BELL, ABC radio reporter, New York City, advised he observed GREGORY leading demonstrators from Grant Park, Chicago, evening of 8/29/68, to 18th Street and Michigan Avenue, where they were confronted by National Guard troops and ordered to proceed no further. GREGORY and several of the demonstrators proceeded further and were arrested without violence. BELL said at no time during evening of 8/29/68 did he hear GREGORY advocate violence.

DETAILS: AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

The "Salinas Californian", a daily newspaper published in Salinas, California, in its issue of April 4, 1968, set forth that DICK GREGORY's appearance at Hartnell College, Salinas, California, was arranged by the College Association for Public Events and Services (CAPES). This information was published under the caption "The Californian Action Desk" in answer to a reader's question and further disclosed that CAPES lists and arranges bookings and lectures and groups for its approximately 70 member junior colleges and state colleges. The newspaper article continued that Hartnell College is a CAPES member and used its services in setting up the Hartnell Presents series under which DICK GREGORY was to appear on April 4, 1968.

SF 176-45

In the April 12, 1968 issue of the same newspaper and the same feature, it was set forth that GREGORY received $770 for his Hartnell appearance.

The "Salinas Californian" for April 5, 1968, contained an article by HELEN MANNING, Californian staff writer, entitled "Gregory pays Tribute to Slain Rights Chief". The article set forth in part the following:

An audience of near 1400 heard DICK GREGORY on April 4, 1968, only hours after MARTIN LUTHER KING was assassinated.

The article said, "Gregory endorsed no backing off from protest demonstrations, including his own plans for the Democratic National Convention in Chicago or King's announced plans for a poor people's march on Washington, D.C."

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] on September 26, 1968:

AT SALINAS, CALIFORNIA

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 9/26/68

HELEN MANNING was interviewed at her place of employment, "The Salinas Californian" newspaper, 123 West Alisal Street. Mrs. MANNING advised that she is employed by this newspaper as a reporter. She acknowledged the fact that she attended a speech given by DICK GREGORY at Hartnell Junior College on April 4, 1968. She advised that she was assigned to report the story, and did so.

MANNING advised that her recollection of the text of DICK GREGORY's speech on that night is limited to the way she wrote the story and as it appeared in "The Salinas Californian". She does not recall GREGORY making any threats, or advocating violence at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago. She pointed out that her story read that GREGORY would not back down on any planned demonstrations at the upcoming national convention; and this, to her, was not any threat of violence, as such.

[redacted] Department, Hartnell College, Salinas, California, on September 26, 1968, advised that he recorded DICK GREGORY's talk at the college on April 4, 1968, further that two tapes of GREGORY's talk were made. One copy was sent to DICK GREGORY and the other is filed in the Audio Visual Section of the Hartnell College library.

AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

The "Monterey Peninsula Herald", a daily newspaper published in Monterey, California, in its issue of April 6, 1968, reported that GREGORY addressed approximately 1,000 persons on April 5, 1968, at the Monterey Peninsula College. The article by writer TOM WIEDER made no mention of any plans that GREGORY had for the Democratic National Convention. The article did announce that GREGORY said that he was passing up his scheduled appearances feeling he should join his wife and six children in Chicago in view of the turbulent situation there (turmoil following the assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING).
